

D1

Tun Tan

PORTRAIT OF A STATESMAN

J. Victor Morais

Summary of Table of Contents

		PAGES
FOREWORD	III
Introduction	V
Chapter 1	HIS FAMOUS ANCESTORS	1
Chapter 2	WITNESS TO AN ERA	8
Chapter 3	EARLY YEARS	10
Chapter 4	WHAT MANNER OF MAN IS SIEW SIN	15
Chapter 5	WARTIME EXPERIENCES	22
Chapter 6	MARRIAGE OF A BUDDHIST IN A CHURCH IN SINGAPORE	25
Chapter 7	A BITTER FOE BECOMES A LOYAL FRIEND	31
Chapter 8	AN INVITATION FROM THE TUNKU	38
Chapter 9	FROM A PLANTER TO CABINET MINISTER	42
Chapter 10	FINANCE MINISTER WITH MANY FIRSTS TO HIS CREDIT	49
Chapter 11	A CRISIS OF CONSCIENCE	60
Chapter 12	ON CHINESE UNITY AND RACIAL POLARISATION	69
Chapter 13	A RARE GESTURE BY GOVERNMENT	76
Chapter 14	UNIVERSITY OF MALAYA HONOURS SIEW SIN	83
Chapter 15	RECOLLECTIONS OF THE EMERGENCY	93
Chapter 16	SPEECHES ON CONTEMPORARY NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL EVENTS	98
Chapter 17	THE LEADERS HE HAS KNOWN	149
Chapter 18	A PRICELESS AND IRREPLACEABLE HERITAGE IS IN JEOPARDY	152
Chapter 19	SIEW SIN CREATES MEDICAL HISTORY	154
Chapter 20	HEAD OF ONE OF ASIA'S BIGGEST BUSINESS ENTERPRISES	157
Chapter 21	THE THOUGHTS OF TUN TAN – WHAT HIS SPEECHES REVEAL	165
Chapter 22	EPILOGUE	236
Bio Data of Tun Tan Siew Sin	240
Index	243

PORTRAIT OF A STATESMAN

Contents

		Page
Foreword	By Y.T.M. Tunku Abdul Rahman Putra Al-Haj	III
INTRODUCTION	By J. Victor Morais	V
Chapter 1	HIS FAMOUS ANCESTORS	1
	— Father A Man of Courage
Chapter 2	WITNESS TO AN ERA	8
	— The Tan Ancestral Home in Malacca
Chapter 3	EARLY YEARS	10
	— In Malacca And His Education In England
Chapter 4	WHAT MANNER OF MAN IS SIEW SIN?	15
	— His Political Philosophy
	— The Crisis He Faced
	— His Tribute To Chettiars
	— A Call to Buddhists
	— Did He Betray The Chinese?
	— The Censure Motion In Federal Council
Chapter 5	WARTIME EXPERIENCES	22
	— Impressions of India.
	— His Recruitment Into Force 136
	— A Time of Re-Discovery Of Himself
Chapter 6	MARRIAGE OF A BUDDHIST IN A CHURCH IN SINGAPORE	25
	— The Mistake He Made After His Wedding
	— He Still Practises Ancestral Worship
	— Wife's Role as "Finance Minister" At Home
Chapter 7	A BITTER FOE BECOMES A LOYAL FRIEND	31
	— He Supported Dato Onn First
	— Then The Birth of The Alliance
	— First K.L. Election Shock
	— The Work Of The Reid Commission
	— The Statement That Reminded Siew Sin Of Hitler
	— When He Lost His Temper
	— The Decisive Factor

Chapter 8	AN INVITATION FROM THE TUNKU	38
	— Two Conditions Before Going To Independence
	— Special Position of The Malays
	— Constitution "A Fair Compromise"
Chapter 9	FROM A PLANTER TO CABINET MINISTER	42
	— His Humble Beginning As "A Mandor" In A Rubber Estate
	— Anti-Malayan Union Movement And The All-Malaya Council of Joint Action
	— Siew Sin, 32, Becomes Federal Councillor
	— First As Minister of Commerce and Industry
Chapter 10	FINANCE MINISTER WITH MANY FIRSTS TO HIS CREDIT	49
	— Incentives For New Industrial Enterprises
	— The Secret Of His Success
	— His Answer to Critics
	— Why Currency Arrangement With Singapore Was Stopped?
	— Some State Governments Get The Blame
	— Incentives For The Private Sector Urged
	— A Stickler For Perfection
Chapter 11	A CRISIS OF CONSCIENCE	60
	— His Role In The M.C.A.
	— Use of Unethical Means By Some Leaders
	— After The Death of Tun Tan Cheng Lock
	— Elected as M.C.A. President Unanimously
	— Not A Dictator And Not A Yes-Man
	— The Dispute With Singapore
	— M.C.A.'s Greatest Achievement
Chapter 12	ON CHINESE UNITY AND RACIAL POLARISATION	69
	— One Party For All Races?
	— "Majority Of Chinese Politically Asleep"
	— Events Before His Resignation From Cabinet
	— Plea By Tun Razak and Tun Ismail
Chapter 13	A RARE GESTURE BY GOVERNMENT	76
	— Farewell Dinner In Parliament House
	— "The Greatest Reward I Can Ask For"

Chapter 14	UNIVERSITY OF MALAYA HONOURS SIEW SIN	83
	– Honorary Degree Of Doctor of Laws
	– Recognition For Services To The Nation
Chapter 15	RECOLLECTIONS OF THE EMERGENCY	93
	– Once He Disagreed With General Templer
	– Grenade Attack on M.C.A. Leaders
	– The Killing Of Sir Henry Gurney
Chapter 16	SPEECHES ON CONTEMPORARY NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL EVENTS	98
	– Separation of Singapore: The Fateful Decision
	– What Malaysia Expects From Her Citizens
	– Commonwealth: A Model of International Understanding
	– Challenges Facing Asia And The United States
	– Economic Aspirations of Malaysia
	– The TAR College: Tribute To Pioneers
	– “Growth of Leading Banks Most Commendable”
	– Information Power In The Post-Industrial Society
	– Inter-Asean Investment By Malaysian Context
	– A First In The History of Sime Darby Group
	– Tun Dr. Ismail Oration – How To Achieve National Unity
Chapter 17	THE LEADERS HE HAS KNOWN	149
Chapter 18	A PRICELESS AND IRREPLACEABLE HERITAGE IS IN JEOPARDY	152
	– Law For Protection Of Wild Animals And Birds
Chapter 19	SIEW SIN CREATES MEDICAL HISTORY	154
	– The 40-Year Secret
Chapter 20	HEAD OF ONE OF ASIA’S BIGGEST BUSINESS ENTERPRISES	157
	– Sime Darby Group Poised For Expansion
	– No Government Interference
	– Sabah Govt. To Build Wisma Sime Darby
	– A Tribute From the Prime Minister
Chapter 21	THE THOUGHTS OF TUN TAN – WHAT HIS SPEECHES REVEAL	165
	– The First Pledge as M.C.A. President
	– The Rule of Consensus In The Government

	- Assurance On National Language Act
	- The Greatest Problem Of The Chinese
	- The Real Threat To Malaysia's Stability
	- M.C.A. Neither Dead Nor Alive? Tan Replies
	- Constitutional Amendments: "Nothing to Fear . . ."
	- Industrialisation: What Government Has Done
	- A Focal Point In Southeast Asia
	- A New Look On Part of World Bank
	- Be Loyal To Malaysia Chinese Are Told
	- "Transform Our Dream Into Reality"
	- Have A Dialogue With The Havenots . . .
	- The Rights And Duties of Citizens
	- Important Contribution By Methodist Church
	- This Can Break Down Racial Barriers . . .
	- Chinese Custom: Irony of Presumption of Marriage
	- What Sun Yat Sen Said About The Chinese
	- What The Alliance Had Achieved
	- The Special Position of The Malays
	- Perception of Financial Management
	- Problems of Management in a Developing Environment
	- Malaysian Investment - The Prospects Ahead
Chapter 22	EPILOGUE	236
	"We Must Either Co-Exist Or This Country Will Disintegrate"
	Bio Data of Tun Tan Siew Sin	240
	INDEX	243

ILLUSTRATIONS

		PAGES
Plate 1	– Tunku Abdul Rahman	6
Plate 2	– The Sage of Malacca	6
Plate 3	– Member of the Federal Legislative Council	7
Plate 4	– Wedding in Singapore	14
Plate 5	– The Tan Family	15
Plate 6	– In a pensive mood	30
Plate 7	– Poses below portrait of his father	31
Plate 8	– Toh Puan Tan shows flower arrangement	38
Plate 9	– Exhibition of personal records of the Late Tun Cheng Lock Tan; Prays at the ancestral tomb in Malacca	39
Plate 10	– Before the Budget Speech in Parliament	54
Plate 11	– In the Thai Temple in Petaling Jaya; A film star calls on Tun Tan	55
Plate 12	– After the election victory in 1969. A Gold Medal from M.I.C.	62
Plate 13	– Welcome at M.C.A. Meeting; A call to the Chinese Community	63
Plate 14	– Guest of the Honorable Mr. Lee Kuan Yew, the Prime Minister of Singapore	78
Plate 15	– The Tunku and Tun Tan in an interview with RTM	79
Plate 16	– Pro-Chancellor of Universiti Kebangsaan	86
Plate 17	– Declares open the faculty of Education in University of Malaya	87
Plate 18	– A rare Gift from China	102
Plate 19	– The meeting of three Statemen	103
Plate 20	– "The Big Four" together in 1971	110
Plate 21	– Enjoying a joke with the Prime Minister, Y.B. Datuk Hussein Onn	111
Plate 22	– Meets World Bank President and The French President	126
Plate 23	– Chinese New Year Celebration; The Tunku greets the Tan Family	127
Plate 24	– The Late Tun Dr. Ismail	142
Plate 25	– With Y.B. Datuk Harris Salleh after the signing of the Wisma Sime Darby Agreement; Tun Hajjah Rahah presents the Razak Foundation Award	160
Plate 26	– Relaxation at shooting and a Safari in Africa, 1974	161
Plate 27	– The Malaysian Government honours Tun Tan on May 1974 and a gift from the Late Tun Abdul Razak, the then Prime Minister of Malaysia	–184
Plate 28	– An audience with His Majesty The King	185