

THE MAKING OF MODERN RUSSIA

LIONEL KOCHAN AND
RICHARD ABRAHAM

NEW EDITION

Contents

Foreword to the Second Edition	9
1 The Rise and Fall of Kiev Rus	11
2 The Mongol Conquest and the Rise of Muscovy	22
3 The Formation of a National State	29
4 Ivan the Terrible and the Birth of Russian Autocracy	41
5 The Time of Troubles	60
6 The Growth of Absolutism: The Early Romanovs	73
7 Expansion and Bureaucracy: The Age of Peter the Great	101
8 The Age of the Nobility	126
9 Liberators and Gendarmes	148
10 Reform and Assassination	180
11 Dress Rehearsal for Revolution	220
12 Forebodings, 1881–1917	256
13 From Revolution to War	264
14 The Collapse of the Tsarist Order	281
15 The Bolsheviks Conquer Power	305
16 New Economic Policy, Nomenklatura and the Rise of Stalin	338
17 The Second Revolution: 1928–33	351
18 The Great Retreat and the Great Terror	375
19 The Revolution and the World	385
20 The War and the Cold War	423
21 Leaders and Dissidents	441
22 Mature Socialism: Promise and Reality	455
23 'The Stronghold Sure'	479
Epilogue: The Eternal Flame	503
Further Reading	513
Index	527

Maps

1	Waterways of Eastern Europe	13
2	Kiev Rus at its Height, and its Chief Enemies	23
3	The Growth of Muscovy, 1300–1584	35
4	Russian Westward and South-Westward Expansion in the Reign of Catherine the Great	139
5	The Russian Empire in 1914	252–3
6	The Soviet Union 1930–50	424–5