

AN ANALYSIS OF SERBIAN PROPAGANDA

Anto Knežević

CONTENTS

Introduction . . . . .	9
WHY IS TUDJMAN'S WILDERNESS UNDER ATTACK? . . . . .	11
The Jasenovac myth . . . . .	22
KAPLAN'S DROP IN THE BUCKET . . . . .	27
Kaplan about World War II victims in Yugoslavia . . . . .	34
Kaplan on the Jasenovac camp . . . . .	38
Kaplan on Tadjman's "anti-Semitism" . . . . .	43
Kaplan and South Slavic cultures . . . . .	45
Ghachem's reply to Kaplan . . . . .	46
The translator's reply to Kaplan . . . . .	47
Kaplan's parry . . . . .	49
THE BELGRADE 'KITCHEN TRANSLATION' . . . . .	53
The quality of the 'kitchen translation' . . . . .	56
KAPLAN'S OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS . . . . .	69
Kaplan's "original" co-thinkers . . . . .	72
PREMISES OF ANTI-CROATIAN PROPAGANDA . . . . .	75
The propaganda horror picture . . . . .	80
The war in Croatia as a religious conflict . . . . .	83
The Vatican and the Croats . . . . .	87
The New York Times about Tadjman . . . . .	88
The Jerusalem Post on Tadjman . . . . .	90
THE KEY FACTORS AGAINST THE INDEPENDENCE OF CROATIA . . . . .	97
The political status quo . . . . .	97

The negative picture of Croatia in the world . . . . .	98
THE RELIGIOUS ROOTS OF THE CONFLICT . . . . .	107
Orthodoxy, Statehood and the Vatican . . . . .	111
Voices of difference within Orthodoxy . . . . .	115
Orthodox anti-Westernism . . . . .	116
The nightmares of Professor Longinović . . . . .	122
A PETROVIĆIAN ACCOUNT OF CROATIA . . . . .	125
Blaming the victim . . . . .	128
World philosophers on the Croats . . . . .	129
FALSE PROPAGANDA . . . . .	135
The Independent State of Croatia against the independence of the Republic of Croatia . . . . .	135
"Enduring" Serbian friends . . . . .	146
World allies of the Croatian fascists . . . . .	149
War crimes in Croatia in 1991 . . . . .	154
The West's attitude towards Croatia . . . . .	157
The Croats as "foreign and anti-Serbian agents" . . . . .	161
The inner limits of propaganda . . . . .	163
THE "BALANCED" APPROACH TO THE WAR IN CROATIA . . . . .	165
The "fair play" of the Chicago Tribune . . . . .	170
The work of propaganda . . . . .	173
The "balanced" approach of World Press Review . . . . .	177
USA Today in "balance" . . . . .	179
The "balance" of the Paris daily Le Monde . . . . .	180
The "balance" of readers' letters . . . . .	183
Time-Shifted Logic . . . . .	186
OLD AND NEW MISTAKES OF THE ANTI-CROATIAN PROPAGANDA . . . . .	191
Justifications of Aggression . . . . .	194
THE TRUTH . . . . .	197

The factual truth . . . . .	199
The mythological truth . . . . .	200
The religious truth . . . . .	201
The ideological truth . . . . .	203
A SERBIAN SCHOLAR'S ANALYSIS OF SERBIAN "NAZISM" AND VIOLENCE . . . . .	209
"Trickery and truth": a metaphor . . . . .	210
The roots of violence . . . . .	213
The Serbian tribal God . . . . .	218
"Serbian Nazism" . . . . .	220
THE PURPOSE OF TUDJMAN'S BOOK . . . . .	223
SEARCHING FOR A WAY OUT . . . . .	231
EPILOGUE . . . . .	235
Index . . . . .	243