

Encyclopaedia Of The Islamic World

The Iraqi Agression

On Kuwait

The Truth... and the Tragedy

1412h - 1992

Contents

Forward:		11
Preface:		13
Chapter One: Kuwait... A Fact		17
	— Kuwait... A Fact	19
First:	Kuwait's Regional and Demographic Linkage with the Arabia	20
	— The Rise of Kuwait	22
	— Migration of the Utub and settling in Kuwait	22
	— The Al-Sabahs: sole leaders of Kuwait — 1766 A.D.	23
	— Kuwait's distinctive entity	24
	— Early Kuwait's Foreign Relations	24
	— Kuwait: A safe Haven for Rebels against ottomans	25
	— The Transfer of the British Agency from Basra to Kuwait	25
	— Kuwait's Balanced Relations with the Neighbouring Power	26
	— Kuwait's Independent Status of the Ottoman State as re-affirmed by Egyptian and British Documents	27
	— Kuwait's Independence in the Reports of European Travellers	29
Second:	— 1913 Agreement and Delimitation of Borders between Kuwait and Basra	33
Third:	— Iraq's Recognition of Kuwait's International Borders	40
Fourth:	— 1961 Crisis and the consolidation of Kuwait's National Independence	43
	— The Motives behind Qasim's Claims	46
	— The Stances of the Arab States and the International Community towards the 1961 crisis	47
	— The Arab League Stance	48
	— The International Stance	49
	— Withdrawal of the Arab Forces	49
	— Kuwait Accepted Member in the UNO	49
Fifth:	— Downfall of Qasim and Iraq's (Second) Recognition of Kuwait independence in 1963	50
	— Development in Border Discussions Till the outbreak of the Iraq-Iran war	51
Chapter Two: The Iraqi Aggression on Kuwait on the second of August 1990		53
	— The Iraqi Aggression on Kuwait on the Second of August 1990
First:	— Preludes of the Aggression	55
	— The Iraqi Accusations to Kuwait	57
	— Kuwaits Refutation of the Iraqi Accusations	58
	— Iraq continues Escalation of the Crisis	60
	— The Response of the Kuwaiti Government	61
	— Failure of Jeddah's Talks

Second:	— The Iraqi Invasion of Kuwait	62
	— The Motives of the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait	64
	— The Iraqi Forces Reach the Kuwaiti-Saudi Borders	65
Third:	— The Stance of the International Community, the Islamic and the Arab World Towards aggression	66
	— The Stance of the International Community	66
	— The Stance of the Arab World	68
	— The Stance of the GCC States	69
	— The Position of the Islamic Conference Organization (ICO)	69
	— The Position of the Islamic Agencies and institutions and their Denunciation of the Aggression	70
	— The Statement of the Dignified Al-Azhar	70
	— The Statement of the Dar Al-If'ta'a of Egypt	72
	— The Document of the International Islamic Conference in Mecca	74
Fourth:	The Iraqi Regime's Acts Contradicting Islamic Principles	76
	— The Surprise attack on Kuwait	76
	— The Iraqi Regime Appoints a Government in Kuwait	76
	— The Attempt to take Foreign Civilians as Human Shields	76
Fifth:	The Stance of Kuwait, both Government and people, from the Aggression	77
Sixth:	The Liberation of Kuwait... Victory of the International Will	80
Chapter Three:	The Iraqi Aggression on Kuwait from the Perspective of the Islamic Shari'a and the International Legitimacy	83
First:	The Iraqi Aggression of Kuwait from the Perspective of Provisions of the Islamic Shari'a	85
Second:	Iraq's withdrawal of its Recognition of Kuwait in light of the Islamic Shari'a	89
	— The constituents of the state of Kuwait	89
	— The Relation of Kuwait as a Distinguished Entity with the Ottoman welayat of Basra	90
	— The Protection Agreement of 1899 and the International Law	91
	— 1913 Agreement Between Britain and Turkey	91
	— The legal value for 1913 Agreement	91
	— The Independence Phase	92
	— The Iraqi Recognition of the state of Kuwait	93
Third:	The Iraqi Allegations of the Re-Distribution of wealth vis-a-vis Islamic Shari'a and International Law	95
Fourth:	The Iraqi Aggression in light of the International principles in Delimitation of Borders	97

Chapter Four: Practices of the Iraqi occupation soldiers in Kuwait	99
— Practices of the Iraqi Occupation Soldiers in Kuwait	101
— The sufferings of the children and the young	103
— Operations of Daily Arrests and Inspection	104
— Torturing Techniques	105
— Violation of Sanctities	107
— Looting and Destroying the Cultural and Scientific Installations	108
— Destruction of Human Environment	109
— Environment and the international law	111
Documents and Pictures	113
Conclusion: The Impacts of the Iraqi Aggression on the Arab and Islamic Worlds.	141
References and Documents	143
Contents	147

