FOREWORD

We seldom come across story books about poverty and poor living conditions in remote villages and the changes thereafter our country achieved independence. We now have better infrastructure and more commerce, industry, etc. throughout Malaysia. OUR WAYS is dedicated to this development.

The narration is in simple language; the story is interesting and able to keep readers wanting to read till the end.

The story is relevant especially to young Malaysians who wish to get a correct and better understanding of our past and the present, and so be more prepared for the challenges ahead. The need to work hard, strive for excellence and to be resilient will enable our youths to lead a better life and drive Malaysia to greater heights.

I recommend this book to our young generation.

Dr Mahathir bin Mohamad
