

From Third World To First

The Singapore Story: 1965-2000

Memoirs of LEE KUAN YEW

Contents

Foreword	8
Preface	11
Acknowledgements	14
Part I. Getting the Basics Right
1. Going It Alone	19
2. Building an Army from Scratch	26
3. Britain Pulls Out	47
4. Surviving Without a Hinterland	66
5. Creating a Financial Centre	89
6. Winning Over the Unions	103
7. A Fair, Not Welfare, Society	116
8. The Communists Self-destruct	131
9. Straddling the Middle Ground	143
10. Nurturing and Attracting Talent	158
11. Many Tongues, One Language	169
12. Keeping the Government Clean	182
13. Greening Singapore	199
14. Managing the Media	212
15. Conductor of an Orchestra	226
Part II. In Search of Space – Regional and International
16. Ups and Downs with Malaysia	257
17. Indonesia: From Foe to Friend	292
18. Building Ties with Thailand, the Philippines and Brunei	329
19. Vietnam, Myanmar and Cambodia: Coming to Terms with the Modern World	347 comprises diverse ethnic groups, political opposition is often considered an assault on the political validity of the state rather than of a particular government.

Foreword by Henry A. Kissinger
Singapore is a case in point. At the time of its independence in 1965, it had neither prospect nor aspiration for nationhood until the

20. Asean – Unpromising Start, Promising Future -----	369
21. East Asia in Crisis 1997-99 -----	384
22. Inside the Commonwealth Club -----	392
23. New Bonds with Britain -----	416
24. Ties with Australia and New Zealand -----	429
25. South Asia's Legends and Leaders -----	449
26. Following Britain into Europe -----	471
27. The Soviet Union – An Empire Implodes -----	489
28. America: The Anti-Communist Anchorman -----	500
29. Strategic Accord with the United States -----	523
30. America's New Agenda -----	541
31. Japan: Asia's First Miracle -----	557
32. Lessons from Japan -----	579
33. Korea: At the Crossroads -----	590
34. Hong Kong's Transition -----	603
35. Taiwan: The Other China -----	620
36. China: The Dragon with a Long Tail -----	635
37. Deng Xiaoping's China -----	660
38. China Beyond Beijing -----	683
39. Tiananmen -----	692
40. China: To Be Rich Is Glorious -----	714
Part III. Winding Up
41. Passing the Baton -----	735
42. My Family -----	747
43. Epilogue -----	756
Index -----	764