

ISA

45 Years

Malaysia

45 Years Under the
Internal Security Act

KOH SWE YONG

Translated by Agnes Khoo

Contents

Preface I - by the "The Other Side of The History" editorial committee	vi
Preface II - by the Author	xi
Preface III - by Yang Pei-Keng	xv
Preface IV - by Ser Choon Ing	xx
Preface V - by Mak Siong	xxiii
Publisher's Notes	xxvi
Chapter 1 The Proposal And The Passage Of The ISA	3
Parliamentary Debate on the Constitutional Amendment	8
Arguments for the Constitutional Amendment	8
Public Reactions and Opinions	14
Chapter 2 Mass Arrests 1960 - 70	22
The pre-ISA Period	22
Repression of the Left-Wing Movement	30
- The early years of independence	31
- 1960-1963 Systematic arrests	35
- 1964-1965 Elimination of Malay leftists during confrontation	42
- 1966-1969 Destruction of the left-wing movement	56
Chapter 3 Mass Arrests 1971 - 81	138
1971 - 1973 The Period of Transition	138
1974 - 1977 The Period of Mopping Up	142
1978 - 1982 The Resurgence of the Islamic Revival Movement	156
Chapter 4 Mahathir's Used Of The ISA	160
1982 - 1987	160
1987 Until Today	163
Chapter 5 Changing Attitudes Towards the ISA	188
Chapter 6 Reactions To The Arrests Under the ISA	195
In The Era of Tunku Abdul Rahman	195
- 1960-1965 Struggle for the human rights day	195
- 1965-1970 May 13 led to the suspension of the Parliament	212
1971 - 1982 The Era of Tun Razak - Hussein Onn	227
The Era of Mahathir [1981 - 2003]	243

Appendix 1	254
Appendix 2	260
Appendix 3	265
Appendix 4	272
Appendix 5	281
Appendix 6	314