

Merdeka!

British Rule
and
The Struggle for Independence
in Malaya 1945-1957

KHONG KIM HOONG

Contents

Acknowledgements

Abbreviations and Glossary

Preface

I HISTORICAL AND POLITICAL BACKGROUND 1

PRE-WAR MALAYA 1

British Rule and Its Constitutional Structure 1

The Effects of British Rule 9

Political Movements 19

JAPANESE RULE IN MALAYSIA 31

The Japanese Occupation 31

The Effects of The Japanese Occupation 38

II BRITISH MILITARY RULE IN MALAYSIA 55

THE BRITISH MILITARY ADMINISTRATION 55

General Objectives and Methods 55

Policies and Record 60

THE BMA AND THE MALAYAN COMMUNIST PARTY 68

The Initial Contact 68

The Period of Confrontation 73

THE MBA AND THE LABOUR MOVEMENT 85

Strikes, Labour Unions and Official Response 85

Conflict and Accommodation 91

Political or "Economic" Unions? 93

III CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS, 1946-1948 108

THE MALAYAN UNION, 1946 108

British Objectives and Methods 108

Reaction to the Malayan Union 116

The British Government's Reaction 136

THE FEDERATION OF MALAYA 1948	144
The Federation Proposals	144
Reaction to the Federation Plan	144
The Struggle Against the Federation Proposals	159
The Reaction of the British Government	175
IV 1948: THE "EMERGENCY"	185
THE COMMUNIST REVOLT	185
Confrontation on the Labour Front	185
Towards Armed Struggle	204
THE BRITISH RESPONSE	223
Indecision and Repression	223
Building the Non-Communist Alternatives	229
V THE ROAD TO INDEPENDENCE	247
POLITICAL REFORMS	247
The "Ministerial" System, Citizenship Changes and the introduction of Elections	247
The Rise of the UMNO-MCA Alliance	256
THE STRUGGLE FOR INDEPENDENCE	260
Post-Elections Politics within the Legislature	260
Post-Elections Politics outside the Legislature	265
The MCP's Strategy and Program	275
The British Government's Reaction	280
After the 1955 Election	286
The Merdeka Constitution and the Transfer of Power	292
VI CONCLUSION	306
SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY	316