

Cultural Identity in Transition

Contemporary Conditions, Practices and Politics of a Global Phenomenon

EDITED BY

Jari Kupiainen Erkki Sevänen
John A. Stotesbury

CONTENTS

Preface v

Introduction: From Modernity and Postmodernity to Globalisation 1
–Erkki Sevänen

PART ONE

THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES 31-92

1. The Study of Cultural Identity: Development and Background of a Multi-Disciplinary Field of Research 33

–Erkki Sevänen

2. The Underestimated Strength of Cultural Identity between Localising and Globalising Tendencies in the European Union 64

–Rien T. Segers

PART TWO

EUROPEANISATION AND GLOBALISATION IN NORTHERN EUROPE 93-138

3. Changing Images of Europe and the Preconditions for Cross-Border Cooperation on the External Borders of the European Union 95

–Ilkka Liikanen

4. Marginality and the Renewal of Independence in Estonia 105

–Rein Veidemann

5. Nation, Glocality, and the Estonian (Baltic)
Literary Discourse at the Turn of the Millennium 125
–Juri Talvet

PART THREE

IDENTITY PROCESSES AMONG EUROPEAN NATIONAL AND ETHNIC MINORITIES 139-204

6. Ethnic Identities in Global and Local Discourses:
Contested Narratives of Sámi Ethnic Heritage 141
–Stein Roar Mathisen
7. Performing Ethnicity Among the Nenets and the Veps Peoples in Russia 158
–Kaija Heikkinen
8. From Local to National and Back: Finnish
Music and the Construction of Minority Identity
in Sweden 171
–Pekka Suutari
9. German Home and Hybridity: Reclaiming New Cultural Identities in Selected German Migrant Narratives from the 1990s 191
–Marja-Leena Hakkarainen

PART FOUR

REPOSITIONING LOCALITY 205-310

10. Local Identity and Historical Memory of Community: The Case of “Communal Apartments” in St. Petersburg 207
–Ilya Utekhin
11. The Erosion of the Local Identity of Cities in Postmodernity: A Study of Two Novels 234
–Mikko Laaksonen

12. The Glocal New Age 260
 –Tuomas Martikainen
13. Flying in the Liminality between Alienation and Identification: Interpreting the Border-crossing of Migrants 285
 –Pirkkoliisa Ahponen

PART FIVE

NEW MEDIA TECHNOLOGY AND CULTURAL IDENTITY 311-362

14. Globalisation: A New Name for Imperialism in the Name of Modernisation and Telecommunications, and its Ramifications for those Involved in Literary Studies 313
 –Matti Savolainen
15. Digiwars: Notes on the Mental and Moral Dimensions of the Digital Revolution 328
 –Pasi Falk
16. Internet, Translocalisation and Cultural Brokerage in the Pacific 344
 –Jari Kupiainen

PART SIX

DEFINING CULTURAL IDENTITY THROUGH LITERATURE 363-442

17. Using and Refusing America: "America" as a Way of Creating Modernity and National Identity: A Case Study of a Finnish-Swedish Detective Novel from 1916 365
 –Kristina Malmio
18. "What Do You Think of Indian Feminism?": The Problematics of Indian Feminisms 383
 –Joel Kuortti

19. Imagining Transnationalism in Bharati Mukherjee's Leave It to Me —Jopi Nyman	399
20. Reiterating a Massacre: Sharpeville and After —John A. Stotesbury	419
21. Afterthoughts: Notes on the Politics of Cultural Identity —Jari Kupiainen	437
Contributors	443

PART SIX

17. Using and Reusing America: A Case Study of Creating Modernity and National Identity: A Case Study of a Finnish-Swedish Detective Novel from 1916 —Kristina Blom	365
18. "What Dostov Think of Indian Feminism?" The Problematics of Indian Feminism —Jari Kupiainen	383