

Human Rights in Southeast Asia Series 1

BREAKING THE SILENCE

Edited by

Azmi SHAROM
Sriprapha PETCHARAMESREE
Yanuar SUMARLAN

One of the main aspirations of the Southeast Asian Human Rights Studies Network (SEAHRN) is to motivate and support scholars, researchers and activists in contributing to the knowledge on human rights, peace and conflict in Southeast Asia. This Series collects and highlights some relevant works coming from this side of the world.

Indeed, there's no question that Southeast Asians can stand up to the challenge of BREAKING THE SILENCE in the name of justice, peace and human rights.

