

SELF-REGULATING CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

RASHIDAH ABDUL RAHMAN
NORMAH OMAR

22

6

Dr Rashidah Abdul Rahman is a professor in corporate governance and financial reporting. She is currently the Deputy Director of the Accounting Research Institute (ARI), Faculty of Accountancy, Universiti Teknologi MARA, Shah Alam, Malaysia. With research interest in corporate governance, waqf governance, intellectual capital, financial reporting, corporate ethics, environmental reporting, and mergers and acquisitions, she has presented and published various articles in these areas. She has also published several research papers in internationally refereed journals. She sits on the Editorial Board of Malaysian Accounting Research Journal and has reviewed articles for both local and international journals. She has been an external examiner for post graduate students both at the local universities and abroad. Among her publications include books titled 'Effective Corporate Governance', and 'Corporate Governance in Malaysia: Theory, Law and Context'. Her books and research work have won several national and international accolades.

Dr Normah Haji Omar is a professor in management accounting and corporate governance. Currently she is the Director of the Accounting Research Institute (ARI), Faculty of Accountancy, Universiti Teknologi MARA. Basically, Dr Normah focuses her research interest in management accounting and corporate governance-related topics. As a proponent of applied research, Dr Normah has conducted a lot of collaborative works with government agencies, professional bodies, regulators, non-government organizations and the private and corporate sectors. In the corporate governance area, Dr Normah has successfully completed various projects which include among others, three research titles that have won many national and international accolades: Corporate Governance Reporting Scores (a collaborative research with MICG, RAM and Biz Aid Technologies), Corporate Governance Scorecard (with MSWG) and CSR-Based Corporate Governance (with MICG).