

B

Let's Save ANTARCTICA!

James N. Barnes

3.72

BAR

Let's Save ANTARCTICA!

James N. Barnes

Photography by Eliot Porter

To Prime Minister
Mahathir Mohamed,
and with best wishes and regards,
I hope that the help of the Malay
people will lead to the protection of this special region.
James Barnes
(1983)

Greenhouse Publications

PUSTAKA PERDANA

1001446

Contents

Introduction

Why is Antarctica under threat?	9
What are some other reasons why Antarctica should be protected?	10
What are the conservationists and environmentalists trying to accomplish?	10
How can I help?	10
Political background on Antarctica?	11

Section 1: Why do we care about Antarctica?

The Continent	12
Southern Ocean	13
Krill	15
Whales	17
Seals	19
Fish and squid	19
Birds	20
Terrestrial vegetation	21
Terrestrial fauna	21

Section 2: Who controls Antarctica?

The Antarctic Treaty	22
Area Expiration
The question of claims
Treatment of Environmental Protection and conservation issues in the Antarctic	24

Contents

Section 3: What is going on in Antarctica?
Introduction	26
The question of oil and minerals	26
Likelihood of oil in Antarctica
Dangers from oil drilling
Role of Scientific Committee on Antarctic Research (SCAR)
Commercial harvest of fish, krill, seals and penguins
Recommendation of Second World Park Conference on National Parks	30
IUCN Resolution of the General Assembly, Christchurch, N.Z., 1981	31
Nairobi Resolution, 1982	31
Section 4: What can you do to save Antarctica?	32
What has been done so far?	33
What should our environmental objectives be during the next few years?	34
Research
Protection of whales
Marine Living Resources Convention
Protection of seals and penguins
Conclusion	36
Appendices	39