

WESTERN TRADE BLOCS

---

GAME, SET OR MATCH FOR
ASIA-PACIFIC AND THE WORLD ECONOMY?

---

---

Centre for International Economics

WESTERN TRADE BLOCS

---

GAME, SET OR MATCH FOR
ASIA-PACIFIC AND THE WORLD ECONOMY?

---

AUTHORS

Andrew Stoeckel, David Pearce and Gary Banks
Centre for International Economics

---

An independent report commissioned by the Confederation of Asia-Pacific Chambers of Commerce and Industry

---

PUSTAKA PERDANA

1001523

---

Contents

---

Summary	ix
1 Introduction	1
2 World trade developments	3
Emergence of a trilateral trading world	3
Trends in protection	7
Extent of non-tariff barriers	12
The Uruguay Round	18
The rise of trade blocs	22
3 EC 1992 single market	27
The political push for integration	27
The economic push for integration	27
What is involved in achieving EC 1992?	30
Economic implications of EC 1992 for Europe	32
Implications of EC 1992 for the world economy	33
Implications of EC 1992 for Europe's external policy	36
Implications of Eastern European reforms	46
4 North American trade bloc	48
Evolution of US protectionism	49
US trade agreements	55
Impact of CANUSTA on external trade policy	58
Will the North American bloc move south?	60
Could the North American bloc move 'East'?	62
The future course of US protectionism	64
5 Interactions between trade blocs	66
6 Toward a better trading world	73
Appendix: Details of the world trade model	79
References	118

CONTENTS

Boxes

2.1	A protection chronology	8
2.2	The forces underlying protectionism	9
2.3	The protectionist's new armoury: whatever happened to tariffs?	10
2.4	Trade liberalisation indexes for the Asia–Pacific region	16
2.5	Who isn't in a trade bloc?	24
3.1	Establishing the EC 1992 single market	30
3.2	The cost of selling in Europe — transport	31
3.3	An analytical tool to assess the implications of trade blocs	34
3.4	Reciglossary	39
3.5	The 'Poitiers effect'	42
3.6	The race for Europe's car market	43
4.1	The 'diminished giant' syndrome	51
4.2	The macro-arithmetic of the US trade deficit	53
4.3	The 301 'unfair trade' laws	56
4.4	Canada – United States Free Trade Agreement	57
5.1	The chicken war	67

Text figures
2.1 Regional groupings used in this study	5
2.2 Trilateral trade flows in 1988	6
2.3 Regional shares of world exports	6
2.4 GATT rounds and the decline in industrialised countries' tariffs	8
2.5 Non-tariff barriers to imports rise in Europe and North America	13
2.6 Effects of rising non-tariff barriers to imports in the United States	13
2.7 Korea's declining use of quantitative restrictions	15
2.8 Indonesia's declining use of import licences	15
2.9 Australasia's declining industry assistance, including non-tariff barriers	17
2.10 Trends in non-tariff barriers in the three regions	18
3.1 EC growth lags behind growth in the United States and Japan	28
3.2 Unemployment worsened in the EC when it fell in the United States	28
3.3 EC growth industries lost export market share	29
3.4 Importance of clothing imports from developing countries in EC clothing consumption	37
3.5 Illustrative example of the possible rise in EC protection after 1992	44
4.1 Importance of Western markets to the Asia-Pacific region in 1988	48
4.2 North America imports mainly manufactures from the Asia-Pacific region	49
4.3 The Asia-Pacific region growing as a source of US imports	54
5.1 Trade policy payoff matrix	69
 Appendix figures
A1 Interpretation of comparative-statics	81
A2 Schematic input-output database for the model	82
A3 Supplies to the rest of the world	84

CONTENTS

Text tables

2.1	World Bank classification of non-tariff measures	11
2.2	The fifteen Uruguay Round negotiating groups	19
3.1	Potential gains in EC economic welfare from EC 1992	32
3.2	Consequences of EC 1992 for EC income in the medium term	33
3.3	Distribution of EC gains from EC 1992, by sector	33
3.4	Simulated effects of EC 1992, by region	35
3.5	Importance of non-tariff barriers to trade in the EC	40
3.6	Import penetration in EC manufacturing sectors	45
3.7	Possible rise in EC manufacturing protection	45
3.8	Simulated repercussions of 'fortress' Europe or EC liberalisation	45
3.9	Simulated effects of expanding the European trade bloc	47
4.1	The non-tariff barrier factor in the United States	50
4.2	Simulated effects of rising protection or liberalisation in North America	60
4.3	Taiwan's major exports to the United States in 1987	63
4.4	Simulated effects of a North America – Japan trade bloc	64
5.1	Simulated effects of North American retaliation against 'fortress' Europe	68
5.2	Possible effects on Japan of developments from EC 1992	70
5.3	Simulated effects of world liberalisation of tariff and non-tariff barriers	70
5.4	Possible effects of the Uruguay Round	70

Appendix tables

A1	Equations of the world trade model	95
A2	Variables of the world trade model	101
A3	Parameters of the world trade model	106
A4	List of typical exogenous variables	114
A5	Parameter settings for the world trade model	116