

FOR A STRONG
AND DEMOCRATIC
UNITED NATIONS

A SOUTH PERSPECTIVE ON UN REFORM

 SOUTH
CENTRE

FOR A STRONG
AND DEMOCRATIC
UNITED NATIONS:

A SOUTH PERSPECTIVE
ON UN REFORM

SOUTH CENTRE

PUSTAKA PERDANA

1004289

Table of Contents

	Page
List of Tables	xii
List of Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction	xv
 PART ONE. THE UNITED NATIONS: THE ISSUES AT STAKE
1. Developing Countries and the Reform of the United Nations	3
2. The United Nations: Facing an Uphill Struggle	9
The United Nations Charter: A Vision and Mission	9
Working Towards a More Equitable World	10
Erosion of the United Nations' Economic Role	12
Markets, Governments and Multilateral Organizations	16
The Increasing Need for Humanitarian Assistance: A Dilemma	18
Financing and Staffing: A Weak Link in the Organization	22
Finance	22
The international civil service	23
3. The Need for Reform	25
The United Nations Under Siege	25
Framework for a Constructive Approach to Reform	27
Recalling fundamental principles	28
The United Nations' global mission	31
Continuity and Change	35
Images	35
Finance	35
Staff	36
Democratizing the international policy-making process	36
Restoring the economics capacity and development mandate	36
Reforming the Bretton Woods institutions	37
Conclusion	37

PART TWO. KEY DIMENSIONS OF UNITED NATIONS REFORM

4. Countering Distorted Images	41
Introduction	41
The Size, Complexity and Cost of the United Nations	43
Size and complexity of the System	44
The 'bureaucracy'	46
The cost of the System	51
Accountability	54
An 'Unreformed and Unreformable Labyrinth'	56
The 'Third World-Dominated' United Nations	57
Leadership and staffing	58
Composition of United Nations organs	60
The 'Third World-dominated' agenda	61
United Nations staff quality and the Third World	62
Conclusion	62
5. Overcoming Financial Insecurity	65
Introduction	65
The Assessment System: Basic Features	67
Three democratic premises	68
General Assembly budget approval	69
Payment of assessments: an obligation in international law	70
Assessment of peace-keeping costs	72
Validity of the assessment system	72
The Assessment System in Practice	73
The problems of financing peace-keeping costs	76
Assessment and financial dependency	78
The treaty obligation in Article 17.2	82
Voluntary Financing	84
Novel Financing Methods	88
International taxation	89
Taxing the incomes or other benefits derived from the global commons or the international system	90
Other sources	91
Intergovernmental control	91

Conclusions and Recommendations	92
Core, regular operating costs	92
Peace-keeping costs	97
Voluntary financing	98
New methods for raising additional financing	100
6. Human Resources: A Pillar of the United Nations	103
Introduction	103
High Requirements of the International Civil Service	106
'Only the best will do'	106
The prime responsibilities of member states	108
The Main Challenges	109
Recruitment	109
Geographical distribution	111
Government pressures on recruitment	113
Staff development	114
Remuneration	116
Staff tenure	117
Executive leadership	118
Conclusions and Recommendations	121
Comprehensive review	121
The Secretaryship-General	122
The international civil service	124
Involving youth in the work of the United Nations	124
Decentralization	125
7. The General Assembly and the Security Council:
Uneasy Partners	127
Introduction	127
The General Assembly Challenged	128
Causes of the marginalization of the General Assembly	128
The General Assembly: the Paramount Organ	138
Democratic governance of the United Nations	138
The Assembly's wider authority	139
Time for Correctives: Recommendations	143
Strengthening the General Assembly	144
Democratizing the Security Council	147

8. Reclaiming the Central Economic Role for the United Nations	151
Introduction	151
The Economic Role of the United Nations:
The Vision and the Reality	152
The United Nations	152
The Bretton Woods institutions	153
The design unfulfilled	155
A distinguished track record threatened	157
The Challenge of the New Global Context	160
Global macro-economic coordination	163
Relationships Between Institutions: Establishing the
Pivotal Role of the United Nations	164
Strengthening and Revitalizing the Economic
Role of the United Nations	166
United Nations General Assembly	166
Economic and Social Council	167
United Nations Conference on Trade and Development	170
Conclusion	173
9. The Bretton Woods Institutions: A Case for Fundamental Reform	175
Introduction	175
The Supply of International Liquidity	178
The creation and distribution of international reserves	178
Special Drawing Rights	179
'Emergency financing mechanism'
to offset capital outflow	179
Restoration of the Compensatory Financing Facility	180
Long-term loans for monetary reconstruction
and stabilization	180
The Supply of Development Finance	181
Financial transfers of the World Bank	182
International Development Association finance	184
Linking Special Drawing Rights and development finance	185
The Multilateral Debt Problem	187

Conditionality	189
The growth of conditionality	189
Monopoly over strategies	191
'Ownership' of programmes	192
Governance	193
Voting structures	194
Changes in senior management	194
Decentralizing the World Bank	195
The Bretton Woods Institutions and the United Nations	196
Conclusion	197

PART THREE. OVERVIEW AND MAIN POLICY CONCLUSIONS

10. Essence of the Debate	201
Current Debate on Reform in Perspective	201
United Nations critics in the North	202
The reformists and the United Nations	206
A North consensus on United Nations reform?	214
Developing countries and reform of the United Nations	215
11. Main Policy Conclusions for United Nations Reform	221
Policy Framework for Recommendations	221
Summary of Main Recommendations	222
United Nations finance	222
United Nations staff	223
The General Assembly	224
The Security Council	225
The economic role of the United Nations	226
Reforming the Bretton Woods institutions	227
The United Nations and humanitarian assistance	227
Improving the United Nations' image	228
Conclusion	229