

Samy's Folly

By Dr. Mahathir Mohamad

Looks like those who want to answer my charges are short of ideas.

All they can say is that I am a racist and I was worse than the present Prime Minister.

Now Dato Seri S. Samy Vellu has joined Karpal Singh and Param Cumaraswamy in calling me racist.

These three characters want the Government to free the Hindraf leaders from detention under the Internal Security Act.

They must know that Hindraf represents Tamil racists who still look to their old masters, the British, to protect them. They don't believe in Malaysian institutions.

And they speak not just of Indians but of Tamils as a separate race. They and their apologists are racist to the core.

Seeing the death and destruction inflicted on Sri Lanka by the Tamil Tigers, they threaten to bring this kind of violent racial politics to Malaysia.

In sympathising with Hindraf, Samy exposes his deep racist sentiments.

He insisted that he was the only leader of the Indians.

He refused to allow other Indian political parties to join the Barisan Nasional. His arrogance was unbearable. The defeat of the Malaysian Indian Congress (MIC) is entirely because of him.

I will follow this with extracts of what Samy Vellu said when I was Prime Minister. You can then judge what kind of Indian the Indians have as their leader.

Yang Berbahagia Tun,

When You were the PM then, Dato Sri Samy supported you 130%. That means if you say 100 words, he will add another 30 words to make your statements look better than what you have said.

When you have retired, As a good old friends you advised him to stepdown to make way for new faces and he told you off " Mind your own business".

During PakLah 's time as a cabinet minister, he quashed off Hindraff for taking to the street. And now (no portfolio) he is a champion of the champions for the hindraf.

Assalamualikum Tun,

It was so funny to Samy Vellu's statement as "Siapalah saya,hanya debu" which retaliated to Tun's above article hehehe... Anyway, since all politicians are instilled with sycophant syndrome,here comes Palanivel as a hatchet man to uphold him...if not do so afraid to be "cantas" by Samy as forthcoming MIC President...maybe?!

Take care of your health,please.

What have Samy done for the indian since he became as MIC presiden? Don't talk about MAIKA HLDG. Just step down and give way to the young and more promising for the better of MIC future.

You are claiming that we should believe the constitution. Let me ask you to see the things happening around you. Please view it apart from those written in the constitution itself.

If you are able to see for your own eyes , perhaps you wont claim Hindraf as racist. None of us are racist here , racism begins when we are not allowed to call ourselves as Malaysians. Don't you think this is the problem nowadays. Where in the world people so called citizen treated differently because of their status. Are we or the government lead by you practising racism then.

Deep inside people of this country are tolerable enough not to indulge themself into extreme solution. For that I must pray to god.

Where your comments are heading too , is it for personal interest or for the benefit of the country. People of Malaysia have been critise by unlawful and unethical politician. It is time we realise the potential leader by their quality and not by their other qualties there have.

dont you agree with this

"Mr. Samy fond of toddy"... that was jingles taught by the British for school children just after Malaysia getting her Independence.

I guess, Mr. Samy said about TDM when he was "high" of toddy. During Tun Dr. Mahathir, all "government toddy shops" were asked to close down by TDM administration and it wasn't that he's (TDM) a racist, but for the better of your people Mr. Samy. Can't you see that very clearly Samy?

Assalamualaikum Tun.

Racism is alive and well here in Malaysia. It's a legacy from the past and I am sure that it will continue to the Last Day.

As long as mankind is consisted of various ethnicities, people will always differentiate and favor their own race , regardless of what they say or claim to profess?

As far as Samy Vellu is concerned, the Malaysian people know how much he hero worshiped you. That is something no one can deny. No matter what anyone says about you, history has everything in record.

One can't pretend that favoritism doesn't take place anywhere in this world.

As for calling you a racist, those who are labeling you as such are no better if not even worse?

I dare say that only after retiring are you being more open and straight to the point.

I understand that while being in office you did not have the luxury to be as open as you are today as when you were our PM?

I for one think that it is good for you to be crystal clear like this. Pull no punches and be true to yourself.

You aren't perfect neither are any other person out there today!

As far as Samy Vellu is concerned, he was being more of an apple polisher to you than championing the average Malaysian Indian out there who are still suffering from neglect by their elected reps in the MIC from way back in the early days of our nation.

Samy Vellu's failure to be fair to his people is the reason why HINDRAF came to be!

There is no mistaking the racist and religious venom that reeks from the early statements issued by Waytha Moorthy and Uthaya Kumar, the HINDRAF founders.

Now, the rest of the Hindraf supporters have morphed into Makkal Sakthi and they are willing to work with PAS.

To me, this is a good development for the early stages of anti Islam sentiments are no longer being propagated by the current Makkal Sakthi leadership.

Samy Vellu can try to deny his mistakes but that doesn't wash away his errors and failure to improve the Indians lot.

The past is just that Tun and neither him or you can do anything to deny what took place in Malaysia.

What we Malaysians would like to see is the removal of the BN from power and the Pakatan Rakyat be given a chance to prove their worth?

If they screw up too, we won't hesitate to look for some others who can do the job.

It would be better if all of us just do what we need to do to make sure that your anointed one, the Imam Hadhari is sent packing a.s.ap.

That's the real deal here.

As for yourself sir, I would just want to wish you to do the best that you can for Muslims here and help us pull the plug on this Hadhari nonsense?

Please do what you can for the sake of this country's future.

Thank you.

Wassalamualaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh.

You still expect TUN to solve Malaysia's problems. He's done more than enough. He has passed the baton and he is also out of UMNO/BN. What he is actually doing is sharing his thoughts and at times self-defence against all the baseless accusations.

The movement has to come from the youth (perhaps including yourself).
