

MALAYSIA'S GENEROSITY
chedet.co.cc
April 29, 2010

1. The Edge Financial Daily, an article by Joseph Chin (The Edge, April 22nd) as well as Brunei Times reported a substantial oil producing offshore area in the South China Sea, namely Block L and Block M, were no longer a part of Malaysia.
2. Malaysians and the Malaysian media did not ask how this came about. It would seem that the loss of a huge oil producing area that had apparently belonged to Malaysia is okay.
3. Block L and Block M had been claimed by Malaysia based on historical facts. Accordingly, Petronas entered into a production sharing contract with Murphy Oil to start drilling to produce oil. It is estimated that the reserves amounted to almost 1 billion barrels.
4. Abdullah Badawi negotiated with the Sultan to get back Limbang in Sarawak. In return he agreed to surrender the two blocks to Brunei. No Petronas representatives were present, only foreign office staff and the foreign affairs adviser to the PM.
5. As we all know Abdullah triumphantly announced that he had settled the Limbang claim with Brunei (here). No mention was made of the two blocks.
6. Brunei disclaimed (here) that they had agreed to give up Limbang. The foreign office and Abdullah did not rebut Brunei's statement.
7. Now it is made clear that the two blocks are no longer a part of Malaysia.
8. Abdullah has caused Malaysia to lose at least US100 billion dollars (about RM320 billion) of Malaysia's oil in this agreement.
9. Can Wisma Putra please explain why it did not stop Abdullah.

Dear Tun,

I salute you for being so courageous and blatant to expose such sensitive issue. Pak Lah has denied it. For me, what you exposed here is believable even though it sounds preposterous simply because Pak Lah has proven to be of such personality. Firstly, Pak Lah doubled patrol price and toll two months before General election and increased subsidy and salary two months after election. This is a truly insane political strategy. The kampong people call it politik pak pandir. Menang sorak kampong tergadai.

Look at his Cabinet after the election. He brought in Zaid Ibrahim to compensate Salleh Abas in order to embarrass Tun. He was manipulated by the opposition. You picked him to be your deputy because he was truly a loyal and nice person as compared to Najib. Najib's loyalty to you was uncertain and you could not take the risk. You value loyalty. You still stand by Ibrahim Ali because he stood by you when Anwar Ibrahim challenged you. You, Anwar Ibrahim and Ibrahim Ali are all brave and blatant people.

Assalamu'alaikum Tun

Satu lagi kejadian yang menyiat hati (bukan menyayat hati lagi) rakyat Malaysia yang dilakukan oleh PM ke5 Malaysia.

Setuju dengan semua pendapat2 yang mahukan AAB dihadapkan kemuka keadilan, samada dengan penubuhan Royal Commission of Inquiry mahu pun diselidikki oleh SPRM. AAB mesti bertanggungjawab diatas kejadian ini.

Jika didapati bersalah, pengurniaan "Tun" kepadanya pun patut ditarik balik kerana ia dilihat sebagai pengkhianat negara.

Terima kasih & wassalam

Sampaikan salam saya buat seisi keluarga TDM. Moga Allah swt limpahi rahmat keatas TDM serta keluarga.

Dear Tun,

After reading your post, I have been wondering, what had happened to our country? Currently, I'm feel kind of angry and sad that our country have faces with a lot of problem like as different political view, crime, and etc.

and now we are losing our oil producing offshore? what should we do and what can we do? especially, we are not an outsiders. We are Malaysian. I'm repeat, we are Malaysian. It doesn't matter if our skin either black or white. It doesn't matter if we are Malays, Indian, Chinese or other races. It doesn't matter if we are Muslim, Buddha, Hindu, Christian, or etc. but still "kita berpijak di bumi yang sama".

Salam Tun,

Dan Salam juga kepada semua pengampu dan pembodeknya. Kalau ke Brunei pun takpe lah, saudara Islam juga. Kalau dapat ke Malaysia pun, habis dikapur ahli politik semua. Rakyat tak dapat apa pun. Lagipun, Sultan Brunei banyak sangat dah bantu Malaysia. KLCC, KLIA, dan kebanyakan projek2 mega semasa Tun dulu, Sultan Brunei juga menolong selesaikan Masalah, bukan kah betul. Lagipun Tun, anak beranaknya dan konco konco nya kesemua nya dah kaya raya. Kalau tak salah saya lah, multi-multi-multi millionaire dah masing masing. Nak kacau, porak perandakan serta melagakan kaum Melayu buat apa lagi. Sekali sekala, biar lah kaum Melayu ni 'exercise' sikit pemikiran mereka sendiri. Ini asyik Tun saja yang memberi buah fikiran yang tidak relevan.

It's really blunder for you and your Cabinet during your tenure as a PM agreed to let Badawi to run his administration freely. I am sorry to say that... Maaf Tun. We can count it.. respectable person who called himself a "Nice Guy" spending billions of ringgit during his shortest term, killing off Crook Bridge project etc...etc... what's more keeping his old episode hiding in the dark. He should not deserve a title given as "Tun" anyway. 'Malu lah! Macam2 dia jual' 'Sudah jual takpe... kene kencing pulak tu!'

Salam Tun,

Saya masih ingat tahun di bawah pemerintahan Tun di mana kuasa raja dan sultan dihadkan kerana tidak mahu sejarah berulang (dimana sultan dan raja yang gila kuasa menyebabkan berlaku penjajahan di negeri negeri Melayu sekitar tahun 1800an dahulu). Ini kerana mungkin tidak mahu seseorang yg mempunyai 'absolute power' menggadaikan negara. Rentetan nya, maka jadilah Perdana Menteri seorang yang lebih berkuasa dari sultan.

Kita sangkakan ini kan mampu menjaga kedaulatan negara, ternyata tidak kira siapa sahaja yang diberi 'absolute power' tak kira bangsa apa, keturunan dan darjat apa, ianya akan masih membawa mala petaka sekiranya orang yang diberi kuasa itu tiada mempunyai ilmu-ilmu yang diperlukan untuk mentadbir negara, tidak ikhlas dalam mentadbir dan akhirnya pandangan dan niat telah dikaburi nafsu. Sesungguhnya kira benar lah kes ini, ini memang satu pengkhianatan kepada seluruh rakyat malaysia.

Salam YAB dan diKasihi Tun,

1. Tun AAB memang suka menggadai apa-apa yang kita ada semata-mata untuk menyenangkan hati bangsa asing. Beliau contoh Melayu yang tidak boleh berfikir secara logik, tidak berwawasan & lemah. Semua perkara beliau ambil mudah, dan bersikap "tidak apa."

Salam buat Yang Berbahagia Tun,

Pastinya Tun tahu duduk sebenar perkara membabitkan Limbang dan seangkatannya. Tun juga tahu banyak lagi perkara yang amat menggemparkan jika khalayak tahu tentang perkara ini.

Dikhabarkan sampai sekarang, kita masih membayar sejumlah wang sebagai bayaran pajakan untuk perkara tertentu (tanah) kepada pihak tertentu semenjak zaman mat salih lagi. Isu ini amat rumit kerana melibatkan banyak pihak.

Entahlah.. Perlukah kita berbalik kepada rekod sejarah..? Insya Allah perkara ini mungkin boleh diselesaikan dalam waktu terdekat.. Tunggu dan lihatlah..

donplaypuks, your allegations have a strong scent of Pakatan. It is NOT Tun, but YOU who has to substantiate all your allegations.

You need to provide evidence for your claims before you ask others to explain themselves. Your allegations are similar to Bush's claims that Saddam prove he has no WMD; as you can see, this logic is nonsensical.

Over to you.

By rivermanAuthor Profile Page on May 1, 2010 10:17 PM

Dear Tun and all,

We are talking about our previous PM. He has since left after leading the country several years. A leader made decisions but PM made crucial decisions. Time will tell whether the decision was good or not. But once a decision is made, and of course through consensus from the cabinet, we must all support it, whatever the outcome it is. If there is no consensus from the cabinet, the decision shall not be deemed valid.

Pak Lah had discussed it with the cabinet and decided to do it that way - he should not be penalised. PM is not expected to make correct decision all the time, sufficient enough if most of the time.

TDM have also made some bad decisions but he was ok most of the time.

I believe it is the same for PM Najib.

Pak Lah has served his time, we were not bad but in fact better than many countries. We should be thankful to Pak Lah for taking over from TDM and then pass the baton gracefully to PM Najib.

There is continuity, there is balance and there is hope.

To TDM, let us be more forgiving and look at the future.

The future is where Malaysia lies, looking back could be painful...

Unfortunately this father happens to be a hypocrite and selfish, and I believe it's my right to highlight this...

so, if you will both be kind enough to not interrupt my questions to Tun M, and stop festering in your gullibility and hatred, I bade you both a good weekend.

Tun,

Itu lah yang akan dihadapi oleh negara Malaysia, saya tak hairan apa yang Pak Lah lakukan untuk negara kita. Apa rakyat negara kita ini boleh buat ??? Pasal yang tak layak di letak di atas puncak kekuasaan semata-mata dia orang melayu, bukan ker tu memalukan orang melayu sendiri ????

Cuma lihat apa yang berlaku di America, bekas keturunan hamba abadi pun boleh dipilih menjadi Presiden mereka tetapi kita di sini kuat kutuk mereka. Apa gunanya kalau semata-mata nak melayu saja jadi PM tetapi negara tergadai, apa salahnya kalau bukan melayu dijadikan PM ???

Bukan seseorang yang dipilih jadi PM itu akan dapat kuasa itu selama-lamanya, kalau yang bukan melayu itu dipilih jadi PM tetapi tak adil, tak bijak atau tak berjiwa rakyat kita turun kan dia pada pilihanraya akan datang. Kalau yang dipilih jadi PM itu melayu yang bijaksana, dapat membangunkan negara kita maka kita sokong dialah seperti Tun dapat perintah Malaysia selama 22 tahun sehingga Tun sendiri bercadang letak jawatan. Kalau Tun masih mahu jadi PM, saya sebagai kaum Cina pun tetap akan sokong Tun.

Negara kita perlukan pemimpin yang betul-betul berkebolehan dan bukan kerana warna kulit semata-mata. Saya tak kisah kalau orang melayu yang betul-betul lebih bijak dari saya, saya sanggup panggil dia tuan saya tanpa mereka menuntut hak itu bahawa melayu adalah ketuanan di Malaysia. Apa gunanya nak sangat jadi tuan tetapi ketinggalan di belakang di semua bidang.

Jangan kita pergi jauh, cuma lihat di negara jiran kita : Singapura ", negara yang serba kekurangan dalam semua bidang termasuk hasil bumi tetapi negara mereka hari ini digelar " Negara Maju ". Bukan ker itu amat memalukan kalau ditanya orang luar, mana perginya kebijaksanaan pemimpin kita sehingga negara Malaysia yang kaya dengan hasil bumi pun kalah di belakang negara yang kerdil dan serba kekurangan.

Saya ada ramai kawan melayu dari Singapura, iaitu rakyat Singapura. Mereka pernah berkata kepada saya bahawa mereka adalah Melayu Singapura, tak sama dengan melayu Malaysia yang jauh ketinggalan. Ramai di antara mereka yang datang berniaga di Malaysia dan apabila mereka menyewa bangunan di sinimereka akan membayar sewa bulanan setahun sekali(sekali gus 12 bulan terlebih dahulu)dan kata mereka kita hanya akan jumpa tahun depan untuk kutipan sewa yang seterusnya. Bagi saya Melayu Singapura adalah bangsa yang betul-betul maju dan setaraf dengan bangsa lain dalam bidang perniagaan dan mereka tak bersungut pun tentang layanan oleh kerajaan Singapura.

Sedarlah orang Melayu bahawa negara kita dapat capai kemerdekaan adalah kerana kaum-kaum lain sama-sama bersetuju duduk semeja berbincang untuk kebaikan negara, kalau tanpa kerjasama dari kaum bukan bumiputra ada ker anda fikir British akan setuju beri kemerdekaan kepada kita ????

Renungkan setika

Sekalin Terima Kasih

Dear Tun

You are always bullying Abdullah Badawi. He is not your match. Why do you not pick someone your size like Singapore's Lee Kwan Yew. Challenge him to a debate to be telecast live on all tv channels. LKY had screwed you real good and proper many times in debates in the past. Maybe this is your chance to redeem yourself.

Malaysia has lost nothing in this deal with Brunei. The oil resources there is finite. In 40 years there is nothing left to exploit. The 2 countries might as well exploit the resources now jointly for the good of both. Without this agreement, there will only be a stalemate.

To ekompute,

Please take your lousy propaganda somewhere else. The British do not want you that is why you are here in Malaysia. And because the Malays took you in that is why you are not back in the country you came from. You also do not want to go back to your home country, India or China, because you know that Malaysia is a lot better than the country you came from. Otherwise you are there already and we have one less ungrateful immigrant.

Yes, the Malays also like PAS to govern Malaysia. But when they do, we want only Muslims in the government not anyone else. All benefits and privileges must go to Muslims only.

[[What gives Tun the right to demand explanations while keeping silent on those dubious decisions he made while PM that cost the Rakyat hundreds of billions of $, blocked legal action against his Cabinet Ministers and croneys, and many others their personal freedom without the right to defend themselves in court?]]

Tun did not need the explanation. We do. Tun have his own mechanism of check and balance. And he had tried very hard in containing and mending whatever needed to be done for Malaysia.

This is a damage control measure's.

You claimed on dubious decisions on Tun part. Which one? Do you realizes that we have OSA? Official Secret Act ? This is a protective mechanism same as ISA. Everybody might disagree but if you care..check the Quarantine Act. It is similar and precisely apt.

Quarantine Act. 2005, c. 20. Q-1.1. [Assented to May 13th, 2005]. An Act to prevent the introduction and spread of communicable diseases.

Tun had always acted in the best interest of Malaysia. If you don't have the documentation to begin with, please acquire them first before accusing Tun any similarity regarding "dubious decision".

[[Don't forget that Tun is still the Advisor to Petronas, as well as Proton, and when major cock-ups like this and others like the MV Augusta debacle occur, he always keeps silent on how it escaped his attention when it actually happened. Do remember that Hassan Merican and Tengku Mahaleel were appointed CEO's by Tun and served under him for years. Yet Tun claims he is unaware of what happened!!!]] dpp don't you remember what Tun said about him being the advisor?

Quote.. "I was not consulted upon any essential matter"..to that effect.

Tun is mere human. Don't expect the world from him. This all have affected him much. He is retired you know. Why hogged him anymore??

Regarding ?Tun? Dolla..he will be accounted for. Don't worry. But the question is why don't you start's the digging dpp?

To ravi aka Rarunasalam. See clearly what your devoted Tun Dolla had done us. Have you ever find any regret, remorse or any conscientious demonstration on his part?

A reporter asked him about the aftermath result of PRU 12.

"Dato Seri. Adakah keputusan ini menunjukkan rakyat menunjukkan undi tidak percaya pada Dato' Seri?"

Jawab your beloved Tun Dolla.. "Undi tak percaya apa? Kita menang la dan membentuk kerajaan dengan majoriti mudah".

There you have it. The man definition of "winning" is different from majority of us.

And Tun Dolla still believes he is winning.

Take stock and ponder.

Ribuan terima kasih Tun.

Salam Tun, its me again writing after having read AAB's explanation in The Star.

Question is how can AAB said that Malaysia and Brunei will jointly develop oil and gas in the area when sovereignty already affirmed in favour of Brunei?...What a contradiction in terms. In fact, that's not joint development, that is Malaysia working as slave/contractor under Brunei's sovereignty. And how much is the stake given to Malaysia from the so-called misleading term of "jointly develop"?

Further, we all know that the dispute actually extends even beyond the Blocks L & M area, so what happened to the areas north of that blocks...have they too been given away?...I'm sure there are much more petroleum reserves overall...so we're not just talking about RM320 billion here aren't we?...

Dear Tun,

If it is already too late, then why cry over a spilt milk? If it is not, then just ask the government to find a way to get it back (peacefully)! There must be a way out there, just find it!

To get to the root of the problem, to prevent this in the future:

We MUST have a good system in place. A system which allows INDEPENDENT scrutiny among the highest institutions of power in the country, plus something else (a good and free press?).

Without this, the country is very vulnerable to mistakes made by a few individuals.

I am just curious why this did not take place during your premiership. You have missed a great opportunity!

Everyone makes mistakes. Some mistakes can be made, but not all. If a barber makes a mistake, it becomes a new style. If a cook accidentally makes a mistake, it might turn out to be a new dish. What happen when a leader of a country makes a mistake? It can be devastating. In this case, the mistake made was so damaging to the economic of Malaysia. Did he alone make that decision? or was it been made together with a team of his advisors. If it is with a team of advisors, that it seriously requires some looking into. Have to be careful while making plans for the country.

Been generous is good but also not to this extend.

Wishes Malaysia a more properous year.

Cheers

Latest comment from Petronas read:

"Petronas has been invited by the government of Brunei to enter into an agreement to develop the two blocks of oil rich areas in the South China Sea on a commercial arrangement basis."

As you can see, it is Brunei that invited Petronas to develop the 2 blocks of oil rich areas. Malaysia has NO say on the matter!

"Petronas confirms that following the exchange of letters, the production sharing contracts covering Blocks L and M, which were awarded in 2003 to Petronas Carigali Sdn Bhd and Murphy Sabah Oil Co Ltd were formally terminated on April 7 this year as these are no longer part of Malaysia."

Blocks L and M are redesignated as Blocks CA1 and CA2.

The facts are that:

1. Malaysia no longer has any sovereignty over the 2 areas.
2. Malaysian oil companies can only participate in jointly developing the areas for 40 years (with Brunei's permission).
3. Limbang remains a disputed area with Brunei exercising a lot of leverage.

Abdullah can not blame the decision on the Malaysian cabinet because he himself was the PM. Simply by blaming others for his failures shows his weakness and lack of foresight and resolve.

I stand by my opinion that Abdullah should be tried for treachery in losing parts of land and sea areas belonging to Malaysia.

Salam,

Terima kasih Tun kerana memaklumkan kepada rakyat. Kalau tidak sampai bila2 pun kami tak tahu apa yang telah berlaku.

Apa Kerajaan Dato Najib perlu lakukan?**

InsyaAllah negara akan terus aman dan makmur sekiranya kerajaan mengamalkan "corrective dan preventive actions" secara berterusan dalam segala masalah pentadbiran yang berlaku.

Pentadbiran Dato Najib mesti lihat semula terma perjanjian dengan Brunei ini. Kalau ada apa2 kesilapan kena betulkan, kesannya buruk sangat kepada BN untuk pilihanraya2 akan datang. Kalau ada kecuaiannya pegawai2 kerajaan di pihak Kementerian, depa perlu dikenakan tindakan tatatertib ikut kaedah JPA. Jika berlaku rasuah tak kira siapa termasuk ahli politik, bawa kes ke SPRM.

Seterusnya, kerajaan kena bincang semula dengan kerajaan Brunei "cara2" dapat balik kerugian tersebut. Kerajaan kena latih ramai pakar2 perunding peringkat anatarbangsa yang boleh menguntungkan negara.

Jika kerajaan memilih berdiam diri, hilanglah lah keyakinan rakyat kepada kerajaan. Kita rakyat Malaysia nak lihat kerajaan Dato Najib suatu kerajaan yang Bersih, Cekap dan Amanah.

PRK Sibul**

Mengenai PRK di Sibul, kemungkinan besar BN akan mengekalkan kerusi kerana Cina Sarawak (dan Sabah) majoritinya berbeza cara pemikiran dengan Cina Semenanjung. Pemimpin2 Pusat BN boleh lah pi bantu kempen, tapi yang "si kenit2" tu tolong duduk diam2 kecuali diminta bantuan. Biarlah BN Sarawak uruskan cara depa kerana depa lebih mahir dengan orang tempatan Sarawak, jangan pula "si kenit2" BN dari Semenanjung nak tunjuk handal kat sana.

Petronas clarifies on the two oil-rich blocks

KUALA LUMPUR: Petronas has been invited by the government of Brunei to enter into an agreement to develop the two blocks of oil rich areas in the South China Sea on a commercial arrangement basis.

In a statement here on Saturday, the national oil company said it had since set up a team that had begun negotiations with Brunei to work out the terms of this commercial arrangement.

"Both parties are committed to arriving at a mutually beneficial arrangement as soon as possible," it said.

Petronas said it also wished to clarify reports on the offshore exploration areas designated as Blocks L and M following the execution of the Exchange of Letters between Malaysia and Brunei on March 16, 2009.

"This exchange was a culmination of a long-standing issue between the two countries to arrive at a mutually beneficial arrangement, which allowed Petronas to enter into new production sharing contracts for both blocks.

"Petronas confirms that following the exchange of letters, the production sharing contracts covering Blocks L and M, which were awarded in 2003 to Petronas Carigali Sdn Bhd and Murphy Sabah Oil Co Ltd were formally terminated on April 7 this year as these are no longer part of Malaysia.

"Blocks L and M are redesignated as Blocks CA1 and CA2 respectively," it said.

The controversy over the two blocks have arisen after former Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad had in a blog posting asked why the two blocks no longer belonged to Malaysia.

Dr Mahathir said the two blocks had been claimed by Malaysia based on historical facts.

In response, former Prime Minister Tun Abdullah Ahmad Badawi had refuted claims that he signed away Malaysia's rights over the two blocks.

Abdullah had said that he signed the agreement after the Malaysian Cabinet approved the deal on Feb 11, (why year not stated here??) which stated that while sovereign rights over these two areas belonged to Brunei, it also allowed Malaysia to participate in jointly developing the areas for 40 years.

Comment:

AAB and Cabinet approved the deal on Feb 11, 2007?

If he and his cabinet approved the deal on this date, then we know why petrol price was increased tremendously in June 2007.

There may be another petrol price increment according to the Minister of Domestic Trade in the coming future, since the oil fields belong to Brunei, and not Malaysia. Who benefits from this deal? No wonder some of the GLCs required to be privatised by PM Najib....

To mgpunya,

..ends to rise capitalism due to human intelligent which has nothing to do with skin colour and race, live with it and it's going to be permanent.....

Take care Ayahanda Tun.

Just forgive & forget, God please put an end to this cold war between these 2 Tun.

Concentrate on malays unity and it should be started between (you) Tun & (he) Tun.

God bless you great leaders.

Salam Tun.

To: rarunasalam, donplaypuks,.....others alike

Tun has openly made public his accusations of terrible wrongdoings by ex-PM 'no quality' Pak Dol, PKR adviser 'the liar & slanderer' Anwar, and the 'kurang _jar'(KJ) kid. None of them has issued denial or 'see you in court' statements.

Anwar replied through his 'I can fool them all of the time' followers (which include you) by spreading 101 slanders. Pak Dol and KJ both decided acting to be mute is the best solution.

Knowing saudara Anwar's & the KJ kid's aspiration to be PM, any wrongdoing/s that Tun M has done will become public knowledge, without any of you slob/morons having to keep repeating your sweeping accusations, in Tun M's own blog! Tun still allowed your negative accusations/slanders of him to appear in his own website because he wanted the other readers to know your & other PKR supporters' stupidity levels. Stop making fool of yourself.

Dearest Tun,
ASM

We are indeed very generous to give our right to Brunei. I think this is what we are. Historically, we allow Portuguese to invade us, then the Dutchmen, later Englishmen. We even gave out citizenship to most of the immigrants prior to our independence. Creating wealth and opportunity for our neighboring countries to work here.

We have a noble hearts...

With Allah grace surely, we are HIS true servants. And I'm confident the lost of RM320 bil will be compensated by other means.

Dear Tun Dr. Mahathir,

1) Tolong Tengok-tengok kan ISSUE AMBALAT. Wisma putra belum tentu boleh harap.

2) Hello! Kepada laksamana-laksamana laut NAVY tu, tolong ronda ronda sikit. Ambalat ke? Blok ini ke? Middle Rocks ke? Teluk siam ke? Berlakon la buat accident sikit baru masuk paper? Nak tunggu menteri arahkan pun, belum tentu menteri tu boleh harap. Harap laksamana-laksamana tu boleh terima arahan ni. Jangan tak dengar pula. Kalau Navy tak ronda, nanti nak claim pun tak de record? Ingat Issue layang-layang tu dulu, kalau Paskal tak berkampung di hujan panas, layang-layang tu dah melayang. Now layang-layang pun ada resort padi standard sipadan.

3) Actually adatak cara nak batalkan signature ABB (LoE) yang smart tu. May be using high court, supreme court???? Apa Court takut nak sebut nama "Tun" ke?

4) ABB kata "Negara tak rugi pun"--Utusan online

5) tapi Brunei kata "nak gali cepat", brunei takut rugi la tu.

6) Nowadays, when I look in tu Pak Lah picture, Rambut tun ABB nampak macam jambul AYAM je (Terbayang la, bolehkan) tengok belakang tun ABB macam ada ekor sikit (terbayang lagi), Cuba tuan-tuan check, ada tanduk tak??????

Zukliflee, kamu berkata: "tanpa kerakyatan,orang-orang ini akan lebih sedar diri,tahu asal-usul dan tidak biadap.tapi kerana Tunku memberi mereka kerakyatan,orang-orang seperti ravi,s.tan dan ekompute jadi lupa diri dan merasa diri mereka setaraf dgn kita di bumi kita sendiri,malah terlebih-lebih pulak.hinggakan mengutuk Tun yg kami banggakan dgn nada keras.orang-orang ini adalah angkara Tunku dan Badawi.jangan lupa bahwa dgn atau tanpa Tunku,Nusantara seluruh nya akan tetap merdeka"

Jadi, mengapa memberikan kerakyatan sewaktu itu jika tidak jujur? Lebih baik kerajaan British terpaksa memberikan kami kerakyatan British daripada kami terpaksa menjadi rakyat kelas kedua di sini. Ingat negara ini mengisytiharkan diri sebagai negara Islam, maka kerajaan akan mengamalkan keadilan, tetapi nampaknya lebih teruk! Biarlah negara ini dikuasai oleh PAS, saya lebih suka!

2) Nasi sudah jadi bubur. ABB forget USA & Britain make WAR in IRAQ because of OIL. ABB just bagi like that ke? I think, he already CRAZY. Malaysia lost like that without fighting????? Malaysia Generosity.

3) ABB said "Cabinet already agree?"

4) Please let us know which minister / parliment members yang agree with ABB. Next election, I hope all people do not vote this person anymore. They are also CRAZY like ABB. They MUST resign. We must replace them before too late or they make another CRAZY decision.

5) Again Malaysia Generosity, Do i have to pay in come tax? Give our basic utility, education etc FREE la.

Sedikit info limbang...

Penduduk Limbang di sempadan Brunei-Sarawak telah melakukan pemberontakan terhadap kerajaan Brunei sejak 1884. Pemberontakan ini berpunca daripada kezaliman pembesar-pembesar Brunei yang memerintah daerah tersebut. Pada Mac 1890, ketua penduduk-penduduk di Limbang telah mengibarkan bendera kerajaan Sarawak untuk mendapatkan perlindungan. Pada Mac 1890, Charles Brooke telah mengambil daerah Limbang untuk membantu para penduduk yang tertindas. Tindakan tersebut mendapat kebenaran pemerintah Kesultanan Brunei iaitu Sultan Hashim.

<http://lepaksejarah.blogspot.com/2009/11/kuliah-1-sejarah-9402-tg-6rk14-2009.html>

Bukan sesuatu keputusan besar yg melibat sempadan negara kena dibincangkan diparlimen... Tun ini telah merugikan aset negara.. kerana secara terang-terangan Limbang merupakan hak Malaysia.. melalui sejarah, pembinaan bangunan dan hak-hak yang berkaitan..

ini telah merugikan banyak pihak...

I WONDER WHY THE CABINET DID NOT ASK THE A-G OFFICE TO VET THE AGREEMENT BEFORE ALLOWING "THE SMART AAB" TO SIGN IT.

I AM A BIT DISTURBED BY THE EMPHASIS ON "ON COMMERCIAL BASIS". IF I AM THE ADVISOR TO THE BRUNEI GOVERNMENT, I WILL ADVISE THEM TO START DEVELOPING THE ARE ON THE 41ST YEAR AFTER THE DATE OF THE AGREEMENT, ON THE GROUND THAT BEFORE THE 41ST YEAR, IT WAS NOT ECONOMICALLY VIABLE TO DEVELOP THE AREA. ISN'T THAT A VALID "COMMERCIAL BASIS"?

I ALSO WONDER WHY THE SMART AAB DID NOT MENTION ABOUT BLOCK L & M WHEN HE ANNOUNCED HIS ACHIEVEMENT REGARDING LIMBANG.

Tun,

You must understand, he must sell something before his retirement. Otherwise, how is his reserve going to provide for him and since he could not manage to sell sand to Singapore, he had to sell the oil block to Brunei Sultan. That was a safer bet because the Brunei Sultan is rich and the deal could be done in a more hush-hush manner and there was a big likelihood that if he could pull off the deal quietly, he could even be pronounced a hero under the pretext of solving a long standing dispute with a neighbouring country. Give him a break, Tun. The man was just trying to make a living.

Tun,

Thanks for bringing this to our attention. The loss to Malaysia is really shocking to say the least. I have no doubt that the block of oil reserve was lost to Brunei Sultan in one of Abdullah's many bad bets in the game golf. It is also not very dissimilar to his administration frequent pronouncements of the so called "win-win" situation for both Malaysia and other countries like the one he so proudly pronounced when Malaysia lost the Pulau Putih to Singapore.

Salam YAB Tun,

Orang yang mempersendakan agamanya sendiri ternyata tidak akan selamat. Datuknya dulu memang mengkaji hingga keisi tetapi beliau hanya setakat kulit sahaja dah mula memperkenalkan konsep Islam Hadari untuk tujuan politik.

Keinginan untuk mengenal siapa Al Shafie dan Al Ghazali cuma hanya lakonan sekadar bak penyair jalanan murahan dan masih belum kesampaian dan mungkin tidak akan tertunai.

Yang sedihnya agama yang mulia turut di palitkan dan terconteng arang kerana amalannya yang nyata tiada kena mengena dengan suruhan agama itu sendiri.

Apa jenis orang yang jika berjanji tidak ditepati, bila bercakap dia berbohong dan bila diamanahkan sesuatu menjadi pengkhianat.

Manusia seperti ini haruslah bertaubat dan melakukan islah atau pembaikan hanya itu sahaja jalan untuk kembali ke arah jalan yang betul dan lurus.

Semoga kita semua mengambil iktibar dan pengajaran bagi memperbaiki diri kita dan sentiasa melakukan segala yang disuruhNya dan menjauhkan diri daripada segala laranganNya.

Wassalam.

Assalamu'alaikum Tun,

dei!..you are very rude to Tun.before you comment anything further,go find a mirror first,look into it and understand who and where you are.for your knowledge,we are not happy Tunku grant your ancestors our citizenship but we respect Tunku's decision and keep our mouth shut.that's the way we south-east Asian,Nusantara,people respect our leaders.if you cannot behave like a southeast-Asiian,like us,..get out.go.Go away to your ancestral land.

or if you want to stay,learn some manners.but stil,i personally prefer you and those economic immigrants brought as British kuli to just go away.i cant stand ill-mannered people like you.

Tun,saya rasa bukan saja Abdullah Badawi perlu diheret ke muka pengadilan,malah Almarhum Tunku pun harus dipertanggungjawabkan atas pemberian kerakyatan kpd orang-orang asing yg kini cuba mempersoalkan kedudukan kita.memang kita tak akan biadap terhadap pemimpin kita telah tiada,tapi kesilapan nya amat besar untuk dibiarkan.kita boleh hidup dgn aman kalau Tunku tidak memberi kerakyatan kpd najis-najis peninggalan British ini.

tanpa kerakyatan,orang-orang ini akan lebih sedar diri,tahu asal-usul dan tidak biadap.tapi kerana Tunku memberi mereka kerakyatan,orang-orang seperti ravi,s.tan dan ekompute jadi lupa diri dan merasa diri mereka setaraf dgn kita di bumi kita sendiri,malah terlebih-lebih pulak.hinggakan mengutuk Tun yg kami banggakan dgn nada keras.orang-orang ini adalah angkara Tunku dan Badawi.jangan lupa bahwa dgn atau tanpa Tunku,Nusantara seluruh nya akan tetap merdeka.jadi sudah tiba masa nya kita mempersoalkan kebijaksanaan Tunku dan menghukum kebodohan Badawi dan membataskan kuasa Perdana Menteri jgn sampai membuat keputusan atau perjanjian yg merugikan Agama, Bangsa dan Negara.

Bangsa ini masih amat sangat memerlukan Tun. semoga Allah Subhanaullahu Ta'ala merahmati Tun dgn umur yg panjang dan dipelihara kesihatan Tun untuk terus membuka mata bangsa kita untuk melihat dan menyedari bencana yg sedang menimpa kita dan mengajar kita cara untuk mengelak nya.

terimakasih Tun.

AAB has doen it again. First he sold MV Augusta for a mere 1 Euro and now he gave up oil rich wells Malaysia already owned to Brunei for a piece of useless Limbang land and yet he has the audacity to say Malaysia does not loose. I think he needs to get his minute brain checked. He has no cow sense at all. Unless, he is using Limbang as a cover to benefit billions paid to him by Brunei for this conspicuously raw deal for Malaysia. It is very irresponsible of a head of the Malaysian government to betray the Malaysian people this way. The Agong must interfere in this matter and help initiate the Royal Commission of Inquiry to get AAB responsible for this crime against the Malaysian people. AAB is a pathetic LOSER and must be charged for high treason.

By zaki_77Author Profile Page on April 30, 2010 11:03 PM

Murphy Oil recently ceased ops in the said sectors after stating that they were not part of Malaysia. This was because Brunei are not granting rights to any company that wants to explore oil on behalf of Malaysia. Why does Badawi say that the ops will be jointly worked out between the 2 countries when clearly Brunei thinks that Malaysia has no right!

Another example of Badawi's sleep-walking premiership. He sleep-walked Malaysia into losing Pulau Batu Puteh. He sleep-walked Malaysia into the kind of "reforms" that opened a can of worms within civil society and creating unstable race-relations. He sleep-walked Malaysia into losing lucrative rights to oil-rich sectors. He sleep-walked Malaysia into one nightmare after another.

Badawi proves the cliché that being a good person does NOT make you a good leader.

Salam YAB dan diKasihi Tun,

1. Tun AAB memang suka menggadai apa-apa yang kita ada semata-mata untuk menyenangkan hati bangsa asing. Beliau contoh Melayu yang tidak boleh berfikir secara logik, tidak berwawasan & lemah. Semua perkara beliau ambil mudah, dan bersikap "tidak apa."
2. Beliau juga amat suka memenuhi segala tuntutan pihak pembangkang semasa jadi PM sehingga maruah bangsa Melayu tergadai/tercalar/hancur. Sebab itu beliau sangat disayangi oleh pembangkang.
3. Tun AAB memang layak diberi gelaran "PENGKHIANAT NEGARA" (sama taraf dengan DSAI).
4. Namun kita BERNASIB BAIK sebab beliau tidak sempat untuk MENGGADAI MALAYSIA. Mujur Tun sempat menghalang beliau dari terus-menerus menggadai harta dan maruah negara.

Terima kasih Tun!

Dear Tun,

In China, those who sell their country will get a bullet through their heads. In Malaysia, it is okay and considered a common practice for greedy politicians because they know very well that they can get away easily with their ill-found wealth. My advice to all Malaysians, you have two choices. If you hate the present government who allows this to happen, then leave. Or if you choose to remain silent, then stay and allow Allah to decide on their fate in their next world....'hell' I believe.

Take care Tun.

YABhg Tun,

On a different note, I'd like to comment on the shooting of the 15 years old boy.

A few years ago, a boy driving a mini bus rammed at the back of my wife's car at full speed. The impact was so bad that the Insurance Company declared her car as a total loss. Inside the car was my wife and 3 small children. That they all escaped with only some cuts and bruises were a miracle, thank God.

The boy did not have a license. The authorities only slap him with some fines and compound. Am I mad that the Police didn't do much more than just that??? YOU BET I AM!!! My family could have been all killed by this stupid kid!! The boy and his family didn't even have the courtesy to call or meet us to apologise after the incident.

My wife still has nightmares and is still scared to drive.

I still believe parents who let their children drive without license should be held responsible and sadly to say, this is a case in point.

Salams Tun DrM...

Wah.. Berapi menyatakan hal politik dan salah laku pemimpin2 kita..

Itulah yang dinamakan pemimpin...

Bila dah ada kuasa tu salah guna pula.. Hehehehe...

Itu la pasai.. Kena ada Fatonah.. iaitu Kebijaksanaan..

Banyak yang mengaku bijak tapi hakikatnya tidak..

Sebab mereka lupa yang peroleh kebijaksanaan tu pun sebenarnya Insan..

suatu Ehsan dari Yang Maha..

Org2 ni sebenarnya tak pandai kerana kebijaksanaan tu pun Anugerah..

Nak tahu macam mana nak dapat Fatonah sebenar.?

1. Kena lah Sidiq..
2. Kena lah Amanah..
3. Kena lah ber Tabligh..

baru dapat Fatonah sebenar.

Tanyalah diri.. Banyak mana Sidiq, Amanah, Tabligh yang ANDA lakukan setiap hari.. Kalo tak tau kena tanya Guru..

Saya ni amat bimbang dengan keadaan sekarang yang menghalalkan yang haram.. Sesat lagi menyesatkan.. Nauzubillah..

Pemimpin ni tak kira siapa kalo takdak sifat2 ni habis lah bangsa.. Habis la negara.. Lalai dengan Dunia.. Agama terbuang sahaja.

Akhirat nanti mcmana.? Ishk.. ishk.. ishk..

BN dah kuasa 50 thn lebihh.. Ingat2 depa tak lupa ka.? heheheh...

Yang sekarang ni pun sama jaa.. tak kira BN mahupun PR..

Semua mudah lupa.. sampai dah tak ingat benda Baik dan Buruk.. Pahala dan Dosa..

MAKA... terjadilah macam2 keruntuhan moral dan jenayah..

siapa mangsa..? Orang2 susah yang susah lagi susah..

Sebab pemimpin kira nak Kaya.. sentiasa ada Kuasa dan tak mau mengaku Salah.. A Good person will say his is sorry.. but A Better person will admit to his mistakes...

Pemimpin senang dengan alaun dan kelebihan2 nya..Jual negara.. Eskot sana eskot sini.. Ada depa btui2 rasa perit anak bangsa dok cari makan sekarang nih.?

Wayar Putiuh..

Salams Jumaat buat Tun DrM yang tercinta.. I tak brapa suka gov la.. makin menjadi nak berkuasa.. Win at all cost.. heheh.. rakyat menderita.. Ni nak tanya federal budget takda ka buat state PR.? Ingat... PR state buat semua pakai duit sendiri yang depa cari.. Manakala federal gov belanja tu duit kutipan dari semua negeri noo... Malang.. kutip semua tapi bagi ikut rasa sedap depa sahaja..

Ini kira oppression of the new order.. hahahah..

Semoga Tun DrM berada dalam keadaan sihat, gembira dan sejahtera.

This is what happens when too much power is vested in a single person, without checks and balances. Also, our culture of not wanting to question the leadership for fear of being sidelined, has shown it's ugly head again. There is too much self interest and very little consideration for the interests of the masses.

I believe Tun should be able to shed some lights on this to all your readers.

Thanks.

Salam Tun,

My question here is not Wisma Putra but was the Attorney General ever consulted?

Why was it done in a rush over the weekend?

To give away or demarcate boundaries, the PM must consult Parliament then under the Federation Agreement (agreement that Sabah & Sarawak as well as Singapore sign to join the Federation and name as Malaysia) with Sabah & Sarawak, PM must ask them to consult the Legislative Assembly of each State. The Legislative Assemblies of each State must then take a vote as Sabah & Sarawak are sovereign States. Just like joining Malaysia then, a referendum was made and the people had a say as to whether they would like to join Malaysia. It not enough to merely inform the Chief Minister of both States.

If Sabah & Sarawak agrees, then it must be brought to the Duli Yang Maha Mulis Raja-raja Melayu. There must be royal consent to the demarcation of the new boundaries. Just like the Agong signing for the Federal Government and the Sultan of Selangor signing the new boundaries and territory of Putrajaya, it is for the Raja-raja Melayu to agree before anything can be formalies. The Majlis Raja-raja MUST agree BEFORE the signing of the Agreement with Brunei.

The danger here is, should the process not done constitutionally, then under the Federation Agreement, can Sabah & Sarawak pull out from Malaysia?

Why was Pak Lah in a hurry to sign the Agreement, when clearly and legally, he has NO powers to do so.

Salam Tun,

Thank you for letting us know. That is a lot of loss. That wealth if channeled wisely could generate more wealth. That is how ridiculous his action was. This is only an example of a lot more wasteful decision he made. It is my personal opinion that making decisions that will boost the economy by the current government may at least make the people think " we can now put the past behind" because " we are now prospering with the current government". Of course, the citizens will want to enjoy the benefit as evidence. Ideally, the citizens will want to enjoy the benefits for quite some time before the election. Which will give the message that it was not a part of the political campaign to win the next election. I hope the government have a solid and good plan. Not just a "maybe" or "guessing" plan.

"dpp, as I remember, you're a laughable stock everywhere in blogosphere due to your incapability to digest issue by issue. As usual, you'll just comment out of topic."Malaymind.

Bro,

What you "remember" like Tun's famous selective memory, is born of your own bias and prejudice. Blogosphere is full of people like you who, when they can't logically counter someone's views or arguments against their pet subjects, hypotheses or hero, will label you a racist, laughing stock, malay hater and the like.

My question to you is simple.

If AAB and his premiership should be taken to task for incidents like this Brunei oil contract cancellation (and I agree he should be), why should Tun also not be held accountable for the things I listed out below and much more.

What gives Tun the right to demand explanations while keeping silent on those dubious decisions he made while PM that cost the Rakyat hundreds of billions of $, blocked legal action against his Cabinet Ministers and croneys, and many others their personal freedom without the right to defend themselves in court?

Don't forget that Tun is still the Advisor to Petronas, as well as Proton, and when major cock-ups like this and others like the MV Augusta debacle occur, he always keeps silent on how it escaped his attention when it actually happened. Do remember that Hassan Merican and Tengku Mahaleel were appointed CEO's by Tun and served under him for years. Yet Tun claims he is unaware of what happened!!

How can one continue to be Advisor to Petronas and Proton for so many years and yet not be held accountable when humongous blunders take place in these GLC's??

As for my position on vernacular schools, if you have been following my comments in jebatmustdie and elsewhere, you should know I am in total favour of a single school system, provided some basic guarantees are given on teaching of English, mother tongues, male: female teacher ratios etc. Does that sound like someone who fits the convenient label of indulges in laughing stock behaviour or one who makes frivolous comments?

Dear Tun,

Firstly, let me congratulate you on this expose Tun. Scoop of the Year would be an understatement. Every editor in this country (and in Singapore because they don't like us and in Brunei because they must love us) would have gladly lose his/her job for this story!

The Malay Mail got Kit Siang this morning and predictably he has called for a Royal Commission to investigate how the blocs had vanished. No, he didn't thank you for the expose. And that's the other thing - if you had not exposed this and someone in the new Petronas president's office were to leak the info out, there would be a major PR crisis for the PM. Or, rather, "another" PR crisis but one of proportions that nobody has seen before!

The timing of the expose, finally, is just perfect. If this had come out last week, BN would have lost Hulu Selangor for sure. Now we'll only have to expect losing Sib. Which means that, in the end, we'll still blame you for something!

Assalamualaikum Ayahnda Tun & Bonda,

please allow me,

i believe many people will blame Tun again for appointing the sleepyhead AAB. many people failed to see the real picture behind the appointment. if only they could read the confession made by Allahyarham TSMegat Junid, then they'd know the truth. it was not Tun's decision at first to appoint him but if only we knew how ignorant this person could be...that's history...

since Tun has brought up this matter, i really hope some resposible parties or bodies can explain to us how could this be allowed? we definitely cannot hope for AAB to explain since he could have been sleeping through the meeting & signed the MOU with his eyes closed. what a victory!?? much of a successor with a heart & mind of his own! has he got a heart & mind, eh dei?

someone accused Tun of dictatorial leadership governing. i say, it's good since we could live harmoniously & many many people loved the way Tun handled things those days. i cannot find any dictator in history who stepped down & passed the baton to his successor like Tun did. unfortunately, this so-called a person with his own heart & mind now once again proved to be so senseless...

Bersih, Cekap, Amanah is never a rhetoric! many heeded Tun's call to work efficiently by Tun's examples - the name tag, punch card,office planner etc, etc but as usual there were many stubborn government servants compared to the honest, apt & trustworthy workers - in fact many workers in private sectors heeded the call, too. should we blame Tun for promoting the campaign? should we blame Tun for instilling malaysians with good moral values? now, must we blame Tun if people failed to heed his calls? even when with own parents, children fail to listen to them, what can we hope for from people who worked during Tun's, especially those who hated/hate him still & some people now never bothered to respect Tun even in Tun's blog?

there is also an accusation that Tun failed to make malaysia a true competitor and leader in this region. why blame Tun when people never heeded his call to change their mindset? too many were too engrossed in backstabbing, selfrewarding & becoming very materialistic with all the opportunities in front of them. well, do other countries have really achieved that as well? please bear in mind that if the malaysian people have no interest in moving ahead, never want to get out of their norms, never want to be united, just look at the many types of school this country has....

a true identity of multiracial country can only be achieved if one is ready to assimilate, integrate & adapt all the main national entities, main language & culture. can one really sacrifice his/her own selfish principles? will people sacrifice for once, their vernacular schools, to reduce or better to eliminate differences and opt for 1school for all? it's practised in almost all democratic countries in the world. why cant we?

one can accuse Tun of many things but when touching the bail out, this someone forgot that Tun didnt only bailout his sons & cronies COMPANIES but also MANY OTHER COMPANIES indirectly during recession to back up our country (do some survey, please...your own company where you worked/work might have gotten the help, too). many people sacrificed their assets to help Tun revive our country. dont forget even the women turned in their golds, jewelleries to back up Tun's pledge. me, a government servant deducted about rm14 monthly from my salary to help, too. no sweat. we survived. did this someone do the same then?

Tun's sons have all the rights to be ministers or ceo's or anything they would like to become because they have the capabilities, qualifications & most of all, the supports from the grassroots. please check the nominations for pemuda election back then. but the result was dissappointed because of dirty tactics by AAB's SIL...every mat & minah in umno knows. even the SIL & his greedy-butt-followers know till today their illegal activities. they can take the truth with them to the grave...

Tun many a time said that he failed to change the malays to be better in many ways. i bet he has also failed to change the backward mindset of others since they never change from the current state to a desired future state, to become malaysians in a true sense...but who is Tun to chew more than he could? is there anyone in the world who can change people in total? dont be too naive, dei!!!

before Tun left the government, the 11th GE saw a very excellent victory for BN. 12th GE led by AAB was a disaster! was it Tun's fault??? is it fair to blame Tun for AAB's ignorance & actions? so much for a man with own heart & mind! poodah!!!...

it is a good change now and it's getting better since DS Najib took over....we can go to work everyday, no one suffers from hunger like in many other third world countries, we can go for holiday once in a while, we can meet friends & relatives freely, we can entertain ourselves anytime we like, karaoke our lungs out every night if we may want...dont you do some of these activities as well? or you cant because you have all the grudge towards Tun...

we can enjoy life any time as long as we abide the laws. only the fools who go against the laws are not free to deserve all these...till they are ready to embrace the rules, keep out of trouble, they should stay behind the bars..

please use your senses before accusing, blaming others, like you accused Tun. check yourself first!!! what have you done for this country as its citizen? have you ever done something really good for your family? your old parents? your friends? the needy? the old folks? your community? your alma matter? your state? if you cannot even lift a finger to help Tun resolve anything except blaming him all the way, just dont babble here. punching the keys on the keyboard is easy but to uphold the truth of what you believe is not that easy...walk your talk first. move your butt from the chair & put yourself in the pioneer line for some good deeds. no point complaining when nothing comes from you. bah!! go & play somewhere....

dearest Tun,

i saw you on tv this morning & felt very excited when you replied to the reporters that the other races must also separate themselves from the extremists if they want umno to stay away from perkasa...how ironic!!! we are all racists, after all. but i love my chinese & indian friends who can accept our differences in a healthy manner - chua, ashok, kang, ma, kumanan, yap, tan, choong, love you guys...we had a feast of pulut durian at the canteen yesterday & really enjoyed our time together. whether you want to take it or not, it's up to you.

...Malaysia is always here!!!

May Allah The AlMighty bless you both Ayahnda Tun & Bonda and all of us ever...after. May all the visitors have nice days ahead....

Wassalam.

Dear Dess,

It does not matter whether YB Nizar is a half Chinese, half Indian, half minangkabau or whatsoever, he represents PAS and was elected as MB in Perak. However, due to the 3 katak2 lompat, he was dragged down and BN took over the post. The Perak fiasco will serve as a political lesson not only to Chinese, but to all of us that local 'ahli2 politik' from parti2 politik cannot be 100% trustworthy.

Projects that are run by government cannot guarantee 100% profit because those who are appointed in the Cabinet are not because they are experienced and capable, they are selected by their own cicle of delegates from the political race base parties whom may not have the know how in running huge projects. The projects that seem to be fair and worthy are those run by Dr

Mahathir Mohamad. Nevertheless, thank you for your information. This financial tsunami will make race base parties politically and economically weaker because they asked for it!!!

Take care Ayahanda Tun.

Our PM wants to raise the income level of Malaysians.

The Country has just lost USD 100 Billion due to AAB stupidity.

If each Malaysian gets USD 1 Million each from the money that we've just lost, there is still plenty left for the Country. That will make us a rich nation! Think about it...

By fzalAuthor Profile Page on April 30, 2010 4:28 AM just a hypothetical situation:

USD100billion.. thats a lot of money...

lets say brunei gets USD 80 billion.. it will left another USD20billion to be shared between who ever is involved.

No matter how greedy someone is, im sure USD100 million per person is sufficient as a "gift" to those involved in transaction such as this (for me, USD1million is more than good enough). so $USD 20,000,000,000 / USD 100,000,000 = 200$ people. knowing that the Malaysian government is a bit lacking in terms of transparency, 200 people (which is a lot of people) can definitely participate in the cover up, if they want to.

The above is only hypothetical. Just to show how easy it is for someone to put greed over the interest of the country. I'm not surprised such transaction did take place. The big question is, if we can get a piece of the cake, would we? National interest or self greed?

As for the termination of PSC by Petronas, if only i can know what are the terms contained in the PSC. it would be good if I can just take a peek at the PSC itself.. oh wait, most likely i can't because its just P&C.. its not meant for a normal Malaysian citizen.. the closest I can ever get is the explanation from officials and not the actual text in the PSC. apa boleh buat...

I just want to know: Who gets the pieces of the cake?

By truthseekerAuthor Profile Page on April 30, 2010 2:59 AM

Salam to Tun and fellow bloggers,

1. Knowing dollah, nothin is for free...he highlighted bout Limbang just for cover-ups. Just like why malaysia had to sell ducati for 1 euro..then somebody made the money..likewise, issue brought forward was limbang, but somebody is making the money again. Just to distract several people.

2. when I came across news about robberies, some how or rather i remember daylight robberies by PM. ministers, their next of kins etc...but the robberies where done right under our noses on the pretext of government policies, innovative ideas, compensations, etc

3. If someone wants to run this country i.e face all the challenges with well-equipped tools (attitudes, knowledge, skills)like what you have demonstrated Tun, then that's what we will achieve. But on the contrary, when a PM just wants power, money, satisfaction...that's what he will get, like dollah and his goons.

Salam Tun.

I've always believed that ex-PM Pak Dol was not qualified, but to be traitor as well?!

Pak Dol terminated the crooked bridge because he couldn't get Johor to sell sand to S'pura & to allow S'pura fighter jets to spy from inside Malaysian space, but instead he announced "large majority of Johoreans don't want the bridge"! Malaysia sent representatives to the Hague not in the best of preparations (under instruction?) thus S'pura were given ownership of Pulau Batu Putih! MV Agusta sold to 'whatisthenameKJ?' for RM4 and shortly after 'whatisthenameKJ?' sold MV Agusta to Harley & BMW for >RM600million! Now this (Blocks L & M given away, Brunei offered candy bars to his family?). What next?

The worrisome public then mentioned sarcastically that the kurang _jar (KJ) kid was the real Finance & Prime Ministers of Malaysia, and Pak Dol was only his spokesman. Consider these facts:

1. Immediately after Pak Dol 'no quality' was sworn in as PM, the KJ kid did quick cleansing work to the Treasury & in record time, then asked Pak Dol to declare "Tun Dr M left Malaysia penniless"!
2. Pak Dol proudly announced "no more 'direct nego' of projects", which upset-ted the KJ kid who then turned the word around and 'nego direct' ALL projects with Patrick Bodohwi and other cronies.

3. Pak Dol canceled Penang Bridge 2 & KTM double tracking due to insufficient fund and the costs too high, so as to allow the KJ kid to renegotiate and later awarded at several RMbillion higher for much smaller package!

4. After a cabinet meeting reporters asked Pak Dol if the meeting was the last before PRU12 and he vehemently denied "No, there will be a lot more cabinet meetings before PRU12", but 12 hours later the KJ kid instructed Pak Dol to 'bubarkan Parlimen'.

And there seems to be no end to Pak Dol's equivalent to the 'Pak Pandir & Pak Kadok' stories.....

BN (UMNO especially) will never again regain the glorious support of the past so long as the kurang _jar kid is still there. Beside being the no. 1 liability to UMNO/BN, the public are wishing the KJ kid be put behind bars.

Tun

With due respect, I wonder whether there is any motive behind your bringing it up just becoz Murphy Oils Corp brought up the matter or was it this presented you the opportunity which you seized upon to further rub salt into AAB's debacle as the 5th PM. The whole world knows about your feud with him.

Something smells fishy here. Firstly, why after so long only this was brought up by Murphy Oils Corp (the blocks were granted to petronas & Murphy Oils Corp in 2003). Is the present government under Najib well aware of this? Is Petronas similarly well aware of this ? (now that were are into 2010, seven years thereafter the award). Wisma Putra must be well informed of this since it has to deal with another sovereign country Brunei on this "trade off"?

A lot more bitten than can be chewed. Funny things can happen in BolehLand. Malaysia Boleh is TDM's "laungan" to the world.

I wonder whether TDM is trying to say to the world that AAB squandered more wastage than him or is it TDM is still sore over being forced out as PM by AAB?

Nevertheless, we Malaysians cannot condone such gross wastage, no doubt but let us reflect upon ourselves and ask ourselves whether we are in the same boat before. It is akin to the pot calling the kettle black. Life goes on.....but future generations here in Malaysia shall suffer.

Huhhh? I thought we should forget & forgive & be forgiven as any religion teaches.

dpp,

As I remember, you're a laughable stock everywhere in blogsphere due to your incapability to digest issue by issue. As usual, you'll just comment out of topic.

dpp, you should start telling your group to start thinking about abolishing vernacular school to make sure we have 1 school first. Just forget about something bigger such as 'we are 1 race, the human race' for a while. Success always start from a very simple step, my friend.

On Tun AAB, I'm waiting for Wisma Putra to explain. This is a fatal mistake that everyone in the previous government should be responsible of. Tun AAB's obviously had chose the wrong circle to cooperate with.

We all should learn something for the future especially DS Najib. Don't choose the wrong circle of advisors.

Dear Tun Dr. M,

- 1) Saya hanya pekerja kecil dan cukup makan.
- 1) Saya berasa amat marah, kecewa, sedih dan "CRYING" with this story.
- 2) Saya mahu kerajaan sekarang ambil balik Block L dan Block M tersebut. Adakah Kerajaan membaca tulisan saya ini.
- 3) Kerajaan mesti buat apa jua cara to take back Block M & L.
- 4) Adakah kerajaan kita terlalu BODOH, Adakah tentera kita juga terlalu Bangang?
- 5) Why? please explain

Regards

This is also the result of you making the PM post too powerful. No check and balance.

By rarunasalamAuthor Profile Page on April 29, 2010 11:52 PM

Tun M

one more thing ...I would like to hear what Datuk Seri Dr Rais Yatim has to say about this matter as well...

given the discussions commenced around Mid 1990s, and Tun Abdullah was Foreign Minister doing your bidding, it would be good to get Rais Yatim's comments given he would have been the one receiving the redemarcation documents which highlights who the rightful owner to this land is...

Oh by the way, if you want to argue that Tun Abdullah lost the position of strength in this argument, lets get HRH Sultan Brunei's take on this as well, plus the organisation that completed the demarcation review.

Or are you and your gullible supporters only apt to insult and blame our former PM and that without facts?

Dear Tun,

1. The people serving under the Ministry of Foreign Affairs are called Administrative And Diplomatic Officers. But their administrative skills are proven weak. Wisma Putra is at the bottom of the list when the government auditors released their accountability index report. If they cannot administer their office properly, I wonder how they can administer the country's interests.

2. Tun, you have made the best decision in selecting your immediate successor back then. BN did achieve unforgettable victory in PRU 11. Tun Abdullah is a nice man but many, including me, did not expect he made many wrongful decisions.

Assalamualaikum Tun Yang Amat Dihormati,

Jambatan bengkok,Pulau Batu Putih dan pelbagai lagi,dan sekarang ini pula.Yang pasti banyak kerosakan yang dilakukan oleh PM-5 ni,mentadbir negara seperti bersantai saja.Saya masih tidak berganjak menyatakan bahawa 'he was the WORST PM we ever had so far'!Tambahan dengan menantunya,yang banyak mempengaruhi beliau.

Crazy idiotni,asyik skrip sama,Tun salah pilih.Ya,memangpun,dulu masa PM5 ni jadi timbalan kerjanya selalu dipuji oleh Tun sebab masa tu memang rajin dan dikira cemerlang juga ,tapi menyalahkan Tun semata -mata adalah tidak adil,kerana PM-5,bukan pilihan pertama Tun,keputusan ini bukan boleh nak main-main macam nak pilih 'class monitor',ia perlu cadangan dan persetujuan oleh majlis tertinggi dalam parti.Lagipun,arwah isterinya masih ada,belum mendapat menantu Oxford tu lagi(banyak menjahanam parti).Manusia,kadangkala memang boleh berubah,begitu juga dengan PM5.Lagipun,Tun sudah mengaku sudah tersilap pilih,kerana Tun adalah pemimpin yang bertanggungjawab yang sanggup mengaku salah dan sedang sama-sama menolong kerajaan dalam memulihkan negara dari segi politik dan ekonomi.Sudah semestinya saudara juga tidak 'perfect',dan kemungkinan besar HANCUR TERUS kalau memegang jawatan penting dalam kabinet belum jawatan PM lagi.Banyak sangat orang seperti saudara,dalam BN pun ada,dalam PR LAGI RAMAI!

Maafkan saya Tun.Semoga Tun sentiasa dirahmati dan dilindungi Yang Maha Esa.Terima Kasih.

Even if block M and L is still Malaysian, I doubt very much if the average Malaysian will get a cent of the oil wealth.

After many years of independence, Malaysia is still dependent on oil wealth, is proof of the failure of our education system to produce creative, responsible and productive citizens who contribute to the nation by creating wealth and paying taxes.

Based on the above, the real traitor to the Malay race and the nation, is the ruling party, especially UMNO.

Each and every UMNO members should be given a gun to shoot themselves or commit hara kiri. The longer they hold on to power, the more regressive will the Malay race become.

Tun M

if you have something to claim - then do it sincerely and file a case.

Your constant heckling of Tun Abdullah is only doing you more damage as Tun Abdullah has no reason to retort.

Of course as Petronas advisor, I would like to know what are the internal discussions you have had with the board.

Your gullible supporters are insulting Tun Abdullah because they have no mind of their own to question your motives or research the facts, and they will only echo your sentiments thinking whatever you blog are facts.

But you know the discussion of demarcation have gone on since your administration - care share the discussion minutes from the time this subject was raised?

Of course not...because that would need for you to tell the truth...and that is quite hard for you to share given your vested interest...

I am hoping Tun Abdullah for once out of character would share the various dialogue and decision input you have contributed to this subject so we can finally know how much you'll just play the blame game for your self serving purpose...

Salam Tun,

Saya masih ingat tahun di bawah pemerintahan Tun di mana kuasa raja dan sultan dihadkan kerana tidak mahu sejarah berulang (dimana sultan dan raja yang gila kuasa menyebabkan berlaku penjajahan di negeri negeri Melayu sekitar tahun 1800an dahulu). Ini kerana mungkin tidak mahu seseorang yg mempunyai 'absolute power' menggadaikan negara. Rentetan nya, maka jadilah Perdana Menteri seorang yang lebih berkuasa dari sultan.

Kita sangkakan ini kan mampu menjaga kedaulatan negara, ternyata tidak kira siapa sahaja yang diberi 'absolute power' tak kira bangsa apa, keturunan dan darjat apa, ianya akan masih membawa mala petaka sekiranya orang yang diberi kuasa itu tiada mempunyai ilmu-ilmu yang diperlukan untuk mentadbir negara, tidak ikhlas dalam mentadbir dan akhirnya pandangan dan niat telah dikaburi nafsu. Sesungguhnya kira benar lah kes ini, ini memang satu pengkhianatan kepada seluruh rakyat malaysia.

Sedarlah wahai ahli ahli parlimen dan politik, kerja anda bukan untuk bermegah megah dengan darjat dan pangkat akan tetapi memegang amanah setiap jiwa rakyat malaysia.

Dan amatlah tidak setujunya terlalu ingin mengambil hati yg sikit, yang banyak diperlakukan secara enteng. Izinkan saya mengambil kesempatan ini untuk memberi pendapat tentang artikel Tun sebelum ni iaitu BN perlu kaji sebab mengapa pengundi cina tidak berpihak kepada BN. Pada saya ini sudah terang lagi bersuluh. Jika ada sepuluh rakyat malaysia berketurunan cina, hanya seorang sahaja yang menyokong BN. Ini semua sebab apa? sebab mereka yang tidak menyokong ini sudah terlalu lama dikelilingi oleh satu pemikiran. Disebalik segala kekayaan yang telah dimiliki, disebalik segala kemudahan yang telah dimiliki, segala keamanan yang diperolehi, pemikiran mereka telah ditetap 'pemerintah BN malaysia tidak adil, inginkan hak samarata, inginkan segala nya, melayu perlu dicantas dan ditekan hingga ke perut bumi'.

Dan bagaimana pemikiran ini dibentuk? Kerana mereka mereka ini tidak mahu membiarkan diri mereka diresapi dengan matlamat bangsa Malaysia. Mereka mahukan sebuah negara yang dimonopoli oleh mereka sahaja. Jika segala tuntutan mereka dipenuhi sekali pun, tetap tidak akan puas hati mereka.

Maka membina lagi seratus SJK(C), SK (C), SMK (C) sekalipun, ini bukan nya akan memenangi hati dan fikiran mereka. Bahkan ni sebenarnya akan membina tembok yang lebih tinggi.

Tindakan BN membina sekolah SJK(C) sebagai hadiah adalah umpama tindakan jangka pendek dalam memenangi hati di mana kesan jangka panjangnya akan memakan diri. Percayalah di PRU-PRU akan datang makin sukarlah.

Ingin saya rumuskan perkara yang terjadi sekarang ni ialah kerana kegagalan masa lalu untuk bertegas mewujudkan sekolah satu aliran sahaja.

Dimana mahu kita cari sebuah negara yang penduduk minoriti diberi jawatan dalam kabinet, dijadikan menteri menteri dalam mentadbir negara secara bersama. Tapi tetap mereka ni tidak mahu melihat dengan hati.

Bagaimana pula dengan nasib bumiputera dan orang-orang Melayu yang sukar mendapat pekerjaan walaupun ada kelulusan? Apa langkah dan usaha menyeluruh yang diambil oleh kerajaan?

Terima Kasih Tun kerana dibawah pemerintahan Tun, dengan diizinkan Allah, maka wujudnya Twin Tower, Putrajaya, Cyberjaya, MSC, dan segala macam bentuk kemajuan kepada bumi Malaysia ni Tun. Allah SWT telah merahmati bumi Malaysia dan rakyatnya dengan memberikan kebijaksanaan kepada Tun mentadbir negara. Semoga Tun dan keluarga dirahmati dan diberkati Allah selalu. Amin.

Tun, do u think this is payback for borrowing money from Brunei during the financial crisis? This is the payback for Abdullah being a relative to Brunei sultan? All these are well known, but unspoken. Could this also be the pressure behind that caused you to let go of your job? Now we know who the most powerful person in Malaysia is...he resides in Brunei. No wonder Abdullah always pretend to be stupid. He's not, and he was very bright when he served as foreign minister. He's just the kaki pukul collecting money for the Ah Long.

I do not know what else to say regarding the stupidity of AAB. He seriously believed that he was a King with absolute power to decide major issues all by himself. His actions do not seem to protect Malaysian interests. For this case we lost a huge amount of money to the tune of US$100b. The Malaysian government must consider charging AAB treason for this huge and unforgivable blunder. I do not respect AAB at all.

By Zee YeahAuthor Profile Page on April 29, 2010 9:55 PM

I would question the entire UMNO system in selecting its leader. How did people like AAB managed to end up as PM, I dont understand.

By jebonsupsapAuthor Profile Page on April 29, 2010 9:49 PM

Dear Tun,

Thank you for highlighting this very disturbing issue.

While the Letter of Exchange may have been signed during Tun Abdullah Badawi's administration, I wonder why didnt the current administration do anything about it if Malaysia stands to lose so much from such arrangement or agreement. The obligation to protect the interest of the nation lies in the present administration!

What do Malaysia get out of this? Rather, what have we lost? Have we sold the rights of our future generation? Malaysians deserve an explanation, especially as the Government of the day is promoting governance and transparency!

Regards,

Dear YBhg Tun, asmkm

someone learn history and made his-sory for himself....everyone does....follow.

I recalled YBhg Tun much too often said, also in this web, that Ybhg Tun made the wrong choice.

Alas, Ybhg Tun is not wrong. The choice was correctly made but people the like, does change because of many reasons: greed , love, emotional disturbance, mental problem etc which was not there at all when the choice was made. Take for example, one of my past male-neighbour: the husband, loving, wife-caring and have 4 loveable kids, marriage for 20 years. On the 21st year he married a 2nd wife, and suddenly his behaviour started to change badly towards 1st wife. Why ?, does the 1st wife made wrong choice 20 years ago ? It is not the wife, it is purely the husband who let himself be swept with mental problem, emotional upheaval, greeds for self-proclamation, etc, letting the environment control his soul.

In mathematical wording: behaviour = environment + personality. Ybhg Tun has created positive environment (look at the people's behaviour in Twin Tower complex, just to mention one place in KL, they are malaysian, many many behave rightfully, as citizens) to shape up good personality of the rakyat.

Positive personality and being in positive environment definitely shape up positive behaviour, at home and outside. YBhg Tun is surely a shy sifu, who often shy away to claim credits for the goods that Ybhg Tun has done for the country.

For our comrades in theu know the news.....go investigate... and corrective action.

Of course, as other sifu also said, being shy does not mean you are not coercive....

"Can Wisma Putra please explain why it did not stop Abdullah?"

Tun

Can you explain why no Policeman or Judge, Minister or Ministry stopped you when you:

1. Awarded directly negotiated contracts amounting to billions of $ of the Rakyat's hard earned GDP money for projects like the NS Highway, Petronas Twin Towers, Putrajaya, Cyberjaya, InventQ Jaya, KLIA, KL Tower, PSC Naval Dockyard ($26 billion contract - Amin Shah) and many, many, many more!!

2. Did not have Rafidah Aziz over the Bumi share issue fracas and Tj Ramli over MAS bankruptcy prosecuted even though many police reports were filed?

2. Had 106 M'sians arrested and jailed under ISA in Kamunting without charge or trial, and opposition politicians like Lim Kit Siang and Karpal Singh were locked up for two years while most of the BN politicians were released in less than two weeks? In case your memory fails you, the infamous Ops Lallang of 27th October 1987 refers!!

I will endeavour here give you a simple reason why there was no resistance.

Because during your 22 year tenure as PM you cowed the people of M'sia into submission by wielding the ISA, Sedition, PPPA, Remand, Restricted Residence and Banishment Acts and other "laws" as cruel sledgehammers to instil fear.

AAB himself was then only following in your foot-steps and in the process we do not know what happened to some $253 billion of Petronas tax and dividends paid to the Federal Govt!!

So, who shall cast the first stone?

Wisma Putra did not stop Abdullah because Tun, you were the one that put Abdullah on that chair. If they tried to stop Abdullah, they fear that they would also be going against you.

No doubt, Abdullah was a weak leader, but the person who put Abdullah up there, was none other than yourself.

This is the problem with "Yes" man all around the table!!.

By MustexAuthor Profile Page on April 29, 2010 7:50 PM

Tun,

Seriously I do not believe this is the case of being "penny wise pound foolish." Rather it is the case of being "smart" and being "reciprocated financially." I am not making any accusations here but it simply does not make any commercial sense at all for Malaysia to forgo the two oilfields just like that. Common sense will tell that it is not a good move. Perhaps the "Advisor" has done his homework and may have cut a deal prior to the talks.

Yes, a good question why Petronas was missing from the said meeting? Well, even if they had been there depending on who represents Petronas whatever they say may not be taken into consideration.

The irony of it all wasn't there any reports or background information at all prepared after all the issues to be discussed concerns national interest!

So what now?

By HBTAuthor Profile Page on April 29, 2010 7:49 PM

Ayahanda Tun,

Do you still remember that no one can sentuh Pak Lah when he was the PM?

Even Dr M, the 4th Prime Minister was not allowed to meet Ministers and Deputy Ministers, Wisma Putra would not be able to stop Abdullah due to protocol and he was the PM.

To make it simple and straight forward, the best person to answer such question is Pak Lah himself on why he did that?

If he had made Malaysia lost such money, he should resign from all his current highly paid positions to serve as a punishment to those who have done wrong in order to be fair and equal.

Good night Ayahanda Tun.

P.S. For those who accused Chinese are 'tamak', please look at your closets before you accuse the Chinese, and who gave them land in Perak? It was YB Nizar, PAS, who promised them land when he got elected.

Assalam mualaikum Tun,

Personally in my opinion those 'sell off' this cpuntry should be tried and sentenced. You can even termed it as 'traitor'

This is not only the first time AAB has screwed up this nation. The issue with Singapore regarding the Perdro Brance, the crooked bridge, etc has caused a lot of losses be it in monetary and territorial aspect.

The Government of the Day should consider hauling up AAB to get his explanation why he did this and that.
