

THE AUSTRALIAN MPs
chedet.co.cc
February 19, 2010

1. A perception seems to prevail in the so-called developed countries that the developing countries like Malaysia cannot possibly understand justice and the rule of law. Accordingly, from far off and without knowing enough about the cases involved, they are fond of passing judgement and demanding for extra democratic actions to be taken e.g. by the Government telling the court what to do.
2. The demand that the Government of Malaysia stop the trial of Anwar for sodomy is typical of the arrogance that suggests the White Australia Policy is still alive and kicking. The desire to be the Deputy Sheriff of East Asia is still there.
3. I have written elsewhere about the killing of Indian students. The Members of Parliament would do well to coach their people not to be violent racists.
4. They should also remind themselves of the genocide perpetrated against the aborigines, whose country it was, before they were casually shot to death to make way for White settlers.
5. There have been quite a number of Malaysians who had been convicted of sodomy. There was no outcry from Australia or anybody else. Do Australian MPs subscribe to inequality before the law wherein big shots should not be charged for breaking the law where small shots can be charged with impunity? Malaysia does not subscribe to people being unequal before the law.
6. I suspect (and of course I am always suspicious) that there is a desire for regime change on the part of the MPs. They want to install their own man as head of the Malaysian Government. Can I say that it is not democratic and illegal for a foreign country to install their own candidates to lead Governments in any country? Of course they can ignore such niceties.
7. Anwar can make his bid when his time comes but it is for the Malaysian people to decide if he is fit to form the Government of this country.

to all those comment,

keep on the negative stuff about pakatan and DSAI etc...

keep on praising UMNO/BN and mahathir/DSN...

you will see what will happen to this country after GE13 ... if BN wins again, more people upper middle class and rich will leave for good along with their asset and money in the country.

we are giving one last as a whole to all citizen and voters to change the gov. if we fail in GE13, its gone forever.

this country will become the next philipines of ASEAN.
wake up or sleep forever.

siva 0471 (MIC), before asking mahathir (good oldman) to whack anwar (badman), ask yourself, what dr. m and UMno' did for indians ...nothing....

in fact, under BN admin, indians in msia as a whole never improve... what ever indians achieved and contributing to malaysia is by their own and their parent effort....

UMNO is useless....

PERKASA is useless...

stop being ignorant and come out of your shell....

unlike UMNO spend money, i work overseas for the past 5yrs and bring in foreign money into the country....

assalamualaikum dan salam sejahtera,

Mengulas kepada topik ini, izinkan saya memberikan sedikit pandangan dan pendapat saya. Terlebih dahulu saya ingin mengucapkan ribuan terima kasih kepada Tun dengan kebijaksanaan beliau menepis segala dakwaan dan tuntutan kesemua 50MP's dari australia. Tapi kenapa Tun sahaja yang pandai mengatur ayat membentuk tulisan? kemana hilangnya golongan pemikir yang bijak didalam pemerintahan DSN???....

Saya tidak ingin mengulas tentang kebenaran atau ketidakbenaran apa yang sedang dibicarakan dimahkamah berhubung kes DSAI.. akan tetapi apa yang saya ingin bicarakan kenapa mereka yang tiada kaitan didalam urusan dalaman malaysia ini, berminat untuk mencampurinya?? inilah perkara yang perlu kita ketahui...

Kerana bagi saya sekiranya kita sayang dan hormati DSAI kita tidak sepatutnya menjadikan beliau sebagai kambing hitam kepada anasir-anasir jahat diluar sana untuk menjajah kembali negara kita yang tercinta ini. Mereka ini siapa?? Apakah keperluan mereka berbuat demikian?? Dimanakah Demokrasi dan keadilan yang direncanakan mereka?? FIKIR-FIKIRKANLAH.....

Tidak perlu bagi kita bertelagah sesama sendiri mempersoalkan perkara kebenaran dan ketidakbenaran.... bagi orang islam tidakkah kita ini percaya kepada Alam Akhirat.... dan kepada orang bukan islam pula, tidakkah kalian percaya akan kematian..... Bagi saya seorang melayu muslim, berkata kepada diri saya bahawa keadilan yang ingin kita capai dimuka bumi ini tidak sama dengan keadilan yang akan kita capai kelak di padang masyar.... yakinlah bahawa kematian itu benar dan tiada siapa yang akan kekal selamanya selain ALLAH SWT pencipta segala kehidupan dilangit dan dibumi.... Nabi Junjungan kita juga menempuh alam kematian dan akan dihisab segala kebaikan dan keburukannya diakhirat kelak... Oleh itu dimanakah kita??

Percayalah sahabat-sahabatku bahawa pengadilan yang ada dimuka bumi ini adalah pengadilan yang hanya dicipta oleh manusia.... dan sampai bila-bilapun ianya tidak akan adil selagi kita tidak berpandukan kepada As-Sunnah dan Hadis dari Al-Quran Nur Karim.... biarkanlah mereka membuat pengadilan mereka sendiri kepada lunas undang-undang duniawi mereka sendiri kerana kelak mereka yang mengadili dan diadili akan disoal oleh ALLAH SWT di padang masyar...

Oleh itu saya menyeru kepada semua yang membaca komen saya ini untuk tidak bertelagah sesama sendiri didalam isu ini. Apa yang perlu bagi kita sekarang ini adalah mempertahankan kedaulatan kemerdekaan dan kesejahteraan kehidupan kita didalam Negara tercinta ini... bukan untuk seorang tapi untuk semua...

Perkukuhkan benteng pertahanan kita dari perang psikologi dari anasir jahat diluar sana yang mempunyai niat buruk untuk menjajah semula.... bunyikan semboyan perang psikologi kepada mereka diluar sana dan katakan kepada mereka yang kita sudah bersedia untuk berperang....

Sekian wallahualam... salam mesra dari saya buat kalian semua...
peace no war among us...

Dear Tun,

I think everyone should know the past history of our beloved Malaysia.Hence not to make the same mistakes and put the country into others hands.

The late Raja Abdullah did asked the British help to settle his throne problem hence lose the Pulau Pinang.

The late Sultan Hussein asked Sir Refless help to settle their throne problem and loose the Singapore.

The internal problems in the sultanate of Melaka make way for the Portugis to take over the Melaka.

Johor ask help from Dutch to recover Melaka. Ends up Melaka change hand from Portuguse to Dutch.

More recently Johor let Singapore to take care of Pulau Batu Putih ends up the island has to give up to Singapore.

So if Anwar continue with his way asking help from forigner.He may end up selling our Malaysia to them.Hope someone could enlighten him up.

My Dearest Tun Always,

Its sad that we saw you exit when that time the country needed you most in developing it further in defending its sovereignty in its context.

When then, your vocal outspoken approach to the west or to white supremacy is fact to the matter and not one manage to counter back in a positive manner except for ridiculing you on putting you as the "iron fist" and a "dictator" having rule for so long but yet they do not want it to be associate with His excellency Mr. Lee Kuan Yew as comparison since he too was in power for a long time and because you were not associating with them. They made ridicule of you abusing your power and killing democracy which focus on propaganda tactics.

Even when you decided not to be taken in on the economic turmoil which again is creation of the west the western leaders then ridicule you and the propaganda did not stop until now since the propaganda has work its way into minds of people who wants to be believe it and the matter is getting worse to any leaders that do not want to give in to them.

Australia being a white supremacy country, has a master blue print of controlling this side of the globe on economy, politics, military and so on and so forth since Malaysia is independent country through Britain. Australia seems to portray that they are a multi racial country by accepting all races and religious people to migrate into Australia thus proving that their master plan is similar to United States of America.

Australia Indians, some which migrated from Malaysia are given jobs opportunities in all sectors including public security position in proving Australian democracy but yet its sad that we do not see this Indians enabling themselves to be in better positions then their positions before they migrated.

When the migrants wishes to demand to be at par just like in any other countries in the world then it proves obvious that there would be oppositions and the results proves the worse.

We have our own parliamentarians doing the same before (its was not too long ago) and retaliating proves fatal.

We can assume that there is a "networking" between people who wants absolute power either in Politics, Businesses, economy and so forth with countries that do have foreign policies and master plans that can assist to materialized in the fastest way possible.

Malaysia has proven otherwise in its policies and thus creating venerable positions and its how the government of the day "handles" it. Its also a test to view the weaknesses of the leaders and to view and valuate each person of its fundamentals.

I am just man on the street and my views is of my own opinion and I wish I can elaborate it better just like the learned and the knowledgeable. Its scary to think that you can be in jeopardy if politics is taken as a personal game and gain.

Australia warns Israel over Dubai assassination.....reads one online news headline..

By md.Lutfil  on February 25, 2010 2:48 PM

Assalamualaikum

Ramai yang mengampu dari berseteru. Pedulikan saja dengan 50MP Australia tu. Kita pun kadang-kadang duk campur tangan jugak masalah negara orang lain - Myanmar,suruh depa bebaskan Aung San Suu-Kyi.

Tun Dr. M, semasa kes Anwar tahun 1998/1999 ("Liwat 1"), adakah ianya sengaja diada adakan bermotifkan/berkonspirasikan untuk menjatuhkan Anwar yang mengancam UMNO dan Barisan Nasional dan Tun sendiri?

Sebab terang-terang, tak lama selepas Anwar dipenjarakan saya telah menonton dokumentari "correspondence of..."saya dah lupa tajuk dokumnetari tu(kalau cari kat youtube mesti jumpa)..tapi jelas di dalam dokumentari tu, saksi/mangsa Liwat 1 iaitu Sukma Darmawan Susmita Barja (bunyi mcm dah betul, ejaan salah kot) mengaku ditangkap, dihumban dalam penjara,ditelanjangkan, diugut dan telah dipaksa untuk membuat pengakuan palsu bahawa dia diliwat oleh Anwar. Saya tak nak terang detail2 sebab dah lama tak tengok CD tu. Akhirnya apa jadi pada kes Liwat 1?Semua tahukan..

Cuma pandangan saya lah mengenai tahap kekalutan kekartunan kes Liwat 2 yang terbaru ini. Saya tak nak komen apa2 sebab mahkamah masih belum beri kata putus. Cuma ramai org yang sama pemikiran mcm saya sudah tahu apa keputusannya nanti cuma mampu simpan dalam hati. Kalau ckp/tulis/luahkan nnt kena masuk penjara pula.

Kepada yang mengampu tu, sudah2 la.."saya sokong penuh..", "i'm agree with you.." dan mcm2 lagi la..seolah olah dibuat buat.

"Berani kerana benar, takut kerana salah"? Boleh ke pakai perumpamaan itu zaman sekarang? Hanya orang tak ada akal saja la yang berani kerana benar nak berdepan dengan kes ni.

Allah sentiasa bersama orang yang benar..ya...tapi,mungkin untuk kes Anwar tak di dunia, di akhirat Insyallah.

Kita marah bila ahli parlimen australia sibuk nak campur tangan dalam hal ni..cuma, cuba kita fikir di takuk manakah kita pada pandangan mata dunia dengan kes ini yang seolah olah menggantung rakyat malaysia di mata negara lain sebagai rakyat dunia ke-4.(tak tahu pula la pada yang mengampu - bangga kot)

A Note the the Australian MP's.

Dear all Australian MP's,

I wonder why is it that when it comes to Anwar Ibrahim, you are extremely protective and full of praise for him?

Please stop insulting our intelligence by making statements which reflects that we are not smart enough to judge & evaluate who should run our government. We do not need another country to tell us what is bad, and what is good for us.

I believe that all of you are elected and appointed into office by Australians to focus in resolving issues and develop your nation (Australia) and not our country (Malaysia). I would hereby strongly suggest that you guys start seriously focusing on your primary job.

Anyways, by any chance if you are poking your noses into our business out of genuine concern and good faith, thank you, but no thank you.

Kind regards,

f. rosley

YABhg Tun,

At this time and age, whites still seems to have this "holier than thou" mentality. Those MPs should stick their views where it belong,....down under!!!

By S..Tan  on February 25, 2010 1:20 AM

Dear YAB Tun, salam mesra harap sihat. Kiriman saya untuk tajuk ini dgn izin....

.....MISQUOTE

The MPs are asking for fair trial not to abandon any trial. They are asking the govt to lay off not interfere. They condemn discriminatory policing not discrimination policies. The twisting is close to a spin.

.....SUSPICIOUS

Can't the MPs be suspicious the govt is trying to jail a future PM, if someone else can smell regime change? Who has suspicious minds?

.....UNEQUAL BEFORE THE LAW?

What is DEB and Malay supremacy? What is Tanah Melayu? Obviously not all M'sians subscribe to people being equal before the law! Look at Perkasa, Umno NGO demonstrations and candlelight procession, bicycle marathons (Jerit) Who got arrested and chased?

Look at Teoh Beng Hock and Disney excursion. Who walked out smiling, who was carried out in a body bag?

.....RESPONSIBILITY FOR FOREFATHERS

Australia must bear the actions of their forefathers (on aborigines). Here people don't want to bear the actions of their forefathers (on immigrants). By selective memory citizenship can be questioned and equality is out of the question.

With all due respect sir,

People who live in glass houses should not throw stones.

In plain analogy, I feel that you have to have a clean sheet yourself before you can tell others theirs are dirty. Only then, people can be convinced.

This is so for a notable leader like yourself. More responsibility and maturity, as well as wisdom in your words will put your retirement into a better shade of light. Sometimes words can make people like unintelligent and this is the last of what you want people to remember of you.

Restinpeace...

I take your point...it's not for me to say what Tun M. should or should not do...or say or should not say...

The fact that Tun can present his thoughts this openly goes to show how we have evolved since Tun M's time

Given Tun M. censored a former PM and our founding father Tunku, but never himself subjected to such scrutiny OR censorship post retirement, also speaks volumes of the power Tun M. yeilds OR more so from my perspective the progressive thinking of his successor.

So I concede to your point...this is Tun M's blog and he should be allowed to display and share his thoughts, regardless of how irresponsibly those thoughts are shared.

Peace!

Dear orang2kilang.blogspot,

Zahid Hamidi ini terlalu bijak (score STPM > 2.5 saja) in trumpeting these issues. When he claimed that the 1st submarine has technical problems, even STPM students laughed by saying that this is a very high tech. submarine which bound to have unforeseen technical problems which required to be solved only when it is test run in sea. He is now telling 'us' that MiG29 would be retained and upgraded as per Tun Dr M's advice. CNN (Cakap tak serupa bikin) like him will not be respected and liked by those who.. are patriotic and know the defense industry..

Take care Ayahanda Tun.

Tun yang dihormati

This Australian, they think they are smart because they are white. They didnt realise they are the descendant of bandit, criminal,terrorist and prostitutes, British sent them to this big island of Australia for them to live in a violent way. They murdered the Bumiputera of Australia and treat them like a slave. Now they thought they are civilised and educated animal but their behavior are still the mind of descendent of criminal, declared to be the Sherif of Asia. So now they want to teach others especially the Asean to behave like them, go to hell Australian.

Bismillahirrahmanirrahim & Assalamualaikum wbt Yg Bhg Tun & family,

Today is 7th Rabiul Awal 1431 Hijrah , 657pm Sunday (21/2/2010).

With your kind permission and since your have mentioned his name, please allow me to touch on possibly risky subject i.e. YB Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim. (DSAI)

In the late 80's, I was a law student at UIA Petaling Jaya where DSAI was the President and many programmes were organized those days including the International Muslim Youth Camp at Institut Aminuddin Baki in Genting Highlands where DSAI was also the Education Minister and in 1988 Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak came as Minister of Youth & Sport and handed over to me the Certificate of Attendance on stage at IAB.

I can also recall in the late 80's Yg Bhg Tun as the Malaysian Prime Minister came to UIA Petaling Jaya with DSAI, on stage at the Al Malik Faisal Hall and we all enjoyed your speech as well as your jokes together on stage. I suppose you can still recall that DSAI was full of praises when introducing you to students and staffs at UIA Petaling Jaya back then and we can still recall that you mentioned to us that 'your president is also a Minister now thus all of you are lucky'.

The reason I begin with a bit longer Muqqaddimmah here is that you will not suspect (quoting u that u are always suspicious la Yg Bhg Tun) anything and will accept whatever is being written here as bona fide.

Yg Bhg Tun, you are globally accepted as a well respected Statesman and world leaders. Bush and Blair are accepted by the whole wide world to be war criminals while Cherves labelled Bush as Satan.

Thus looking around , everyone will agree that Yg Bhg Tun as statesmen and world leader in your own own class and standing.

Yg Bhg Tun , you have achieve so much in your life as I have read many books, writings, articles written by friendly as well as by unfriendly parties about you. I watched all the documentaries/interviews that were televised both in local and international channels and at your last Perdana series last year even bought the documentary VCD that was not televised on tv yet. It is safe to place you high in the global arena.

Regarding DSAI, majority of Malaysians and others believe that the issue is purely political and can be solve politically. Back then, DSAI was seen as impatience .

About DSAI impatience, 2 publications has published my letter back then supporting you but reminding DSAI and his supporters to be patience and wait for his turn while quoting Elvis Presley song, "wise men says only fools rush in" ('Patience,Patience' by Syed Iskandar Syed Jaafar Kuala Lumpur Malaysia published by Far Eastern Economic Review on 22/12/1994 and 'Anwar's Struggle' published by Asiaweek on 20/1/1995).

After those two articles appeared, my office started to receive invitation to attend few Institute of Foreign Diplomatic Relations near Jalan Ilmu , Petaling Jaya and if I was not mistaken the first programme that I attended was the Nelson Mandela speech where for the first time I saw your daughter and son in person there.

What might annoyed you back then was The Youth Leader then (now Defence Minister) ignored Yg Bhg Tun Daim reminder not to speak on certain issues but the youth chief was stubborn and went ahead delivering a rude opening speech showing direct and indirect disrespect to Yg Bhg Tun as the party President. Well , the youth leader learned his lesson and apologized to you and now he is a happy Defence Minister.

If you can recall Yg Bhg Tun as a well experience politicians, you was played out by not one but many of your former cabinet team members i.e. when each of them is being assigned a task by Pak Lah to reply to you officially. The media were not kind towards you back then and even the authority came on the tv making statement that your case was not close. You see, Yg Bhg Tun, my point is that you was double crossed by your own trusted friends. And , many of them are still there la Yg Bhg Tun.

Yg Bhg Tun i am not in any manner trying to become a 'batu api' but you please recall the fact that YB Ibrahim Ali on record in one ceramah those days did said that he wanted to 'kencing atas kubur Dr Mahathir' thus Yg Bhg Tun, it is high time you choose whom to trust (the ceramah by YB Ibrahim Ali cassette was widely sold back then).

And now , why these people are returning to a friendly mode--simply because of the art in playing politics requires all of them to do so.(perhaps they read Shunzu Art of War)

Well Yg Bhg Tun it is not too late to take control of the Malaysian politics back, you are a well experienced politician and equipped with the neccesary know how , negotiation skills and by venturing into certain steps perhaps InsyaAllah you will gain absolute respects uniting all Malaysians for the first time ever and the rest globally will have nothing but salute you.

This is only a small suggestion that you may or may not even want to consider but I am writing it simply because of your very unforgettable quote, " in politics, there are no permanent enemies". Your last para on the present posting can be intrepreted in so many ways but I believe that with your Yg Bhg Tun skillful maneuvering it will definitely leave a long and lasting impact in the world modern history and crafted a mark beyond anybody wild imagination.

Akhir Kalam, this is just an expression of opinion and might be useless, well Allah swt know best and InsyaAllah looking forward for Yg Bhg Tun original vision 2020 being realized in the best possible manners with Yg Bhg Tun leading the way toward a better Malaysia. Finally, Allah swt Maha Pengampun and will rewards every good intention, every good deeds plus Nabi Muhammad s.a.w. has promised to help his Ummat with his Syaafat, please Yg Bhg Tun start the ball rolling and believe me you will leave a permanent impact in modern global history texts, InsyaAllah. Please also do accept my apology coz whatever is wrong comes from me alone and whatever is good obviously it is from Allah swt. Salam Solat Maghrib for Yg Bhg Tun & family.

Assalamualaikum Tun.

Saya terbaca ucapan Tun pada tahun 1997 (kalau tak salah saya) dalam buku WAWASAN 2020.

Tun SILAP bila kata kita perlu MENGASIHI antara satu sama lain untuk mengekalkan perpaduan bagi membolehkan Malaysia terus menikmati pembangunan dengan pantas.Untuk menuju wawasan 2020.

Melalui rujukan buku Politik Islam,terdapat surah Al-Muntahanah yang menegaskan kita perlu berbuat baik,bersimpati tetapi tidak perlu mengasihi terhadap kafir zimmi.

Perkara yang sama saya telah tulis pada 1Malaysia.com.my yang berkait dengan kejadian bakar gereja dan kepala babi dalam masjid.Yang membawa kepada program Ulama' dan Umara'.

Ia ditulis sehari dua sebelum pengawai khas PM tersilap memberi ucapan pada seminar 1Malaysia di Melaka.

Dalam ucapan Tun 1997,saya tertarik pada ayat yang menyatakan bahawa kemahiran kaum Cina berniaga bukanlah satu perkara yang unik.Ini kerana kaum Melayu lambat laun akan berkebolehan juga untuk berniaga.

Tetapi adalah menjadi satu adat resam kaum Melayu memandang tinggi pada orang Cina yang berniaga kerana Islam mengatakan rezeki 9/10 adalah dari perniagaan.

Saya fikir di situ sepatutnya terdapat sedikit 'gelinciran'.

Terima kasih Tun.

Tun - this reminds us to appreciate the importance of independence and liberty for a "developing" country like Malaysia. It also makes us appreciate the constant effort needed to protect it from the bullies of the world. Many have buckled under these bully tactics. Let's hope we stay united for many generations to come.

Perhaps Australia is envious of our sovereignty, what with them having to kowtow to an old woman who lives 12000 miles away.

By TVRAJ  on February 21, 2010 7:49 AM

Dear Tun,

Hope this email finds you in the best of health.

1. I would like to comment on the first sentence of your entry; being "A perception seems to prevail in the so-called developed countries that the developing countries like Malaysia cannot possibly understand justice and the RULE OF LAW."

2. The reason I am commenting about this sentence, is that I have read and heard over the years many politicians and lawyers from both sides in Malaysia use the word Rule of Law as though it means a standard international yardstick. Perhaps because it is part of our country's ethos - the Rukun Negara that we love to always use this term.

3. However, respectfully I believe that this word is being used without fully understanding what the RULE of LAW means.

4. I believe the Rule of Law is geographical and culturally based. It reflects the beliefs of the society of the day where it is applied. There is no international standard of what this concept means.

5. It is fine and soothing to the ear when we hear commentators utter this word, as though it is a cliché that we all ought to know what it means. But how many of us actually know what it truly means?

6. Let me provide some examples;

a. In the USA, which has a written constitution that preaches and 'enforces' equality. since the 18th century, it was not until the 1960's I believe that Black Americans were allowed to go to the same school as white Americans; this was the result of the Brown v Board of Education of Topeka.

b. In the 1940's 1960's there were a series of editors, and personalities that were hauled up for speaking against the government; on the charge that they were Communist sympathizers. The American courts during these periods often upheld these convictions, notwithstanding the FED CONST that provided for Free Speech and Association interestingly the Australian Courts during that era decided the opposite directions when faced with similar cases during that era;

c. Recently during Bush administrations; citizens were hauled up without trial. Up till recently the courts upheld these detentions. What due process are we talking about??

d. In Australia, up till 1967, the Federal Constitution regarded Aborigines as Animals, and no rights as the typical Caucasians;

e. Uptill the 1970 Aboriginal children were taken away from family forcibly, to ensure that their colour were bred out??? Equality?? There is a case called the Stolen Generations Case.

d. Recently a couple of years ago, a Practising Dr (Haneef's Case) from Gold Coast was detained without trial on the 'suspicion of terrorism'; the suspicion was based on dodgy evidence. Due Process??

This is my point; AT NOT one of these instances in time that these countries were acting outside the RULE OF LAW. Those countries always acted within adherence to their Rule of law, (which is based on their cultural standard of what the rule of law ought to be) based on how their 'independent judiciary' interpreted legislation. They were not hauled up in the international media scene as Lawless Nations.

7. My questions WHY treat Malaysia any different.

8. Our Rule of Law is based on our cultural standards and our realities.

9. Our common law is Malaysian Common law, and not English Common or Australian Common law, we have removed the Privy Council as our APEX court for some time already. Our judges interpret our statutes based on our local conditions.

10. That is the truism of being a Sovereign Nation, which is not being subservient to any nations rule; whether in substance or in form.

11. Independence does not mean holding on or signing a declaration. It means being free from constraint, and being free to decide where to go. If our Rakyat are not pleased with the way with how country is run only they have the power to decide come election time. That is what representative government means.

12. That is the privilege of being a Citizen of Malaysia, with our own unique Rule OF Law.

Thank You

Warm Regards

TVRAJ

Dear Tun, I choose to differ with your opinion that developed countries think that countries like Malaysia don't possibly understand justice. What makes them think that way, probably you may have the answer to the scepticism. To me, it is simple, make the judiciary independent of politics. There must be clear separation of power between Legislative and judiciary. Legislative cannot manipulate judiciary like what we see now..the court hearings and decision of the judge handling Sodomy 1 and Sodomy 2 were clearly a blatant lie and biased. Even ordinary people who doesn't read Law can see the illogical behaviour of those judges who sided the Plaintiff and the Prosecution all the time and denying the request of Defendant all the time. Look at Nizar vs Zamry case...the court blatantly deny the right of Nizar..the people choice base on legal election process and chose Zamry instead as legal MB. Ordinary people or ordinary voters are getting sick with these kind manipulation by hidden hand to work on their favour. The law in Malaysia is there but it has been manipulated by biased judges who are there to serve their Master not the People. So sad and very sad what happen to our beloved Malaysia. Tun, please DO SOMETHING to make Malaysia is respected again internationally and make amend quickly..

To rarunasalam a.k.a Ravi

"Stick to these kind of arguments Tun and dont resort to cheap potshots as you did with your previous blog - especially not one that is expected from an elder statesman..."

Well ravi.. its not you who decide what can be written, what's not.. deal with it.. this blog is not only for you.. even if you are somebody with great wisdom or highly respected person, in here nobody cares...who is rarunasalam?..I don't know and most importantly I DON'T CARE..personally I visit this blog to read on Tun's ideas, experiences or opinions about some topic that he wants to discuss about..then from there we share our ideas, experiences or opinions.. I don't understand why there are people, especially like this Ravi, who come to someone else blog, and start giving instruction on do and don'ts, as if the blog is theirs.. when clearly at point they start to click to open this blog, they already know that this blog belongs to someone else.. someone that well know by the world.. and you still dare to ask him to stick to arguments that you like and thrash out something you don't like?.. don't be so ungrateful.. you have been given rights to post your ideas or opinions here..don't sound like you own this place..

Dear YAB Tun

7. Anwar can make his bid when his time comes but it is for the Malaysian people to decide if he is fit to form the Government of this country.

Yes - but how will the Malaysian people decide if the Government engages in lies all the time? For example the Government claims Anwar is an agent of the Jews, and was responsible for the currency crisis, when in fact it was the irresponsible lending to selected cronies who was the cause behind all the mess.

But I agree on the crux of the matter that the Australian MPs cannot interfere with Malaysia. Malaysians deserve the Government they choose. They must learn to think carefully before choosing, I have met a lot of people who have sleepless nights, are full of regret and curse themselves for having supported your Government.

Now Malaysians will soon suffer as they get impacted by the GST and a possible restructuring of the petrol subsidy. This is indeed the gift of having been ruled by your administration, characterized by its profligate waste. Hundreds of Billions were spent as if there was no tomorrow.

Actually there is. There are so many young children now - those in even in school, even whose food allowance is being reduced so that the Government can save a bit of money. Aren't you the one who said, Government does not need to run a balanced budget?

You asked about MV Augusta and it has been answered. What about InventQJaya? Can you explain what happened to the investment. Or Perwaja, or Bank Bumi? Or Maminco - why did you not sue the LME if they changed the terms as you had said.

Anwar will be remembered fondly as one of the greatest Finance Ministers of all time. He rose from humble beginnings. He was the only Finance Minister in 30 years to be able to balance the budget. His opinion was sought by the entire world. He worked tirelessly to help the poor. He was a great individual, but like Holland, the greatest man never to be P.M.

But alas, he paid the ultimate sacrifice when he fought for the future generations of Malaysia by opposing you. If Anwar had been PM, I am sure, the children now will still have the benefit of food allowance in the MRSM. He would have never money to be wasted to build monuments.

He will be remembered fondly.

But alas, nasi sudah menjadi bubur.

Yang Berhormat Tun,

Saya tak berminat tentang kes DSAI ni, saya lebih berminat dengan prestasi kerajaan sekarang.

Sebagai Rakyat Biasa saya dapat rasakan kekurangan kerajaan sekarang iaitu tidak mempunyai nilai tambah/value added. Kerajaan sekarang terlalu BASIC. Anak muda sekarang menganggap bisiswa, bantuan buku, sekolah, bantuan hospital dll tu adalah satu kemestian bagi setiap kerajaan. Ape yang dapat memikat diaorang ialah jika ada yang pandai bantulah mereka, kalau di sekolah sekolah susun semula sukatan pelajaran supaya lebih mencabar. Kita dah terlalu lama dalam comfort zone. Jangan buat program yg terlalu besar seperti Juara Rakyat sebab iannya tak sampai kepada rakyat biasa. Buat program yang kecil tetapi banyak dan ia akan sampai ke akar umbi. Wakil wakil rakyat turun padang menyelesaikan masalah rakyat, guna duit poket sendiri dulu sementara tunggu peruntukan. Ceramah di surau surau di perbanyakkan. Forum bersama rakyat di adakan.

UMNO perlu di rebranding supaya kelihatan segar

Tukar logo UMNO, jangan guna lambang keris

Tukar logo BN, sebab masa praya tempuhari jika satu dari tali bendera tertanggal dacing akan kelihatan terbalik dan merendahkan martabatnya.

Kalau buat kain rentang atau banner gunakanlah design terkini, jgn TERLALU

FORMAL, kengkadang saya suka tengok banner2 parti pembangkang kerana terkini dari segi designnya.

Mengenai nilai tambah, contoh yang paling nyata ialah:

MOTOROLA adalah pengasas kepada telefon bimbit satu masa dahulu, tapi sekarang NOKIA yang menerajui pasaran kerana mempunyai nilai tambah dan sentiasa ada model terbaru setiap 3 bulan.

Bagi kerja kerja rebranding saya ada Team yang berkebolehan untuk melaksanakannya bukanlah untuk untung berlipat ganda tapi untuk terus memastikan MALAYSIA ini aman dan sejahtera. Sila hubungi melalui email.

1Malaysia

Rakyat di dahulukan

Pencapaian di utamakan adalah satu tagline yang terbaru, begitu juga dengan UMNO dan BN, buat tag line baru. Mungkin pendapat saya ini nampak remeh temeh tapi jika dapat di buat sesegera mungkin hasilnya pasti POSITIF. Jangan kita terikut ikut rentak pembangkang biarkan retorik diaorg tu yang tak berkesudahan, Kerajaan mesti terus menjana minda minda baru yang lebih segar.

Renung dan bertindaklah. T.Kasih.

Cur aboriginal tribes are quite well taken care off by JHEOA and other agencies. In Kelantan, if you get an Orang Asli wife Nik Aziz will give RM1000 for support. However, no 3-day holiday if you got marital problems as in Terengganu!

Do not mess around with these people. Dare you to fight a tiger. No homo stuff for you will get the Ipoh dart right in between. Pity my people, the Orang Asli, LIVING ON THE EDGE:

What is there in the jungle? There are thousands and thousands of trees – big trees, small trees, dead trees, and cut-up trees. Climbing these trees and sometimes choking them are the vines and lianas.

What else are in the jungle? There are a myriad of creatures – big and small that depend on the jungle for their habitat and survival. The vertebrates such as elephants, tapirs, tigers, deer, seladangs, snakes, iguanas, pangolins roam the ground. Monkeys, squirrels, bats, birds are mainly arboreal in habitat. Others such as frogs, tortises, crocodiles, fishes are fully or partly amphibious.

The invertebrates are too numerous to name all. There are various kinds of insects, beetles, leeches, worms, microorganisms that are found in the soil or above ground.

Underneath the dense jungle canopy and on the ground surface is a thick layer of leaf-litter in various stages of decomposition. Earthworms, crickets and soil organisms are some of the agents of decomposition. Nutrients released therefrom are absorbed by the roots of trees and plants to enable them to manufacture food for their growth. Under undisturbed jungle, nutrient recycling is in a state of equilibrium. The trees are self-supporting and so thus the jungle.

Plight

Imagined or real there are spirits in the jungle, evil ones and kind-hearted ones. And among all these hive and jive, live the human jungle dwellers, the Orang Asli, the so-called Proto-Malays, the pioneer brother of the Deutro-Malays.

The Orang Asli are my people. Unscrupulous people have taken many parts of the jungle i.e. my kampongs and my towns so to speak. They simply come in with huge machines to get timber and make way for roads and farms. What are we supposed to do?

Our sources of plants for food and medicine are increasingly difficult to get. The rivers where we take our bath and catch fishes are no more pristine but coloured like teh-tarik. Our catch of birds, monkeys, squirrels and snakes are getting meager day by day because you have killed them directly or indirectly or driven them far into the jungle.

Now, we cannot hold wildboar feasts often anymore. When the outsiders use guns to hunt them wildlife dear to us such as seladang and deer, these animals become a rarity. We use traps and sumpit to hunt for food. The blowpipe dart cannot go very far as your bullets. Our catch are thus limited. Moreover, many of us are getting old and cannot blow our sumpit strong like before.

We are an ignorant and confused lot. We live by the land. Whatever extra money we have we buy salt, sugar, rice, Panadol, and titbits for the children from the van-seller. Please do not make it more difficult for us by proclaiming that our traditional shifting cultivation is bad for the environment. How could we move the mountains with our bare hands and primitive tools? It is the supposedly civilized people with machines who flatten the mountains and destroy the forests and everything in them including us.

Man-eaters

Sometimes ago, one of our people in Kampung Reka in Kelantan claimed that he saw a Si-Misai Belang (part of jungle law to call them indirectly and show respect) dragging a victim into the jungle. This was not the first and last episode. Since time immemorial there had been very many of our people were brutally devoured. At night we even have to compete with the elephants to gather durian fruits before they swallow them away.

We are the protectors of the jungle. The jungle is not neutral. We were then in the diffused forefront where the communists were active. It was not easy to fight against the terrorists knowing very well that they were lurking somewhere there. We were sharing the same jungle and footpaths. It was like sharing the bed with the enemy – sumpit versus gun.

We encouraged our young to join the Senoi Praq as jungle trackers and scouts that helped saved lives of many government soldiers during the emergency. They get some monthly pension, meager though.

Protection

Some years ago, there was a case of a group of local Malays (Kelantan) who tried to seize our land and we had to rough them up in self defense. A few got hurt. Several of us were brought to court and appeared on TV handcuffed. How haggard looking and malnourished they were! Theirs was a minor offense compared to ones who traded in dadah and whatnot. They are rich and yet want more and more. Ours was a case of survival, theirs greed above all, above patriotism.

We need protection or ways to defend ourselves and our families. There are so many intruders nowadays, humanoid and non-humanoid that come into the so-called reservation that you have alienated for us.

Was it true that a far-distant blood-cousin of us who lives along the Yuat River in that far-flung island of Papua New Guinea had his blood sample taken? They said that he has immunity against malaria and wanted to study and patent his cell line. They say that there are provisions in the global agreement on the Convention of Biological Diversity (CBD) for intellectual property rights and equitable sharing of benefits.

Now, if somebody come to my people and try to do something like that, what shall we do? We cannot run to the nearest police station to report immediately because it is so many miles away! Our area is not accessible by mobile phone either. We are hapless people.

Our health

Although we have the jungle reservation to live in (and die) but the boundry is constantly being encroached. Before the past general election, the government proposed to establish a botanical park in Perak. We objected because part of our land may be taken. Thus, our area is getting smaller and we have no title to the land.

A couple of years ago a number of children died from unknown causes in Cameron Highlands. The wanton use of chemicals by farmers have contaminated the groundwater and rivers - where our daily lives centred. The health of our people and surroundings are in dire need of rehabilitation. Booze and AIDS have come to our reservation. What has our government caretakers got to say to our predicament? Dia orang tu memang macam tu!

For some of us, the government has built us houses fitted with zinc roof. But the roofs are too low and become unbearable during the heat of the day. We still prefer the traditional huts of palas roof even though we have to go deeper into the jungle and be free, at least for a little while more.

Five-point strategy

For long term sustainability the government could help to improve our living standard by:

1. Demarcate suitable agricultural land and give advise, supplies, guidance and incentives how to grow food and economic crops.
2. Help market our agricultural produce and jungle products.
3. Train us in various trades, skills, and crafts so that we could be more self-reliant and provide us better job opportunities.
4. Improve our health by providing better sanitation, medical services, drinking water, electricity and other amneties.
5. Build playgrounds, courts for sepak takraw, volleyball and such, community halls that also serve to play indoor games.
6. We need land titles for our reservation to secure ourselves legally and assure us security in this "Tanah Tumpah Darah Ku".

Assalamualaikum Ayahnda Tun & Bonda,

please allow me,

i must say that he is not fit at all to be the PM because for all we know he has a big political platform at home but he chose to go & cry for help outside. he never treated his allies DAP, PAS & even his own people in PKR as buddies because he would rather be with his buddies in US & elsewhere. he has not only degraded his own integrity but also the opposition leaders because he loves to get help from uncle sam compared to uncle lim or tgn. since he's the top advisor to his allies, it seems he needs no advice from his subordinates, eh? are they his subordinates? i dont see it here

he loves to tell his people this & that whenever he's back from overseas & his followers accept whatever he told them because they love to listen to HE SAYS...he cannot even lead his followers to become better and honest because they love to echo his lies...i've mentioned some where before that he took the jews as his good buddy, godfather & advisors, took them into his house for meals & befriend them for his & their own interests, not for malaysians or his followers, only for his & their sake.

he never wants justice for other people. he only wants justice for himself, him alone. he doesnt even being just to his family, he always leaves them in doubt. if we follow the court case, it is all the way for his benefits, so many lawyers & attorneys & the accused has more privilege than the accuser. he's playing victim here. this is not a political case but a personal case between a coffee boy & his employer, his boss. if we look at the details, it would be very difficult for this boy to escape from the trap laid by his boss. how many times had this boy to say the password before he could get through to his meeting place? how many people he had to pass through till he met his boss? this is not just any man, but a very powerful man with many faithful workers beside him. please listen to what his ex-secretary, his ex-youth leaders & other ex-demos since 1997/98 got to say. these are the people who had directly involved with the riots, demonstrations & chaos created back then just to caryy out what he had planned. they know what actually happened since they were in the mud altogether. to some who are still working close with him, they know the truth, too. but to sacrifice their seasonal comforts, it's a no,no.

what ever it is, this boy might have been very naive & weak back then but now he's very determined, patient & calm because he knows that Allah Ta'ala is with him. he had taken the sacred oath & he has repented. people who doubt his repentance should ask themselves back, can/will they do that? i doubt because many people believe more in cheap court declarations made with unreliable sources.

there would be more dramas to come but rest assure there'll be more delays, too.

May Allah SWT bless you both Ayahnda Tun & Bonda.

Wassalam.

just my brain wave.

1. The incident of the Australian Indian is definitely a tragedy and it must be solved fairly at their own jurisdiction despite the fact that the Australian White Policy can be discouraging to other sometimes.
2. Malaysia is currently facing a greater challenge more than ever before. Rakyat need justice and equal opportunity to all citizens of Malaysia. It is our right.
3. It is very disturbing from Dr. M's view about the conspiracy of regime change of Malaysia by a foreign country. Malaysian citizen or Rakyat will have zero tolerance to this effort. Rakyat must fight every effort to the invading foreign power!
4. However, Rakyat should be wise enough to tell what is right or wrong. I will wonder how true is this conspiracy? based on what? who gave this information? to whom? If this is a mere speculation but not on fact and evidence which cause disturbing and insecure situation to the society, what will Rakyat react to this? Feel offended? don't you feel this is some sort of sedition? Will government take action to those making false accusation? Will sedition charge come into play? Is Internal Security Act (ISA) come into play?
5. History will tell the answer.

Salam Tun & Fellow CheDet's Bloggers,

Suddenly, DSAI name has been frequently mentioned by a few of our fellow bloggers to confirm that he must be the darling of the west just as Blair, the "poodle" to G.W. Bush.

That must be the key to the reason why the "west" are so critical of Malaysia in every issue they can capitalise on, be it

- 1- No Democracy ( just because the opposition they support had not manage rule the country proven by HAMAS winning election in GAZA),
- 2- Islamist radicals ( Pak Lah tried to promote "Islam Hadari" as moderate just to please the west ),
- 3- No religious tolerance ( just because HINDRAF reported to them of Hindu "temples" were demolished on daily basis and now they cannot use word Allah for their god
- 4- Centre of terrorists ( just because one passing through Malaysia or Mat Top was a Malaysian ),
- 5- Violation of human right ( because we ban gay or we try to bring Penan People to enjoy a better life ),
- 6- Ozone destroyer ( just because we clear the forest to plant rubber trees & oil Palm - to compete with their soyabean - to improve our economy ),
- 7- Cruelty to animal ( just because the way we slaughter chicken/cows )
- 8- Bad treatment of its citizens e.g. making women as 2nd class because they are asked to cover their "aurat" - tak syoklah tak dapat tengok - not as exposed western women )
- 9- Racist ( just because we unfairly treat Non Bumiputra as 2nd class race )
- 10- No freedom speech ( just because they cannot freely bad mouth anybody they want )
- 11- No freedom of the press ( just because they cannot print anything they want as what the Danish & Swedish newspapers did )
- 12- No Justice system ( just because the opposition lost more court cases than they won )

- 13- Barbaric ( just because we hanged drug traffickers )
- 14- Corruption ( just because Tun needed more than RM50,000 to favour award to a British contractor )
- 15- Dawn Raid was Unethical ( just because we were smarter by using their own law to buy and own Guthrie )
- 16- Anti western ( just because we adopt look east policy )
- 17- ISA is cruel ( just because Kemunting is not up to the standard of Guantamo )

What more can I say to make every Malaysian to wake up and stand up to the outsiders especially the west, telling us how to run our country and our way of life we choose. Therefore to label DSAI ( who will do anything, ANYTHING even his soul, to become PM of Malaysia ) as a traitor cannot easily be disputed.

May Allah protect us from such a person being our future leader. Ameen

2) mungkin sbb itu ahli parlimen australia melakukan protes pada perbicaraan kali ini.

3) syabas buat tun yg masih gagah & bersemangat menentang penjajah atau white man yg suka memandang rendah negara kita.

masih ingat saya jika tak silap saya dalam perutusan tahun baru, tun memberi amaran yg berbunyi: samaada menentang pengganas, atau pre emtive strike, we will deal and you will face with bloody norse. andaian saya , ayat itu ditujukan kepada pm australia masa tu.

tahniah tun atas semangat yg masih membara. tapi pm-pm lepas tun, tak berani lagi macam tun esp. bila berdepan dengan foreign press di luar negara.

4) perbicaraan kali ini, liwat atau tak liwat, sebagai rakyat kebanyakan, saya benar benar dah meluat dengan politik hafri ini. 2x5 5x2.

MAYBE later we can change it to Hello Gi' Day or Buon Giorno , that is ho they say it in Australia. Maybe next election we can go to our new parliamentary in Australia:

If.....we decide to put our faith of governing our laws according to theirs better we give them everything we have if..... the people of Malaysian decide to let the Aussie determine our nature of law.

Maybe it nice if we can go for political matters while our family can go for the best Australian tours with special privilege since we are Aussie TOO.....YES

By garfonky  on February 20, 2010 12:09 PM

First of all, I would suggest you stop trying to spin the issue.

-If you have read Michael Danby's full speech, he displayed more knowledge about the case than many Malaysians!

-Your best argument is that there was no outcry when other Malaysians are convicted of sodomy? Why are you rebutting such an irrelevant part of his speech? He alleges that "documents are being forged, witnesses coerced, evidence fabricated". Why not argue that point?

-The main thing is that you always say the same line "Developed countries do not know Malaysia and therefore should not interfere"

-I would liken this mentality to a rebellious teenage kid, doing questionable things and causing self harm. All the while his friends and family are saying that its wrong. "I don't care, You never understand me! I do what I want!" the kid says.

-Malaysians must realise that no matter who is right, THIS is the global perception of Malaysia, and we will not be able to change it if we keep brushing aside global perception.

-And your every argument oozes racial sentiments. Why spin this to be about race? Michael Danby mentioned nothing about ethnicity.

- "Practice what you preach" is the phrase of the day I believe. If you don't like other commenting about your country, then maybe you should first stop talking about others. 9/11 conspiracy anyone?

i dont think we should burn our bridges with the aussies too much. we have much to gain from holding cordial relations with this western nation. of course, i understand that us malays ought to be given more respect for our style of managing the country as we have managed to produce a successful nation thus far. But westerners will always be that and being still in advance in some respects will continue to view their role wrt other so-called lesser nations as the cheif justice. I think it is up to us to make sure that anwar is presumed innocent until proven guilty and unfortunately the press hasnt fulfilled their role. our broadsheets such as the government backed media according to what ive heard from reporters in malaysian insider, forgive me if im bringing up a incorrect point, have noted a bias towards fauzi or whatever his name is. and this apparently is one area that in this supertrial we can learn from for future reporting. Unfortunately to my dismay since your glory days and whilst im still a young man the collapse of the media standards has really affected the nation in a negative way and Barisan nasional and the citizens are really feeling the negative effects of globalisation.

What a lame excuse of a blog... With this kind of mindset spearheading the governance of our beautiful country, we will only remain as a developing country only dreaming of being developed. Our country is already tarnished by sinister forces who are making us look stupid, internationally. What we need now is get the government to act like gentlemen and not protest on the streets and waste more taxpayer money for this. Why is there only a protest by government officials and certain NGOs working with the government protesting and not the general public? That's because the general public are intelligent enough to see that the reason behind the memorandum by the Australians MPs is purely for the reason of human rights. Don't tell me that human rights is only for Malaysians which definitely is not working out well here either?

Well said Dr M.

You can't really blame them.. after all, they are 'Australian'! (The Kiwi's will understand what I mean).

If a Malaysian MP would comment or criticize an OZ political matter, the OZ's will say, "who gives a damn". As for me, when an OZ MP makes statements as they do, I say the same to them. Empty vessels make the most noise.

Salam,

***** Barry Wain*****

Biasalah kalau nak lariskan buku, kenalah cerita perkara2 yang sensasi. Kalau tidak mana boleh Barry Wain nak terkenal dan dapat jemputan ceramah serta hasil pendapatan jual buku. Suratkhbar Malaysia, blog2 politik Malaysia apa kurang hebatnya? Yang paling kuat gempaq di Malaysia sekarang ialah Pakatan Rakyat atau nama timang2an 3 sekawan, Pendekar Bujang Lapuk atau dalam Bahasa Inggeris 3 musketeers, ooop, silap terjemahan yang sebenarnya 3 Stooges.

*****.One Nation(bukan 1Malaysia)*****

Orang Australia memang sangat kuat perkauman. Tak silap saya tahun 1998, Pauline Hanson mencuba karier politik dengan menubuhkan parti One Nation . Untuk menang parti One Nation(bukan 1 Malaysia) cuma main isu perkauman sehingga Parti dia berjaya dapat undi agak besar di Queensland state election dan mendapat populariti secara spontan seluruh Australia. Tapi kemenangan parti One Nation hanya sementara. Puncanya banyak sebab ikut akhbar Australia; dua sebab utama ialah (1) lack of party unity (2) John Howard dituduh tiru polisi immigration one Nation. Berita dunia kata baru2 ini Pauline dah balik kampung halaman Datuk moyang dia kat England. Pauline rak perasan kot di UK pun banyak pendatang asing.

*****Diskriminasi terhadap Orang India dan Asli Australia*****

Satu sebab mungkin orang Australia memilih siapa mangsa dia nak lanyak bergantung pada taraf hidup seseorang. Orang India yang pi Australia kebanyakannya miskin,lepas itu sifat orang India pula jenis boleh dijangka apa dia nak buat.Orang India kalau tak suka satu perkara, depa terus tanpa pikir2 masak2 buat perangai. Berbeza kaum pendatang lain yang pikir berkali2 sebelum buat sesuatu tindakan kerana kuatir kena belasah tanpa henti2 . Orang Australia yang ganas, kebanyakan keturunan kena buang daerah dari UK. Habis orangAsli kena bunuh, sebab depa nak tanah orang Asli yang subur dan depa hambat orang Asli duk kat kawasan2 gersang. Serupa sepupu depa di US buatkan Red Indian. Orang Melayu tumpang sekaki tengok cerita John Wayne(bukan Barry Wain) dan lain2 zaman dulu.

****Pakatan rakyat sehati sejiwa MP Australia*****

Mana2 orang malaysia berjiwa Pakatan Rakyat sahaja sehati sejiwa dengan ahli Parlimen Australia kot. Tapi Datuk Hadi Awang lain sikit, ada maruah ,dia tak nak campur tangan negara asing urusan kes Anwar.Orang pakatan Rakyat lain, apa yang depa rasa menguntungkan, hentam saja.

Aihh,lambatnya nak tunggu tumbang kerajaan Khalifah Lim Guan Eng. Talian hayat Khalifah Lim Guan Eng bukan pada UMNO atau PKR Penang tapi ada pada Ustaz Azizan Kedah. Sekali dia lensing dengan bil air(ayak)juta2 habis terpeleok Penang. Ustaz Azizan, belasah Penang cukup2 depa duk asyik main ayak buat nasi kandaq makan soqang2. Kalau YB Guan Eng nak murah, bagi ayak selud bendang kat Penang cukup la.

I'm not surprised that you also read the Aussie MPs circulated letter.Obviously you don't approve of it.We'll see whether there's any far-reaching effect at the end of next election.You don't need to worry so much 'cos you're safe & sound.So just enjoy your life for you have every reason to do so.

Assalamualikum Ayahnda Tun & Bonda,

please allow me,

i must say that he is NOT FIT AT ALL to be a Malaysian PM because for all we know he's a person with a big political platform at home but he chose to go & cry for help outside. he never treated his alliances DAP, PAS & even his own people in PKR as buddies because he would rather be with people in US. he has not only degraded his own integrity but also all the opposition leaders because he loves to get help from uncle sam compared to uncle lim or tgn. since he's the top advisor to his allies, he needs no advice from his subordinates, eh? are they his subordinates? i dont see it here

he loves to tell his people this & that whenever he's back from overseas & his followers accept whatever he told them because they love to listen to HEARSAYS or his sayings...he cannot even lead his followers to become better and honest malaysians because they love to echo his lies...i've mantioned some where before that he took the jews as his good buddy, godfather &

he never wants justice for other people. he only wants justice for himself, him alone. he doesn't even being just to his faithful wife & family, he always leaves them in doubt. if we follow the court case, it is all the way for his benefits, so many lawyers & attorneys & the accused has more privilege than the accuser. he's playing victim here. this is not a political case but a personal case between a coffee boy & his employer, his boss. if we look at the details, it would be very difficult for this boy to escape from the trap laid by his boss. how many times had this boy to say the password before he could get through to his meeting place? how many people he had to pass through till he met his boss? this is not just any man, but a very powerful man with many faithful workers beside him. please listen to what his ex-secretary, his ex-youth leaders & other ex-demos since 1997/98 got to say. these are the people who had directly involved with the riots, demonstrations & chaos created back then just to carry out what he had planned. they know what actually happened. to some who are still working close with him, they know the truth, too. but to sacrifice their seasonal comforts, it's a no, no.

this boy might have been very weak back then but now he's very determined, patient & calm because he knows that Allah Ta'ala is with him. he had taken the sacred oath & he has repented. people who doubt his repentance should ask themselves back, can/will they do that? i doubt because many people believe more in court declaration.

there would be more dramas to come but rest assure there'll be more delays, too.

May Allah SWT bless you both Ayahnda Tun & Bonda.

Wassalam.

just my brain wave.

Salam Tun and fellow bloggers,

1. the whites are always thinking they're the chosen ones - to lead others
2. these white MPs from Australia for all u know may be the descendants of the criminals sent by the British - remember the convicts?
3. it's not about democracy, but as Tun had stated, they have agendas - to put into power their candidates. I still remember during the 1999 election, Wan Azizah proudly announced the attendance of the whites from various countries to give her their supports during her campaign. It's a fact all over the world, these whites from powerful nations will back the oppositions to topple leaders not to their likings.
4. the biggest culprit is Anwar and his cronies who will do anything to stop Anwar from being sentenced. Anwar will do anything including selling his soul to be the PM. I'm sure these white MPs have dealings with Anwar. they love Anwar but their PM called Tun degil...so it's obvious right?
5. these MPs don't give a damn whether Anwar is guilty or not, they're more interested to put Anwar as the PM so he will open the door to them - for power and money. Trust me, democracy is just another bullsh....

Thank you Tun for freeing me of that mentality - white is right, white is might...they're just like us, ada pemalas, ada conman, ada useless bums..ada baik dan ada yang jahat. I hope the civilized whites will educate those mps and others.

Dear Tun,

I condemn the killing of Indian students by Australian thugs, but closer to home I'm also against the manipulation of the judiciary by the executive. That's the root cause of these protests by the Aussie MPs, the US senators, etc. If we can protest about the Israelis killing the innocent in Gaza (and rightfully so) and the Burmese junta persecuting the opposition leader Su Kyi, we should also be open to criticisms by other countries since we are part of a global community. No man is an island is what you used to say.

Dear Tun dan warga chedet yang lain

Assalamualaikum...

Ramai warga kilang yang sebenarnya dah tak ambil pusing dengan kes itu. Bersalah atau tidak, tak akan memberi kesan terus kepada kami.

Kenapa akhbar2 kita masih nak besarkan berita kes ini? Masih di muka hadapan setiap hari. Banyak berita lain yang lebih penting. Tak perlu lah promosikan Anwar atau pun Saiful.

Sepatutnya Najib sudah belajar dari kesilapan Pak Lah. Tolonglah berhenti dari membela yang sedikit, menyusahkan yang ramai. Sudah lupakah kita bagaimana Pak Lah membayar bekas2 hakim yang sememangnya sudah berduit, tapi Pak Lah naik kan harga minyak yang menyusahkan orang biasa.

Sudah lupakah kita warga ISA yang hanya beberapa orang di bebaskan oleh Pak Lah dan kerana mereka inilah sifat perkauman makin berleluasa yang hingga kini, terus meluap-luap.

Kenapa membiarkan warga asing masuk dengan mudah, kemudian kalutlah RELA Polis dan sebagainya mengejar PATI malam dan siang? Kenapa tak hapuskan puncanya? Tolonglah Najib, janganlah biarkan warga asing menjadi sudah tidak asing lagi nanti.

Saban hari, kita dikhabarkan tentang tangkapan GRO atau pun pelacur dari merata negara. Ada yang masuk sebagai Pelajar. Kalau dah masuk kedalam negara, susahlah. Polis, RELA perlu buat operasi ke pusat hiburan dan sebagainya.

Jangan Bagi masuk. Hanya yang benar2 ingin belajar di sini sahaja di benarkan. Tak kan tak tau kot, untuk belajar di Jepun, seorang pelajar di mestikan ada wang tunjuk atau Guarantee sekurang-kurangnya RM30,000 di dalam bank. Buatlah sistem yang sama atau hampir sama. Hanya yang benar2 ingin belajar saja masuk ke negara kita. Seandainya pelacur2 sudah ada simpanan RM30,000 di negara mereka, tentu mereka tak akan datang melacur ke Malaysia. kan?

Carilah punca setiap masalah. Kalau sistem TOYOTA, tanyakan Why? sekurang-kurangnya 5 kali kepada setiap masalah yang timbul untuk mendapatkan jawapan dan punca sebenar kepada masalah tersebut.

Hanya nyatakan pandangan warga kilang.
Peace..

Al Salmu Alaikum Dear Tun Dr. Mahathir,

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I come before you with the most serious of messages. For I will focus on no other topic from this point hence, but that of the Impending danger lurking in the shadows.

I am not a Malay.

I am not Living in Malaysia.

I am not a Politician, NOR do I ever want to be one. NOT EVER.

I am just a person that sees Malaysia as the Last fort of Islam.

I see the Barbarians at the Gates and I see the Natives Asleep.

Read Carefully....

During the recent Conference on the Islam and the US held in Doha Qatar, you can just see Anwar Ibrahim and Mr. Martin Indyk, share intimate conversations numerous times and sat next to each other before, during and after the presentations as well as after that.

Martin Sean Indyk (b. 1951 - ) is Acting Vice President for Foreign Policy at the Brookings Institution in Washington, D.C. Indyk served as United States ambassador to Israel and Assistant Secretary of State for Near East Affairs during the Clinton Administration. He is arguably best known as one of the lead U.S. negotiators at the Camp David talks. He is also known as the framer of the U.S. policy of dual containment which sought to 'contain' Iraq and Iran, which were both viewed as Israel's two most important strategic adversaries at the time.

He was born on July 1, 1951 to a Jewish family in London, England, but grew up and was educated in Australia, growing up in the Sydney suburb of Castlecrag. He graduated from the University of Sydney in 1972 and got a PhD in international relations from the Australian National University in 1977. He immigrated to the United States and later gained American citizenship in 1993. He was formerly married to Jill Collier Indyk with whom he had two children, Sarah and Jacob

In 1982, Indyk began working as a deputy research director for the American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC), a pro-Israel lobbying group in Washington.[1][2] In 1985 Indyk served eight years as the founding Executive Director of the Washington Institute for Near East Policy, a research institute specializing in analysis of Middle East policy. He has also been an adjunct professor at the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies where he taught Israeli politics and foreign policy.

He has taught at the Middle East Institute at Columbia University, the Moshe Dayan Center for Middle Eastern and African Studies at Tel Aviv University, and the Department of Politics at Macquarie University in Sydney, Australia. Indyk has published widely on U.S. policy toward the Arab-Israeli peace process, on U.S.-Israeli relations, and on the threats of Middle East stability posed by Iraq and Iran.

He served as special assistant to U.S. President Bill Clinton and as senior director of Near East and South Asian Affairs at the United States National Security Council. While at the NSC, he served as principal adviser to the President and the National Security Advisor on Arab-Israeli issues, Iraq, Iran, and South Asia. He was a senior member of Secretary of State Warren Christopher's Middle East peace team and served as the White House representative on the U.S. Israel Science and Technology Commission.[3]

He served two stints as United States Ambassador to Israel, from April 1995 to September 1997 and from January 2000 to July 2001[4] and was the first and so far, the only, foreign-born US Ambassador to Israel.

The Weekend Australian of March 22-3, 2008 [5], reported that an Iraqi operative in the Gaza Strip wrote a letter, dated June 30, 2001, to Baath Party officials in Baghdad suggesting the assassination of Indyk, a plot which came to nothing.

He is currently a Senior Fellow and Director of the Saban Center for Middle East Policy in the Foreign Policy Studies program at The Brookings Institution. Indyk's involvement and that of the institution are noted in John Mearsheimer and Stephen Walt's 2007 book The Israel Lobby and U.S. Foreign Policy, saying: "Take the Brookings Institution. For many years, its senior expert on the Middle East was William Quandt, a former National Security Council official with a well-deserved reputation for even-handedness. Today, Brookings's coverage is conducted through the Saban Center for Middle East Policy, which is financed by Haim Saban, an Israeli-American businessman and ardent Zionist. The centre's director is the ubiquitous Martin Indyk. In his video interview with Leadel.NET, Martin Indyk speaks of the path he followed from a young int'l relations student and volunteer in a kibbutz during the 1973 Yom Kippur war, until he was made the first (and second) Jewish American ambassador to Israel. In a January 8th 2009 Democracy Now! interview, Indyk said he was "unprepared" to discuss current Israeli-Palestinian peace negotiations with Norman Finkelstein regardless of the fact that these were mentioned in his book, Innocent Abroad: An Intimate Account of American Peace Diplomacy. Indyk said that he had been "sandbagged" because he claimed he had only agreed to talk about Innocent Abroad. Finkelstein challenged Indyk's book and statements nevertheless Now ask yourself the question: What is the relationship between Martin Inyk and Anwar Ibrahim? .....Why? Why? Why? Why? Why? Why?

Here are the painful facts:

Anwar Ibrahim is the greatest single threat that Malaysia has faced since the Japanese invasion.

If Anwar Ibrahim ever makes it to power, there will be;

- 1- Foreign Military bases on Malaysian Soil.
- 2- Complete "De-Islamisation" of Malaysia
- 3- Complete eradication of any and all Malaysian Pride or identity.
- 4- Hand delivery of Johor's to Singapore
- 5- "De-Clawing" Northern Malaysia to submit to Thailand
- 6- Crushing the Malaysian Business Infrastructure by the IMF and the World bank as well as foreign corporations who will dominate all assets and drown Malaysia in Debt that will never be paid.
- 7- Enslavement of every single Malay to serve the will of the Kings of Wall Street.

Wake-Up everyone!

Wake-Up before it is too late!

As far as Australia and the BBC...etc, they are nothing but the barking dogs ahead of a marching Army.

The storm clouds are gathering on the not-so-distant horizon and soon the thunder of the enemies' onslaught will be loudly heard.

THEY ARE COMING!!!

Hold the line, dig in your heels, and stand fast.

God Bless Tun Mahathir and family
God Bless Malaysia

Assalamualikum W.B.T Yg Bhg Tun,

Sebagai seorang rakyat Malaysia yang berpegang teguh kepada semangat jati diri, saya amat teruja dan terpenggil mengulas pandangan Tun terhadap isu permintaan dan desakan 50 orang ahli Parlimen Australia supaya kerajaan Malaysia menggugurkan dakwaan kes liwat Dato' Seri Anwar Ibrahim Penasihat Parti keadilan Rakyat merangkap Ketua Pembangkang di Parlimen Malaysia.

Malaysia sebuah negara Merdeka dan Berdaulat, tidak perlu kepada sebarang campur tangan asing/negara asing terhadap sebarang urusan dalaman negara termasuk kes perundangan yang melibatkan dakwaan kes liwat Dato' Seri Anwar Ibrahim. Sebagai sebuah negara berdaulat Malaysia mempunyai sistem perundangan yang amat berwibawa, setaraf dengan sistem perundangan negara-negara maju di dunia dan peringkat antarabangsa. Usaha-usaha pihak-pihak tertentu yang berkepentingan khususnya politik yang cuba membawa masuk campur tangan asing bagi menentukan hala tuju sesuatu urusan dalaman negara Malaysia amat wajar ditentang habis-habisan oleh rakyat dan kepimpinan negara Malaysia yang benar-benar menghayati kedaulatan negara Malaysia. Kita tidak mahu negara Malaysia dijajah semula jika tidak dengan senjata pemusnah tetapi penjajahan minda seperti yang pernah disuarakan oleh Tun pada satu ketika dahulu.

Desakan parti pembangkang atau pakatan pembangkang diantaranya yang disuarakan oleh YB Lim Kit Siang dari DAP melalui media masa agar Parlimen mengadakan persidangan khas bagi membincangkan isu dakwaan liwat Dato' Seri Anwar Ibrahim amatlah tidak wajar. Kes liwat Dato' Seri Anwar Ibrahim bukanlah satu kes yang boleh memudaratkan negara dan rakyat Malaysia, malah ianya merupakan kes peribadi diantara Dato' Seri Anwar Ibrahim dan pengadu Mohd Saiful Bukhari Azlan, sama seperti kes-kes dakwaan yang dihadapi oleh rakyat Malaysia yang lain. Apa perlunya Parlimen mengadakan persidangan khas bagi membincangkan kes dakwaan liwat Dato' Seri Anwar Ibrahim. Pakatan pembangkang janganlah menyalahgunakan Parlimen bagi tujuan peribadi orang-orang tertentu atau tujuan meraih keuntungan politik individu tertentu. Parlimen khusus bersidang untuk merencana pembangunan negara demi kesejahteraan rakyat.

Sekain, Salam hormat Tun. Wassalam.

Salam hormat Tun mahathir

Menurut saya Anwar Ibrahim sengaja lambat2kan sidang liwatnya supaya beliau dapat simpati dari unsur2 luar negeri. Mengapa Anwar harus takut kalau tidak bersalah karna Allah lebih berkuasa. Begitu Anwar Ibrahim dapat tahu ada laporan polisi dari Saiful segra Anwar Ibrahim melarikan diri ke kedutaan Turkey kononnya Nyawa nya terancam tetapi sapa sekarang beliau kesana sini tidak pernah mengeloh ada acaman nywanya. Mudah2an Anwar Ibrahim dapat membuktikan nywanya benar2 teracam waktu melari kan diri ke kedutaan Turkey di makamah. Semua rakyat jelata ingin tahu. Memang saya tidak paham mengapa pengikutnya tidak dapat melihatnya. Lebih cepat sidang ini berakhir lebih cepat Anwar Ibrahim dapat membuktikan tidak bersalah. Apa yang belaku sekarang bukan dapat membanru beliau tetapi Rakyat makin lama percaya Anwar Ibrahim coba menghindari dari di hukom. Berani karna benar dan takut karna salah. Alasan nya konpirasy(lagu lama) sebenarnya Anwar Ibrahim perlu berorbat dan buktikan dengan rakyat beliau tidak bersalah tetapi bukan segaja membuang waktu rakyat.

Dear Tun Dr M,

It is the typical of Caucasian mentality that they are a level above than the others even till now. Even today, though China and India are fully fledged economic nations and the already advanced Japan and Korea, they still think that these countries are not of the same standard as theirs.

However, they lure professionals and skilled personnel to their countries in droves. So much so, the local Caucasians feel that their rice bowl and neighborhood is under threat. The attack on Indians in Australia is for the same reason. Several years back, the Oriental community were under attack in the same country due to dispute in business opportunities.

This shows that Australia has erred in its Immigration policy, orientation or foreigners and to teach Australians to adapt to change in neighborhood and working environment.

Asians mentality to need to be changed. They give their Caucasian acquaintances royal treatment as compared to people of their own. The perception of Asians should change and only then we can expect some change in the mentality of Caucasians.

I would like to stress that a significant number of Caucasians are as mentioned above. There are truly down to earth and very professional Caucasians from all corners of the earth.

Asians (except for a few advanced & highly cultured nations) need to increase polished and professional practice when it comes to Enforcement of Law, Upholding Law & Order.

We need to have mutual respect, trust & help to coexist in harmony and peace in this world.

To most of us, he who said ""bawalah pisau – senang nak kupas limau" over RTM and he who said "mandikan keris dengan darah orang Cina" had more reasons to be arrested than Chandra Muzaffar who merely asked for the Constitution to be reviewed. Or did I get it wrong somewhere?

Dr Mahathir you disappoint me. You are playing the same game as the global corporate elites. They also play one side against another. While our traitor Placido Domingo, alias Paul Keating of Aust politics described you as recalcitrant, I then admired you for your courage.

This is not a matter of West verses East nor Christian V's Islam. It is about common decency and rewarding those who really produce.

Paul Keating was in reality the Placebo Domdingo of Aust politics who sold us out by privatising our Commonwealth Bank.

This issue is not about Islam v's Christian, it is about freedom of the individual to choose their path of self determination.

Unless all people on this planet get together and determine a fair reward system for effort, we are all doomed to the self destructive forces of avarice and power perpetuated by the Global elites of the likes of the Rothschilds who see it as their right to divide and conquer.

I would say that Malaysia is one of the few countries that practices the principle of guilty until proven innocent. I am no fan of DSAI, but looking at the judgement of the Sodomy I trial is enough to disgust many (thinking people).

About the Australians and Indian students, how about deliberating on the Memali incident sir, just to clear the air because so many people are unaware of it all, even until now. But then again, you were not in the country when it happened.

Dear Tun,

Bravo to you Tun. Such eloquent rebuke of white supremacist policy telling the Australian MPs to mind their own business. May be the Australian MPs read 'news from Malaysia' only from Malaysiakini. Indeed Malaysiakini publishes every thing negative about the government. It says the DNA samples are taken from that of 1998. Najib murdered Altantuya and all the ridiculous rubbish. Malaysiakini is the number one enemy of the government, traitor.

By and large, the majority of Malaysians are still loyal to the legally elected government of the day.

I propose Tun Dr Mahathir stand for election in the next general election in Putrajaya and be our next Prime Minister.

Tun

on the account of Australian MPs sending in their "objections" and demanding charges against Anwar dropped - I absolutely agree they have no damn bloody business...definitely a blog to be written

Stick to these kind of arguments Tun and dont resort to cheap potshots as you did with your previous blog - especially not one that is expected from an elder statesman...

Assalamualaikum Tun,

1. It is an honour for me, for the first time to join in as a commentator in your blog.
2. I always went through your blog in my free time. My highest respect to your conscious mind, brilliant and sharp ideas. And as muslim, my du'a for your health and pray if any, God forgive of your wrongdoings and His merciful to show us the True Path.
3. I noticed that it has been your trend (your way!) to counter-attack using the so-called reverse psychology.
4. Regarding the Aussie MPs, I would agree with you, Tun, should not them act like a deputy sheriff in Asia, while, in their own country, there are still issues they need to address as you mentioned.
5. However, Tun, my concern is that I do share the same 'suspicious', 'worries', and 'curious' (as the Aussie MPs are) the way legal action carried out towards Anwar Ibrahim, and to the extend our own legal system itself.
6. This could be merely my perception, but in this IT era, where information is at your fingertip, it couldn't help me to resolve my anxiety seeing our legal system 'appear' to be manipulated, corrupted, probably by the court jester rather than the noble judge.
7. In the other words, Tun, I think the MPs (and kerry as well) try to 'menyibuk'/'suka jaga tepi kain orang' but I couldnt help myself to share the same perception as they are!
8. Wassalam.

Dear Tun,

So now we have a new sheriff in South-East Asia. Those MPs in Australia should shut up their mouth and don't interfere with our country legislation.

As far as I know, many Malaysian have been found guilty for committing such action but we hear no objection from them(the Aussies MPs) all this while.

All of us knew it already, the Aussies is now will rise as a new power in the pacific and will be less dependent on the chief sheriff from now on. We can obviously seen from their did and their plan to rapidly modernize all of their military assets at a very fast rate.

My conclusion, Malaysian should open their eyes widely and try not to get confuse who are on the truth side. Anyway, I want to thanks you Tun for all the stunning and amazing things you have did for our country! Thank You Tun!!!

Salam,

May Allah bless both of u..

Yes Tun, it is certainly that someone in our country try to form so-called 'Malaysia Baru'. He don't but in other way round Msian people can see there should be a hidden agenda in it. As we can flip through from the history, the white people is always like to give but need something in return. Msian people at that time is so naive, can't think out of the box. We thought they are like us-have one spirit so-called 'Ikhlas'..give and need nothing in return.. but at the end of the day, nothing left for the next generation..

Yes,apparently he is always looking for the outsider to back him up or let outsider especially the white people to interfere in our country matters.. This is no good. When you are obviously have no confidence with your own country's components such as laws,jurisdiction,enforcement agencies and so on.. it is no point for you to stay... But, as what has been mentioned by Tun, Socrates in Greek Ancient history-at one time had no confidence with his own country but he believe in one thing..The social contract.. In Malaysia we have the social contract and also Rukun Negara... You must obey in your homeland..

Tun has mentioned about the installation progress by the white people in our country's government and i am surprise that we still have people who are always support him.. still naive? The white people will always like that... give and need something in return.. it would be always.. and to those who are always looking for them, you must have something in hand as promise...

Again, Tun allow me to quote from your statement... "Anwar can make his bid when his time comes but it is for the Malaysian people to decide if he is fit to form the Government of this country".. Suppose, you must follow 'Judge Wenger J Khairy Laws of Common Sense'.. If you are really love this country, you must contribute something.. There is no point to oppose one another.Instead of looking others' fault, why not we combine together and contribute for the benefit of the country.. Bersatu Teguh, Bercerai Kita Roboh..

Salam..

The trial of Anwar's SODOMY Episode 2 has brought Malaysia into the limelight for all the wrong reasons.

We have become a laughing stock in the eyes of the world.

The accusations against Anwar is a "co-incident" well coordinated at the peak of his political career.

On the first episode, Anwar was charged for sodomy when he was a threat to Mahathir. Anwar was conveniently charged by Mahathir's stooges and thrown into prison, thus eliminating him(Anwar) of all threat. When the charges against Anwar were thrown out later and he released from prison, gross injustice was done to him and his family. Although he was cleared of his wrongdoings, he had to live with the stigma bestowed by the "PALACE of JUSTICE" for the rest of his life.

Anwar's release from prison gathered much sympathy for him. The 13th General Election results spoke in volumes of discontent the people had against the Government for the way it handled the current affairs of the state.

Anwar's popularity was again at the peak and support for him gained momentum.

Before the dust could settle, once again he was hauled up for sodomising his aide.

Why would Anwar ruin his career? If we are to analyse the charges against Anwar, we would find it difficult to believe for him to have indulged in such act, especially at this point of time.

The medical reports and police reports by Saiful leave much to be desired. What was the reason for Saiful to be at Najib's residence when he was a political aide to Anwar? A cast of doubt against the prosecution.

As a common man on the street, I find it difficult to digest the charges trumped against Anwar.Can't they(Government) come out with other form of accusation to finish off Anwar's political career? You don't need a genius to conclude the intention of the government.

The Government's mechanism including the police and judiciary is against him and obviously evidence against Anwar would be easily gathered by the prosecution. The judgement on this case, I believe, has already been made and the on going trial is just a sham. Miracles may happen, Anwar. Dont give up!

The world is watching us and when injustice is led to prevail, anyone could comment, especially when a leader is involved. The Australians are no exception to this. The charge of sodomy against Anwar is of national and international interest involving the leader of a shadow government and it should not be narrowly viewed as an interference of sovereign.

Malaysia, of late is getting popular for all the wrong reasons and lets hope our leaders exhibit some form of decency and pragmatism in handling the matter.

There is a saying in Malay - Berani kerana Benar, Takut kerana Salah. Guess this is one of the classic example. They can sue you for Millions of RM in Malaysian court, but they have no guts to be in court. Is this the future leader that his supporters want? If the opposition is saying there is no justice in Malaysian court, why are they taking their cases to court? Is justice is only when they win? For the monkeys from down under to send such petition - there must be a "political" reasons. Why are all the opposition supporters are so blind or choose to be blinded?

They preached about "Rakyat Hakim Negara" why not now let the trial begins and everyone can hear both sides - then rakyat can make thier own conclusion, regardless of the court's decision. It just shows that they can talk, but not walk the talk.

Take care Tun, we love you !

Assalamualaikum Tun,

I guess with your current article there will be a lot of Australian MP bashing by other commentors.

Lets talk about DSAI first. He is able to reign in the support of Islamist who are supporters of PAS and the Chinese supporters via support from DAP. Something which is near impossible since PAS wants an Islamic country with hudud laws and DAP wants a secular one. I remember one DAP leader once said, over his dead body should Malaysia become an Islamic country.

On top of that he has his own core supporters of Malays, be it from the kampung or even the professionals. All these are powerful groups in Malaysian politics.

The fact that DSAI has never lost in any UMNO elections or general elections for that matter just show how influential he is. My friend once said his oratory skills is so good even the devil will be influenced and side with him.

In the international arena, DSAI is being seen as a moderate Muslim leader. He is seen as someone who is able to 'tow the line' with Western policies and ideas while at the time control the support from the major groups in Malaysia. That's why the West loves him so much.

As for the Australian MPs, I doubt they are concerned about DSAI. If they are concerned, they would have studied thoroughly about the case on whether the Malaysian government was involved or not. I guess it's more towards their own domestic politics to gain popularity from Australian voters. Their mentality of "I am more civilized and developed than you" has not changed.

Assalamualaikum Tun.

Anwar sentiasa menjadi tarikan ramai. Semasa Tun memecatnya dulu, beliau berjaya menarik ribuan rakyat Malaysia untuk berdemonstrasi bagi menyokongnya, entah apa yg dia kelentong, Mr Clinton juga menyokongnya sehingga wakil beliau ke sidang yang diadakan di Malaysia pada masa itu telah menyatakan sokongan secara terbuka kepada Reformasi yg dicetuskan oleh Anwar itu. (Nasib baik kita org yang bersopan santun, kalau tak dah tentu kena golok kepala Mr Al Gore) Malah Tuan Guru yg sebelumtu bermusuh dengan dia juga telah menyatakan sokongannya. (Tapi Tuan Guru ni pun bukan betul sangat. Kalau geng dia, tak kira buat apapun dia sokong, kena tangkap khalwat pun dia sokong, gambar sedang tidur yg didedahkan oleh teman lelaki pun dia sokong, DAP hina Islam pun dia sokong, Karpal sanggup bergadai nyawa tentang undang2 islam dia peluk tak nak lepas) Malam ahad ni Tuan guru nak buat ceramah kat Selangor dengan Anwar - mungkin nak sokong anwar. Apa2lah Tok Guru. Jangan sampai keluar fatwa liwat tu halal untuk Anwar dahlah.

Kenapakah ramai pemimpin luar kononnya memberikan sokongan kepada Anwar dalam kesnya kali ini? Ada agenda sendiri atau kerana mendapat maklumat tidak tepat (dari yang tertuduh sendiri atau agennya)?

Jika mendapat maklumat yg tidak tepat,mereka sepatutnyamemeriksa dahulu sebelum mengeluarkan desakkan. Bukan sekali dua anwar telah memperdayakan orang ramai tetapi hairan sekali, masih ada yang terus termakan tipu dayanya. Rakan-rakan baik Anwar yang dahulunya bermati-matian mempertahankannya, kini seorang demi seorang meninggalkannya. Tapi masih ramai yang tidak sedar. Mungkin jika sudah terkena atas batang hidung sendiri baru hendak sedar.

Jika pemimpin asing ini mempunyai agenda tersendiri,hairan sekalai kerana jika dulu kita faham kerana mereka tidak suka dengan Tun, tapi kini adakah mereka juga tidak sukakan Najib? atau hanya Anwar boleh menjayakan agenda mereka? Mungkin juga. Lihat sajalah "track record" Anwar.

Apakah Melayu Sudah Lupa.

Seperti kata Tun, memang "Melayu Mudah Lupa"

Assalammualaikum YABhg Tun,

This is my first comment after keeping up-to-date postings on your blog. And I choose this particular topic to comment as I just can't stomach anymore of this hypocrisy - not only the "so-called-clever" but totally-ignorant Australian MPs but also the main character in this episode. I went to school at UWC-S'pore from 1974-1976 with a lot of Australians students as my classmates and other activities too and they are good people, with good positive thinking and cooperative and also good respect to Asians, especially Malaysians. We got along very well. And I am surprised at how the current politicians (from both divides) in Australia could blindly put their names on paper to ask our Govt to drop the case. This is just preposterous. I think it is no secret that this is the workings of the main character's' agents to get support from ignorant outsiders as they are much easier to be duped into believing his conniving actions and character, than Malaysians who already know his antics (apart from those who, I do not know why, are still blindly believing that he is innocent.

BTW Tun, I would like to put on record of how much I admire you and your unselfish work and efforts for the country and thank you that we have you. Also, I would like to re-live a memory of Tun visiting me when I was in UWC -S'pore (I think it was in 1975). I was one of the first ever batch of students (there were 3 of us) that the Govt sponsored to study at the recently-opened UWC . I remember how humble you were during the visit. No pomp or fanfare. As the Minister of Education, you wanted to see how we were faring in a foreign school. I was humbly touched and grateful by your visit. It showed your leadership capability which proved later years when you became the greatest leader and Prime Minister of Malaysia. i wish I had taken a photograph of that meeting in 1975 to show my family, who are the biggest fans of Tun.

Wassalam Tun and to Tun Hasmah too.

Kindest regards.

Ayahanda Tun,

1. The only Agenda that I could think of these Australian MPs would like Anwar's sodomy case to be dropped may have something to do with Bakun project in supplying energy from Sarawak to Peninsular Malaysia, and T. Blair was implied by The Star that he had met up with Bintulu's MP, Tiong King Sing.
2. Why these Whites/English Australian MPs want Malaysian Government to drop the case? Obviously, they want our Malaysian Government to bailout some international giant banks.
3. If Malaysia is in 1997, our Malaysian Government would bailout these international giant banks as they have been in the country for 40 years.
4. Today, our Malaysian Government cannot bailout these banks because they are voted to protect national interest of the country first.
5. Can Anwar make it as the 7th PM? He described PR (Is PR a registered component party?) is on a mission with obstacles and hindrances, and the goal is to take over Putrajaya in coming general elections and he likened this mission similar to a Chinese legend of monk (is Guan Eng the handsome buddhist monk?) and his followers (these followers were not named by him due to sensivity of politics and religion?) in a westward journey to the Indian sub-continent which was fraught with obstacles, but eventually succeeded. According to legend, these followers have done wrongs in the Palace of Heaven lead by Jade Emperor, and there were 3 followers - the brilliant/ambitious Monkey human, the "hilarious hamsap"/greedy Png human and the humble/kind Monster Sea Pirate human to right the wrongs and they succeeded. Can Anwar succeed his mission of the 7th PM utilizing the strategy of this Journey To West (Cantonese = Sai Yau Kei)?
6. Democracy is barbaric without liberty and justice. For example, the recent case of PKR's Ronnie Liu instructed the State Municipal Council to take down the Billboard in welcoming our DS Mohd. Najib Tun Razak just because he is the PM of Malaysia. Ronnie did not like this idea or was he "paid" for this action?
7. Now, Anwar has only one man he can rely on, and that is Lim Guan Eng. Will he make as the PM in Putrajaya? I doubt so because his image is tarnished by his defense in sodomy case.
8. If Anwar is wise, mature and civilised, he should have quietly stand behind DAP, PKR and PAS in making sure these parties are registered as the 2nd major party in Malaysia.
9. Anwar truly believed that he will be the PM in Putrajaya because he assumed that people, like him, do not change and do not learn from mistakes.
10. According to The Sun on Wednesday February 17, the headline is PKA passes the buck.

11. May I ask The Sun's hero cum citizen Nades (R. Nadeswaran), if the PKFZ is passed down to you, do you think you can solve the problems? Why worry, dear hero Nades? The PKFZ is a profitable project and will make money 10 years from now due to national interest and human intelligence.

12. Whatever is it, the Malaysian Governemnt must stand firm, no more Flip Flop and be selfish and righteous in making sure that you are in power.

13. For the canning of 3 women, why NGO make it a fuzz and inhumane? Is there any difference btw. sebat and canning in Malaysia? Those criminals who were punished with 'sebat', why NGO kept quiet?

14. The desire of Australia to be the Deputy Sheriff of East Asia is still there and will always be there as these MPs represent AUSTRALIA.

15. Nevertheless, let Wisma Putra deal with these Australian MPs. Malaysians are smarter and wiser now in protecting their wealth because we have bitten by these snakes.

Good day Ayahanda Tun.

Saya rasa satu kekurangan yang amat besar bila saya tak dapat nak kuasai dan gunakan Bahasa Ingeris dengan baik melalui penulisan mahupun percakapan.

Jadi,saya tak dapat nak balas komen apa yang Hanan dan apa jua yang berkaitan dengan international supaya diaorang baca.Tapi kalau ada kemampuan,mungkin saya upah je penterjemah sampai bila-bila,macam Tun perli pasal PPSMI hari tu.Tapi make sure jangan main belakang.Harapkan pagar,pagar makan padi.RM2j tu.Cash money.

Dulu masa baru habis belajar,mungkin dalam 1998,saya ada main game kat internet.Ada mamat Australia tu tanya "apa khabar stuff awak kat sana?" "Saya tanya stuff apa dia?"Dia kata "Anwar la."

Oooo..saya kata okey je,memang meliwat tu salah.Tapi mamat Australia tu kata dia hari-hari buat dengan bini dia.Takde apa-apa pun.Tak salah pun.Kediam saya balas,nanti kena AIDS.Terus dia putuskan perbualan.Tak menang la online game saya tu.Takut jugak dia dengan AIDS ye.Bab tu kena tanya kekanda Marina Mahathir la.Mungkin dia boleh mintak pandangan dari Dr MAZA.

Lepas komen saya yang terakhir lepas,saya ada masa luangkan diri ke library.Ada beberapa buku yang sempat saya baca.Buku sejarah berkaitan agama dan politik.

Tadi baru baca buku pasal ketua-ketua pemuda UMNO.Tentulah dari zaman Datuk Seri Anwar,Dato' Seri Najib hingga ke Datuk Hishamuddin.Saya ingat ingat lupa,saya terdedah dengan kisah UMNO zaman persekolahan dulu pun dengan dengar cerita pasal karisma kepimpinan Datuk Seri Anwar.

Saya juga baru terjumpa alasan kukuh kenapa tok guru agama sejak zaman berzaman sentiasa menitikberatkan susun galur pengambilan ilmu dari si polan dari si polan.Dengan kata lain, Hari Akhirat nanti Allah akan tanya dari mana kita dapat sesuatu ilmu pengetahuan itu.Siapa yang membenarkan anda menulis pengetahuan anda? Yang perlunya ilmu pengetahuan yang dipelajari perlu/akan sampai pada Nabi Muhammad s.a.w dan akhirnya Allah akan mengakui itu adalah ilmu dariNya.

Seperti ada seorang tukang komen dalam 'Hukum Allah' (kalau tak silap) pernah tulis dengan maksud lebih kurang 'belajar dari guru yang mursyid dan akan sampai pada Rasulullah s.a.w'.Menarik tulisan komen orang politik yang berpangkat besar.

Dari mana kita mendapat kebenaran untuk menulis ilmu kita?

YAB Tun,

Thanks to your ever consistent efforts to reason to the world as a statesman should. Come what may, you have a way of handling them effectively. It is because of your deep understanding of many underlying issues enabling common sense and facts to nip them in the bud or give a balanced view of things.

It is unlike the modern day politicians. They lack anything concrete to say when troubled with issues revealing their immaturity. Instead of clarifying it becomes muddled. No wonder, others do not respect us, treat us like children and poke fun at will.

Najib do not have to explain to the Australian MPs. Zahid don't have to go to China. The Menteri don't have to go Singapore to explain. What are the ambassadors doing? Are they good only for reception of dignitaries and politicians?

They should be in the forefront as government mouthpiece and to provide information about Malaysia and the country they are being stationed. Forget about having agricultural attaches all over the world as mooted by the previous Agriculture Minister when we have nothing much to export (other than palm oil and rubber)!

Actually, our government do not have or not giving confidence in them. That was why the ambassador to the U.N. was called back and services terminated.

Indeed an irony for the group of Aussie MP's to make such demands. I wonder if the same sentiment echo's that of Canberra? Why their sudden interest in this case. Guess they only care for DSAI! What about justice for Saiful? I believe Saiful too should be given an equal chance to ensure that he is not victimized. Let the court decide.

It looks like these Aussie MP's are propagating that they are the champions of human rights! Even they have a lot of human rights issue that until today is unresolved and this include the Indian students fiasco. Were there any comments or demands made by these MP's to ensure justice?

It has ever and ever again when these aussies MPs on purpose getting the wrong side of the story about DSAI issues as when he goes around begging them to bug-in in his court proceeding. His typical flair to use the ignorant stance of others for that sake has found to be a complecent to him. But at least US Senator John Kerry said it differently with a polite manner which projects a more civilised democratic respect on other sovereign country. Many occasion had the world spoke about their brutal arrogance on indegenious aborigines just becoz they think they are the only to deserve living in that continent. The movie 'AUSTRALIA' meant well to any peace loving to watch. It prescribes a total respect to live in decent harmony with no barriers to its natural beliefs. Same goes to our very own eastern norms and values could never for a 'make-shift' just to suit the paradox western cultures and laws in allowing abnormalities to take place merely to save a sick man !

saya rasa Australia memang akan menggunakan segala peluang untuk campur tangan dalam urusan negara kita. apa yg menyedihkan saya, mereka seolah-olah menidakkan keupayaan sistem perundangan negara kita untuk menghakimi sendiri kes-kes yg melibatkan rakyat kita. Seperti kata Tun, mereka hanya menggunakan Anwar sebagai subjek utama sedangkan hal2 melibatkan rakyat biasa yg lain hanya dipandang sepi.

Dalam kes ini, rakyat harus sedar bahawa Anwar hanya dijadikan alat untuk negara proksi Amerika untuk membuahkkan cita-cita mereka. Mereka hanya mahukan kuasa yg mampu diperoleh jika Anwar menjadi Perdana Menteri impian mereka... Bahaya bukan??!!

They are partly to be blamed for meddling with our internal affairs.

Most blame should go to Anwar who seek for their support and help. Without his actions, Australian MPs won't have much to say.

Probably our foreign affairs departments should brief other countries (heck, do we need to do this for the sake of this one person's inevitable actions??) before Anwar present his 'facts' to these people.

So sick of Anwar and 'his' media coverage. Life in Malaysia should just move on. There's more to do in Malaysia than just this one person.

Salam Ybhg Tun,

I couldn't agree more with your statement. The Australian seems to know more how to run other country law BUT forgetting about their own shortcomings.

The case between Anwar and Saiful IS NOI political or started by the government of Malaysia. If the Malaysian government stop the trial, how could Saiful get his justice? The sodomy case is a personal accusation between Saiful and Anwar. Instead of making sure the trial goes smoothly, Anwar choose to delay and disrupt our judicial system.

If Saiful dares to "bersumpah", why not Anwar? Malaysia is an independent country. We have laws to abide and all citizen should face the system regardless their status. We are not like Singapore where the ruling party have total control of their judicial system and can manipulate it to their advantage. If the Australians want to champion justice, why not fight for the "illegal" Iraq war and Palestine issue?

Let's look at it this way. Bukan senang nak buktikan seseorang itu liwat ataupun berzina and even in the Quran it is stated that 4 honest men are needed (that's a total of 8 eyes) and must see the penetration act clearly. In other words let it be trialed in Padang Mashyar. Nobody in their right mind will perform sex in public for the world to see. Many people will see the fact that you are trying to trial Anwar is only for political gain (including me, for that matter). By all means state the facts as you know it and what happened and let the public decide. But it is very hard to prove Anwar meliwat. And if it is done so by the Putrajaya Courts, are they (the judges) trying to say that they have superhuman eyes that actually saw the penetration act? Please. I am already turned off and disagree with the Courts of Appeal ruling on the MACC working after hours and in siding with Zambry as MB and I suspect their neutrality and independence (the fact that these courts are situated in Putrajaya is already an indicative fact). As for me, from Anwar's actions alone, I can already see what kind of man he is and what PKR represent. There is no need for BN and UMNO to thrust it in my face with your court trials and what not. It only makes me disrespect BN and UMNO.

I disagree Tun.

It is true that foreign countries should not meddle in other country's affair unless the situation warrants it (genocide, invasion, etc). However in this case, the call has come because there is a sincere belief that the trial is a mockery of any democratic country's practise.

It is only in Malaysia we have such blatant pursuit of prosecution without a proper basis. And one that came hot on the heels after a strong gain by the opposition in Malaysia's general election history.

The public is skeptical and so is the international community. If the people believe that Anwar had done something wrong, the skepticism and strong calls for action would not be this strong.

It is after all a trial that has been dubbed "Sodomy 2", it sounds like a movie sequel don't you think?

apa nak di katakan tun, michael danby yang sebok sebok pasal anwar ni pon seorang gay activist. heran gak kenapa dia suka sangat dengan anwar, esok anwar jadi PM, orang orang macam ni la yang anwar akan terhutang budi.

I totally agree with you. I strongly suggest that we recommend that the Malaysian Government should not go begging for foreign investments from Australia. That will teach them a lesson!

By the way, can you also advise your billionaire son, if he has any property in Australia to sell it

Although I feel Anwar's sodomy trial is rather awkward, I still believe in our judiciary system. The Malaysian judiciary has demonstrated its fairness and neutrality when the Federal Court reversed the sodomy conviction in 2004.

Tun this is my first time trying pen in comment in your blog.

Your blog is my "must read" daily routine which I look forward to with anticipation. It contains a wealth of info knowledge and insights. Days are much brighter and exciting when I see new postings and the comments that ensue.....and conversely when there's a lull days can be pretty boring for me.

I would like to thank you for opening the windows of our minds to current issues in a much broader perspective.

I wish I could find something significant to disagree with your point of views but I can't as the premise, logic and facts of your argument are rock solid.

I can see those who did try to do can be easily dismissed as coming from a skewed tiny minds. But it's good for them as they feel they have the full power to run you down in this blog - with good or bad intent - without any consequences. That feel good feeling is a tonic for these people.

The Aussies (the 50 parliamentarians)- they are a bunch nuts. But only you have put in the politically correct message and language to them.

May ALLAH blessed you and your family continued good health and happiness.

Assalamualaikum,

Respected Tun, I agree with Point 1, perception is what cloud our judgment most of time and it seems that the developed countries feel that they are superior than us. What upsets me is the fact that Malaysia has become a focus of the international media-not something which is positive, but the opposite. I also is aware with the fact that Tun has been in all your life trying to build a good image of the country- internally as well as internationally.

But to get the support from the outside to me, is not wise. It's like bringing a stranger into your home and expect that stranger to run the household. Again, what is frustrating is, many of Malaysians seem to agree with these so called "superior" countries and not even has the guts to voice otherwise.

Salam.

Dear Tun Dr M,

Even though I do not condone the manner in which Anwar is prosecuted lately, I feel that other countries should leave the matter with Malaysians themselves. Unless of course if they allow other countries to interfere in their administration and judiciary.

However, it is good that if other countries give their advice or views. however it should be done discreetly and confidentially.

Tun,

Sejak Tun lantik Anwar sebagai TPM lagi saya sudah tak suka dia. Macam terlalu over pulak gayanya. Apatah lagi bila saya tahu perangai sebenarnya selepas dipecat. Tapi, memanggil negara luar utk mencampuri hal negara lain... Itu sudah lebih!

Have a nice weekend Tun and Family.

Asalamualaikum Tun,

No need to elaborate any further, it's time for "change" of the current government.

- 1) Harga Minyak Naik (sedangkan Malaysia negara Pengeksport Minyak)
- 2) Harga Gula Naik (kononnya 10 tahun tak revise, tapi, somehow Mr. Robert manage to be the richest billionaire in Malaysia)
- 3) Harga Toll Naik (dah lah naik, tarik lagi tahun concessionaire, sampai cucu dan cicit masih bayar toll lagi).
- 4) National Automotive Policy and Duty and Tax and AP for import cars (import vehicle which has better green engine, better fuel consumption as opposed to our famous CamTakPro engines).
- 5) Terrible public transport.
- 5) Kena Personal Income Tax lagi after all sort of taxes.
- 6) The funny thing is, of all these Rakyat's money taxed day and night, the government reserve is still drying up, wonder why?

Yang masih Tak Naik cuma;

Kereta "nasional" kualiti entah tak apa-apa yang masih Tak Naik-naik lagi even after 25 years.

Dan Gaji.

End.

Tun,

I was there (in Sydney and Melbourne) in 1988 for 6 months. The existence of racism was very disturbing, especially in Melbourne.

PM Kevin Rudd is concerned about the issue but I doubt he can do much about it.

On the other hand, on the issue of AUSTRALIAN MP: Anwar's trial a disgrace to Malaysia, there is a footnote saying "The views expressed here are the personal opinion of the Australian MP".

Let's wait and see.... We will then have our own judgment on the outcome of this trial.

Salam YBhg Tun-

The "intervention" of Australia and more recently the USA comes as no surprise when their "suitable" candidate for Premiership is subjected to what they call "political assassination by those in power". After all, how can a "progressive liberal Muslim leader of the new millenium" who often brush shoulders with the likes of Imam Yusuf Al-Qardhawi and many notable Muslim figureheads including the renowned TG Dato' Nik Abdul Aziz capable of performing such lewd acts and utter phrases that make rappers like Kanye West and JayZ look like mere juvenile. For Tun's information JayZ has a song called "Can I get to f*ck you?!!" ...I humbly beg your pardon for saying this but I do think that a certain "progressive Muslim" leader was inspired by this song on 28 June 2008.

I am encouraged to see my fellow Malaysians march to the Aussie Embassy to protest the letter sent by 50 Outback Parliamentarians led by the Hon Michael Danby. To date I have heard that this is not an official position of the Aussie Govt. However, we have not seen an official statement or retract from the Aussie Govt. Furthermore, if it is signed by 50 MPs I dare say that it is a sizeable representation of what the Parliament of the Land Down Under have to say about the case. The letter was written harshly (typical of a roughneck outback cow herder) and harsh enough in some places to paint a picture of lawlessness in Malaysia. I would love to see our Govt seize all contracts with Aussie companies and instruct our GLCs to do the same. I've read that ever since the Premiership of Tun Abdullah in 2003, we are fast becoming Aussie-friendly. Even Petronas is developing a large coal-bed methane project there. You have done it in the past with the Brits when they hinted that we are in the arms-for-projects business in the construction of Pergau Dam. I would do the same here and would love to see that Dato' Seri Najib do the exact same thing that you have done with the British Tory Govt.

The root of the Cow-Herding Aussie problem is plain and simple. They just do not respect the idea of "Sovereignty". I don't expect much because as little as Malaysia is, we have broken free from the relics of the British Empire. We have our own Head of State in the DYMM Seri Paduka Baginda Yang Di-Pertuan Agong. Heck, even Lee Kuan Yew is smart enough to "annoint" a Singaporean President! Let's face it, for all their brute, blunt, macho appearance, Aussies are a bunch of losers...The Queen is still their head of state! Enough said Tun...let them wither in their glorified convict past. This is the same people that up until the 1950s still consider Aborigines animals that has to sit outside with their dogs! No point in taking lessons from them. If two of your past deputies (one who is a "progressive liberal Muslim" and the other is a "Hadharian") chose to kow-tow to them, rest assured that the rest of us will not bow to such nonsense.

I wish both you and Tun Dr Siti Hasmah the very best and will pray for your health, sir.

DEAR TUN,

INTELLECTUAL AND INTEGRITY GOES BEYOND POLITICS. THEREFORE IT NEED TO BE USED IN ANY COUNTRIES. NO MATTER DEVELOPING OR DEVELOPED COUNTRY.

By Jaquar  on February 19, 2010 10:05 AM

You are wrong Dr M. It is not so much as so-called developed countries that think you cannot possibly understand justice. It is called checks and balances with voices from the world notifying you of your unfair judicial system and speaking out for the voiceless that are stifled in Malaysia. Malaysian democracy is a farce with the spoils belonging to the winner. The judges are all appointed by the ruling party, investigators, police and are all in cahoot with the present ruling Barisan government, mainly UMNO to implicate Anwar. Every person in the world can see through this charade that Malaysia is pulling except you.

The world is not so easily blinded by the propaganda machine that UMNO generates out in the past and can see for themselves of the smoke screens that are thrown up in Malaysia. Malaysians are now more tech savvy and can obtain the truth for themselves instead of listening to the pro govt mass media. They do not like what they see nowadays with what UMNO and Barisan has to offer. Why do you think you almost lost the election the last time around? Najib sees what is happening and knows that he has to change or will lose the next election. However, there are still a lot of the old guards that are still hard headed and thinks the old way is still working. They will be gone in the next election as well as all the crooked judges that you installed after your sacking of the true justices in 1988.
