

NO FLY ZONE

Chedet.co.cc

April 29, 2011

By Dr. Mahathir Mohamad

1. What does the ordinary man imagine a no-fly zone is about? I believe he would imagine a sky without any planes flying. At most he would expect to see only military aircrafts of the enforcing nations flying over the zone to ensure the aircrafts of the targeted country are not flying over the zone.

2. In the case of the Iraqi no-fly zone, the enforcing nations apparently believed that "no-fly zone" is about blockading the zone to deprive it from receiving supplies of all kinds including food and medicine. As a result an estimated 500,000 Iraqi children were born deformed or were still-born due to the affect of bombs and shells with depleted uranium used in the Gulf War against Iraq.

3. Now once again a "no-fly zone" has been declared over Libya, this time by the United Nations. The Arab countries have also supported this resolution.

4. News reports now tell of bombs being dropped and targets being shelled by the Americans and their allies against Libyan forces and civilians. There is no report on Libyan aircrafts being shot down or chased out of Libyan airspace. Some reports claim that weapons have been supplied to rebels.

5. Are all these things included in the term "no-fly zone"? If they are were they stated in the resolution by the United Nations? Were the representatives of the Arab countries aware that this is the meaning of "no-fly zone".

6. If they were not stated and the Arab nations were not told, then why did the Americans and their allies take all these warlike actions.

7. It would seem that the United Nations needs to state carefully the meanings of the resolutions passed by its "organs". Otherwise the innocent members may be conned.

Dear Tun,

May I comment on TuaCheng

For a fact:

Israel is a nation. All Arabs stated fought with him in 60ies and yet loss.

(So, official war is over, those lost must accept losses).

Secondly, Al-qaeda, Abu-Sayyaf, Jemaah Islamiyyah are terrorist group, whereas USA, Israel, UK and all is a recognize nation of UN. Even Malaysia recognize Israel, yet Israel is in UN.

Don't equal a nation with terror groups. As 1MY PM mentioned, we not extremist, so only anarchist condone above Al-Qaeda/Abu-Sayyaf/Jemaah Islamiyyah.
By the way, who are to tell or who are you to comment about brutalities: when the Palestine & Israel war had been going on even before Christ was born. Some more from a amateur nation like us in Nusantara that came alight just 600years back.
By the way, since you cant get your facts right, name calling the way to keep your spirit up. Well done, for a so-called intellect when loss of words."

Mr TuaCheng. Your writings show you are against Islam or pro forces that are anti Islam. You applaud and rejoice when Muslims met with calamities and misfortune or failure. You never utter any good word for Muslims. All Muslims of the world know that you are a muslims hater and if you live in Malaysia, do you expect Malaysian Muslims to accord you their respect and brotherhood love? I am sure you don't need their friendship or patronage. You continue to bombard, ridicule and provoke Muslims because Malaysia is a democracy and a free country. You must remember the law of Physics that every action bring forth equal and opposite reaction.

I am sure Wajaperak is not a Chinese of Hokkien clan, as TuaCheng. When Wajaperak nickname TuaCheng, Pak Chu meaning uncle in Malay, TuaCheng is offended because coincidentally Pak Chu Cheng sounds like Pak Chui Cheng in Penang Hokkien means tembak pistol air. In Penang, Pak Chui Cheng has vulgar meaning of boys ejaculating during masturbation. That is why TuaCheng says Wjaperak resorts to name calling even though Wajaperak accord him respectable title of "Pak Chu" or uncle in Malay. I am sure Wajaperak meant well. It is just a misunderstanding due to language differences. I hope TuaCheng is sporting and is open minded.

Salam Tun.

May I give some advisory/exemplary words to this tuchang @ pakchucheng @ tuacheng. The normally respectable 'tua' definitely don't suit him, not for someone being a perpetual troublemaker to Malay/Muslim alike and for worsening and/or widening racial hatred/enmity amongst Malaysians. Probably pigtail (English for tuchang) is most appropriate.

Hi tuchang,

Did you also acted like winning RMmillions in jackpot when

1. Radovan Karadzic slaughtered >200,000 Bosnians inside UN safe haven?
2. Colin Powell annihilated >35,000 retreating Iraqi soldiers besides other atrocities?
3. The US killed/maimed/distorted >500,000 Iraqi children?
4. Thaksin sardine-packed Thai Muslims into containers to die?
5. The US/EU warplanes enjoyed watching Libyan/Tunisian immigrants died slowly in the stinking ships?

You must be most happy then since all those were far worse instances of atrocities against Muslims as compared to just the killing of Osama.

If you refused to admit to the above, then did you also celebrate like winning RMmillions in jackpot when Karadzic was caught, or when the My Lai butchers were found guilty, or when Pol Pot died, or when Chin Peng wasn't given permission to come home? They were all far worse & clear cut murderers than that 'only suspected' Osama!!

What have Osama, Bosnians, Iraqis, Gaddafi done to you to cause you to go into wild celebrations, other than they are all Muslims?
The pigtail closely associated to your synonym is certainly most appropriate without the 'tail' at the end! How all Muslims hated the animal.

Whatever deeds that you may have done to Malay-sia (if there is any at all) is negligible considering your being a huge liability to the country!
I certainly do not wish you to be a Malaysian.

Okay tuchang(pigtail) @ pakchucheng @ tuacheng, proof to everyone that you are none of the above. I'm requesting that in anticipation to your usual manipulations followed by typical denials to wriggle your way out, the path usually taken by all hypocrites like you!

YAB Tun Dr Mahathir,

Menang kerana menipu --- menang tak da maruah
Menang kerana putar belit --- menang hina
Menang kerana samseng --- menang haprak
Menang sorak kampung tergadai --- itu bahalul

Kalah kerana berjuang dilandasan yang benar - itulah berrmaruah, itulah wira, itulah umat Nabi Muhammad saw, itulah hamba Allah.

Apakah dia, jika menang kerana berjuang di landasan yang benar? --- hanya orang baik dapat beri jawapan yang berrmaruah.

Salam Tun..

Dtan..Dtan..

In Islam,logic of explaining thing's is divided by two categories.

First: Dalil Aqli.

This is where you and Parameswara2 will win,because truth like beauties is subjective to the the proclamation of the eye's of the beholder or collective's eyes of beholder..

Second : Dalil Naqli.

This is where you are going to lose because your mind could not fathom the depth and breadth of the truth.

Where is your soul Dtan?

The answers will be the same that Rasullulah s.a.w is a slender man.The word is,is applicable because he is still alive.And that will be way out your comprehension..

Yes, I am a Kafir. One who loves Jesus. There is not to much time left before the world changes drastically. By then, Christians won't be causing Muslims anymore problems.

I am not implying anything. If you want to feel insulted and accuse me of being provocative that is your choice. Critical Thinking involves debating issues. You are the one who said Muslims should emulate the Prophet's Sunnah. I simply asked why and gave examples that are contrary to that believe. You should look up the word 'Cognitive Dissonance'.

Peace Be With You In Jesus Name

PS: I don't need to 'discredit' anyone. Truth surfaces like cream rising to the top of a milk jug. About the Prophet being a 'slender' man. I don't know. Do you have any portraits of him ? :)"

Dear dtan

Thank you for your courteous reply. You must be a good man. Your explanation is plausible and quite similar to mine, although from the opposite side. Your 'cognitive dissonance' is similar to Surah Kafirun meaning we agree to disagree. Live and let live. In Islam, Prophet Mohammad and the subsequent Caliphs urged victorious warriors of Islam not to harm or disturb any places of worships like churches or synagogues. Respect their religions even though they disagree with our religion. For example, when Saidina Omar accepted the instrument of surrender from the Patriarch of the Church in Jerusalem, the Muslims allowed the Christians to keep their place of worship and did not turn the church into a mosque which they could have easily done under the sword of Khalid ibni Walid.

I said Muslims should emulate the Prophet Mohammad's Sunnah in Hijrah, Hudaibiyah, conquest of Mekah with minimum blood shed, charitable deeds and in the practice of the Islamic religion. On the other hand, you tried to portray Rasullullah saw as a ruthless person which is absolutely not true at all and the stories must be fabricated and concocted by the enemies of Islam. It is quite similar to people saying Jesus was an illegitimate child of Mary. Mary prostituted herself and thus Jesus was born. It is not logical and sensible for somebody being conceived without DNA input from male 'Y'. But the truth was Jesus was a miracle birth from Mary the Virgin, of course not having to meet male 'Y' to impregnate her. This is what you call critical thinking and debating of issues. I suggest you read and understand the meaning of the Holy Quran and you would appreciate it. Had Jesus and Moses lived during the time of our Holy Prophet Mohammad (PBUH) they too would surely embraced Islam. As I said Islam seeks to convince and convert and not confront and destroy as some enemies of Islam tried to portray.

Portrait of Prophet Mohammad is not available anywhere simply because in Islam it is forbidden to have Rasullullah's picture because it may lead to idol worshiping. It is Allah that we worship, Mohammad was only the Messenger. Allah is only described as its 20 attributes among which are, exists, never sleep and others in ayatul Kursi in Surah Baqarah, Chapter 2 of the Holy Quran. Closely related to this is the 6 rukun iman which a Muslim must believe, among which are the existence of makhluk ghaib like angels and iblis which we cannot see with our naked eyes or using the most advance technology.

To AndrewTay,

What are you???

You enjoyed hating the Arabs and all Muslims, because you're a Christian?

You don't hate the Indians that are Hindus!
You don't hate the Chinese that are Buddhists!
You don't hate Kapal Sink & other Singhs that are Sikhs!
You don't hate jews that preach Judaism!
You don't hate ecompute & other atheists!

You hated the Arabs because they are Muslims!
You hated the Malays because we are Muslims!
You even hated your own Chinese race that are Muslims!

You even dare to mention the word double standard!

You being a minor in this country called Malay-sia and yet you dare and/or enjoy hating any Malay/Muslim that are not to your liking!
Can you speak and write proper Bahasa Malaysia?

You are sick, very very sick!!
If you're not sick, then there has to be a teacher/master who taught you to behave so very sickly!!

That tuchang(tuacheng) is even worse, acted like winning RMmillions in big sweep when Osama was killed!

Tun,
If I may respond to Amin Tan

Dear Amin,

Why do you use 'can't be absolutely sure' in regards to Osama's culpability. You think much like Tun he used the phrase 'i'm not so sure' in regards to 9/11. Why use shades of grey? Osama is either a 'Good' or 'Evil' person. Be honest, let me know what you really believe. I would like your thoughts on a place called Yathrib. I want to compare notes to Wajaperak and Prof_Ridcully. Do you believe that the Banu Qurayza signed their own death warrants when they surrendered to the 'Prophet'. Do you believe the Banu Qurayza deserved to be exterminated even though they never even fought in the first place?

Peace Be You In Jesus Name

Dear dtan you ask me why i use shade of grey because i doubt American propaganda after they fabricated the dossiers on WMD in Iraq. They lost the moral high ground. Mr dtan, why do you use inverted comma on the word prophet. I guess you are also one of the infidels(kafirun) like the Jews of Banu Qurayza who did not believe Mohammad was the Messenger of God, but a murderous impostor. The Jews were banished from Madinah because they were traitors to the Muslims like some of you who vehemently oppose the present government. I cannot blame them when some Malays are so offended by your supremacist posture that they rudely ask you to emigrate. some of you are so provocative and Muslim haters that you wanted to nuke the Hajis and are not courteous to Tun by addressing him as Mr Mahathir. Reflect on your provocation. Now you try to imply Prophet Mohammad was cruel and exterminate innocent Jews. Mr dtan, you are at the same level of Salmon Rushdi. Be careful when you live in a Muslim country and yet you try to discredit and slender our holy Prophet Mohammad. You even try to show the differences among Wajaperak, Prof_Ridcully and me. To tell you the truth we Muslims are brothers. We love, care and protect our brothers. We are united.

amin tan

By amin tan on May 10, 2011 1:32 PM

Dear Tun,

May I reply to dtan inquiry of my belief whether Osama bin Laden is good or evil.

Dear Mr dtan, thank you for your polite and respectful inquiry. Your question is loaded with many untenable assumptions. I am sure you realize that there are many versions and theories as to who planned the attack on twin towers in New York. Some said the attack on twin towers were planned and executed by Mosad, the Israeli secret service, some said CIA AND OFFICIAL AMERICAN VERSION says Osama bin Laden.

Mr dtan, let not anybody be gullible and swallow wholesale whatever America ditches out to the world. Don't take what America say as gospel truth. The incidence of the existence of WMD IN iRAQ should be enough lesson to you and I not to trust America on whatever issue. America and Britain are kings of fabricated liars and falsehood. .Their whole communication infrastructure is built to lie and spread falsehood.

With regards to the Jews in Yathrib(Madinah), the Jewish opposition of the Muslims, unlike the opposition of the Quraysh, was sinister and treacherous. The Jews hated the Muslims and continued to ridicule, belittle and sabotage Islam. They said Islam was a copycat religion, so much so our Holy Prophet Mohammad(PBUH) had to receive revelation to change kiblat, direction of Muslim's prayer from Jerusalem to Mekah. Similarly, some people of some race think that they are more superior and continue to harp and sabotage the Malays saying that the Malays are inferior, corrupted, and all sorts of negative names.

Mr dtan. Be careful on some purported stories on cruelty of the Messenger of God, Prophet Mohammad. These are fabricated lies in order to insinuate that Prophet Mohammad was evil.

The evil people are the Muslim haters. The Muslims are never cruel. Quran is full of words cautioning the Muslims not to be cruel like Firoun, king of Egypt of yore.

Mr dtan, our success and failure in the world and hereafter are at the pleasure of Allah. Currently, we see Muslims and Islamic nations as being weak and defeated by non Muslims. It is so shameful. I believe because these Muslims do not follow the Quran and Sunnah as required by all Muslims as during the time of Abu Ubaidah and Khalid ibni Waleed.

You are a harsh man.You have no tact and no finesse much more so when trying to justify your own belief against other's.

First and foremost muslim does not worshipped Kaabah.It is a command from Allah and we just follows.The reason of why?

And why would we prays 5 times a day? And why would the sun rises from the east??Why would it happens this way and and not that?

Oh..why?

Muslim just follows because it is all about faith.

Faith means you don't question why.

The reason's of why will be given if and when Allah feels that it is warranted like Musa a.s lesson from Khidir a.s in Surah Al Kahfi.

[[Do you believe that the Banu Qurayza signed their own death warrants when they surrendered to the 'Prophet']]

For our version,they were given the choice.Abdullah Ibnu Salam their own leader chose this punishment because it is according to hudud law's.Much to your chagrin, nabi Musa a.s followers also have chosen to be killed by their own brethren because their act of whorsiping the gold calf.

Hudud is your choiche to settles here in the world or facing Allah wrath in hereafter..The choice is in the belief and the belief of the choiches..

dtan..

Be honest to your ownself.

The jew's were Muslim's once.So their follow hudud laws.

Is this so hard to acknowledges??

[[I want to compare notes to..]]

Comparing notes to and with is totally different in meaning and application..comparing notes to is a little bit haughty don't you think??

Who will speak up for those who died because the two planes were crashed into the twin towers purposely ? Those who died in the 911 included Malaysians.

By matanahair on May 5, 2011 6:48 PM

Dear Tun,

1. Foreigner of 1.4mil - How are we going to handle this. (recorded, i dont know how many NOT recorded)

Recently, there are letters - Pemuatihan those foreign worker, especially from Bangladesh (i dont understand this word Pemuatihan really... Ironic) - LEGALISE, why not we legalise murdering as well?

So, when we said the Chinese is not patriotic, is the government itself be treated patriotic by letting the cronies of the home minister, police, immigration to let in so many unskilled workers when our neighbouring country is attracting our talent. (maybe is due to unpatriotic towards the country - claimed by Zahid Hamidi)

While we accuse Chinese as Pendatang, are we seriously letting in more unnecessary foreigners?

US can claim that because of their long border line, too many illegal immigrants enters their country. I dont think M'sia has this excuse, especially when they are from Bangladesh, that also doesn't mean we can allow so many of the Indonesian be here~!

2. Dear Tun, Please please please, advise our PM, government - Why can't we handle our country strictly like Australia, Singapore, Germany, Britain etc. So far, why are we giving so many excuses to ourselves that we can't excel?! is heartening to see so many foreigners (with or without medical checkout in Food and Beverage), with this, maybe again the health ministry cronies will come out with the other "fantastic" idea - LETS force foreigner to do medical check up. (or something similar to 1 M'sia Email) trying to fool the people, without really addressing the real issue.

Are all the Malaysian politician seriously Just Opportunist, proposing something (to justify that they are solving the problem) which is not treating the root cause, only the symptom, while making profits out of it!!

3. Talking about the Patriotism - please look at our school syllabus, I feel ashamed reading some of the history books, only emphasizing on Islamic civilisation, how great IT WAS. Asking them to remember some "Great" name [(now, someone going to have another PROPOSAL to revamp our syllabus - oursource to some private company instead of asking our over 1mil civil servant do it (wow... the immigrant is more than our civil servant)]; With this, how is the government going to win back the heart of Chinese voters (or we don't need them ?)

4. REVAMP the education system from NOW on, and hopefully 20 years down the road, we can create more talents~! Instill Integrity - get rid of those Little Napoleon, Corrupted, and Cronies~! OR ELSE, the good will feel very out of place living in M'sia, as they are surrounded by the corrupted~! HOW NOT to leave??

5. Try asking any European, Australian, Taiwanese, Japanese bribing the traffic police if they break the rules, they will be 'mata terbeliak', because in their REALITY, this is not happening!!
Mainly because is of Education~!

The world is a dangerous place not because of people who do evil, but because of good people who look on and do nothing about it.

Dear Tun,

America has declared that Osama has died. He was killed in Pakistan as a result of American military operation. His death was reported to result in bipartisan feeling of jubilation by the non muslims and anger by the muslims. Osama was not a prophet. We can't be absolutely sure that Osama was the person behind the 911 destruction. It was mostly media hype and circumstantial evidence linking 911 to Osama. He was not even called to defend in an open court. He was simply accused of funding and masterminding the attack of 911. Such is the domination of the American media in deciding the veracity of the event of 911. Almost everybody in the world saw the vicious attack of commercial airplanes on the New York twin towers and the subsequent dramatic collapse and total destruction of the majestic, cosmopolitan land mark buildings. Undoubtedly, the terrorist attack on twin towers was absolutely insane and unjustified. The perpetrators should be avenged. Nobody should be allowed to commit a heinous crime and get away unpunished. If indeed Osama had a hand in the attack of 911, no right minded person, muslim or otherwise should applaud and support him. This is not the way a muslim should operate, definitely not the thoughtful compassionate ways our holy Prophet(PBUH) dealt with his enemy. He sought not to destroy the enemies, but to convince and convert them and subsequently embraced them and showed them the right path. There was absolutely no similarity in the holy Quran and Sunnah in relation to the attack on twin towers. Any muslim who support and sympathize with the perpetrators of 911 attack do not understand the mission of Prophet Mohammad(PBUH) and these people are naive, misled and gave a bad reputation to the religion of Islam. Islam seeks to convince and convert, not to confront and destroy. Islam is the religion of haq(truth) of brotherhood irrespective of race, not a religion of hate, vengeance and confrontation. Islam is the religion of Mohammad. Let us follow his examples in hijrah, Hudaibiyah, why his great enemies like Abu Sufian and sons Yazid and Muawiyah became full blooded muslims. Ikrimah bin Abu jahal and son Amir martyred at the battle of Yarmuk, the biggest battle in islamic history where 400,000 Roman soldiers were soundly defeated by 40,000 muslim warriors including 6000 veteran from Medinah, Abu Sufian and wife Hind were among them. Khalid ibni Walid was once the fearsome enemy of the Prophet became the greatest muslim commander in history.

Ikutilah ajaran Al Quran dan Sunnah nabi, inshaAllah islam akan bangkit dan menang. Follow the teaching of Al Quran and the examples shown by the Messenger of God Prophet Mohammad, God willing, islam would achieve victory in the world and the Hereafter.

Tun,

If I may respond to Parameswara 2

Per 1. I appreciate that you are trying to reach out. Your jurisprudence on the Mahdi seem to differ from the Twelver version espoused by the Shiites. Their paradigm is consistent with the lets nuke Israel and he will appear. There are ~ 1.2 million Muslims in Israel and Ahmadinejad is willing to sacrifice them to rebuild the Caliphate.

Per 2-3. Wow! The Mahdi coming from Malaysia. That is news to me. He is supposed to appear in Qum, Iran. Lets agree, for now, the nature of the Mahdi cannot absolutely be determined until events around the world play out.

Per 4-6. If I may use a metaphor. It is said that there are, in general, two kinds of nurses in this world. One is the Florence Nightingale's of the world who will hold the patients hand and nurture them to health. The other is the Emergency Room Nurse who assists the Doctor in cracking open a terminal patients chest cavity in order to get to a persons ruptured heart. I am not Florence Nightingale.

'No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it produces a harvest of righteousness and peace for those who have been trained by it.'

~ Hebrews 12:11

Per 7. I don't disagree with you on that point. I am consistent on admitting the faults and sins of Jesus' followers. The Pope has also issued many formal apologies for wrongdoings Christendom has caused. Juxtapose that to Islamic leadership.

Per 8. Agreed, Islam did not conquer the Straits of Malacca or Silk Routes unlike the Holy land, Persia, India, Spain, North Africa etc.

Per 9. I respectfully disagree with that interpretation of Jesus and the Mahdi bowing before Almighty God for two reasons:

i) It was Jesus who said

"Watch out that no one deceives you. Many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am he,' and will deceive many.

~ Mark 13: 5-6

ii) The concept of the Trinity

I would like to dispel the myth that the Trinity equates Christianity as a polytheistic religion. I will make my argument by showing that Muslims worship Allah in three forms.

Christians believe in God the Father. Muslims believe in Allah.

Christians believe in the Holy Spirit. Muslims also have to acknowledge the Holy Spirit i.e. 'Roh Kudus' (See Surah 2:87,2.53,5:110 etc). It is in your scriptures. Some Muslim scholars try to obfuscate the issue by interpreting the Holy Spirit as the Angel Gabriel. That is why I used the Arabic root.

Christians believe in Jesus (Physical). Muslims worship God's essence in the Kaaba (Physical) when they pray towards Mecca. If you disagree than you will have to admit that Muslims worship a Meteorite (Black Stone) and are idolators.

Muslims seem very hung up on the Trinity. Muslims simply cannot wrap their minds around how Christians believe that God exist in three forms. Muslims while ignorant of the Trinity happily go about doing the same daily.

A wise-man once said,

'I think I cannot convince you on anything simply because your perception of things is not based on logic or reason but merely on your strong belief that you are always right, even if the whole world says you are wrong.' ~ Tun Dr Mahathir

Now, there is something very powerful with the statement above. The supposition that logic or reason overrides belief and/or the world dictates the correctness of a situation. Is that really true? How do we apply Gods logic to Noah? By faith, he built the 'Ark' while the rest of the world ridiculed, persecuted and chastised Noah.

Peace Be You In Jesus Name

"Jesus himself did not try to convert the two thieves on the cross; he waited until one of them turned to him."

Agree with Dr Syed Alwi Ahmad, the revolution is a good thing. without the no fly zone the rebels would be dead. Most of the arab countries were clouded by dictators and their aristocratic policies. In all countries that were ruled by dictators, it takes many many decades to heal because the whole system is corrupted. Malaysia is pretty close to being that country, once all the natural resources run out and the industries that are based on these natural resources will crumble and we'll have nothing left. Thats when the mess begins. All this happens while our neighbours with the world leading finance and manufacturing economy will be laughing at us for laughing at them.. So without siding on any political parties, our government need to suck it up and quit playing politics and stop the corruption now at all level. I think hollering change in government without a clear target is just stupid. If UMNO can improve and start taking actions against corruption, generate more investments and giving equal opportunities to malaysians, you'll be seeing my vote. The best example is China and Singapore. As long as the government is good, why the need for change, the western way is ever so often proven to be wrong.

By HBT on May 4, 2011 8:43 AM

Good morning Ayahanda Tun,

1. DS Hishamuddin and his downlines should be praised and whatever he said is true in our heart to prevent racial social bantering.
2. Due to historical grievances, the Chinese presses in China and Hongkong have made reports that Malaysia KDN has done the terrific job in moderating and preventing terrorism breeding by extreme religious movements in the whole country.

3. andrewtay is a copy cat of Bush Junior, the victim of his own skin, because he has never taste the real terrorism treat in his life.

4. To andrewtay, Mandarin and Putong-hua are same because he has strong inferiority complex, then he should learn literature written by William Shakespeare.

5. Those who are born in 60s are lucky because during the national secondary school period we have the chance to learn English Literatures of Shakespeare and able to see things globally today since andrewtay can't read National Language of People's Republic of China nor Bahasa Kebangsaan Malaysia as the yellow skin Malaysian which he can never get the answer from God why he is Born This Way.

6. Like what a white Christian pastor in Singapore who preached humourously and softly by saying that when God had planned and granted the Muslims to own the oil fields, then as true Jesus followers they should not envy and should accept Jesus, the Christ, whole heartedly because they are Born This Way to make the World more Just and Peace as religion associations in the whole country.

7. Did andrewtay watch Hollywood blockbuster, Forrest Gump?

8. Forrest Gump is Born This Way in the 50s with the USA IQ slightly below the 'ruler' of the common Northern Americans whom accepted God's plan and destiny preached by his mother, Mrs Gump, and he became the best friend of the Niger, Bubble, who offered him a lending hand when Forrest was bullied by his own skin colour who had made to fullfil God's plan by reaching to the multi-millionaire level as destiny with the help from his Lieutenant apanama who owed his life to Forrest when he lost both his legs in Vietnam war.

9. To andrewtay, the born yellow skin non-Muslims, accused Arabs (or Kelantan Muslims like Tok Nik Aziz too?) are hypocrites because they the Kings chosen to own the oil fields gifted by the "God" to guard and owned the oil fields in Middle East.

10. Kiddo, Ta Wang de (The Most Powerful King's) Ba Yat (Kingdom) Pu shi (is not) Kung Hua (Empty Talk), ni (you) ting (heard) ko ma (of it ma) and why Prince William wore Red Top and Black Bottom if you are a true follower of Jesus in English or Chinese Churchs in Malaysia?

11. When Zhen (means Beta in Bahasa Istana) told his son that he can have the Kingdom, he can take it.

12. When Zhen said he is not ready to take over his throne, the son cannot rob (atau rompak/samun).

13. Amazing Grace is such a beautiful grace song that andrewtay should listen and sang loud with his heart to know what's wrong with him since he is not planned by God to be Australian nor National Historian of People's Republic of China due to ignorant which have nothing to do with skin colour or religion.

14. In nature, ostrich can win the race if it is ride by the well trained Racer, like F1 Driver, chosen by the Ostrich owners in the Muslim Desert Kingdom as shown by Hollywood producers and movie makers of Prince of The Persia which can bring entertainment and create jobs and wealth.

15. Like what we say:-

- i. Guan Eng wants to be future Taiwanese Ah Bein
- ii. Soi Lek wants to be future Chinese Jintao
- iii. Tee Keat wants to be future Chinese General Cao Cao who wants to be the Racer for the Chinese ostrich in which Chinese treat it as daging ayam
- iv. Chor Ha is current General Zhan Fei who is the not so bright loyalist
- v. Ka Ting was the General Guan Gung who was a little emotional

16. The Chinese Leaders are in dilemma by rocking the boat blindly and will sink them like Titanic in '97.

17. Who can lead Chinese Fabric in Middle Kingdom with originality and capability who do not intend to migrate to over sea and do not worship God chosen by DS Najib in his heart?

18. MCA president said that he will talk to MB Melaka to set up Museum there when we have One Museum Negara in Middle Kingdom.

19. MCA president will be accused by wiser and business oriented Chinese politicians of raping the mother land in Melaka.

20. Can we imagine, son raping the mother, then goD must crazy.

21. If MCA president insists that, WHEN the Museum cannot make money out of Tourism, then MCA will bear all the loss there since he is only a Doctor in Scientific world who knows nothing about history, arts and cultures.

22. We have Johor Legoland, Selangor Sunway Resort and Pahang Genting Theme Park, what about having a Malacca OCEAN PARK there whereby the aging parents, adults, teenagers and children of both local and foreign tourists can have fun to learn historical roots, art and culture and modernization of the Kesultanan Melaka to create jobs, entertainment, businesses and wealth for the major and minor shareholders and entrepreneurs for Peninsula Malaysia through Government Transformation Programme's Merchant Partnership monitor and regulate by MB, Kementerian, BNM and SC Malaysia acceptable by Exco members and investors for the next 30 years for Wawasan 2040 to come?

Good day Ayahanda Tun.

Dearest YAB Tun,

Very interesting...The term "NO-FLY ZONE" is very misleading.

Gaddafi must STEP DOWN so that those conmen in United Nations have no more excuse for invading Libya. Many innocent people are killed because of Gaddafi's stubbornness.

Tun's blog is being invaded/attacked by MALWARE. The problem with malware is that it can cause the user's PC to be blocked from accessing Tun's blog and consequently many other software/applications/websites. In other words the PC is useless (if the malware is not removed). I believe this is the reason why many people are now afraid to access (or being denied access) Tun's blog. Ini pun satu cara untuk sabotaj blog Tun, dan mereka yang guna "malware" untuk serang blog Tun boleh juga buat untung dengan menjual "software" yang dapat "remove" malware tersebut. Dia orang yang "invade", lepas tu, kononnya dia orang yang boleh tolong "remove" (tapi kena bayar). Macam-macam cara orang buat duit secara haram.

Thanks Tun.

 May Allah SWT bless Tun & family ***

Dear Tun,

IT workforces, ever since the 1999 MSC. there is no continuation in training of IT profession.

If there are any, are being trained by 3rd class college, University Colleges.

Then, the government move on to BIOTECH. (this is ironic, is like the lion, half way chasing the rabbit, then go for the deer, dua-dua tak dapat)

Instead of bringing in skilled / knowledge workers, we brought in oil palm plucking workers, we are talking about 1.4 million of them. No wonder we have brain drain, 2 times higher than any other country. (but never mind, don't believe in the world bank record, it doesn't contribute to the drop of FDI - said Dato Seri Najib)

While we criticize Soros being an opportunist, we ourselves don't have the thread to BUILD when we are a developing country.

While the government genesis, good intention of BUILDING a national car is sacred, after almost 30years (some claim is still consider infant stage for the industry), we hear from our taxi driver telling the Proton CEO, he dares not wind down his proton window frequently afraid that it will defunct. No wonder they said this brand of cars is made by politicians, not corporate. (i dont remember seeing Toyota in 90s fail in their power window (sad to compare with their 90s cars, but that's what we are capable of now))

As we move forward (or shall i say, hope) to achieve vision 2020 as a developed nation, we continue to only behaving like Soros (another opportunist), not building. We wasted our time, resources (gas is depleting), maybe we successfully enriched the corrupt politician, not the nation & our citizens.

Chinese entrepreneur : YTL, Robert Kuok, Lee KimYew, Jefferey Cheah, IOI Lee S.J; Lim Goh Tong, HongLeong Quek, Public Bank Teh, Honda BoonSiew has built something, over the years for themselves, creating jobs, enriching the country through taxation. - but nevermind, these are the opportunities GIVEN by the Government, so claimed PERKASA, Apa Lagi Cina Mahu?

Maybe these aren't the basic right of entrepreneur / human, these are GIVEN by government to them, so claimed Perkasa.

And these days, let us only give the jobs / contract to Bumiputeras (sorry, Umnoputra); and mind you, toe your line, (you are not capable of doing so, you are GIVEN the chance to do, you guys are controlling the gambling / entertainment that worth billions) or you wont' get any representatives in the government.

So, now, we celebrate our labour day, ya, Malaysia Boleh!

Hi Tun,

May I further respond to Parameswara 2. Thank you Tun.

Hi P2,

Let me give you a concrete example of what I meant when I mentioned that faith founded on the rock must come first before deeds, otherwise the deeds done will glorify the wrong "source".

You know, I realize that I should, starting from now, not even call you by your pen-name. Because the meaning of it (though it contains such concept as the "light"), does not glorify the God of Abraham, the true God that has brought us peace in Jesus' name. Now that we all have His blessings of communicating with each other using the internet, instead of fighting each other insanely, you know who we should glorify.

Jesus prostrate before God? I referred to Paslm 110. Matthew 25:31. John 14:8.

The society was not ready to accept who Jesus really was. But John knew everything and he wrote them down in John and Revelation.

Doubting God's power in pre-empting human's work, isn't that a sin?
Will God, being the Almighty, need to post-correct human's work?

By eanisazman on May 3, 2011 11:04 AM

Salam Tun and Bloggers,

In general, the West has continued to be a ragging bully to the world. The motive is quite plain to see. Profiting from any country for the survival of their kind. In the case of Arab countries, it is the oil. They have never been too quick to respond to the Bosnians and the Palestiniene compared to other oil reserve countries.

The British has the same history of discriminating the indigenious people of the Malaya and cultivating natural resources in which only leftovers were distributed while the major portion were shipped back for to their country. Malaya has never been a better state under their care.

While they going around ransacking every surface of the earth for their interest, they didn't have even the slightest embarassement when they preached the very people they have oppressed about humanatarian and any kind of idealisme.

As understood that this is the jungle rule where the might is always right, it would be the Arabs and the Muslim's fault that they have not been able to defend their own interest. Had Islam remained strong, they would've not been easily oppressed by the West in the first place.

By amin tan on May 3, 2011 6:24 AM

Dear Tun,

I agree fully with your analysis of the no fly zone. It is a way to show the superiority of air power and the enforcer would decide the outcome of the ongoing conflict. I think the Middle eastern Arab countries have little choice but have to agree to whatever American and the Western powers decide. These Arab countries are very weak militarily. They are not far sighted. Their supply and training of modern weaponry are hopelessly dependent on the American and the West. It clearly shows the American and the West are bullies in the world. This is a real humiliation and subjugation of the Arabs and the Muslims by the belligerent Western powers. Arab countries are mostly politically destabilized now.

Maybe another 911 may even the score a little bit. But violence begets violence. The losers would be innocent people. War mongers and arms merchants would be delighted at the prospect of increase in sales of their deadly weapons in the open or black markets.

The world is the jungle out there. The strong and powerful would bully and prey on the weak and the helpless. Might is right, say what you wish to say. The weak and the meek must be humble and learn his role in the sun. Respect must be given where it is due. The oil wealth and easy money has made the Arabs indulge in worldly luxuries oblivious to artificial power they possess and the transient nature of life in this world.

By parameswara 2 on May 3, 2011 2:16 AM

Dearest Tun

May I respond to d'tan..

1-My mahdi is a one who will bring peace to this world and conclude the history of mankind. Mine has nothing to do with the violent version that call for that bloody jihad against the Jews. He would be a truly God fearing, God guided person who would exploit the leverages afforded by IT and other advance telecommunication tools to bring a paradigm shift of how power could be achieved in the 21st century-a true peaceful, win-win, total mindset change approach consistent with the true message of Islam as a peaceful religion of 'surrendering to the Will of God'.

2-For your information my interpretation of the Mahdi is a person who would not come from the Middle East but a somebody who would be raised instead from the East- from a potential new centre of the 21st century-a country that is blessed with the right human materials to link with the two soon to be most powerful nations of the 21st century ,a country that is already a microcosm of the Global World, Malaysia!

3-I am totally against any violent interpretation of the Mahdi or the return of Christ-I simply believe that mankind has eventually fully matured a fact that is further exacerbated by the advent of the Global Village. Sick of all the madness, fightings and killings on whatever grounds on whichever side, mankind I believe is ready to pursue an achievable true peace, and that the opportunity would soon be afforded -once China and India are ready to take control of the leadership of the World from the presently and historically more violent races both the Europeans or the other Aryan stock of the Middle East.

4-I do not hate the Christians or any other non Muslim simply because we are taught by the Qur'an to tolerate other religions ,as well as the fact that Muslims in South East Asia now were once also Hindus, Buddhist and Pagans and if they today had the chance to be shown the right peaceful and beautiful Islam maybe they too would have been Muslims. The principle here is 'what's done once can be done again'.

5-Any religion that promotes war against the other to achieve a supposedly holy mission is assuredly only being used by the devil-Muslims or Christians alike.

6-D'tan I really hope that you can please detach yourself from all the hatred that you seem to harbour on the Muslims with all your violent interpretation of only what the Muslims seem to have committed but completely blind towards similar or even worst atrocities done by the people of your own faith.

7-Lets admit it,both sides that are only thinking of justifying their actions to kill each other ,Muslims or Christians alike ,are both just as childish and immatured.Show your Christian love by being more positive towards the Muslims.Didn't Jesus ask one who is slapped on his right cheek to also give his left cheek?

8-My own interpretation of the Mahdi is a revolutionary one that would not also be supported by other Muslims but I am convinced with my own interpretation which is based on a personal indepth research done on the peaceful rise of Islam in the Straits of Malacca and in the Silk Routes and elsewhere in the 14th century.

9-Whether you want to call this peaceful man Al Mahdi anti Christ or not would be totally up to you but being a Muslim who believes in the miraculous birth of Jesus, the Son of Mary he would not be an anti Christ.He would surely want peace as much as Jesus too.My Mahdi will be a comrade of Jesus should he also appear at the same time.But he would surely not worship Jesus but rather would acknowledge him as a great Prophet of God.Both Jesus and the Mahdi would together prostrate their heads to the ground in prostration to the Almighty God.

Thanks Tun

Assalamu'alaikum Tun,

dari sudut mana pun kita lihat, ini semua jelas adalah perang antara Islam dgn kafir. "no-fly zone" di Libya, perang di Iraq dan Afghanistan mahupun penjajahan terhadap bumi Singapura oleh kaum pendatang, semua nya adalah perang terhadap Islam.

cuma beza nya kaum kafir yg pengecut ini, walau dgn segala macam peralatan perang yg termaju, mereka tidak berani mengistiharkan secara terus-terang perang terhadap Islam.

strategi keji mereka adalah serampang bermata tiga. sebagian mereka memperalatkan sebagian yg lain untuk bermusuhan dgn kita. sedang sebagian lagi berpura-pura bersahabat dan simpati. Amerika, Britain dan Perancis bersungguh-sungguh hendak menyerang, Russia dan China berlagak jujur, untuk kemudian nya berkecuali ketika Majlis Keselamatan PBB mengundi.

hal ini sudah berulang-kali terjadi. tapi cerdik-pandai dan Pemimpin-pemimpin kita masih juga terbuai helah keadilan PBB. padahal Amerika, Nato, Russia dan China adalah sama saja tahap permusuhan nya terhadap Islam. persekongkolan mereka terhadap kita amat erat dan ketara sekali.

contoh nya ada pada kaum kerabat gerombolan militan komunis yg kini bertukar kulit menyuarakan fahaman supramacist bangsa mereka diblog Tun ini. sebagian mereka menukil-nukil ayat-ayat kitab injil lalu mengadun nya menjadi sebuah pendirian yg konon nya berlandaskan Kebenaran. padahal apa sangat lah yg mereka faham tentang Kebenaran atau tentang Tuhan atau tentang Agama...

Tun, walaupun pertalian kita dgn umat Islam Libya atau Iraq atau Afghanistan mewajibkan kita untuk bersimpati dgn penindasan terhadap mereka tapi saya harap Tun tidak lupa bahwa kita Umat Islam Nusantara sendiri pun bukanlah selamat dari serangan orang-orang kafir.

saudara-saudara kita di Singapura dan East Turkmenistan, yg disebut pemerintah komunis China sebagai Xinjiang, juga perlukan pembelaan. saya harap Tun akan mengulas tentang diskriminasi dan penindasan terhadap umat Islam Singapura dan East Turkmenistan sebanyak mana Tun mengulas tentang penindasan terhadap umat Islam di Timur Tengah.

di Singapura sekarang ini sedang berlangsung suatu acara gymnastic yg mereka sebut sebagai Pilihanraya.harap Tun ada kesempatan menonton rapat-umum pilihanraya nya.anak-cucu militan-komunis beraksi dalam apa yg mereka sebut sebagai "pesta-demokrasi".

demokrasi versi Lee kuan yew,walau nampak kekok dan kaku,tapi tidak mereka rasa malu.sebalik nya kita yg melihat rasa canggung sendiri.demokrasi bentuk apa kah ini? sistem kuota mereka menetapkan setiap kawasan undi hanya ada 10% pengundi Melayu.tentulah tak mungkin akan ada satu orang pun wakil parlimen yg benar-benar dipilih oleh orang melayu.dan disana,mengundi ada lah Wajib.

orang Melayu dipaksa mengundi untuk memberi bangsa asing legitimasi menjajah mereka dibumi mereka sendiri.dan demokrasi ala ini diterima-baik oleh Pihak Barat atas dasar "The enemy of my enemy is my friend".maka digembar-gemburkan lah Singapura sebagai negara merdeka yg demokratik....

harap Tun sudi-sudi lah pandang dan ulas.semuga ulasan Tun kelak akan dapat membuka minda Datuk Seri Najib untuk faham akan ancaman bahaya "Clear and Present Danger" yg sedang hendak membaham kita.

terimakasih Tun.

Dear Tun,

Please allow me to divert.

Osama bin Laden is DEAD.

By killing Osama does not mean the war on terrorism is being subdued. There will be of course a new breed of Osama bin Laden who will be more fierce than Osama. They will continue their struggle to fight injustice against the Muslim world. I don't think the war is over yet, until Obama resolves the Palestinian-Israeli issue once and for all. If the issue still remains unsolved the situation on terrorism will continue unabated. Believe me!!

Obama must solve the Palestinian-Israeli issue. Make no mistake about it. It is very critical now since we can see the Arab world is changing politically, from dictatorship to more open society. The trend for the new Arab society is now inclined towards the formation of Islamic States based on Sharia Laws and the element of anti-Israel among the Arab people are indeed very strong and growing.

So Obama should think outside the box what is the future political scenario of the Arab world would be once dictatorships and monarchies are gone forever in the Arab countries.

By dtan on May 2, 2011 3:10 PM

Tun,

If I may respond to Parameswara 2

Per 1. The Mahdi to put it succinctly is the Christians Anti-Christ. He will usher in a war with Israel. I disagree that Muslims are being humiliated. Muslims could make peace if they wanted to. Islamists believe in Hudnah. A Ceasefire not Peace. You shouldn't equate Stubbornness with Humiliation. Muslims are being humbled by Israel. Israel has the Hutzpah to fight back. Palestinians could accept citizenship in Israel or move to the TransJordan but are stubbornly waiting for the other middle-east nations to gang up on Israel. After all, Tun proudly parades his 'Al Quds' scarf with jihadi inscriptions of:

i) Al Quds Is Ours

ii) Al Quds we are Coming for you

Other cultures, Armenians, Kurds, Coptics, Maronites, Sudanize, Jews etc are the ones that have suffered under the Caliphate. 1.5 million murdered Armenian Christians under the hands of Islamists does not engender Islam to the term 'Religion of Peace'. Islamists just can't stand the fact that there is one group that will not lie down and be slaughtered.

Per 2. Islam will not succeed according to the Bible. In Ezekiel 37-38 God will allow your brethren to gang up on Israel along with the help of Russia. I wouldn't be so sure if I were you.

Per 3-7. If War with Gods chosen people is what Islamists want. War with God is what you will get. Rather than hoping or praying for Israel to be exterminated. I would rather seek the God of Abraham's guidance and his will for our lives. That ultimately is a better prayer and does not assume that I am arrogant enough to believe that I am correct.

Peace Be With You In Jesus Name

It was perhaps fortuitous for me to have waited a day or two before posting my comments on this topic which you have raised.

We are now witness to the murder of the child and grandchildren of the leader of a state that NATO expressley recognizes.

There is a great danger and something very sinister about the attempt to assassinate Muamar Gadhafi. Its implicaitons are now being more closely examined in Whitehall and in the corridors of power in Europe and the US for what could follow this breach of international law.

As mad as it may sound, there are rules of engagement in war which all belligerents in any war are required under international law to adhere to.

In breach of these rules they are liable to face the consequences of their breaches at the international tribunals set up to adjudicate on war crimes. Not that the international war crimes tribunals usually set up by the west do adhere to their own rules and laws.

The attack two days ago by a NATO missile on Muammar Gadhafi's residence in Tripoli which claimed the life of his youngest son Seif Al Islam and three of his grandchildren will go down in history as another act of European cowardice and the barbarity of their governments who with impunity kill those they consider lesser people.

Britain did that with the Chinese in Malaya during the insurgency. It was supposedly to protect Malaysian's against the marauding Chinese (or Yellow Peril) as they were referred to then by the British.

The result is that we had the Slim River massacre and many more like it along the Thai Malayan border. Nothing has been done about it. At least not yet.

As part of NATO, France and Italy along with the United States and Britain have vast oil interests in the region. Libya is one of them. Its leader is recognized by the world (that includes those bombing him as they have not withdrawn recognition of his regime).

The British Prime Minister confirmed recognition when condemning the torching of his country's embassy along with that of the Italian's in Tripoli following the attempted assassination of Gadhafi. If there were no recognition there would be no diplomatic missions. They expelled Libya's mission from Britain because of the reaction.

The excuse Britain's Prime Minister gave the world on a British TV interview for the attack on Muammar Gadhafi was that the people in that compound (Gadhafi's house) were part of the military command and its infrastructure. Meaning Gadhafi and his family. None of the grandchildren though however much Britain thinks they can justify their murders, were part of any military infrastructure. It is a war crime.

THE ROYAL FAMILY AND THE PRECEDENTS THIS ATTACK CREATES.

Interestingly the much awaited honeymoon of Prince William and his new bride Cate have been postponed. And strangely they may have to settle for Balmoral Scotland instead as a destination. The British drunk with the festivities have not seen fit to ask why anyone would want to go to Balmoral for any reason let alone a joyous occasion such as a honeymoon. But there is a reason for this.

The wedding it is widely believed by military strategists and analysts was used as a distraction for the impending attack on the life of Muammar Gadhafi and his entire family although NATO desperately tries to deny this now. The inference is one reasonable person will be compelled to draw.

In attacking Gadhafi and killing his three infant grandchildren and in proffering the weak excuse of 'military command and infrastructure' they have put the British Royal Family directly and squarely in the cross hairs of any of Britain's or NATO's enemies. Here is why.

The Queen of England is head of Britain's armed forces. It is she who can declare war and decide when it must end although this is done with the advice of her government.

What does the Prime Minister of Britain's statement therefore make of this? The Queen is a legitimate military target by his definition henceforth as are other members of her Royal Family who hold rank of Colonel in Chief of the Royal Irish Guards (Prince William), Prince of Wales Charles who is also Colonel in chief of the Royal Welsh Guards and Air Commodore of the Royal Air Force, Commander of the Gurkha Rifles and the Honorary Commander of at least 36 other military formations throughout the commonwealth. That includes our neighbour Brunei.

Since they claim that attacking Libya's leader because he is part of the military infrastructure of Libya is justified, they have by passed international law and created a precedent which may well bind them and their enemies against them.

What's been done by NATO also unfortunately in this incident places all Royal's and rulers of NATO and other countries in the cross hairs of their enemies making these legitimate targets in any war or unilateral action as the action by NATO against Libya must be characterised as. It includes children as targets as they did Gadhafi's three little grandchildren.

Where does our responsibility as citizens of the world lie in all of this? We must never forget what Britain and the US have and continue to do to their 'enemies'. They set about dehumanising them with vilification campaigns in the press they control first. Then they go about killing them like they have done in Iraq, Afghanistan, Viet Nam, China before that and India and Pakistan before that.

Not three weeks ago Britain's Prime Minister went to Islamabad in Pakistan and apologised to the people of Pakistan for his countries 'mistakes' there during colonization and after that event. Not three weeks later his government repeats those mistakes and he offers an excuse instead of an apology. A leopard it is said correctly never changes its spots.

Unless we as a people make it abundantly clear to the British through letters and petitions to their leaders and to the Italians and French that a full and unconditional apology to the Libyan family of Gadhafi and his people is required, complete with reparation, compensation and withdrawal they cannot be our true friends.

Remember this: Those who forget the past are doomed to suffer and repeat it in the future.

Seriously, how stupid, blind and deaf can the Arab's be and why are we still sitting on our bum watching the news. I dont watch foreign news anymore including Al-Jazeera. It makes me mad and sad because all we did were just sitting idly to the comfort of our home. DAMN THE NATO, THE WEST AND THE ARABS! May god be swift with these evil doers.

Salam Tun,

Mohon izin

Sahabat kita Rimba Emas nampaknya tergelincir dari landasan kesajahteraan sebenar. Apa yang PBB telah sejahterakan hati orang Islam dan negara Islam? Berita terbaru di Libya anak cucu Muamar Gadaffi mati dibom?

Mengenai No Fly Zone atau apa saja rancangan dari PBB dan sekutunya MEMANG TIDAK PERNAH ADA KEIKHLASAN UNTUK KESEJAHTERAAN ORANG & NEGARA ISLAM.

By andrewtay on May 1, 2011 8:12 PM

Dear Mr Mahathir

First of all, to HBT, Mandarin and Puthonghua are the same. Puthonghua is the common language which is Mandarin. Dont be ignorant, its embarrassing.

No fly zone is awesome first of all. It shows the dedication of the West which are once again united to bring down a tyrant. It is war, albeit not an open war. No rules apply here and no one cares about the Geneva bullshit convention.

Im all for the "no fly zone" in fact i want something more substantial. Maybe a ground invasion to overthrow the bad guys. Hell its bad enough Gadaffi ordered the killing of his own people. If people have to die, let it be the bad guys.

Again as i have iterated in the pass, Arabs are hypocrites. They slam the West but when they are under siege, they beg for their help. Now who own you?

By jolly on May 1, 2011 5:19 PM

Hi Tun,

In my opinion, they should stop the killing immediately. These are evil acts. How do I know it is an evil act? I refer to John 10:10.

Quote (NIV)

10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

Hi Tun,

I really wish the government can establish "no fly zone" for the mosquitos around us. I urge the authority not to waste money anymore on the "spray", tablets, adverts etc. Channel all the fund to reconstruct the drains (longkang) within the kampungs and tamans, so that the water can flow and no mosquitos can breed.

By bumiborneo on May 1, 2011 1:19 AM

NATO uses Stealth Bombers. The only airplane could fly without being detected.No-fly zone only applied when you don't get caught.

Does a cruise missile categorised as an airplane? If it is not, then we got a problem.

1-If Muslims do not believe in the idea of the Mahdi(as the anti hadis people would like us all to) then they will most likely become very despaired people esp with all these humiliation continue to be inflicted upon them now and then.It seems likely that the end for the Muslims would be a sad and an unglorious one.Muslims would be greatly demoralized and those weak in faith may even renounce Islam altogether.But that is not to be for God have promised us a victory.Without a systematic and concerted initiative and planning under a one leadership of the Mahdi there will be no redemption of the humiliation they are suffering.

2-Things just don't happen in a vacuum.All things are subjected to the laws of course and effects.The Prophet himself merely fit into God's plan of proclaiming Islam over the Biblical Holy lands 1400 years ago.He was no superman,but God had provided him with all that it takes;the right time with the emergence of the scientific age,right geographical location between Asia ,Europe and Africa,right human materials etc,etc.Islam belongs to God and it was God's will that Islam succeeded 1400 years ago.

3-Inspite of the severe and systematic onslaught of the enemies since time immemorial,Islam may have been beaten but never defeated.Maybe bruised and battered but not over and out.It is still standing and it will always prevail.God has planned it to be proclaimed over all religion and so it must happen eventually.It is at the moment only going through the ups and downs in its development process.But it is indeed 'work in progress'very nearing completion.

4-The enemies have planned to extinguish God's light with their mouths but God have instead planned to proclaim it over all religion.They scheme and they plan and God plans too but surely God is the best of planners.

5-The enemies are now fast forwarding their evil scheming. Their plan to extinguish God's light must be aggressively pursued now before it's too late. Potential trouble making nations must be quickly confronted and disabled. They believe they are now just an arm's length away from their dreams.

6-But of course they can never outwit God. God is the greatest. He is the best of planners. God will raise the rightly chosen ones who would be inspired and prepared to fit into His promised plans to exploit all the opportunities and infrastructure that God has already made available in this 21st century as it was in the 7th century proclaiming Islam over the Pagans, Zoroastrians, Jews and Christians of the Middle East and 14th century over the Hindus and Buddhists of The Straits of Malacca, Silk Routes of China and India and Central Asia and the Christians of the Mediterranean and Balkan trade routes. It will appear again from the new centre of the World where all the right human materials of the 21st century are all now gathered! Get ready for the glorious coming of the third wave!

7-Muslims must have faith in this good news. Never give up on God. His promises are true!

Thanks Tun

I don't really think so that the Arab countries and UN overlooked at the resolutions. They are just a dummy, they don't really care what's going to happen to the Libyans'. To them, supporting is better than cohering.

In other words the world is already trapped in the system that has been designed by the Jewish for decades. There must be someone to stop all these mass.

I really hope one day Tun, you will become UN Secretary.

Perhaps it would be wise to add the "great" Madeline Albright's vile comments to a reporter's question to her about how justified the over 100,000 Iraki children dying from her embargo created by maintaining the 'no fly zone' was.

"It is a small price to pay" she responded. And to think Madeline Albright a convert to Catholicism from Judaeism who escaped the Holoucast should think human life, especially the innocent lives of little children are disposable commodities in a political campaign of belligerence waged purely for the sake of oil.

There is a saying in her good book as it is in mine "It is better to cast yourself into the depths of the ocean with a millstone tied around your neck than to corrupt the minds and souls of little children". That includes killing torturing and depriving them of the right to live.

It is always a relief to humanity that there are people who are in positions of power to speak like you do in the interests of human rights do speak and raise these issues in the conscience of the public (which needless to say Malaysia's NGO community conveniently avoid recognizing because it is you).

It is a pity though that many more who can speak and influence their public do not do so because it is inconvenient.

Assalamualaikum wr wb,

Dear Tun,

Following my previous posting regarding the West and China, as I said - it is definitely in the Muslim interest to extract maximum benefit from this competition between the West & China.

Take Malaysia for example. True - you have very strong feelings about Colonialism. But lets face it - Malaysia does NOT have high-technology ! You can say whatever you like - but not a single Malaysian university is in the THE top 200. By contrast - Singapore has 3 universities in the THE top 200 ! In short Malaysia is still low-tech.

Now - it is definitely in Malaysian interest to source for technology. I put it to you that Malaysia can extract much needed technology by positioning herself strategically in this competition between the West and China.

Tun - you cannot allow your own personal experience to cloud your decision making. Much as you disdain the West - I put it to you that China is no better. They both want to dominate us.

The way forward for the Muslim world lies in extracting maximum benefit from this rivalry between China and the West.

The current situation resembles that of 1000 years ago. If you recall - during the time of the Prophet - there were two great powers in rivalry - Rome & Persia. Today the Muslim world once again lies between 2 great powers - the West (Rome) and China (Persia).

Take heed from Muslim history using the Quran and Sunnah as a guide. Once again I say - it is in the Muslim interest to extract maximum benefit from the rivalry between the West and China.

Assalamualaikum,

Dear Tun Mahathir,

I have to DISAGREE with you on this one. The Arab Spring or Jasmine Revolution - is a popular, people power movement against cruel, authoritarian regimes. It is NOT like Iraq.

The West must show that Islam is compatible with Democracy by adopting Unity In Diversity as its ethos. The West must show to the Arabs that they can remain Muslim within a Democratic framework. The West must NOT add to an "inner Clash of Civilizations". It cannot - like the PAP & LKY - demand a dilution of Islam as some kind of condition for Democracy to take hold in the Arab world.

The wisdom of the the late Tunku Abdul Rahman & Bung Hatta - lies precisely in making Unity In Diversity a foundational principle for a multi-racial, multi-cultural and multi-religious Democracy. In Islam - the basis for a multi-religious harmony - is precisely the Quranic verse, "to you be your beliefs/religion - and to me mine". That is the only way forward.

I strongly believe that NATO's actions in the Mid-East i.e. in Libya etc as regards to the Arab Spring - is CORRECT. Europe must support the nascent Democratic Movement in the Arab world in this Arab Spring. This is NOT Iraq which was an American miscalculation. The Arab Spring is supported by the Arab masses.

If Europe fails to support this popular Arab democratic movement - then China will fill up this power vacuum in the Mid-East - to Europe's loss. Whether we admit it or not - it is very clear that the West and China are headed for a "balance of power" competition to build up "spheres of influence" in order to gain market access and resources. Its very very obvious ! And the Mid-East is a 400 million strong market plus huge petroleum reserves in an era where the Energy Crisis looms large.....

One does NOT build a Stealth fighter jet in order to dance with Santa Claus. One does NOT build a blue-water navy to tickle the toes of Santa Claus. This balance of power thing between the West and China is very real. There are limited resources in this world. Whether you admit it or not - the West will have to compete with China for "influence" to gain access to such resources and markets.

I put it to you that the world is headed towards a new kind of Cold War between the West & China - and the Muslim world lies between the West and China. There will be competition between the West and China for influence in the Muslim world. It has already begun. It is in the European interest to build and cultivate good relations with the Muslim world. Failing which - China will fill the gap and that would set Europe back by almost a century. Europe must think very carefully about this.

In the meantime - IT IS IN MUSLIM INTEREST TO EXTRACT THE MAXIMUM BENEFIT FROM THIS COMPETITION BETWEEN THE WEST & CHINA !

Wassalam & Best Regards

Good afternoon Ayahanda Tun,

Malaysia and China boost ties with slew (meant in Oxford Dictionaries as great or violent way in mass killing people or animals) of agreements

KUALA LUMPUR: Malaysia and China have taken a major step forward in bilateral relations with a slew of agreements signed and a pledge to break barriers.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak and Chinese Premier Wen Jiabao expressed their desire to outdo achievements in the bilateral sphere for the good of both nations.

A total of eight agreements and MoUs were signed in the presence of both leaders yesterday.

Among others, Malaysia and China have agreed that bilateral trade be settled in local currencies. A student exchange programme is also to be introduced next year.

A traditional Chinese medicine centre of excellence will be set up in Malaysia, while Bank Negara will establish a representative office in Beijing.

The force used by the UN, should be the non-violent force. Difefu has once suggested to make people faint, or immobilized temporarily en masse.

After all the culprits are caught, throw them into a no mans land (with soil for them to plant to survive on their own).

The UN should take over the governments that fail, to educate the people and prepare them for referendum.

These are my humble opinions. Thank you Tun, for the space.
