

UNITED STATES CLEARS MALAYSIA

Chedet.co.cc

July 15, 2012

By Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad

1. I am sorry to write again on the wrong things the United States is doing. It will hurt the supporters and apologists of the United States and United States' Presidents. They will say I was worse when I was Prime Minister. That's OK.
2. This time I read in the papers that the United States clears more from sanctions (including Malaysia). The reason for this considerateness is because these countries have cut back on oil from Iran.
3. The apologists for the United States will say that the United States have every right to apply sanctions against any country.
4. Correct.
5. But the United States has no right to force other countries to apply sanctions. Only the United Nations has. However, by threatening to penalise foreign financial institutions over transaction with Iran (in fact all transaction by the recalcitrant foreign banks), the United States has forced the countries targeted to stop business with Iran.
6. The United States has exempted Europe, China and India simply because these are friends or they are too big to force submission to United States foreign policies.
7. When the colonies of Western nations gained independence, they naively thought they would be free. But now we know that they are not free at all.
8. The West and the former colonial masters have not given up on their imperial dream. They still wish to dominate the world. With their economic clout and military threats they are doing this.

Salam Tun

1-Thanks bro wajaperak for supporting my comment on riba.Insyaallah with the right explanation and guidance from my friends in this blog if I could be convinced of the hadith I could definitely return to 'the right path' again.All I want to see is the truth not based on faith alone but more on facts.Nonetheless I appreciate your kindness shown towards me.Sorry if I have wrongly judged you before.

2-Dear bro middle ages,I am not predicting a warlike disaster mentioning the world wars but rather the economic aftermath as it would now involve every part of the world that is dependent on the USD. When the USD collapses as it must eventually, the whole world will be affected.

3-Since the world also practises this riba economy the collapse will be contagion, hence the adage “when America sneezes, the whole world will get the flu”. You can make your own research to see just how dependent is the entire world on the USD.

4-So the question you must ask is why should the USD collapse. My very simple answer is simply because the world has its laws that govern everything. Nothing is above these natural laws except with the leave of God. One of the simplest law is that there is no such thing as something for nothing.

5-The USD has been issued ex nihilo since it has been taken off the gold standard in the seventies. Its economy should have collapsed in 2008 but has all these while been put on a lifeline by these QEs that is produced by its printing press. Everyone knows that these QEs is simply not working.

6-Many prominent Americans like Robert Kiyosaki, Senator Ron Paul and many others themselves have warned fellow Americans of the impending catastrophe to come. They could be wrong but what happen if they are right? Is it not better to be safe than sorry?

7-I predict that with this imminent collapse, the Western dominance will be ended and it will be taken over by the top two Asian nations, China and India. These two powers will emerge from the aftermath of this economic collapse which would be nothing like the world had ever experienced, by the support of their billion strong and hardened domestic market.

8-I envisage that the two former world powers that dominated from the 14th to 17th centuries and contributed 75% of the world GDP before will be delivering the best civilization ever by virtue that they will create history by being the only former civilizations given a second chance. You can say that its like saying they've had the experience before. Obviously the second glory should be the better.

9-I did predict that the world would eventually end. This is simply something all believers of the scriptures must believe. The prophets had all come to warn us of the day when all men will be for himself. As a Muslim I believe whatever the Quran say. If the Quran say that the moment is near then it must be.

10-So what would be a better time than to end the history of mankind when they have actually achieved the level of complete maturity and perfection? They would have achieved this when the world eventually see true peace between nations, no more poverty on the streets, no more exploitation of the poor by the rich, no more exploitation of the weak by the strong, and all other beautiful things presently regarded as utopia.

11-This state of perfection will eventually arrive but such phenomena cannot last. So after a few generations of peace on earth and after mankind and its civilization has come off age and just before it start to show decay.. I think that is when it will be the perfect time to let this billion years old planet to expire. Nothing last forever. Only God will be forever.

12-At least there will be meaning in the theory of creation and mankind and its civilizations.

13-I hope I have explained my point of view. Sorry if it sound absurd.

Thanks Tun

Assallammualaikumwarahmatulahi wabarokatuh..

Tun.. walaupun saya tidak bersetuju dengan Iskandar Shah 2 tentang hadith saya bersetuju dengan kenyataannya tentang riba.

Middleages anda adalah kafir tulin atau 'pure kafirian'. The riba or usury mentioned in Al Quran damages. It damages the soul like the 'Musyrik is najas'. You will not fathom the concept because it is not meant to be literal. Like your perception of heaven.

Let me tell you something of basic military code.

Hidup bergantung harapan kepada orang adalah hampa..

Tun..siarkanlah komen saya..
Middleages masuklah Islam..
Iskandar Shah 2 kembalilah ke pangkal jalan...

Hampa..Hampa dan hampa..

Oleh itu..muslimin mestilah hidup dan bergantung harapan kepada mereka yang mukhlisin!!

Salam Tun,

1. I feel compelled to respond to Iskandar Shah 2's comment simply because it is so absurd. According to him, the entire world economy will collapse simply because US practices riba. And he even goes as far as predicting it to be the doom for mankind worse than WWI & WWII combined.

2. Now, just what and how planet earth he arrives at such unearthly conclusion, he does not tell us, just like a modern day bomoh.

Thank You Tun, let me run first.

1-Had the US not been blessed with the magic wand to print money ex nihilo she would have already been one truly giant Greece way back in 2008. So I find it rather amusing listening to Bernanke commenting about the Greece situation as though their great country is all so very different.

2-The magic wand will soon lose its power and when that happens, the world as we know it will come to an end. It will be single most devastating event the world will ever witness. It will dwarf the effects of WW1 and WW2 combined.

3-While proactive farsighted people like Robert Kiyosaki is already aggressively preparing the American people for this coming event the majority of the people though think nothing would ever go wrong. The QEs they say will eventually bring recovery to this great nation. God, they say love America.

4-One of the reasons why it must eventually go is simply because the fiat money is riba. You see God has promised war against it and nobody, just nobody could ever prevail over God. It is just a matter of time. The signs of the impending fallout is oh so clear. In fact it is a mathematical certainty. The magic wand only created an illusion. Soon the truth shall appear.

5-This event very soon to come will mark the end of this perhaps greatest civilization in history, and to prepare the way for the arrival of a new one that may now still be in its infancy. Well the Western civilization started small too inspired by the Golden Age of Islam that shone forth from Muslim Spain into Europe to spark the renaissance, the infant Western civilization.

6-I guess on the positive side we must consider ourselves a lucky generation to be able to witness and be involved in the transition from one great civilization to the other, that is on condition we survive the economic tsunami that is going to hit the whole wide world.

7-What kind of a new civilization will emerge, will it be something our mind cannot fathom at the moment. I wonder if it would be a God sent solution eventually to sent poverty to the museum?

8-I think now that mankind has eventually been supported by the great information infrastructure not afforded the previous generation, we would be able to come together real time to achieve a true non rhetoric global peace.

9-The ability of Govts to bullshit its way to War on Terror or anything else sewaktu dengannya will be thwarted by this information framework. Through this network people of the world will become one global citizen who could be mobilize to end any stupid acts of Govts at record time.

10-I do believe that what we thought as impossible all these while will become possible eventually. All the leverages to make this once difficult or impossible job become light and easy is now in my opinion already afforded us. Some we already know, like this global world that can talk a global language real time from one end to the other.

11-Other leverages may be around but we may not realize its uses until someone who understands come along to exploit and combine all these tools together to deliver that powerful synergy that would deliver that dream come true civilization.

12-This awesome dream come true type of a civilization would befit a civilization that is definitely going to be the closing ceremony for the history of mankind. Mankind after 7000 years of its existence since Adam and Eve has finally shown its true potential.

13-God will save the best for last. Peace shall eventually be proclaimed on earth. Then one fine day when we least expect it the day foretold by the prophets shall come when all man will be for himself. This is the only way peace on earth can last forever that is by ending it while it is in its glory.

14- If it is given a few more hundred years it would eventually decay and become corrupted and we will be right back at where we are now.

Thanks Tun

US has their strategies to dominate the world because of their weaknesses in economic. That's why their use their military campaign to invade other country to increase their economic downturn. Look at their campaign, It's only at middle east why?.
This is because middle east had many oil resources that will force them to buy with high prices.

Dear Tun,

with all due respect, your conclusion here whereby

“The West and the former colonial masters have not given up on their imperial dream. They still wish to dominate the world. With their economic clout and military threats they are doing this.”

.. is far fetched and erroneous. The United States of American were never the Colonial Master to any one. How can they thus not have given up on imperial dreams they never had?

The United States of American's doing may be wrong and if it is it is wrong for very different reasons. The General Public should not be mislead like this though.

Disagreeing with you for once does not diminish my general respect and admiration for you and all you have done for your country in the past.

Good Health!

If the citizen of US cannot see that their Govt. is taking them to the dark side then what have we to say but only pray and hope that they can have the wisdom and vision. The path to world peace or a place for all is when the Americans stop being so greedy and more contented. Even if after the Americans can realize and change there will be the Chinese in China to worry. The Chinese are buying and owning anything and everything money can buy. Luckily the current Chinese Govt is not going around instigating WAR and have less ambition to sell WAR products. The current trend is too dangerous to all citizen of the world as there is limit to everything. The world and nature cannot continue to supply or keep-up with the greed of human. We want more, use more, own more without care of the consequences. Why a single man would want to own 3 ports in Malaysia, can he take or owned these ports when he is no more physically here. Every company or corporate wants growth, will there be a time when they will say enough. Even the squirrel knows only to store enough nuts and seeds for winter and then rest and relax. We human should be more intelligent then that.

Until the citizen of American can realised how much their Govt wasting their money to buy then obsolete and throw away airplane, warship, tanks and other War machinery, there will be no peace in this world. The American Govt will continue to instigate war until everyone stop buying their weapons. As in the WWF advertisement slogan "the killing stop when the buying stop"

United states has done many damages to the world.

Politicians has used country resources to pursue personal agenda.

Now countries are left in the dark over its future.

Democracy is the seed where the powerful elite evil cronies arises.

The powerful elite evil cronies exist in all countries.

This is the truth.

This is our world.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

The United States was found by the Freemasons. The Freemasons was formerly the Knights of Templar. On the back of their dollar bill is a seal showing an incomplete pyramid with a one eye floating on top of it. Some say it means they are preparing to complete the pyramid for the one eye to come down. The one eye is referred to dajjal or the anti christ. Below the seal is are the words "Novus ordo seclorum" which means New Order of the Ages. They want to create a new world order. The United States have and always been an imperialist country because they have to. They have been planning to rule the world for thousands of years.

To rule the world does not necessarily mean you have to control each country directly. Simply having the country follow your orders also means you have controlled the country. If any country disobey, then that country will be sanctioned economically, bombed, , demonised in the international media by accusing them of planning to have nuclear weapons or weapons of mass destruction to overthrow the recalcitrant leader. Once the recalcitrant leader is overthrown, simply replace it with a puppet leader that will take orders from the United States.

In Egypt recently, the US secretary of State visited the new Egyptian President, informing him to exercise the full power of the Presidency. She then went to the Egyptian military informing them to give full cooperation to the new President. Who is she to tell Egyptians what they can or cannot do?

Imagine if the United States coming to Malaysia informing the Prime Minister to exercise the full power of the Prime Ministership and then going to the military chief informing him to give full cooperation to the Prime Minister.

The international media is wondering who is actually in power in Egypt, is it the President or the military? To me, its the United States who is in power in Egypt, because they decide what the Egyptians can or cannot do.

I hope the new Egyptian President will resist from becoming a puppet of the United States even if the military are against it.

The Europeans and the United States are already under their control. The middle east is almost completely controlled, with one last rebel country remaining, Iran to settle with. Therefore it is only logical to move the conquest to the long forgotten realm of the Far East.

What saddens me is that when an imperialistic country come to Asia to conquer it, instead of uniting against it, the Asian countries intensify their attack on each other.

In the recently concluded ASEAN meeting, we can see the deep divisions among fellow asian countries. The division was so deep that the final communiqué was not even issued at the end of the meeting.

The international media, ever one sided, reported how Cambodia is an ally to China but the Philippines following orders from the United States was not highlighted.

The Philippines must understand even if the incident was mentioned in the final communiqué, the scarborough shoal will still not be theirs. The dispute will still continue. Do the Philippines think if the United States sided with them, China will suddenly tremble in fear and hand over the shoal them?

The Philippines must understand the only option for them to control the shoal is to go to war with China. Many Filipino will die. If the United States enters the war, for sure the Russians will come in as well to aid China. If these countries are at war, for sure it will be world war 3 and it will be a nuclear war. All happening in Asian ground. All this happening because the Philippines failing to see the bigger picture on what is the United States hidden agenda. The Philippines are only thinking about themselves about wanting to control Scarborough shoal.

I agree with Dr Chandra Muzaffar's idea and the ASEAN secretary for a joint development in the disputed areas. However, Dr Chandra suggested that China must be persuaded for joint development, but China have all along opt for joint development which would appease both the Chinese and the Filipino people since everybody has a share of it and in the spirit of neighborliness.

It is the Philippines that wants full control. Therefore, it is the Philippines that must be persuaded. The Philippines must come to terms that they have to go to war to completely control the shoal at the expense of other Asian countries having to suffer because of the war.

I kind of Stupid and Do Not Understand

Why now everybody tends to be so concern of Syria
Civil War that is happening there
The Syrians has their own reasons to fight
United Nation just need to put the civilians asides
To put and safeguard the Civilians at Safe
Let the Rebels and Assad fight among themselves
Let them Die

But when United States,NATO
Bombard Iraq Illegally United Nations remains Resilence
They don,t bother the Massacred Done By NATO
Towards the innocent Iraq civilians

In the Malay Archipelago (Wallace, 1890) the writer I think wondered at the state of perfect social order of the Malays and lamented the ills and poverty of their colonial masters in their own homelands despite the overt military presence here.

The state of endemic warfare has not changed much and neither has the deception and ploys, both home grown and foreign.

If the state of asabiya achieved then and now includes technological, social, and spiritual competencies and if nothing has changed substantially but the ebb and flow , what lessons for us? Are we on an ebb or a flow?

Tun

The world super power the United States has established her hegemony over the globe beginning roughly at the beginning of the American-Spanish War of 1899 with the blowing up of an American warship in Havana harbour.

It is interesting to note that the wealth of the British Empire poured into the United States for its development from the second half of the 19th century and within 50 years, it was the Americans who became the policemen and masters of the world with the world hegemony of the almighty American Dollar ' In God We Trust '. This is the weapon to expand Pax Americana through trade after the force of arms, like the Romans which lasted from 350 BC to 450 AD

I have observed since young that the Americans seek their inspiration and motivation from the Greeks and the Romans. And from this font of Western Civilization, anything that is European whether an immigrant or any bit of culture is absorbed into the great United States.

Americans only die for freedom unlike the French and the British.

With this skimpy background, we observe like you that the word ' freedom ' has a different meaning for the Americans and us, the rest of the World.

You will note that Coca Cola will be in Myanmar soon after being laid seige by the Americans and their Allies. The beverage entered Malaya sometime in 1949 but the American Fords, Chevrolets, Plymouths, Pontiac etc arrived a year or two earlier.

Sanctions are ineffective on the 1% elite which rule any country. It is the 99% of the population which suffered as shown in the case of Saddam Hussein's Iraq.

I suppose I am innocent and naive to think why such super powers do not just go and bomb the countries they do not like instead of hee-hawing over many meetings at the United Nations. In the end, other ways would be thought out to achieve the same result.

Sanctions also remind me of the Red Indians and the encircled horse wagons in the western plains of the United States or like some ancient citadel being laid seige by some barbaric marauders in the ancient past.
- a sort of put a recalcitrant on notice.

There will always be the 30% recalcitrant countries in this world which the United States have to recognise will be recalcitrant.

In fact, if the United States lay down their red carpets to these recalcitrant countries, the very authoritarian regimes which they hate might collapse overnight without firing a bullet.

But then, is this palatable or acceptable to the embedded politico-industrial-military complex in Washington DC ?

A very senior advisor to the Government and my relative told me many years ago that Communism would collapse if it comes into contact with capitalism. His wise comment has come true in China and Russia.

And so we have realpolitik of the American kind.

Some countries like it and welcome it with open arms. A few who are big enough or proud enough for historical reasons ask the Americans to excuse them.

Hence, we find the Malaysia of today with its geo-political importance and strategic location and the most important of all, a diverse population living together in peace, harmony and prosperity under successive BN Governments put under the stress by so many suitors of super power calibre who want to be on kissing terms. How ?

It takes a wise man to be the Prime Minister these days unlike the black and white days of the Cold War when there were only the good and bad guys ! The Americans have always viewed the world through their staunch belief of this simple scenario. Madame Chiang Kai Shek took a similar view and was famously close to them.

Maybe Sang Kancil has the answer !
