

Anwar's Promise
Chedet.co.cc
February 06, 2013

By Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad

1. In Australia it is reported that Anwar promised to engineer an Arab Spring in Malaysia.
2. He will duplicate Cairo's Tahrir Square in Kuala Lumpur and he will organise demonstrations involving hundreds of thousands of people in order to bring down the Government if he loses the election.
3. He claims that the election victories of the BN in the past were due to cheating, and to dirty tactics. That is why he organised the "Bersih" demonstrations with a quarter of a million people. Bersih means Clean. The people he claims want to ensure Clean Elections. If they don't get a clean election this time they will force a new election to be held through massive daily demonstration on a scale never seen in Malaysia before. The election would be deemed dirty if Anwar's Pakatan loses.
4. When Anwar was dismissed from his post as Deputy Prime Minister and then expelled from UMNO, he organised demonstrations every Saturday. Business in Kuala Lumpur came to a standstill as people avoided going into the city the whole of Saturday.
5. If he organises huge demos everyday in Kuala Lumpur the disruption will not only affect businesses but it will deter investors and tourists from coming to Malaysia.
6. Bersih organisers have shown that they are capable of holding simultaneous demos not only in Malaysian towns but in foreign countries as well.
7. Malaysia has developed well because of its stability and peaceful environment. Anwar knows the damage he can cause Malaysia's economy with his massive demonstrations. Malaysians may be persuaded to vote for his party in order to avoid suffering economically from the demonstrations.
8. It would be a sad day indeed for Malaysia if this kind of threats are made to win elections.
9. Malaysia's elections have been generally clean. This is evidenced by the fact that in every election the opposition won not only in many constituencies but had actually captured many states. In the 2008 Elections the Opposition actually won in five states one Federal Territory and prevented the BN from getting a two-thirds majority in Parliament.

10. In several instances the BN lost by less than 200 votes. Surely if the BN cheated it could have easily changed the results. But there has never been real evidence of the BN doing so.

11. The claim that the elections in Malaysia are not clean and the holding of Bersih demonstrations are obviously preparation for accusing the BN Government of dirty election should the opposition lose. Demonstrations to condemn the elected Government would then be justified. And with the kind of demonstrations seen in Arab countries the Opposition may be able to force a new election. Even if the BN Government refuses to hold new elections, the opposition can expect condemnation of the BN throughout the world.

12. Anwar's warning of Arab Spring type of demonstrations in Malaysia must be taken seriously because he has in the past shown himself a master of this form of agitation.

13. What is more dangerous is the disregard for police authority. Real attacks had been mounted against the police, just as we now see in Cairo.

14. The police are now quite helpless. Not only have the ISA and the Public Order and Crime Prevention Ordinance (also known as the Emergency Ordinance) been abolished but police have been told not to use force against the demonstrators. This will be difficult as the demonstrators are capable of attacking and using force against the police. We saw this happen in previous demos.

15. Laws are no good unless enforced. When the police are not allowed to enforce laws, then a lawless society would be the result. The public will lose police protection and the consequences would be loss of security for the people. They may have to arm themselves or organise vigilantes. This will not be good for them or for the country. I speak from experience. During the period between the Japanese surrender and the return of the British, I joined a vigilante group. Fortunately nothing serious happened. I remember being afraid of having to act against law-breakers. I was quite useless.

16. From his utterances it is quite obvious that Anwar would like to have an Arab Spring here in Malaysia. I am not an alarmist but I know Anwar's capacity for disruptions. The moment I became Minister of Education 1974, he organised a student's demonstration claiming that starvation had caused the death of a boy in Baling.

17. After he joined the Government there was no serious demonstration for 16 years. Once he was out of the Government there were weekly demonstrations.

18. His obsession with becoming Prime Minister will drive him to create an "Arab Spring" so that his ambition would become a reality. To him, it does not matter if the country is destabilised and regresses economically as long as he gets to be Prime Minister.

Hullo Tun Mahathir, this is the first time ever I come to your blog to chat with you. I do hope you will post and not cancel our chatting.. You seem to have 100% Special Commenters supporting and praising you in your personal chedet blog but in other media blogs you are being Swear and Curse worst than Animals 101% by the general public or rakyat jelata.. So do you honestly think as a True Muslim, you are always the Righteous One and DSAI and his Allies are the Bad Ones ...You must remember ALLAH is always there watching all of us – watching the Good and BAD ones, the Devils and Satans and of course watching who the True Binatang and who the True Manusia .. Fikir Fikir lah.. May ALLAH bless the Rakyat and may HIS Curse befall onto the HYPOCRITES !!!!!!!!!!! Salam Tun Throughout my presence on this Blog, I have through my best efforts and with facts to enigma of the Malaysian Psyche i) the Myth of Lee Kuan Yew ii) the Myth of the DAP. These 2 are like the Gemini Twins. One cannot do without the other in Malaysian Politics.

Since I am of the opinion that the 13th General Elections is the ultimate battle between the Malaysian Nationalists and Lee Kuan Yew of Singapore, this takes my especial interest to present the true facts which are only believable if these are true with credibility. Hence, some Bloggers might have thought I was too long winded and obsessed with Lee Kuan Yew and that this distinguished gentleman does not matter in our Malaysian sphere of things. Nothing can be more wrong than this latter thought. In fact, Lee Kuan Yew never left us since 1965. By 1972, a super-super computer was in place in Singapore to monitor all activities of friends and foes i.e. the habits, sexual peccadilloes, etc.etc. Malaysians were employed to focussed on these activities of their compatriots. The Bursa was linked to Singapore until 2002. Our Government shut-up all Singaporean news but the Malaysian was reported daily and reported on. A few of these ex-Straits Times fellows returned to man the Government media levers in broad daylight. etc.etc. Lee Kuan Yew made his famous 2008 victory trip to congratulate the Opposition. He was just a wee bit too early and was overwhelmed by titanice events which began in October 2008 to this day ! Man proposes. God disposes.

Those who followed my comments on Lee Kuan Yew his rise and fall as furnished with facts by me will understand the inferior position of the DAP in Malaysia eg. Daddy's Action Party.

Let us look whether the DAP deserves to rule over us and we take Pulau Pinang as their first overlordship. It failed.

1. The DAP apes Singapore in the creation of more concrete jungle.
2. Whatever capital intensive investments in an island will put upward pressure on inflation and cost of living sky high.
3. The DAP should have re-located the State Government ot the hinterland to develop and re-emphasise its importance to Malaysia. Instead, the DAP behaves as though it is an independent state. Maybe the secret intention to issue 10 casino licences and on-line gambling is very much alive.
4. The ugly tall Komtar could have been turned quickly into a couple of hotels.
5. The ferry should have been upgraded just for the tourists and cater to the locals.
6. A Master Plan should have been proposed to review and put into place to turn Pulau Pinang into something unique and exclusive instead of aping Singapore and become someone's yes-man
7. There are so many more exciting and profitable investments for the island instead of aping Singapore and the gambling licences.

The DAP because of its tight link with Lee Kuan Yew cannot think out of the box as they have not got his impeccable academic credentials and the luxury of a one-man 55 year rule over Singapore. The DAP can only copy in bits and pieces which make Pulau Pinang much worse and be ruined. What the DAP had done there so far is to do things as much as possible normally. This should be the normal intention of any Government. As their hero, Lee Kuan Yew said recently, ' My first intention is to have a clean Government !' Is'nt this the intention of every single Prime Minister in the World.

The DAP apart from their miserable record of 44 years in the Opposition and at the end of the day only 2 members and their families survived. During this 44 years, the BN as led by the UMNO and the 14 component parties created a middle income group of 750,000 families numbering 7.5 Million souls whilst sometimes, the DAP leaders preferred to enjoy stale rice and curry whilst their Singapore compatriots enjoyed fine dining. This does not make sense. Commonsense !

Hence, I now illustrate with my own life experiences without being a crony, monopolist, thief, injure others, steal money, etc. under the BN as led by the UMNO and the 14 component parties that I could make good in a lifetime. When I had no money, I had to look around the environment as created by the Alliance/BN and discovered that the ingredients to improve myself were all there. Why should I be jealous and back-stab others ? I find that so many who benefitted from the BN as led by the UMNO with the 14 component parties that they feel free to bite the hands which fed them Some even call themselves 'industrialists'. Without peace, stability, prospertiy as created by the BN as led by the UMNO with the 14 component parties for these unusual people, where is their wealth to support the back-stabbing ? Now within the context of this unusual scenario just before the 13th General Elections, can we trust the Opposition that our backs will not be stabbed ?

The proposed formula which I produced has been time tested over 50 years in Malaysia only. Many of my friends have become rich. But to succeed, it is a question of timing, proper asset allocation and hard work because no one will make money for you – the creation of money without money !

I have proven beyond any doubt that the Alliance/the BN as led by the UMNO with the 14 component parties was fair and provided opportunities to all to make money since 1957. The ingredients are still here.

Do not be misled by the huge propaganda on a few administrative money or sex scandals. It is the mainstream of the Rakyat who are able to achieve and succeed that is important. Do not be conned.

Finally, it is crystal clear that i) Lee Kuan Yew's impeccable academic credentials failed him and his failed policies are now coming to roost. His much vaunted strategic geo-political policy in which our beloved Malaysia is in the meat grinder blew up after October 2008. This will be confirmed by the less than Lee Kuan Yew's intellect, the Daddy's Action Party to prove the failure of the whole obsession with Malaysia. Man proposes. God disposes.

ii) My own simplistic approach to enrich my life and many others proved beyond any doubt that the Alliance/BN as led by the UMNO with 14 component parties really delivered the goods.

Because of all the above, I am here in this Blog to declare the truth and nothing but the whole truth.

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. Do not believe in the myths of Lee Kuan Yew and Daddy's Action Party. The BN as led by the UMNO and the 14 component parties is as solid as the rock of Gibraltar.

It is time for the BN as led by the UMNO and 14 component parties to show that the opportunities to advance that have been given to the Rakyat since 1957 are real and not imagery.

I example I cited is from own life experience. I started out with no money. What money which I got was 'borrowed' by my brother and I started out on a zero base. I did not sit down and blame others. I just carried on working and applied the formula within the context of what was on the table as provided by the Alliance Government and now the BN Government and increased my own financial well-being. At the beginning, the economy was slow and banks were conservative. But now, I surmise it is easy to increase one's financial well-being with the help of generous financing which was not available in the old days. In fact, I crashed 13 times and recovered 14 times. In this country, there are still many opportunities to gain wealth without being a crony or a monopolist. One must know where to look and of course, there is the age old question of timing and allocation of resources at the right time. This experience takes time for self-education. The BN Government has provided everything for an individual's success. Do not be dismayed by Bumiputra discounts, etc.etc. These have never affected my thinking. I just go out and do it. Legally of course.

All these instigation at our emotions to make us feel dissatisfied and unhappy by the Opposition is just a lot of hot air being blown around. The billions of ringgits scandals through administrative weaknesses have not been proven and the alleged culprits not yet brought to court to be charged. As a normal and interested citizen, I just go ahead and try to create an income whenever and wherever I could. We cannot wait for the Government to bend to our wishes. This takes too long in a life-time of 100 years.

Many of my friends have taken advantage of my formula and made good. Some made millions of ringgits over time. This is possible in our beloved Malaysia. The Opposition is out there to create dissatisfaction and unhappiness so that we vote against the BN Government. In reality, it is us citizens who should be aware the pitfalls and the advantages of our own Malaysian life-style under normal circumstances. You try with a will and purpose. You will succeed whether you are Bumiputra, Indian, Chinese or others. But with the Oppostion try their very best to gain power for power's sake, I see they cannot make much of an impact especially with a foreign influenced political entity like the Daddy's Action Party which has a secret agenda exclusive to only one person.

Vote BN. All Malaysians. Especially the Malaysian Chinese. I do not need to teach some of you how to suck eggs. You are already there – self-made millionaires. Self-made from the ingredients as provided by the BN/Alliance Government since 1957. Change Government for what purpose ?

If Anwar Ibrahim and PKR wins in GE13th, what will happen then?

It will be United Malay National Organization and other BN Leaders will do street demonstration.

If UMNO and BN Leaders do that, the crowd will be 3 times larger than Ambiaga's Berish demonstration.

Here we go again, they never seem to learn the lesson.

To them, they think that they are corporate leader first and institutional investors must invest in their projects.

If PKR wants to be corporate leaders, then, don't join politics.

In future, RoS must reject new political parties to be registered.

If not, these so-called politicians think that Malaysians are here to pay for their failures of projects again apabila mereka ini rugi dan bankrupt that made the Malaysian Government looks weak and stupid.

Therefore, please do not blame Malaysians for looking down on Melayu cum Bumiputra politicians of ego tak ukur otak dan badan.

Melayu yang tarak suka stail aku ini, vote Anwar Ibrahim or Hadi Awang as your PM.

Abdul Khalid Ibrahim is a short sighted PKR man.

PM Najib as current PM of Malaysia can reject this takeover.

Why?

If PKR has started this take over as role model, other political parties will follow and split Malaysia into many small countries.

PRC China President Hu Jintao with 1.3 billion population has warned ROC Taiwan President Chen Sui Bein not to claim independent via USA diplomacy in which he can declare war on President Chen.

What happened to Mr Chen as President and his political party?

I sure hope that Abdul Khalid Ibrahim will not use International Court to solve this issue because Selangor is part of Malaysia since Merdeka and make a fool out of himself.

Further, and the beauty of my proposed formula to increase your wealth is that you may start with RM 10,000. My formula does require anyone to be a crony or a monopolist. You do it yourself as provided by the BN as led by the UMNO and the 14 component parties since 1957.

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. You may enrich yourself through the opportunities as provided by the BN as led by the UMNO with the 14 component parties since 1957. We do not need Daddy's Action Party to rule us. Go home to Daddy please, DAP !

I was questioned how I came to a figure of 7.5 Million souls who fit the bill of the middle income group. It is straightforward.

Any person who has RM300,000 worth of assets and cash is a potential millionaire. He or she can purchase a property worth RM300,000 for RM100,000 cash, invests in shares worth RM300,000 with RM100,000 cash and buy a car worth RM300,000 with RM100,000 cash. This person controls RM1.0 Million. To double the money is a question of timing and allotment of the assets. The new car is not recommended. If 2 Million households of 4 persons can do this, we have a population of 8 Millions (more with extended families) who fit into the middle income group as created by the BN as led by the UMNO and the 14 component parties. To confirm, all we need to do is to count the number of taman-taman all over the country with 2 cars each.

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. I do not request you to be ungrateful but at least do not be like some so-called 'industrialists' who bite the hands that fed them.

Dearest YAB Tun,

1. That is typical of Anwar's strategy. But, he has to remember that our country is relatively very peaceful, and we were voted the 19th most peaceful country in the world last year. He does not have to adopt the Arab Spring's method to overthrow the current Government. No one is buying his "jual ubat" style anymore.

2. May be in the past when he was expelled from UMNO, many ignorant Malaysians felt that he was being victimized & "dizalimi". But now, most people who used to support him realized that he is the PROBLEM. He is a sick man.

3. I am urging all Malaysians to vote Barisan Nasional. We do not want a PM who has lots of moral/personal problems/issues. Malaysia is respected by many countries for its stability, and we must not allow a person who is obsessed of becoming our PM to ruin it.

Thanks Tun.

For all interested Bloggers. Pulau Pinang the way it is being built up by the DAP is the icing on the cake when 10 casino licences and other on-line gambling licences are issued in the name of raising revenue and increasing demand by the populace. Does DAP, Daddy's Action Party deserve to rule over us ? The DAP was 44 years in the Opposition for 2 generations and contributed nothing to the country's socio-economy and politics because it is exclusive.

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. The BN as led by the UMNO and the 14 component parties has no secret agenda and had delivered their promises. And also Malaysia had 5 democratically elected Prime Ministers during Lee Kuan Yew rule over Singapore, 1959 to 2013 – 55 years. It has been alleged that he will be around for the next 10 years.

What is the secret plan of the DAP for Pulau Pinang and the hinterland ?

It is straight forward. The DAP will ape Lee Kuan Yew's Singapore. How ? Purpose ?

1. To raise revenue and create growth, the whole of Pulau Pinang will be turned into a concrete jungle like Singapore. The natural Pearl of the Orient will be a concrete Pearl.
2. The costs of living, land, dwellings etc will escalate and put the 99% of the Rakyat position on the island untenable and forced to the hinterland.
3. The rich Singaporeans with the new Indiamen and Chinamen will muscle in to mop up the high rise buildings with their heavy currency.
4. In time, 50% of the Pulau Pinang population will be foreigners and the other half being Malaysians will be servants to these foreigners like Singapore very soon.

5. The Praetorian Guard of 5,000 will escalate to a division of 25,000. Singapore in 1972 had 4,000 registered gangsters. Now, they check into Malaysia daily at 9am to 5pm. leaving Singapore crime-free. Maybe the Pulau Pinang hinterland could do likewise !

6. Any other option to ape Singapore is possible. If we look at Singapore today, we see the mirror image of its counterpart Pulau Pinang under the rule of the DAP. The indigenous Malaysian population keeps on reducing and replaced by rich foreigners.

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. Do not permit the DAP to turn Pulau Pinang into another failed state like Singapore. Let the Daddy's Action Party go home to Daddy and leave us Malaysians alone. We have succeeded normally and will do so naturally and normally.

The bare facts of Lee Kuan Yew's Singapore and the DAP are now revealed in the media as clear as crystal.

Lee Kuan Yew has transformed Singapore into a cluster of hollow modern buildings and at the same time, 40 percent of her indigineous disappeared. The balance of 60 percent is now threatened to be reduced to 30 percent in due course. The missing digits are replaced by rich Indiamen and Chinamen. In 2 generations. the indigenious Singaporeans will be working as servants for the rich newcomers. The PAP had no heart for the populace.

During the same period of Lee Kuan Yew's one man rule over Singapore, 1959 to 2013, the BN as led by the UMNO and 14 component parties created the Malaysian middle income group of 750,000 families amounting to 7.5 million souls who are truly Malaysian and each family has the potential to be a millionaire or already millionaires !

The DAP leadership which is not even one molecule of Lee Kuan Yew's impeccable academic credentials, and is closely connected with him, will do at least 10 times worse. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese, PKR and the PAS will do well to reject the DAP which does not deserve to govern us Malaysians. For 44 years DAP was in opposition and has done nothing to embrace all Malaysians in its activities being exclusive. Go home DAP !

Vote BN All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. The DAP is Daddy's Action Party ! Please go home to Daddy !

The basic principles of a country's sovereignty, national interest, self-esteem are breached by the grouping of political parties called the PR.

In this group which we must presume to have the sovereignty, national interest, self-esteem at heart, we find two Bumiputra groups aligned with a Malaysian Chinese political party the DAP which was founded and inspired by Lee Kuan Yew of Singapore. As far as the record shows that Lee Kuan Yew, a one-man over 55 year rule over Singapore, has failed in his policies. His failures were titanic ones and the exasperated citizens of Singapore are now coming out in droves in protest at policies which are sure to extirpate them without any compassion soon. A day ago, 5,000 Singaporeans protested at their perceived oblivion. It is too late to talk about a hard core of Singaporeans. I have already heard that foreign practices are being introduced by the rich men of Indian and China.

The DAP with its renowned and foreign patron, Lee Kuan Yew, who is reputed to be an oracle and has a superlative strategic geo-political plan to safeguard the island state of Singapore, has been in the opposition for 44 years without contributing much to the Malaysian socio-economy and via the Dewan Rakyat its leaders have been endowed with allowances and other perks. Due to its lacklustre performance or Trojan horse attitude, the DAP was even elected to rule Pulau Pinang supported by its Bumiputra associates in 2008. Does the DAP a homegrown foreign founded and inspired political entity deserves the support of the Malays and Bumiputra to rule anyway in Malaysia ? As I mentioned previously, the DAP is part and parcel of Lee Kuan Yew's strategic geo-political thinking that the hinterland of Singapore which is Malaysia must be under its direct or indirect control. Even the Japanese Imperial Army conquered the Peninsula first. This must be the legacy of Lee Kuan Yew which he leaves for the Singaporeans but the rest of his policies failed miserably.

Can we Malaysians vote DAP a very closely connected foreign political entity to rule over us at our expense ? And we note that the DAP leadership is nowhere near Lee Kuan Yew's excellent academic record and political skills. We can only surmise that the DAP is only in this for non-altruistic ends.

The DAP's position in Lee Kuan Yew's strategic geo-political plan is clear. Lee Kuan Yew has nothing to lose. On the one hand, there are those who think our relationship with him is 'abang adek' and on the other, the DAP is firmly in the Malay Opposition firmament. But is the Malay Opposition in the Malay firmament aware of the dangers of propping up a foreign founded and inspired political Malaysian Chinese entity which has no reason to be in the Opposition for 44 years?

Also, the intentions of the DAP must be diametrically opposed to those of the Malay Opposition especially the PAS ! Who can tell whether the DAP which is so heavily foreign influenced changes its tune anytime in or out of power ? We the voters must be confused who is or will be the Great Helmsman !

It is generally known that border places like Singapore, Hong Kong, Switzerland, Cayman Islands, Tijuana, Gibraltar, Channel Islands etc. are havens for money fleeing out of their neighbours political instability. The more political trouble in their neighbours the more money will flow out to them. Between 2002 to 2008, a reputed RM 1 Trillion flowed out of Malaysia. And if you extrapolate the sums which flowed out with the unwarranted street demonstration in Kuala Lumpur, does this tell you a tale of trouble-making ? Any street demonstration in Malaysia which enjoyed peace, harmony and prosperity for over 55 years if not centuries is not in the national interest of our beloved country and serves as an instigator or troublemaker for those with a hidden agenda. Malaysia had 5 democratically elected Prime Ministers at a time when Lee Kuan Yew has been a one-man over 55 year ruler of Singapore. He is still there and will be there for the next 10 years.

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. Of all the political parties in the land, the DAP does not deserve our votes. Vote BN in the interests of sovereignty, national interest, self-esteem. Please do not sell our grandmothers down river !

Tun,

Mohon beri sikit laluan untuk menjawab HBT456.

HBT456, you mean a hero in a workout exercise with a china doll in a video tape?

To be a versatile actor that can do any workout exercise with women and man is not a small actor.

However i do concur with you that this hero of yours is a great orator and great actor but not a brilliant guy to lead this country.

Tun,

Let me comment on BLee statement quote " There is one thing one admire about DSAI is almost no one believe he is the person in the sex video or sex scandals".

This guy can be anybody that the public wants to belief him to be whether as a pious person, a liberal, a moderate, etc, etc as long that his agendas and ambitions are fulfill.

He can be a tok imam in the morning wearing a ketayap and giving Friday sermons from the pulpit and at night wearing a tuxedo suit dancing with beautiful women throughout the night.

To the tok gurus, a video tape is just a plastik box that is immaterial whether the tape is full with DSAI workout exercise scene with a china doll.

A film in a video tape to these tok gurus can be superimposed or duplicate so that the actor in the film looks like their friend.

Afterall, this chameleon is a ex ABIM leader who looks pious and a role islamic leader to the youth of this country.

Surely a pious man could do no wrong much more so involving in sa ex video or sex with anyone.

If only the tok gurus and the public at large have an open mind and do a little homework like surfing the internet on a similiar case that befalls on a former Speaker of Dewan Rakyat. (See PP VS D.P Vijandran).

In the court case, an expert witness told the court that it is almost impossible to superimposed another man face on an actor in a running video tape.

It is not an easy task if anyone were asked to superimposed another man face on an actor in even a short stretch of length of the film.

And what if the tape runs for an hour or two hours?It is just mind boggling to do so.

Salam Tun.

The homeland news of the DAP are now coming home to roost. The leadership of the DAP cannot be compared with that of the awesome Lee Kuan Yew with his superior academic qualifications. Yet, Lee Kuan Yew's one-man 55 year rule over Singapore failed with his failed policies in nurturing a vibrant and resilient indigenous population. In fact, more of the same which had proved to be a failure, will force more Singaporeans to quietly disappear overseas. Are we going to let the sub-branch of the Singapore PAP, DAP play and muck around with our destinies ? Go home, DAP !

Vote BN. All Malaysians and especially the Malaysian Chinese for all your money's worth. Do not be swayed by bluffologists of the Opposition that DAP is great. It is nothing ! Look ! Look ! Dear Mr Mubarakchan..

I beg to differ about being slow as they says..slowly slowly catchee..

There is time we need to accelerate and more so in this moment of time.

What we always forgotten is the emphatic measures.

After certain 'tug of war' the matter of dispute must be resolved.

This is inclusion of matter of debate like Namrud and Ibrahim a.s.

Namrud claimed that he too can perform god..Emphatically Nabi Ibrahim a.s would not be bogged down by trivia thus challenged him..

Allah my Lord made the sun arise from the East..

So..you can make them rise from the West...There!!

And we can see the same thing in the altercation between Nabi Musa a.s and Firaun.

He claimed that Musa a.s just practiced sorcery..So we will pit our best sorcerer's in the land to counter you in the stipulated time and place.

All the 'vision' of the snake emphatically devoured by Nabi Musa a.s real snake from the staff he thrown into the fray.

Myself and Raqib need your resources and immense wealth of knowledge.

Help us out to prove our mettle and worth.

Thank you sir.

Terima kasih Tun.

PAShit. My heart has always been with the Bumiputras, and all -non Malays. It is the big projects that will up-lift the living standards of peoples as proven by Tun. He has shown what can be done especially in creating the important middle income group ! To suppress the construction of the Isthmus of Kra Canal, it is most irresponsible because it is one of the few huge projects left which will benefit all Humankind. The State of Kelantan will be very rich and so will be DYMM Sultan Kelantan. It shows the creation of clean wealth which will disperse through the region. This is why the PAS has the signal responsibility of representing the interests of the peoples of Kelantan and should avoid DAP which is a subsidiary of the foreign PAP which interest is entirely diametrically opposite to that of the PAS and the BN as led by UMNO and the 14 component parties. We are Malaysians. We want development to benefit all. Hence, the construction of the Isthmus of Kra Canal is a very near possibility.

I hope the PAS leadership will see the 13th General Elections in a different light and be supra-personal.

Vote BN. All Malaysians. especially the Malaysian Chinese. BN as led by the UMNO and the 14 component parties will continue to uplift the living standards of all Malaysians as had been proven !

For wajaperak. Slowly, slowly and carefully, we Malaysian Nationalists will understand how precious our beloved country Malaysia is and all her inhabitants. Once we stand together and fight off all these funny characters and types, we will ascend to the next level onwards normally without much ado and in unity. This is the bonus !

See how PAS was seduced by the great Lee Kuan Yew the giant with the feet of clay ? See the great great responsibility of the PAS people together with the other Kelantanese to raise the standard of living of the inhabitants on both sides of the border and beyond through the construction of the Isthmus of Kra Canal. Please take it from me, the Canal will be built sooner rather than later despite the objections of Lee Kuan Yew and its proxy DAP. Man proposes. God disposes.

The reason why I bring forth the facts on Lee Kuan Yew's failed policies is that we are all human. And because of this, Malaysia as led by BN and headed by UMNO and the 14 component parties became a runaway success in HUMAN TERMS as compared with Singapore which is a runaway failure. So far so good !

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. A journey of a thousand miles begins with the first step ! No more ! No less !

I believe the following is the agenda of the so called pembela rakyat

1. Anwar becomes PM
2. 3 years after that Anwar will be replaced by Lim Guan Eng
3. Malaysia becomes republic
4. Singapore rejoins malaysia

Conclusion

Melayu becomes fakir in their own land...coz they fail to unite...

Salam Tun.

How kuan yew has faltered!

Even about to become a 'centurion', his dreams of toppling Dr. M who sits atop the excellentship pecking order has not diminished! kuan yew still dreams the impossible, to replace Dr. M at the top!

This time round, he despatched an amateur as the macai to cause nuisance and hence damage to chedet, however this 'apanama?' amnm macai ended up becoming just another mischievous kiddo!

This 'apanama?' amnm barged in and very focused. He started off by telling his concocted frustrations as a purported professional consultant (all facts are readily made available by kuan yew for his use, the same way that maverick Barry Wain got all his infos), and finishing off with a most kurang ajar jab at Dr. M!

He continues his lying in perpetuity ways, claiming he's a Malay and Muslim (the only recorded admission in the history of chedet from a Muslim Malay admitting to be a hardcore supporter of kuan yew!), he always respected Dr. M, never like to badmouth others, and as expected all of which he has already contradicted earlier!!

Then this macai 'apanama?' begins his first task: to rid of anyone who is against kuan yew, starting with Mubarakchan. Ignore any other interference by others, just give the fullest of concentration to achieve first success! An amateur versus the veteran, and like a typical kiddo, he always claims he's on the road to victory, very confident that his carca-marba writings have confused the evergreen one, not realising that the jokes are actually on this macai 'apanama?' amnm!

Let's us all wait for the next task by this macai 'apanama?' amnm, after failing miserably in his first task.

For wajaperak. See how PAS without due consideration of their arrangement with the DAP could be working against their own interests and the interests of the inhabitants of Thailand and Kelantan and the Northern States. Because behind the DAP which is a subsidiary of the foreign PAP led by Lee Kuan Yew is dead against the construction of the Isthmus of Kra Canal. See how dangerous it is when consorting with strangers bearing gifts ! This fact sent the Malay Muslim into a tail-spin. First time in my life, I heard a fella called himself Malay Muslim. For amnm. Cool down my Malay Muslim friend. Just because you have no facts to rebut my facts you call me a liar. I am surprised at your language and my decision not to deal with you is correct. Great admirer of LEE KUAN YEW THE GIANT WITH THE FEET OF CLAY !

I repeat his failures for your edification and you can keep shouting and screaming.

Lee Kuan Yew's failed policies.

1. The use of money as an investment as a Foreign Policy in Thailand and elsewhere.
2. The failed 2 child family Policy of the 1970s and the 1980s.
3. The failed meritocratic pyramid which lost US$108 Billions (RM350 Billions) of the citizens Trust money in October 2008 on Wall Street.
4. Humanity and multiculturalism never practised.
5. A perfunctory Judiciary system which is well-known world-wide.
6. Contracts for 5,000 pigs daily. Flower nurseries. Sale of Kim Eng Securities to Maybank.
The world's biggest football match fixing and rigging was discovered by Interpol in Singapore to the consternation of the World Community.
7. Lee Kuan Yew is the one-man over 55 year ruler of Singapore during which period Malaysia had 6 democratically elected Prime Ministers. Due to good medicines, Lee Kuan Yew will be there the next 10 years !

What say you my friend the Malay Muslim who worships the great Lee Kuan Yew with the feet of clay ?

For wajaperak. You wanted me to say something to PAS. My advice is do not get involve with the DAP which is a foreign subsidiary of PAP. Why ?

It is the proposed Isthmus of Kra Canal which has been highlighted to be the last monumnetal structure not built by Humankind since the 18th century.

If the Isthmus of Kra Canal is to be built, the bountiful and clean benefits which will accrue to the inhabitants now residing on both sides of the Thai-Malaysian border, will be beyond imagination and Kota Baru will become an international sea-port. These inhabitants originated from the great Sri Patani Kingdom of the 14th century and they are still there. The Melaka Kingdom has disappeared.

But the conservatives of Thailand and Lee Kuan Yew are against the Isthmus of Kra Canal. The former thinks the Canal will divide the Buddhist North from the Muslim South whilst the latter thinks the Canal will turn Singapore Harbour to be like the Palembang, a glittering harbour of yore. This is 19th century thinking in this borderless World. My view is that if we begin the Canal today it will not be ready tomorrow and that it will take at least 10 years or more to construct. This will give time for ASEAN to re-invent themselves faster and under their direct control. Democracy, prosperity and freedom will flourish. Thailand will be the main beneficiary, Malaysia especially Kelantan and of course, Singapore the perfect logistics centre. And also, some super-powers need the Canal for efficiency and costs in trade and it will come sooner or later.

The Suez Canal accrues a revenue of US$6 Billions annually. Can Thailand afford to ignore this ?

Hence, Lee Kuan Yew's abiding interest in Singapore's Thaksin investment, the man who could have built the Canal and a personal interest in Kelantanese political personalities to bolster his personal opposition to the Isthmus of Kra Canal. He does not waste time on nitty gritty !

It is up to PAS to decide what is best for the people of Kelantan and the Nation – which is 'sovereignty, national interest, self-esteem.'

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese because the BN as led by the UMNO and 14 component parties have no secret agenda but deliver only goodies to the people. This has been proven.

33. mubarakchan

For wajaperak. My view of the PAS is that for them to gain credence with the mainstream of the Malaysian populace, they should keep clear of DAP a subsidiary of the foreign PAP and observe what I always said 'our sovereignty, national interest, self-esteem.' To gain power is one thing, but at the expense of the general populace is another.

Why I always harped on Lee Kuan Yew's failures in his strategic geo-political thinking and his flawed policies at home ? The reason is Malaysia looms large in his mind and he had never left us since 1965. If Lee Kuan Yew did not make that April 2008 journey at the age of 86 beaming from cheek to cheek, I would hesitate to say that Malaysia has always been part of his strategic geo-political thinking whatever this means and whose side he is on. This is the danger. We Malaysians who lived in peace, stability and prosperity together for so long under the BN as led by the UMNO with 14 component parties, should avoid the pitfalls which affected other nations by being unwary. And it is on us, Malaysia, the mother of all choke points that Lee Kuan Yew's foreign policy is based upon in his relationship with the United States and the Western Powers. In other words, he is the tail that wags the dog ! The art of creation of power and money from nothing !

Fortunately or unfortunately, Singapore got knocked properly in October 2008 and thereafter due to failures of Lee Kuan Yew's policies at home and abroad coming home to roost at an awkward time. Man proposes ! God disposes ! Decades of brainwashing in building up the greatness of Lee Kuan Yew, Singapore and the Singaporeans have to come down to earth. No more ! No less !

Lee Kuan Yew had said so in as many words that the gates of fortress Singapore will not be open to Malaysian Chinese refugees when the time comes. In other words, he is prepared to move his digits in Malaysia by sacrificing the Malaysian Chinese who now worship him because they have no credible leader. He is doing what he thinks he is doing for Singapore's enduring and resilient Lee Kuan Yew's legacy – at our expense.

Hence, my comment has always been focussed on the Malaysian Chinese not to be stupid but vote for the BN as led by the UMNO and the 14 component parties. This is the best for them. You can see how attempts have been made to destroy the credibility of UMNO and its leaders which stands in the way of Lee Kuan Yew's audacious ambition to leave behind a credible legacy for Singapore at our expense.

If UMNO falls what is going to happen to the Malays and Bumiputras and not least the Chinese and the others ? To be beaten by DAP a subsidiary of the foreign PAP, and PKR a rich family's party and the all embracing PAS ?

By raising the spectre of the awesome Lee Kuan Yew, it was also my hope that the Bumiputras and all non-Malays realise it is not the sex or the money which is unbalancing the Malaysian political equation but close and personal foreign interference in our domestic politics which I call the ultimate battle between the Malaysian Nationalists and Lee Kuan Yew !

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. Your destiny is in your hands !

Hi mubarakchan,

if you say that you're not qualified then so be it. thing is, if you'd just kindly step back to where we started off you'd notice i came in only to question your facts and never did i once attempted a personal attack. However, you on the other hand, guided by some unknown wisdom chose to use that tack and came on to me swinging horrendous rhetoric, spinning unsubstantiated gawd-how-i-wish-its-true tall tales about the opposition (plus Singapore and Singapore and yet again Singapore?) and name-calling. perhaps to put me in my place? Only you and God knows.

first i was Chinese if somewhat educated, next i became an honorary Singaporean citizen, also Chinese, and now my hero is Singapore's Senior Minister or Mentor Minister Mr Lee Kuan Yew. finally i'm also the guy 'specially embedded by the Opposition' (wow!) to bury you and all my challenges are now regarded as being snide, personal in nature and mischievous plus i 'grew' rich because of BN too!

obviously you have a thing with anything that spells Singapore to a point it becomes an ever-present obsession and to that, i can only say,

'suke hati ekau le jang, buek le apo yang ekau konan na tu', if that makes your day. i pray you'd find closure some day for what ails you.

for the record, my simple request for verified information for casino licenses in Penang remain unanswered. occam's razor then, there're none to be gotten.

adiós senore mubarakchan, god have mercy on your continual lies and despicable act of sowing discontent and hatred for anything against your agenda.

Assalamualaikum WBT Yg Bhg Tun,

YB DSAI sebagai seorang yang sedang mabuk kuasa untuk nak jadi Perdana Menteri selepas PRU ke 13, boleh sahaja membuat pelbagai janji dalam kempen-kempen politiknya di dalam dan di luar negara Malaysia. Sudah menjadi perkara biasa dan satu kemestian setiap ahli politik akan membuat berbagai ragam janji yang manis-manis untuk memikat hati pengundi supaya menyokong perjuangan mereka untuk dirinya sendiri dan parti yang diwakili. YB DSAI sudah secara umumnya diketahui telah menabur banyak janji-janji untuk mempengaruhi hati pengundi untuk menyokong dirinya dan parti yang dibawah kepimpinannya selaku Ketua Pembangkang (PKR, DAP & Pas). Membuat janji memang mudah, tetapi keikhlasan dalam membuat janji dan menunaikan janji haruslah dibuat pertimbangan oleh pengundi. Mengikut rekod janji-janji YB DSAI yang telah lalu mewakili Pakatan Rakyat (PKR, DAP & Pas) terlalu banyak yang masih belum tertunai, dan mungkin tidak akan tertunai sama sekali kerana PRU ke 13 akan terlaksana dalam masa terdekat ini dimana janji-janji melalui MANIFESTO PILIHANRAYA BARU PRU KE 13 akan meluputkan janji-janji MANIFESTO TERDAHULU yang dibuat sebelum PRU ke 12, tahun 2008.

2. Jika dilihat dan dinilai perkembangan politik semasa Pakatan Pembangkang terlalu banyak masalah dalaman antara Pas & DAP wujud yang membelenggu dan melemahkan kesepakatan Pakatan Pembangkang itu sendiri. DAP secara konsisten menolak seratus peratus landasan perjuangan Pas mewujudkan negara Islam dan pelaksanaan Hukum Hudud. Isu Kalimah Suci Allah juga menjadi pertikaian serius antara kedua-dua parti Pas dan DAP. Majlis Syura Ulama Pas menolak secara total pendirian Pakatan Pembangkang (PKR, DAP & Pas) yang membenarkan Kalimah Suci Allah digunakan dalam Bible Versi Bahasa Melayu agama Kristian, ketetapan yang dibuat bersama YAB Lim Guan Eng mewakili DAP, YB Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim mewakili PKR dan YB Datuk Seri Hj. Abdul Hadi Awang mewakili Pas pada 8 Januari 2013. Sehingga kini YB Datuk Seri Hj. Abdul Hadi Awang yang mewakili Pas masih belum menarik balik ketetapan yang dibuat bersama Pakatan Pembangkang membenarkan Kalimah Suci Allah boleh digunakan dalam Bible Versi Bahasa Melayu agama Kristian. YB Karpal Singh memang berhak menuntut agar YB Datuk Seri Hj. Abdul Hadi Awang membuat penjelasan tentang ketetapan bersama Pakatan Rakyat mengenai penggunaan Kalimah Suci Allah dalam Bible Versi Bahasa Melayu agama Kristian, samada Pas yang diwakili YB Datuk Seri Hj. Abdul Hadi Awang (selaku Presiden parti Pas) masih tetap bersama Pakatan Pembangkang dalam isu membenarkan Kalimah Suci Allah digunakan dalam Bible Versi Bahasa Melayu agama Kristian atau mengikut ketetapan Majlis Syura Ulama Pas tidak membenarkan Kalimah suci Allah digunapakai oleh mana-mana agama selain Islam. YB Datuk Seri Hj Abdul Hadi Awang masih tidak memberi sebarang respon terhadap permintaan YB Karpal Singh (mengikut laporan media). Nampaknya YB Datuk Seri Hj. Abdul Hadi Awang sudah terperangkap oleh mainan politik DAP & PKR dalam menentukan kedudukan Kalimah Suci Allah hanya EXKLUSIF untuk agama Islam sahaja, itulah akibat dari terlalu taksud mengejar kuasa politik untuk menawan Putrajaya bersama DAP & PKR dalam PRU ke 13 sehinggakan meminggirkan kepentingan Islam yang ada hubungkait secara langsung dengan soal AKIDAH.

3. Ekoran dari beberapa isu sensitif mengenai Islam, dipercayai ianya telah banyak mencalarakan imej Pas yang melabelkan parti Pas sebagai parti Islam dimata rakyat khususnya orang Melayu Islam. Juga isu Islam yang diperkotak katikkan oleh DAP & PKR dalam Pakatan Rakyat telah banyak mengguris hati nurani penyokong akar umbi dan sebahagian kepimpinan Ulama Pas itu sendiri. Pas sudah agak jauh terlanjur dalam perjuangan asas Pas mengenai Islam setelah bergabung dengan DAP & PKR dalam Pakatan Rakyat. Kekuatan kepimpinan Pas sudah lemah dengan pengaruh kepimpinan DAP & PKR. Dalam banyak hal mengenai kepentingan Islam, Pas terpaksa mengalah dengan DAP & PKR dan menjadi Pak Turut sahaja kepada kehendak DAP & PKR. Sikap Timbalan Mursyidul Am Pas Datuk Dr. Harun Din seorang ulamak terkenal yang berpendirian tegas dalam mempertahankan kepentingan Islam yang seringkali dicabar kedudukannya oleh DAP & PKR sepatutnya dipuji dan disokong oleh semua umat Islam tanpa mengambil kira anutan politik masing-masing, kerana kepentingan Islam itu lebih penting dari kepentingan politik kepartian. Jika keadaan permainan politik keagamaan songsang oleh Pas dan ancaman DAP & PKR terhadap kepentingan Islam tidak dihentikan, amatlah wajar Pas keluar dari Pakatan Pembangkang, berdiri atas keupayaan sendiri seperti yang terdahulu, kembali semula atas perjuangan asas Pas mengenai Islam. Jika kepimpinan Pas masih kekal dengan DAP & PKR, amatlah wajar penyokong akar umbi dan sebahagian kepimpinan jati diri Islam Pas mengambil keputusan meninggalkan perjuangan Pas dan menyokong kepimpinan orang Melayu Islam yang boleh menjamin Islam kekal terpelihara dan dipertingkatkan kedudukannya. UMNO semenjak sebelum MERDEKA lagi telah terbukti berjaya menempatkan Islam dikedudukan yang terunggul di Malaysia sehinggakan menjadi sebuah negara Islam contoh oleh sebahagian besar negara di dunia.

4. Pakatan Pembangkang telahpun menyedari bahawa sokongan dan pengaruh parti mereka (DAP, PKR & Pas) sudah agak merudum menjelang PRU ke 13, kerana kesalahan-kesalahan dan kelemahan-kelemahan yang diwujudkan sendiri oleh mereka, yang begitu ketara masalah janji-janji yang gagal ditunaikan dan masalah urustadbir yang lemah tidak boleh menyaingi atau mengatasi kebaikan urustadbir Barisan Nasional seperti yang dijanjikan sebelum PRU ke 12 tahun 2008. Jika Barisan Nasional mampu mengekalkan kecermelangannya menjelang PRU ke 13, tidak mustahil Barisan Nasional akan menang besar (2/3) dalam PRU ke 13, dan Pakatan Rakyat akan kecundang. Jika itu berlaku, ada kemungkinan Pakatan Rakyat akan mewujudkan berbagai masalah termasuk mengadakan "Demonstrasi Jalan atau Demonstrasi Ala Arab Spring", kerana mereka tidak boleh menerima kekalahan dan oleh kerana itu pada awal lagi Pakatan Pembangkang telah mewujudkan berbagai tohmahan dan persepsi negatatif bahawa PRU ke 13 dilaksanakan secara tidak bersih ia itu dilaksanakan secara tidak adil dan saksama oleh SPR. Pakatan Pembangkang hanya boleh menerima dengan hati terbuka jika mereka menang sahaja, jika kalah mereka mungkin akan memberontak, dan pendirian sedemikian tidak rasional langsung kerana yang menentukan kalah menang ialah jumlah undi yang diperolehi melalui peti undi dalam amalan Demokrasi Berparlimen.

5. Jika ura-ura berlakunya sebarang bentuk Demonstrasi Jalan oleh Pakatan Pembangkang jika mereka kecundang dalam PRU ke 13, sebaiknya pasukan keselamatan khususnya Polis mengambil tindakan lebih awal menyiasat akan kebenarannya dan melakukan sebarang tindakan awal yang wajar menyekat sebarang tindakan yang boleh menjejaskan ketenteraman awam. keharmonian hidup, menjejaskan kesetabilan politik, menjejaskan pertumbuhan ekonomi negara dan lain-lain perkara berkaitan kepentingan kehidupan rakyat.

Sekian, terima kasih dan Wassalam Tun.

As Salam.

Hi mubarakchan,

understand that i've tried hard to see your point of view but alas there's always the other side of the coin that for some, its seemingly beyond grasp to be equally contemplated. please find my rejoinders as below.

item 1:

not being an SME on Singapore Desk i yield to your superior knowledge on whatever concerns Singapore. assuming that you're a Malaysian however, i failed to appreciate why can't both you and me discuss local politics for the betterment of our beloved nation.

item 2:

there you go again, shall we get over these kiddy stuff? on a limb i could reply in kind but respecting your individual intelligence i choose not to, so shall we cease and desist with this boorish approach?

given your tag as 'honourable mubarakchan' a body wouldn't be faulted to think that you are in fact an elected Representative as an ADUN or Parliamentarian or both. should that be the case, with this continued behavior i don't see how more elevated can you get in the eyes of the Rakyat as it is. imho its surely not a hallmark of statesmanship.

another thing, deny all you want, but support is finicky. people might come in droves to attend any given event but the actual attraction might be a different thing altogether as its being led to be perceived. taking a recent event for example, the BN sponsored CNY event hosting Psy in a northern state. caught on video, our dear PM was ushering Psy with 4 times drawing the crowd with,

'are you ready for Psy?!',

all 4 times the crowd responded with a booming,

'Yes!',

but when he switched to,

'are you ready for BN?!',

the first time around the crowd was a bit confused and came back with splattering mixed replies, but the next 3 call-outs received resounding reply, albeit intermixed with gaiety and jeers, but the replies were a definite, don't just take my word, check it out on FB as i'm sure the video is quite widespread by now.

'No!'

surprisingly still, a former PM and other dignitaries, the honorable LGE among them, were attending to the Raja Permasuri Agong in the near vicinity about the same time. makes a body wonder .. which event would be more apt for a statesman, the Malaysian PM no less, to be in, ushering the real FLOM or Psy?

'THIS IS REALPOLITIK !' as you claimed my dear mubarakchan?

and again, my unending appreciation on the continued education and information regarding Singapore. i trust its own Rakyat can manage their own country just as well as anybody else. shall we leave it at that?

item 3

street brawling my dear mubarakchan? in what way may i ask?

n/b

if you want to indulge in rhetoric please do by all means, just don't expect me to join in. some would belief anything and everything is fair game where political expediency is concerned whereas i don't and can never accept that. fairness and justice must be seen to be done, not just 'done'.

Islam nowadays is a word without reality. When it used to be a reality without word. Those who spoke much about Islam like ex-ABIM's Anwar or PAS's Nik Aziz are just relics from the past, old school stooges from some Arabic's tent waiting to morph into high flying kites, or superhero Ironman wannabes, for their own entertainment and to the awe-inspired innocent-cum-gullible mob they diligently create for so many years – who still believe that there is hope and enlightenment in the audacity of spoof religionist. When the wind of change, inevitably, takes to a different turn, I'm pretty sure these two jokers will swivel down and find their way back into their kite museum. Anwar stuck on top Niki. Yelling at each other yalla yalla

Likewise, the BN government is equally obscure in terms of its usefulness to the rakyat. There is no reality in BN that you can embrace. UMNO, MCA and MIC are now behaving like hurried ghosts, in a delayed showdown, waiting to fight the robust hungry ghosts in PR who think it is their turn now to eat big slash makan-tak-habis feast, and oblivious in the meantime to the rakyat's welfare and security. Which has turned invisible to these monkey politicians scrumming the food platters. Btw, how foolish is a government that robs its own people with an AES gun? Money or life. What life?

Najib's sales pitch, although flaky and not too convincing can sometimes match Anwar's loony tunes, it makes you wonder if he really got the balls to kick Anwar really hard in the nuts or is he just another Anwar's admirer plying in a love-hate relationship? I'm sure Anwar's tenure as the Money Minister in the 90's have some nostalgic influence in the guts of many current UMNO so-called leaders turning them into hyposexual UMNO eunuchs who only have eyes for govt contracts. Anyways, UMNO and Money has got three letters in common that begot the RAHMAN prophecy which saw Anwar lost his ace to the shaman's sleepy grandson for being always late or liwat to office?

Malaysians of all race and religion, even the atheists and agnostics, must reject Anwar the cunning Machiavellian politician who kills your imagination with his story and theory, and then put your life in danger with his lies. All the sales pitch, all the lies that Anwar carry throughout the globe, talking bad of his own country and people, to bemused Caucasians masters, always and consistently spreading himself thin to the point of political pornography. His obsession to become the Emperor, right now and now, has reached its orgasmic spill when he threatened the security of the rakyat, demanding for a unilateral result in the coming election or face bloodshed and mayhem – Anwar's way or No Way. Very catch-22 from someone who claims to be the champion of justice and transparency.

Back in the 90's my friend asked Anwar how he managed to speak in front of a large audience with so much confidence and passion. Anwar replied he would just imagine himself talking to rumpus and batang kayu ... grass and twigs !

I did not take it seriously then, but now I understand why our dear Tun was not joking when he said Anwar suffered from illusions of grandeur. I guess there is no cure for this one.

For all Bloggers.

I am here commenting on this Blog for the simple reason that Tun had safeguarded our beloved Nation's 'Sovereignty, National Interest, Self-Esteem' for 22 years during his Administration. No more. No less. He did not sell our grandmothers down the river !

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese if you do not want your grandmothers to be sold down river !

IF UMNO FALLS WHAT IS GOING TO HAPPEN TO THE MALAYS AND US THE NON-MALAYS ?

Plenty. The main line of attack is on UMNO because if UMNO falls, it is believed the whole country will be taken over by whoever. At the moment, as far as I can discern, the Opposition consists of a grouping of 3 parties, DAP a subsidiary of the PAP Singapore, PKR which belongs to a very rich political family and PAS a religious group, led by 6 distinguished gentlemen above the age of 62 except one.

1. The Shadow Cabinet. There is no Shadow Cabinet Line-up to this day. How to convince the voters to vote for absent candidates ?

2. The Domestic and Foreign Policies not announced. Who knows whether 10 casino licences and other gambling goodies are to be issued and Pulau Pinang turned into a State within a State or not ?

3. Who is to be the Prime Minister ?

4. These 3 Political Parties have 3 entirely different objectives. The DAP being a subsidiary founded and inspired by Lee Kuan Yew naturally wants to copy his failed policies in Singapore. The PKR being very rich has a mind of its own. The PAS is religious.

How can any one with a sane mind vote the PR when in fact no one knows who he or she is voting for ? For example, you vote DAP, you definitely would not get Lee Kuan Yew, or are you sure you will get PKR or maybe you get PAS. This is just big unholy rojak in voting terms a created by the PR without a COMMON PLATFORM like the BN ready to be stirred by the BN and eaten for breakfast every morning.

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. At least you know who you are voting for and had lived up and delivered their promises for over 55 years. Age is gold.

1. If you really are a Malay Muslim, I am not qualified to talk to you on politics etc.or anything else ! So what I said was for the Malaysian Chinese, a subject I should know very well. But you may glean on what I say because I only present facts. I do not lie or concoct. My specialty is Lee Kuan Yew, Singapore, PAP and its subsidiary DAP and Malaysian Chinese.

2. You seem to have just arrived from Mars with your knowledge of the histories of Malaysia/Malaya, Singapore, Lee Kuan Yew, PAP or whatnot. You have been blindsided by the deluge of one-sided propaganda against the stalwart of Malaysian Politics eg. the UMNO, just because of a moment of weakness in its leadership but the main body of support remains. I hope everyone does not forget this.

WITHOUT UMNO WHERE ARE THE MALAYS AND US NON-MALAYS. THIS IS REALPOLITIK !

Just one example. What is so great about Lee Kuan Yew and his so-called meritocratic pyramid ?

It is generally known Singapore lost US$108 Billions (RM350 Billions) of her citizens Trust money in October 2008 in a jiffy on Wall Street. Vide. Channelnewsasia Lee Kuan Yew. November 2008. 3. You want to be fair. There is no such thing in politics. If you have been a Consultant with Petronas why are you involved in the street brawl here ?

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. Do not listen to half-past six nonsense and believe in an 'abang-adek' relationship with any foreign country. Believe in 'sovereignty, national interest, self-esteem'. And none of our grandmothers will be sold down the river !

Hi Amin Tan,

Were you referring to this report?

Mr amnm,

Thanks for informing the link, but I did not know the existence of the report until you posted it. There are some points in the report quite similar to mine. One thing I feel very strongly about is DEMOCRACY by street demonstration. If Anwar Ibrahim is a true gentleman, he should just gracefully accept defeat in the poll. There is no need to be a bad loser accusing the government of cheating, staging disruptive street demonstration day after day. We are not young any more like when we were in the varsity 43 years ago. We are peace loving. Choosing the government is a serious matter. We should not allow Anwar Ibrahim to manipulate us just to fulfil his personal ambition to be the Prime Minister of Malaysia, irrespective of whether he is suitable and qualified or otherwise.

Please stop accusing the government of corruption. It is totally baseless, unfounded, malicious, false and misleading. The Malaysian government does not encourage corruption as a matter of policy. It is individual wrong doing, like adultery, stealing, robbery and other crimes. But please don't blame it on the government. It is misleading, wilful propaganda and absolutely unfair. Corruption is personal in nature and it has got nothing to do with the government or Barisan Nasional. It is purely political propaganda of the Opposition in order to smear the good reputation of the government.

Hi mubarakchan,

a bit late getting here, got hung up on something .. anyway, thanks for heads up but unfortunately i can't find that piece about Kim Eng Securities anywhere though.

earlier you post:

'8. All the things which were levelled unfairly by amnm at Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad can be found in your homeland Singapore, amnm if you know where to look and look hard enough. No big deal !'

exactly when i am ready to accept that you're indeed an honorable man you just up and give me an honorary Singaporean citizenship pulak? sigh wanna tell me what's this preoccupation with Singapore? at least write something about Malaysia, however improbable, at least i'll be able to relate to it.

i don't really know why but it seems that i need to clear up the air somewhat .. while i do have a smattering number of relatives living in Singapore i'm instead a proud Malaysian and a Malay Muslim. satisfied i hope?

and while we're at it .. if i can offer you a bit of suggestion? .. you really shouldn't be following the lead of dear old Tun's band of merry lil helpers though if you want me or anybody for that matter to take you seriously.

earlier you mentioned a bit about name-calling? iamn i've never did practice that, dislike it even .. however if i might've given off such impression, however remote, then please accept my sincere apologies as i seriously do not indulge in that kiddy stuff.

btw, any lead on casino licenses as yet? appreciate if you could pass it to me pronto kind sir .. wanna go whack our dear honorable LGE next; a verified report would be just super.

Thanks!

Dear Tun,

""1. In Australia it is reported that Anwar promised to engineer an Arab Spring in Malaysia.

2. He will duplicate Cairo's Tahrir Square in Kuala Lumpur and he will organise demonstrations involving hundreds of thousands of people in order to bring down the Government if he loses the election.""

Anwar Ibrahim is threatening Malaysia with huge ransom of bringing down the government through violent revolution if he loses PRU 13. This is tantamount to blackmailing the voters by fear mongering. The effect of violent street demonstration similar to 'arab spring' is the destruction of law and order in our civil society and productive economy. If there is a change of government as 'Arab Spring' there will be anarchy and chaos after PRU13. THE PREDICTABLE EFFECTS may be the followings

1. Uncontrolled victory celebration, provocation, taunting and jeering may lead to anger and retaliation by Malay right wing PERKASA members, whose registered members exceeds 300,000, including from the armed forces, commando unit, UTK and so on. This may result in violence and bloodshed as May 13.

2. There will be wide spread breaking down of law and order in the streets of major towns and cities. Opportunists and mat rempits, snatch thieves and criminals take to the streets and loot supermarkets and shops.

3. Curfew may have to be imposed and emergency rule by the armed forces takes place.

4. Care taker Prime Minister, Datuk Seri Najib may have to suspend parliament indefinitely and appoint Director of Operation for the Emergency rule. Datuk Ibrahim Ali may be appointed Director of Operation, Emergency Rule with sweeping police power to arrest trouble makers to bring calm and normality to the country.

5. Business and economic activities come to a stand still. There is no income for everybody, employers as well as employees.

6. Foreign investors would leave the country and we have widespread unemployment. People would resort to crimes.

7. So, ladies and gentlemen, let us have peace, harmony, employment, political stability, the rule of law, not street demonstration or Arab Spring. we must vote for the status quo, the Barisan Nasional in the impending General Election. Datuk Seri Najib is better than Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim.

Salam Tun.

To 'apanama?' amnm,

Forgot to inform that my earlier psychiatric sense of your character (February 9, 2013 at 9:37 PM) is only part I of 3. This is to avoid boredom when reading the staccato list of your unpleasant traits, thus I split them to 3 series!

I'll list below part II, and if needs be part III will follow very soon.

By the way, part III is only meant for hardcore morons, those type that Anwar maniac proudly proclaimed "I can fool all of them all of the time!" Hope you don't belong in that category!

Continuing on your character, part II:

1. You need to watch more comedy-type movies/shows. It is most embarrassing to oneself when he laughs out loud to everyone mimicking his own negative traits!! Laugh only on something really humorous, and DON'T EVER LAUGH AT YOUR OWNSELF.

2. Being a professional consultant, you need to change your style of writing. Be sure your sentences are easily understood by others. Show some personality in your writing. Carca-marba writings are for those with mentality like 'polo', doleng, pak pandir,....

3. You seem to enjoy your teenager days! Remember, you are already in your 40s and be sure to behave like one. Maturity is most important in business, to be respected.

4. You must learn to listen from others, they are always beneficial to you.

5. Stop being an ingrate, and "look yourself in the mirror" more often.

I'll copy and paste my earlier posting about your characters, to help you adjust/change for your betterment.

(February 9, 2013 at 9:37 PM)

"To 'apanama?' amnm,

When I studied your writings, it is very easy to conclude your character (my teacher used to tell me I'll make a good psychiatrist, but I chose a different profession):

You are a rebel,
You are anti-establishment,
You can't and won't reason out with others,
Your ego as a professional can't accept administrative people dictate you,
You are ever jealous of the high achievement by others,
You are argumentative,
Your failures are always blamed on to others,
You are still struggling in life!!

I presume you are in your 40s?

They say life begins at 40. Even those Mat Saleh are aware that God elevated our prophet Muhammad s.a.w. as His messenger at age 40!

Are you too late? But it is better late than never! If ever you'll change!

Just look at you 'apanama?':

You belittled that honourable Mubarakchan, you ignore the cynical words of 'Tired', you went out of topic when 'Idea' tried to correct your wrongs, you don't understand the words of 'Makhluk Halus', to Azrulshahreen, to 'tuan tanah', to 'PASHit,the never ending list!!

You are even afraid to expose your race and/or religion!

Where ever 'amnm' goes liability follows!!

Our most sincere pity to your family."

When DSAI was first fired so many years ago, I supported him. I was told from the reading the internet that he has many boxes of evidences of your corruption. Now, he, his wife, his daughter are MPs, but so far where are the evidences. You are already out of office, not more in power, his daughter married a royal and the PKR is the goverment in Selangor. I would think this is his chance to expose you. But, no, he has been singing the same tune.
There is one thing one admire about DSAI is almost no one believe he is the

Dear Tun,

You are the father of modern Malaysia. You have successfully united Malaysians from all spheres to support the multi racial government in turning Malaysia into a industrialized giant in Asia. Its not a small feat. Anwar betrayed you. Anwar betrayed Malaysian government. Anwar betrayed all Malaysians. Anwar lives making u-turn. When he was UMNO he spat on the faces of PAS leaders. And now he is pretending to befriend PAS as he is facing the toughest fight in his entire life. PRU 13 is a moment of trial for Anwar. The UMNO government is the best government for Malaysia and UMNO must win for the sake of Malaysians. Anwar must be defeated to realize vision 2020, that is to make Malaysia a fully developed nation by year 2020. Long Live Dr. Tun Mahathir Mohamad, a truly Malaysian Hero. A truly Asian Hero. A true nation builder. We love you Tun. Malaysians love you Tun. Malaysians support your visions and your charismatic leadership. All Asians are proud to have a leader like Tun M. You have motivated thousands of other Asians to reach greater heights in their respective lives. Dear beloved Tun, continue inspiring your countrymen and all Asians through your writing: books and also blog. I will support to promote your thoughts in the internet to motivate all patriots in the world to learn from your leadership styles and creative and innovative ideas to face challenging and ever changing times.

Specially for the edification of 'amnm'

The differences between our distinguished statesman Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad and Lee Kuan Yew of Singapore.

1. Money was used as a tool as investment in Singapore's Foreign Policy which resulted in the deaths of innocent men, women and children. Malaysia has no blood on her hands. Vide. Thaksin. ASEAN Regional News.

2. The 2 child-family Policy of Singapore in 1970s and 1980s. brought the procreative rate of Singapore to 1:1.2. In other words, there is a 50% reduction of its indigenous population every 25 years. Only China for cogent reasons and Hitler tinkered with the demographics and you know what happened to him. Singapore probably contravened Clause 16 of the United Nations Universal Charter for Human Rights. Vide. Channelnewsasia. The Star. Seah Chiang Nee Column. Saturdays

3. The loss of US$108 Billions (RM350 Billions) of the CPF Trust money in a jiffy in October 2008 on Wall Street by the meritocratic pyramid. Vide. Channelnewsasia Lee Kuan Yew November 2008.

All Singaporean Blogs 2009 to 2013. Financial Times London. Gillian Tett. 'Singapore's Harvard Investment Model' April 2010. the late Barry Wain, 'Malaysian Maverick' 2010. The Star. Seah Chiang Nee Column. Saturday.

4. Humanity and multiculturalism were never practised in Singapore. So many places of worship were and cemeteries were removed that someone had to ask the Boss to stop. Vide. Channelnewsasia. The Curry Smell Tribunal. The Toilet Fights. The 188 bus drivers strike. etc.

5. The perfunctory Judiciary System which is well-known throughout the world. Vide. Admiral Canaris was stripped naked by Hitler to demean him and hanged naked with piano wires. The unfortunate and fortunate Mr Chee, the unfortunate and unfortunate Tan Koon Swan. Dr Woffles Wu. Shaw. The Australian and German drug mules. etc. etc.

6. The contracts for the import of 5,000 pigs daily, flower nurseries etc. etc. Recently Interpol discovered the world's biggest football match rigging and fixing in squeaky clean Singapore for many years to the consternation of the World Community on its squeaky clean image.

7. Lee Kuan Yew ruled as a one-man ruler for over 55 years over Singapore. He is still there. And will be there the next 10 years thanks to the good medicines, not the good doctors. Malaysia during the same period had 5 democratically elected Prime Ministers.

8. All the things which were levelled unfairly by amnm at Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad can be found in your homeland Singapore, amnm if you know where to look and look hard enough. No big deal !

Vote BN. All Malaysians. Especially the Malaysian Chinese. The time for the revelations of the truth has come. Unite and stand strong. All of us !

For wajaperak who wants to know a bit of my experience.

One fine morning I got into a taxi at Scotts Road, Singapore. 'Good morning' I said with a smile to the driver 'How are you this morning ?' He turned round and sullenly replied, ' Not so good!' to my surprise. I mulled awhile in my head and continued. ' How is it that you are unhappy, Mr Tan ? Surely you must have a wife and children, probably a son and a daughter and this cosy job !' To this, Mr Tan said, 'Yes ! I have all these and even a HDB flat (a HDB flat is a big thing in Singapore) and yet every morning I feel unhappy !' Now, I have not come across such a rejoinder before and I let my thoughts swirled through my head. I finally remarked, ' Mr Tan, I think when you get up every morning, you look across to your neighbours and to their shiny cars. and then, you thought how on earth you could do the same !' He was surprised at my remark, ' How do you know ? This was exactly what I did when I got up every morning.' Ah !' I quickly chirped in,' So this is what you do every morning before work. Why don't you think like this in the following order eg. your health, your happiness and money in this order? You will feel better when you realise it is important to have good health and happiness. Money you can always make and think of those who are not so lucky as you are.' To my joy, Mr Tan quickly replied with a smile,' I feel better already. I never thought like this before !'

All of us Humankind are the same. It is just a question of putting our priorities in the right order.

For sudin. I thank you for understanding my views and thoughts on our Malaysians and our beloved Malaysia. I am just a normal person.

English educated Malaysian Chinese do not bother me because they are weak and have only got the gift of the gab. They based everything on the wrong premise, on something which is not attainable within the context of a peaceful, stable and prosperous Malaysia. Some of them think Lee Kuan Yew is great for the simple reason that they do not have a respectable Malaysian Chinese political leader. It is the fault of the English educated Malaysian Chinese that this is so. And fellows like amnm, I have met a dime a dozen. They are normally cowards and do not fight for themselves and let others do the fighting for them. If this guy is so good, you think he is not in OZ or some place else. He is obviously a misfit or a failure and want ot talk big to cover his inferiority complex by splitting hairs when he did not know where Mount Pleasant is. On the one hand, he wants to show off his gift of the gab on the other he tries to be on the right side of DAP. What a coward is this man, an English educated Malaysian Chinese ? If you believe in yourself and do not blame others, vote BN as led by the UMNO and the 14 component parties which fed you, your family and your parents well. And now in your frustration at your own lack of success and happiness, you even use your English language to dig at distinguished and respected persons like the Tun, just because others smeared him with no reason at all and you followed. Be your own man, amnm !

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. Do not be misled by those with the glib tongue, gift of the gab and a quick turn of mind. If you read all my previous comments on Lee Kuan Yew and the DAP, I have provided facts that these people actually mean nothing to all Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. Their play was with opaque mirrors and thick smoke ! If you strip everything away, there is nothing !

b. Cuma, org2 mcm ni bukan boleh layan sgt! Lebih kurang mcm seekor lalat yg berterbangan nak kongsi makanan yg sedang kita jamu lar! Lama2, dia boring, dia belah lar utk cuba nasib dia tmpt lain. As with all 'pests' nasib baik, dpt lar dia serpihan2 kita yg terjatuh; nasib tak baik, kena 'swatted' sampai mati lar dia! Wallahualam.

c. Cakap pasal konsultan ni, teringat pulak saya (ni sah dah jangkit Dr Jafri lar ni... Btw, dgn izin, Doc. Tq!) pada cerita seorang Prof kepada saya selepas saya buat 'presentation' pada beliau (Sayapun seorang konsultan; tapi cari makan dengan private companies bukan milik Kerajaan dan agensi2nya sbb kawan kita dah 'kow tim' semua - Dan saya takde hal sbb kkuatir nanti beliau takde duit pulak nak makan... Cara 'presentation' kwn koncultan kita thus far, kalo pei sykt2 swasta, kontrak cuci kereta pun tak bole dpt! Wallahualam.)

d. Back to the Prof's story: "There was a time when we had problems of containing our imported Bull from mating too often with our local 'heifer' (young female before she has had a calf of her own, and is under three years of age.) To cut a long story short, after trying out various methods, the Uni gave up, and the Senate agreed to appoint a Consultant. After perusing, analyzing, and deducing probabilities from volumes of notes, working papers, graphs, photos, etc., the Consultant declared confidently, "OK. Let us build a fence around the Bull to contain him; let him out when we need him to breed only! Dutifully; the Uni built first grade iron fencing around the barn where the Bull was kept away from those heifers. When all work is done, the Consultant gleefully invited the Prof and his staff to test his well calculated theory, and releases the Bull. But to the horror of all present, as soon as the Bull was released, he immediately charged to those heifers bringing the fence with him...! Stunned, the Prof looked at the Consultant, and asked him, "What the b*@$dy h*ll had just happened?!" The Consultant then coolly told the Prof, "Well...I am just a Consultant" Packed his bags, and left."

Sorry, Tun, got to sign off. Mengantuk pulak. Dah kena 'steamboat', kena teh tarik pulak. Pil kolesterol (aka. Cholesterol) belum makan lagi...Astagfrullah halazim. Goodnight, Tun. But remember! If you are unsure of something, please, please, please, DO NOT ever engage and listen to consultant's advice!!! All info that you need could be found in Google...FOC lagi!

P.s.

Sdr Wajaperak,

Let's take a break. As with all pests, once in a while, they'll appear out of nowhere suddenly, just to irritate you. No more. No less. Have a good weekend, you hear? And kalau boring, give a shout to Sdr Dr Jafri; he's a cool dude; one of a kind..:-)

Salam Tun.

To 'apanama?' amnm,

When I studied your writings, it is very easy to conclude your character (my teacher used to tell me I'll make a good psychiatrist, but I chose a different profession):

You are a rebel,
You are anti-establishment,
You can't and won't reason out with others,
Your ego as a professional can't accept administrative people dictate you,
You are ever jealous of the high achievement by others,
You are argumentative,
Your failures are always blamed on to others,
You are still struggling in life!!

I presume you are in your 40s?

They say life begins at 40. Even those Mat Saleh are aware that God elevated our prophet Muhammad s.a.w. as His messenger at age 40!

Are you too late? But it is better late than never! If ever you'll change!

Just look at you 'apanama?':

You belittled that honourable Mubarakchan, you ignore the cynical words of 'Tired', you went out of topic when 'Idea' tried to correct your wrongs, you don't understand the words of 'Makhluk Halus', to Azrulshahreen, to 'tuan tanah', to 'PASHit,the never ending list!!

You are even afraid to expose your race and/or religion!

Where ever 'amnm' goes liability follows!!

Our most sincere pity to your family.

Sudin is it? you posted:

'Have you done any tender evaluation as a consultant of Petronas, or evaluation to any tender called by Petronas?
Did you observe any hanky-panky in the awards? They are clean!'

Did i in any way mentioned any hanky-panky in Petronas? Which company within Petronas Group of Companies are you referring to when it you mentioned 'They are clean!?' I really think you need to put on your reading glasses, calm down and have another read. slowly now.

next you posted:

'Did Dr.M interfered in any way? Awards are suffice upon the recommendation by the consultants together with their management!'

I'm trying to find the straws you were trying to grasp .. now where did that go?

following that you posted:

Did you know that the "wang ehsan" given to Trengganu was the brainchild of Pak Dol PM5 and not by Dr. M?

naw really .. he did that too our dear Tun? that's really sick as i'd never thought he'd stoop that low .. wait a minute, did i say he did?

but hey, wanna know the truth? 😊

finally the last posting that left me a tittering like crazy you posted:

'Anwar maniac was the MOF from 1991, and you ventured into consultancy services from 1992. All consultancy services are under MOF jurisdiction, and how most unfortunate of you not being in the good books of Anwar or his agents then!!

In frustration, you blamed Dr. M!!!'

hello .. which ministry and related agency was DSAI in-charged of? – kudos to you as indeed it was MOF. now try naming OTHER ministries and agencies that he wasn't and only then, my dear angry Sudin, at least that would help me understand your agitation that led to this inconsequential blabbering. get your facts right before blundering on. look before you leap perhaps?

Really Sudin, i think you need some help as 'Tired' i think it was .. forever yelling 'Need Backup!' or some pills whatever. chill dude.

Tun terima kasih kerana ruangan..

Mr Tired ghout pil?..

Can I offer some friendly advice?

As far as I know there is only gout and no ghout...:)

Gout is a kind of arthritis that occurs when uric acid builds up in blood and causes joint inflammation.Please not that 'itis' means inflammation.

And there is acute and chronic episode of gout.

Maybe you have acute and not yet chronic inflammation.

They says that this uric acid crystallized when it become chronic.
And you can imagined the effect when they cause friction at the joint.
My advice is please ask your physician wether they prescribe you with 'pain killer' because that 'pill' is always specialist item and is not advisable for long term consumption.
There is no such thing as pain killer in this world. There is only pain reliever.
You simply cannot kill pain...
When you use this 'specialist item pill' they always rather than not make you dependent on them. So most wisely do not use them. Use alternative medicine.
Be resourceful.
Oppss..I embarassed myself..
There is Dr's and physician in Tun blog..Correct me if I am wrong..
From your friendly office boy..:)
Terima kasih Tun.

when in fact you had earlier lambasted Tun with,
"....Simply amazing how a man could fall so low and be so .. cheap."
Your sanity is unstable!!!

Have you done any tender evaluation as a consultant of Petronas, or evaluation to any tender called by Petronas?
Did you observe any hanky-panky in the awards? They are clean!
Did Dr.M interfered in any way? Awards are suffice upon the recommendation by the consultants together with their management!
Did you know that the "wang ehsan" given to Trengganu was the brainchild of Pak Dol PM5 and not by Dr. M?
Did you not know the extent of our hatred on PAK DOL?

Anwar maniac was the MOF from 1991, and you ventured into consultancy services from 1992. All consultancy services are under MOF jurisdiction, and how most unfortunate of you not being in the good books of Anwar or his agents then!!

As Salam.

Dear Idea,

My warm appreciation for a finely written posting and being kind enough to engage me here.

On reflection and strictly off religious matters, as you may agree points of views and perceptions are largely influenced and shaped by things that we know – some firsthand and others by various means. Note that i've always held our dear Tun in utmost respect, despite some early distractions with certain government machinery (read BTN, a definite opinion forming episode), until the purges in '88 that roused my awareness and eventual realization that all is not actually well in our nation's political scene.

Suffice to say that, events leading from then till my up, close and personal involvement as a consultant to the federal government ('92-99') followed by decade-long stint with Petronas before deciding to strike out on my own was more than just an eye-opener to say the least. And yeah, back then that include close encounters with our dear Tun too on several occasions. Worth mentioning one of his strong admirable trait is that he remembers, our old coot's sharp and intensely focused in discussions, i'll grant you that, though i can't vouch the same for the cabinet members. Never allow anybody to disabuse you on that notion, underestimate our dear Tun at our peril.

Back to the present. I readily submit and agree, quoting your post on, 'the government do take contractor's place of origin as a factor when awarding contracts', however that only applies under special schemes for State government jobs and unless specifically stated participation is open to all qualified entities, though having a local registered business address would boost your chances due to existing preferential treatment. Which is fair in my opinion to boost local industry. The same restrictions though never apply for jobs in Federal, GLCs, Commissions, Statutory Bodies etc. in the Public or quasi Public Sector.

Finally, all good and well should BTN changed its approach despite the mixed reactions as you've mentioned. Let's be fair, after all the brickbats and damaging publicity they've received people would still reasonably have valid reservations and skeptical where BTN is concerned. Leery enough to a point that some may well refuse participation or simply not wanting anything to do with them. I mean talk about tigers changing their stripes ..? Uphill task that to get over such a tarnished image.

That brings us to the last but most acute fact. All these recent cleansing act is just that, now; hopefully would be replicated to other similar machinations still unnamed. However that's not the point of emphasis, the point is all these skulduggery and brainwashing happened during HIS watch.

He allowed, succored and exploited it with impunity. That, my friend, is our dear Tun.

Tun

For amnm. Those names calling had been happening for centuries. It is not a new phenomenom. I myself have been scolded more than 12 times by the good and the great but never by my family or friends until recently, when I met up with a chronic blame gamer.

Annexure II to the Idiot's Compendium to Malaysian Politics. 2013.

The DAP.

No one has denied that this political party was not founded and inspired by Lee Kuan Yew. It was definitely very active in the 1969 General Elections confirming that Lee Kuan Yew never left the shores of Malaysia after 1965. If at all, Lee Kuan Yew had the advantage of having the cake and eating it too being on both sides of the Causeway.

It has long puzzled me why the DAP which is not a monastic order, Communist or Maoist could remain stoically in the Opposition sometimes by itself for 44 long years, nearly 2 generations. The leadership without the emotional drive of extremist political philosophies could stay unswayed in this land of plenty. What is it that makes it ticks for so long in Opposition ? At the end of the day, we see 2 senior political figures and their families ensconced at the top of the party with nothing much else. The rest of the crew are faceless and do not seem to have the trust of the top.

I can only surmise that the relationship between the DAP and Lee Kuan Yew has always been thick and strong for the DAP to strive so long in the Malaysian political wilderness – 44 years is a very long time in politics. Then, what is the purpose of this 'thick and strong' relationship ? In politics, a person either aim for fame or gain or both. For a person who is so-so financially this is a risk of a life-time if the political winds did not blow in the right direction. From my observations of the DAP so far, it has been trying its best to bend the headwinds. And by 2008, there was a glimmer of hope but was forced into bed with 2 other strange bedfellows where the DAP languished to this day. Was the DAP forced into a 'trois' a' menage by Lee Kuan Yew ? From Lee Kuan Yew's point of view, it is that he must leave a lasting and resilient legacy for the Singaporeans by having a super friendly Malaysia under his control, direct or indirect, at his back. But how ? When in a few years time, 50 percent of the Singaporeans are very rich foreigners. Is it worth Lee Kuan Yew's sweat and toil which might besmirch his great name by these 50 percent maybe ungrateful foreigners ? Vide. The Star. Seah Chiang Nee Columns. Saturday. The tumultuous events after October 2008 affecting Singapore brought their meritocratic pyramid into the shape of a ball where all things are possible. No more clever chaps crafting out beautiful essays for the Singaporean good and great to read ! Everything is now in a limbo. Man proposes ! God disposes !

Coming to the devil in the details, and ah! the digits. My relative, Tan Sri C. C. Too the most senior adviser to the Federal Government and the world expert on Communist Insurgency and psychological warfare once told me that when Communism comes into contact with Capitalism, Communism collapses.

There are alleged reports that many tycoons are especially active in the halls of power in Pulau Pinang. Does this means that the DAP has never changed its political spots ? Are the tycoons the fluttering moths around the Holy Lamp ?

And it is also alleged that the PR has the ability to issue 10 casino licences to Pulau Pinang, Sabah and Sarawak amongst other on-line goodies like squeaky clean Singapore's world's biggest football match fixing and rigging agency which operated with the tacit knowledge of the authorities for many years until the Interpol caught them and to the consternation of the World Community about squeaky clean Singapore.

Without a Shadow Cabinet line-up, without a Domestic and a Foreign Policy, I can only surmise that the DAP and its followers and supporters are interested in something more tangible and earthly. It cannot be that the Malaysian Chinese in DAP other different from those outside it. I ask again ` Is it fame or gain or both the DAP is going after ` ?

The DAP is indeed the weakest in the PR chain and is indeed an enigma !

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. Don't vote DAP an enigma which might give you an enema !

Sdr Tired,

sementelah anda sebut pasal pokok getah ni, buat saya terfikir.

Pokok ni perlu ditanam selama 2-penggal pilihanraya umum sebelum boleh dituai getahnya secara komersil. Saya sendiri tak tahu apa yang pengusaha kebun getah buat sepanjang 8 tahun menunggu pokok getah tu matang. Bawa teksi mungkin. Itupun kalau dia tinggal berhampiran Lembah Kelang. Baru `happening`, kata anak muda sekarang.

Saya terfikir lagi, apa akan jadi kalau setelah lapan tahun menunggu ... tiba-tiba ada jiran yang dengki dan meracun semua pokok getah tu hingga jadi macam padang jarak padang terkukur.

Menurut teori polis, jiran tu ada sebab yang relevan – kerana dia menjual tilam `Spring` besi secara MLM dan khatir nanti getah asli akan lebih popular sebagai bahan membuat tilam yang empok dan berkualiti seperti yang terdapat di hotel-hotel mewah sekitar KL. Sungguh paranoia penjahat itu, berfikiran kompleks dan menjangkau waktu dan realiti. Namun, teori polis tu meleset kerana kemudiannya muncul evidens yang tercerakin bahawa isteri pemandu teksi itu sebenarnya ada hubungan terlarang dengan jiran yang meracun pokok getah.

Untuk mengusir pengusaha kebun getah @ pemandu teksi tu, jiran itu telah memilih masa yang paling tepat untuk mengirim satu pukulan maut, death blow, kepada usahawan yang malang tu. Betul-betul pada saat pokok sudah sedia untuk ditoreh.

Mau tak mau, terpaksa lelaki malang tu sambung membawa teksi dari pagi hingga ke malam untuk menyara hidup. Lebih menyakitkan hati, bila lelaki itu flashback apa yang isteri dia buat dengan jiran sewaktu dia berhempas pulas steering mencari rezeki

Salam Tun,

Saya rasa ramai orang bukan Islam/ Melayu di Malaysia ini yang percaya AI adalah homoseksual termasuk pemimpin pemimpin pembangkang Lim Kit Siang, Karpal, Lim Guan Eng dan banyak lagi. Tetapi demi untuk menghancurkan kuasa politik orang Melayu/ Umno maka mereka terpaksa menggunakan AI sebagai vehicle. AI pula has nothing to lose. He knows the oppositions are using him. So what.

Ramai pemimpin Umno yang mengutuk AI. Mereka sebenarnya tak salah tentang apa yang Tun sebut mengenai AI. Tapi yang salah nya pemimpin Umno yang lain ni bukan macam Tun. Mereka nin pun banyak masalah dari segi seksual, wang dan sebagainya. Contoh kalau Nazri Azizi nak mengutuk Anuar orang tak boleh terima sebab dia pun dua kali lima. Jadi ini yang membuatkan AI nampak berjaya sedangkan Anuar memang banyak membuat kesalahan seperti sek, wang dan sebagainya. Sebenarnya orang dalam UMNO selain dari Tun tak qualify nak mengkeritik AI. Dalam UMNO semua terdiri dari character macam AI. Kalau tak sek, duit. Kalau tak duit sek. ada yang kedua dua nya sekali. Ini yang membuat orang hilang percaya dengan UMNO. Bukan nya AI, Karpal Nik Aziz tu betul sangat. Orang Melayu di Malaysia tidak ada pilihan. Jadi tak ada rotan akar pun jadi lah . Ini pepatah orang Melayu. Cuba kita buat furniture dari akar. duduk 5 minit patahlah

Dear AMNM,

I notice you are being critical. But being critical is not enough. We have to dig further if need be. And share our findings. Our findings may not be right. Or even if we think they are right, they are subject to people's acceptance. It further depends on the latter's background. But at least, we share. I believe this is what Tun has been doing all these years. I must admit that it is a difficult task, let alone time consuming.

By the way, here are three points I would like to share:

1. Malays were united when they opposed the Malayan Union.
2. About few years ago, the government chose Terengganu contractors for the construction of a highway. When most of them failed due to raw material price hikes, the government re-appointed them with revised contract prices. I do not know about Petronas, but the government do take contractor's place of origin as a factor when awarding contracts.
3. BTN has changed its approach. Participants are allowed to refute whatever being said by providing supporting facts. But appallingly our supposedly sophisticated young generation failed to do so. In most cases, they just quoted whatever written on oppositions' blogs. BTN provided more credible evidence like relevant clauses of acts and old newspaper cuttings. Considering what it was those days, BTN has made an impressive improvement.

Dear Makhluk Halus,

I do declare at first i thought perhaps i've misread your earlier posting hence the corresponding response but on a second look .. nope, i replied as per context.

i'm afraid i don't see how i can add more to better articulate the earlier discussion as clearly your response this time around is all over the place ending with a strange twist from,

'Most of them are working with GLCs and government offices and without the handouts given to them in the name of Bumiputera, they may not even afford to find an a good education let alone nice glamour job that they are having right now at the government/ GLC offices. They never give thanks, instead they want to rage war against just about everybody with different views. This is despite their preaching of freedom and free speech. Such a 'beautiful' attitude fuelled by anger in the example of their beloved leader .. plus the tongkat thingy ..'

a lashing out if i ever saw one, to suddenly morph'ed into a suspiciously patronizing pious Muslim do-gooder sermon? what's with this dr jekyll and mr hyde act?

i mean, seriously?

anyway, thanks for replying tho.

Dear Tun and Bloggers,

Hey AMNM. When I write my comment I'm referring to people like you. I see people like you on daily basis. But I wonder whether people would believe me or not. Thank you for appearing. At least we can see here that I did not talk nonsense.

You asked to 'whom' you should be grateful. If you really need to know whom you should be grateful to I can provide you with some clue. To me you should be grateful to your parents who had give you birth and provide, your teachers who taught you knowledge, your employers who hired you, your leaders who had served the nation well and bring this country prosperity. And all the hard effort that our eldest did for us to achieve what we have today would not be possible without the blessing of Allah SWT who has been the real reason why we should give thanks and be grateful.

It is you who need to serve them now and ultimately Allah SWT. Not the other way around. And at all time, none of the above should ever be your servant. And in any case that you have been working with the government, we are going to call you government servant.

I beg to differ with you. Heck, you really are one ungrateful Malay

'My job is to dig out all those brainwashed areas and replaced them with true facts of Malaysia and her Malaysians.'

Sorry dude as i wasn't yet in here during your glorious expose as you mentioned .. so i'll just have to take your word for it. At any rate i can share my own experience with 'brainwashers' too albeit not with you lot. Them BTN guys back in the day were really worked up when during my batch i was the only one that refused to play ball 😊. but finally after being called up for the third consecutive year to INTAN i gave up (hey, i was still a kid then!), threw in the towel and yelled with the best chanting the mantra,

'Hidup Melayu! Babi punya Cina! Tak mau cucu cicit aku kencing di pusara aku sendiri sebab kesalahan aku tidak mempertahankan Ketuanan Melayu!'

('Long live Malays! You Chinese swine! Don't want future grand kids to piss on my grave for not protecting Malay Supremacy!') and sang 'Anak kecil main api .. ' and countless others throughout the nite until they decided i've finally crossed-over and accepted what's good for me with a Malay ancestry.

yeah, i submit i did that .. as otherwise i wouldn't have been permitted to graduate together with my batchmates. but hey, all was not lost tho as in later years fate had it that i met up again with my roomie (who were then really into Kursus Kepimpinan thingy aka BTN) stateside and being real close he let on that he was pretty much still in the game. only that time around with MSD the BTN equivalent in Education Ministry, a cushy job while pretending to be a student himself.

Bro Sudin,

1. Profile "amnm" (highly probability!)

- Name, "abdul malik nik mohamad".
- Malay, in mid to late fifties.
- A Chemical Engineer educated in USA under government's sponsorship, as the UK or Australia do not offer such accreditation (probably, have not repaid a cent to the Govt since he feels it is the Govt fiduciary duty to pay for his education notwithstanding if he is depriving others from enjoying same privileges!)
- Former Petronas Engineer; became a Consultant because he thought he could earn more, and "kaki" inside ever willing to share....
- Resembles his idol DSAI/ABI complete with that goatee and that mischievous grin.

2. Reason for rebelling?

- >90% of Petronas Executives feel that their salaries and benefits do not commensurate with the Company's turnover (the fact that their salaries more than triple those other professionals does not matter...)
- Govt does not has the rights to use "their monies" for development, as they were those who took those oils from the centre of earth.

3. Rallying Cry?

- "yawn state sentencing date and jail-time served by DSAI. Put it up now or forever be known as a proponent of 'alif mim nun wau = sarkis' (sic)" - Say thank you to Pak Lah, for expunging those records of his Idol!

4. Mentality?

- In denial (Org Jawa bilang "BODOH SOMBONG!").
- Muka tak tau malu (Org Jawa bilang "IGNORANT!")
- Tak tau bersyukur (Org Jawa bilang "INGRATE!")

Salam Tun,

HOW DAP VIEWS PAS HEHEHE. AND STILL THEY PUT ON A SHOW IN PUBLIC!

By Norman Fernandez, Deputy Chairman, DAP Johor.

PAS IS NO LONGER A VIABLE PARTNER FOR PAKATAN RAKYAT AND FOR NON MUSLIMS.

The latest decision by PAS led government's restrictions on public performances during Chinese New Year including a ban on female performances should be ample proof and a sober reminder to all Muslims that PAS is a real danger to Non-Muslim.

In recent months Malaysians and particularly Non-Muslims have witnessed a sampling of what life under PAS would be, from

- i. the apprehending Non-Muslims for Khalwat
- ii. the harassment and issuing summonses against unisex hair salons
- iii. opposing cinemas
- iv. objecting the sale of liquor and demanding curtailing the sale of alcohol
- v. not allowed to wish Christians Merry Christmas
- vi. flip-flop on the right to Non-Muslims and Christians to use "Allah".

PAS has not changed and PAS remains uncompromising, unrelenting in its goal to achieve its final agenda. It wants to impose its brand of Islam and Ketuanan Islam on Non-Muslims.

The question for Non-Muslims and Non-Muslim voters is simple : Are you prepared for a life under PAS ?

PAS slogan "PAS For All" is now exposed as nothing but fraudulent and deceitful ploy for the votes of Non Muslims.

Non-Muslims will pay a heavy price if they continue to believe that PAS is an alternative. To continue to support and vote PAS is not only a folly but may turn out be an unmitigated disaster for Non-Muslims and their generations to come. Are Non-Muslims prepared to gamble their future and the future of their children.

The recent events in Egypt must be a reminder to Non-Muslims. There, the peoples revolution was hijacked by Islamist and having taken power, the Islamist have moved to subjugate Non-Muslims and Non-Muslims are fast losing their rights and identity in Islamist Egypt. Is this what Non-Muslims want.

DAP can no longer be an apologist for PAS and must not be a complicit to PAS evil plans.

DAP must realise that PAS is no longer an honest and viable partner of Pakatan Rakyat and must be courageous to admit it. In 1999, DAP took a courageous stand and once again DAP must take a stand.

Norman Fernandez
Deputy Chairman
DAP Johor.

duh dude, my speed reading done me a disservice as i really thought you meant here and now .. not during the reign of someone no longer with us (Al-Fatehah buat Tunku).

Any details yet on the licensing? Still waiting bro, either put `em up or .. well you know what.

Tun

For AMNM. Your piece sounds confused and lacked depth. I can tell you that you are an English educated Malaysian Chinese who are emotional and argumentative and hollow with no cultural ballast whatsoever. My comments if you look back at the whole series to August 2012 are designed specially for characters like you who know a little bit and think you know the whole lot in your little compartmentalized world. This is the weakness of the English educated Malaysian Chinese. My job is to dig out all those brainwashed areas and replaced them with true facts of Malaysia and her Malaysians. I worked out I could do this over time especially when the BN as led by the UMNO and the 14 component parties wins soon.

My comments are all based on solid facts with a historical bent. Your emotional reaction to my 10 casinos piece confirms that I am very near the truth. And your explanation is only suitable for pre-puberty scouts in shorts ! Otherwise, how would you explain why this DAP founded and inspired by Lee Kuan Yew preferred to be in the Opposition for 44 years ? The biggest play in this firmament called Malaysia is casino or gambling licences whatever. Why sometimes the DAP eschewed fine dining in Singapore for stale curry and rice in Taiping ? There is a method behind the madness.

You do not need to be personal when you do not know who I am. It is dangerous to do so. In any case, to me you are just a cyberghost. For example, there have been attempts to get a casino licence for Pulau Pinang since the days of the Tunku. Do you know where Mount Pleasant is ? That was the first attempt. And now, the tycoons are all fluttering like moths around the Holy Lamp ! Agree ? What is the secret behind this fatal attraction ? A 101 storey building for Georgetown ?

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. Do not be used as an excuse to get casino or gambling licences by the PR later.

Salam Tun,

these Pakatoon bunch are really downright hypocrites. They are all just putting on a show of unity in public whereas in reality they cannot stand the sight of each other. They just can not agree on many things let alone come out with a list of their Shadow Cabinet.

Once upon a time PAS vice President Mat Syabu coined the infamous term "Al Syeikh Al Juburi" for Anwar but suddenly now they seemingly are the best of buddies!

Once upon a time Kapal Singh accused Anwar as "Peliwat" in Parliament and his statement is recorded in its hansard for eternity. But Kapal became Anwar's defence lawyer in the Saiful case. I mean how low can you go for the sake of politics?

CAN THE RAKYAT TRUST HYPOCRITES LIKE THESE TO RUN THE COUNTRY?

THEY WILL DO ANYTHING INCLUDING SELLING THEIR MOTHERS FOR THE SAKE OF PUTRAJAYA, WHICH COINCIDENTALLY PAS WANTED TO LELONG NOT TOO LONG AGO!

Assalamualaikum WBT Ybg Tun,

Melihat dan menilai gaya kepimpinan dan sejarah demonstrasi jalanan semenjak DSAI dilucutkan dari Jawatan sebagai Timbalan Perdana Menteri dan tersingkir dari UMNO, maka tidak mustahil jika sekiranya Pakatan Rakyat kalah dalam PRU ke 13 nanti, demonstrasi ala "Arab Spring" akan berlaku di Malaysia. DSAI akan melakukan apa sahaja bagi melampiaskan hawa nafsu dan cita-citanya tinggi melangit mahu menjadi Perdana Menteri Malaysia. Soal kepentingan agama Islam, perpaduan umat Melayu dan bangsa Malaysia, dan keluhuran undang-undang tidak lagi menjadi perhitungan DSAI dalam mengejar cita-citanya menjadi Perdana Menteri. Sikap DSAI seharusnya menjadi contoh khususnya bagi golongan muda yang bakal mengambil alih kepimpinan negara untuk dinilai buruk baiknya.

2. Malaysia telah mencapai kemerdekaan lebih dari 55 tahun yang lalu (2013 – 1957). Parti Perikatan dan kini Barisan Nasional telah terbukti berjaya mentadbir urus negara Malaysia, mencapai segala macam bentuk pembangunan termasuk pembangunan modal insan. Melalui dasar pendidikan negara Barisan Nasional telah berjaya dengan cemerlang melahirkan warga negara Malaysia yang berilmu pengetahuan, malah sudah ramai rakyat Malaysia yang telah mencapai tahap keilmuan yang bertaraf dunia. Negara yang mempunyai rakyat yang berilmu sudah tentu akan dapat membangunkan negara dengan cara lebih efektif. Malaysia sudah menjadi contoh diantara kerajaan yang terbaik dikalangan negara-negara membangun di dunia.

3. Malaysia secara konsisten rakyatnya hidup dalam aman damai hasil usaha urustadbir cemerlang kerajaan Barisan Nasional yang dipilih oleh rakyat. Malaysia mengamalkan secara "Demokrasi" melalui peti undi dalam setiap pilihanraya (DUN & PARLIMEN) bagi memilih pemimpin dan kerajaan yang akan memerintah. Saya amat bersetuju dengan pandangan Tun, secara umumnya Pilihanraya di Malaysia telah berjalan dengan adil dan saksama bagi semua parti-parti politik yang bertanding. Usaha penambahbaikan urusan pilihanraya secara berterusan dilaksanakan oleh SPR, malah hampir semua cadangan dari parti-parti pembangkang (DAP, PKR & Pas) telah diambil kira oleh SPR dalam kerja-kerja penambaaikan urusan pilihanraya. Malangnya Pakatan Pembangkang masih lagi berterusan memprovokasi dan membuat persepsi bahawa Pilihanraya di Malaysia dilakukan secara tidak adil dan saksama, dan untuk itu Pakatan Pembangkang telah menganjurkan "Demonstrasi Bersih 1,2 & 3, dan mungkin "Demonstrasi Arab Spring" jika sekiranya mereka kecundang dalam PRU ke 13 nanti. Rakyat yang berilmu dan matang sudah tentu tidak menyokong seratus peratus demonstrasi jalanan bagi meraih kuasa atau mahu menumbangkan kerajaan yang dipilih oleh rakyat melalui peti undi yang sah. Keadaan di Mesir amat jauh berbeza jika dibandingkan dengan Malaysia, oleh sebab itu ada kewajaran rakyat Mesir bangun menentang pemerintah (yang diterajui oleh Hosni Mubarak) untuk menuntut kerajaan yang adil dan saksama yang dipilih oleh rakyat melalui peti undi dalam pilihanraya.

4. Jika sekiranya pilihanraya di Malaysia diuruskan secara tidak adil dan saksama, mana mungkin parti-parti pembangkang boleh menang sebarang kursi dalam sebarang pilihanraya (DUN & PARLIMEN), maka segala keputusan seharusnya memihak kepada parti yang berkuasa. Oleh kerana pilihanraya di Malaysia dilakukan dengan adil dan saksama, maka sudah terbukti nyata parti-parti pembangkang boleh menang dalam mana-mana pilihanraya, kenyataannya dalam PRU 12 tahun 2008 beberapa negeri di semenanjung dikuasai oleh parti-parti pembangkang (DAP, PKR & Pas), dan Barisan Nasional hanya menang selesa diperingkat Parlimen. Pakatan Pembangkang gagal membuktikan bahawa urustadbir mereka di beberapa buah negeri (Kelantan, kedah, Pulau Pinang dan Selangor) semenjak berkuasa selepas PRU ke 12 lebih baik dari Barisan Nasional. Secara umumnya rakyat di negeri-negeri berkenaan yang dibawah kuasa Pakatan Pembangkang telahpun merasa sendiri segala kepayahan dan keperitan, banyak janji-janji manis gagal ditunaikan, masalah dalaman Pakatan Rakyat diantara Pas, DAP dan PKR yang berlainan dasar perjuangan amat ketara, jadinya mana mungkin sebuah kerajaan boleh berjalan dengan baik dan rakyat akan menerima akibat buruknya jika parti yang memerintah tidak sehaluan cara.

5. Saya penuh yakin bahawa majoriti rakyat Malaysia yang mempunyai jati diri yang tulin akan menolak sebarang usaha dari parti-parti pembangkang menganjurkan sebarang bentuk "Demonstrasi Jalanan atau ala Arab Spring" bagi meraih kuasa jika sekiranya Pakatan Pembangkang kecundang dalam PRU ke 13 nanti. Pakatan Pembangkang amat menyedari bahawa pengaruh mereka sudah amat luntur, dan sukar bagi mereka untuk meraih kemenangan dalam PRU ke 13. Justeru pada awal-awal lagi DSAI selaku Ketua Pembangkang mewujudkan berbagai-bagai dakwaan, tohmahan dan persepsi bahawa PRU ke 13 tidak bersih dan adil, dan jika mereka kecundang maka amat wajarlah mereka bangkit menentang keputusan pilihanraya secara "Demonstrasi Jalanan atau ala Arab Spring" dengan harapan dapat menumbangkan kerajaan Barisan Nasional dengan mewujudkan suasana huru hara dalam negara. Sama-samalah kita khususnya bagi rakyat beragama Islam, berdoa kehadhrat Allah SWT supaya dihindarkan keadaan yang tidak diinginkan berlaku di Malaysia.

Sekian, salam hormat dan terima kasih Tun.

For Mubarak Chan and HBT456 and to all it will appeal.

As I said in previous postings I didn't mean to get involved in politics here. I am a foreigner, I have no right to do that. I merely meant to compliment mubarakchan on his skills.

And: Cong Xi Fa Cai to you too HBT456 and all other Chinese bloggers here.

I Malaysia business activities will practically come to a still stand these days for Chinese New Year.

As coincidence has it that same is happening in Germany until next Wednesday, Ash-Wednesday, for the entire Nation is celebrating Street Carnival.

Thereafter and until Easter Sunday there will be 40 days of Fasting, our Ramadan as it were.

So, see you all after CNY or after Easter!

Salam everyone.

Reading through i can't help but feel amaze at the quality of postings here as some of you people really have the flair for writing, the language nonetheless.

Contrary to that however, imo much has been written out of perception or what is felt ought to 'be' right rather the truth. While not meaning to take a dig at anyone I simply have to take excerpts out of some writings as posted.

azrulshahreen posted:

'...honestly the method utilized by PR or Anwar only create disruption on Malay unity. It is sad to see Muslim Malays so easily influence and persuaded.'

Honestly now, when did Malays as race were ever united? Just cite a case and perhaps what's been written would at least sound logical. However i'm in total agreement with the very next statement. Thing we need to ask is why, why Muslim Malays predominantly carry such traits? Perhaps we ourselves don't have a clue what being a Muslim is all about?

next, he posted:

'Have Anwar mirrored himself, how much his children is getting? How much his right-hand man is making in a month? How much he is profiting from his talk/speech against Malaysian Government? How was he when he was the Finance Minister/DPM at that time? How much he profited at that time?'

Perhaps a valid point .. if its backed with irrefutable evidence as otherwise it'll merely be akin to writings on the wall, easily attributed to juvenile vandalism to say the least.

mubarakchan posted:

'Now you may ponder the possibility that if the PR gain power in Putrajaya, what can they do ? I can see very clearly that 10 casino licences will be issued for Pulau Pinang, Sabah and Sarawak and off-shore islands in the South China Sea.'

I reckon that's quite a leap of faith. Now back to reality, in Penang, Pakatan has been in power since the last election. I'm inviting you to state how many casino licenses has been issued.

next, he posted:

'For Pulau Pinang, the casino licences and others are issued by popular demand of the Chinese, of course.'

Seems the writer has been doing lots of leaping lately. What is it now, racial profiling for Malaysian Chinese? I'd suggest digging up some recent news as an example, perhaps the recent ban for 'improper attire and behaviour' for CNY celebrations in Kedah. Specifically that unfortunate ill-advice knee-jerk response from one State Exco member doing-up a scantily clad show for one PKR event. Didn't that provoked a very prompt and sharp response from a DAP parliamentarian? Furthermore is the writer an adjudged authority for Malaysian Chinese behavioral traits? How many books published on it may i ask .. or he's simply acting the prosecutor, judge and executioner based on his 'belief'?

Makhluk Halus posted:

'These ungrateful Malays will have their wake up call the hard way when the time comes.'

I beg to differ. How is it the people, instead of just 'Malays', have to be 'grateful'? To whom now? Going on a limb may i say the Government or more properly BN? Is that what democracy is all about? I'd suggest the writer to have another read or rather refer to some tea leaves readers as clearly his/her suggestion decidedly deserves my intended sarcasm.

Last time i checked none of the political activists aka politicians had their arm twisted to enter politics and to 'fight for the people'. Its on voluntary basis only, period. Every single son/daughter of them raised their arms to high heaven wanting to SERVE the nation. Keyword here is SERVE, savvy? That being said, do the people to be 'grateful'? Need i elaborate further?

Whitelight posted:

'Anyway ciao and take care, and to the other "eavesdroppers" - we say toodley doo !!. Look that up guys.'

Mighty unbecoming of gentleperson i'd say. Some of us DO had to take up English Literature at school and unfortunately that also entailed reading up folklore, idioms etc. Atypical American response to your decidedly condescending writing would be to 'get off that high horse of yours and eat s, ae!.

tuan tanah posted:

'Well Whitelight here Tun is talking about the Anwar that Tun and most of us knows very well, extremely well that we even knows his sexual preferences.'

yawn state sentencing date and jail-time served by DSAI. Put it up now or forever be known as a proponent of 'alif mim nun wau = sarkis'

PAShit posted:

'NO MEDIA OR PRESS IN THE WORLD IS COMPLETELY FAIR AND FREE OF BIAS. THE AMERICAN MEDIA ESPECIALLY IS OH SO GUILTY OF COVERING UP THE 911 DEBACLE FOR THE SAKE OF THE ZIONISTS. CONTINUE TO LICK THE ZIONISTS BALLS AT YOUR OWN PERIL!'

No fair and no free or those renowned establishments just dowanna be fair or free of bias reporting bud? OTOH these acute preoccupation with other nation's press serves nothing for us here in ground zero Malaysia.

Done with the responses now. Before i take my leave, allow me a teaser:

Terengganu State oil royalty was mysteriously changed to 'wang ehsan' on the heels of UMNO unanticipated loss to PAS in one state election. All Petronas head of business units were immediately summoned to KLCC for a quick briefing by the PM's Office rep.

Then we in turn, then as consultants in various Petronas plants in both Kerteh and Gebeng IPCs (Integrated Petrochemical Complex) were invited to attend a follow-up briefing in Kuantan chaired by Petronas to draw-up or redraw plans to suit new set of instructions for the immediate future development direction of both IPCs. I distinctly remember the distasteful broad guidelines which were delivered sombrely:

1. Immediate halt on all ongoing and future development in Kerteh IPC
2. Yet-to-be developed plants designated for Kerteh to be shifted to Gebeng
3. No skilled or semi-skilled contracted labour whatsoever from Terengganu will be engaged furtherance; the exact words then (literal translation from Bahasa Malaysia) was, 'we don't need to contract any ungrateful sons of Terengganu. Take from Pahang, even though they're unskilled as its up to you people to get them up to speed. Take Pahangites, even from as far as Bentong'.

Give me a good guess what happened to the socio-economic livelihood of those affected work-force. I'd even award the sweetest i have for anyone who didn't get it right.

Just one tidy lil bit before i really go off .. wanna know how 'wang ehsan' got distributed? ask me nicely 😊

Salam Tun & Fellow Bloggers,

If I may express freely (with no intent of hurting anyone feeling here, if so I apologize), honestly the method utilized by PR or Anwar only create disruption on Malay unity. It is sad to see Muslim Malays so easily influence and persuaded. By far, the transformation promises by DSN is made to be seen. Do we need more justification than that. Is it not enough of evidence and result from the BERSIH gathering and demonstration? Businesses are stalled, tourism effected and with current world globalisation, it will only show that the government is weak and easily compromise to such demands. Its time to be bold, cast aside the 'budak baik' attitude/image. Proceed the transformation promises, do more good development that will help enhance the life of Malaysian. Reduce and control the housing prices so that people can acquire home.

I've watched Anwar's speeches in YouTube and was surprise at his allegation, regarding the low wages received, people can't afford this and that... yes, it is true but from my perspective, the Government is doing the best they could to ensure Malaysian get the best that is given. Have Anwar mirrored himself, how much his children is getting? How much his right-hand man is making in a month? How much he is profiting from his talk/speech against Malaysian Government? How was he when he was the Finance Minister/DPM at that time? How much he profited at that time? It is things like this Malaysia should take into consideration rather than taking his words entirely.

Yes, he is a good orator, he really speaks, he can debate, he has that charisma that enable people to be glued at him. Unfortunately, he is not using it on the right track, not on the right path.

I pray and hope in this coming GE, Malaysian is able to think wisely and able to decide properly. Enough mistake done in GE 2008. What Tun M had done during his tenure was preparing for Malaysian with development, more of like the 'skin' or the outer layer for society to move. What Pak Lah done during his tenure was to instil the inner layer so that Malaysian can develop with balance, both in modernisation and faith. From my perspective, what DSN doing now is to transform Malaysian so to enable to compete in development with neighbouring countries.

I merely speaking my mind. Thank you Tun and everyone. Wassalam.

Tun,

For A. Wilner of Germany. I have many German friends and relatives. I knew the guy Herr Wolfgang..... who worked for Munich Re in the 1950s and related to the 555 Cologne family whose founder celebrated his birthday by having a 555 Cologne fountain and not a Champagne one. I still remember the two photos of his brothers in full German uniform who were killed on the Eastern Front. The East Prussian owner of the famous Winckler handkerchiefs was my friend who was so afraid of the Russians, that he put all his assets in the good old US of A. And of course, a few ex-Germans too !

I felt I owe a duty and responsibility to my compatriots in the process of building up a unique young country. Life to me is a two-way street. You sow what you get. Sometimes, I wish I was strolling around the Black Forest, Germany or listen to the cuckoo clock and lodge in an inn from which I could smell fresh hay and dung ! Or just loll around in some high German Alpine meadow. But this is not to be as we have to stand and fight to preserve all that we had built not 56 years ago but over 500 centuries ago ! If I do not reveal the facts and keep quiet, in no time at all those chaps who think they can use Hitlerite methods to stomp on us will rule over us without much ado. And they sing a different tune. These are hard learnt lessons of my friends, the Germans and the World. As Tun always exhort us to speak up for freedom and our own brand of Malaysian Democracy which we do not claim to be 5 star class but only made in Malaysia.

Now you may ponder the possibility that if the PR gain power in Putrajaya, what can they do ? I can see very clearly that 10 casino licences will be issued for Pulau Pinang, Sabah and Sarawak and off-shore islands in the South China Sea. Other on-line gambling facilities will follow like the squeaky clean Singapore's world biggest football fixing and rigging agency based in squeaky clean Singapore which was caught by the Interpol to the consternation of the World Wide community. This probably operated for a number of years with the tacit knowledge of the authorities. For Pulau Pinang, the casino licences and others are issued by popular demand of the Chinese, of course. Revenue and revenue are required for infrastructure development for the good of all, of course. See the twists and turns of Malaysian politics in this ultimate struggle for power between the Malaysian Nationalists and Lee Kuan Yew's final power play for keeps in keeping with his strategic geo-political thinking to leave an everlasting, durable and resilient legacy behind for the Singaporeans. This legacy reaches from the backyard of Singapore via Malaysia and Thailand and to the world. This is the man and his intellect. But Man proposes. God disposes !

Dear Tun and Bloggers,

HBT is right. One day the Malays will be at the mercy of other supreme race due to their own greed and ignorance.

These desperate bunch of emotional Malays is very disrespectful to other people, they talked nasty thing everyday, they rebel to just about everything, going into the state of anarchy for their love of Anwar Ibrahim and changing the government. Don't they understand that we are just peace loving people who struggling to earn our honest living. We are just a normal people, we used the politician for our benefits not the other way around. If not because of the politician, we may just be closer to each other on the street without much thing to argue about.

Most of them are working with GLCs and government offices and without the handouts given to them in the name of Bumiputera, they may not even afford to find an a good education let alone nice glamour job that they are having right now at the government/ GLC offices. They never give thanks, instead they want to rage war against just about everybody with different views. This is despite their preaching of freedom and free speech. Such a 'beautiful' attitude fuelled by anger in the example of their beloved leader.

Even with the 'tongkat' extended to them they have never ever manage to compete in economy with a more supreme race. Now they arrogantly felt that they can take on the world. And now they are badly divided politically. These ungrateful Malays will have their wake up call the hard way when the time comes.

As of this time, the Malays is nothing in this country if not of unity they use to maintain. Not until they really become a supreme race themselves. To Anwar Ibrahim, ketuanan Melayu will never become a history. This is because its has never happened, as yet.

Tun,

The Annexure to the Idiot's Compendium to Malaysian Politics. 2013.

Most Malaysian politicians pretend as though the awesome Lee Kuan Yew of Singapore does not exist in the ebb and flow of Malaysian politics which brought the unknowns to be strong and powerful in the land and cast out those miscreants or misfits in the cast of thousands.

I would have agreed that Lee Kuan Yew is a genial gentleman with a sardonic smile bearing gifts to our hospitable and friendly folks across the land if he did not make the unexpected and undiplomatic sojourn of April 2008 across the northern face of the Peninsula to greet the victorious Opposition forces which fought the BN to a standstill. Or he did not had tea in a Kuala Lumpur salon and made the head honcho of a political outfit which he ignored since 1965 and made disparaging remarks about their leaders messing around in messes (bordellos), to dress up in his finest red Mandarin silks to come to the Mountain. This would be unbelievable in a gentleman which had never any time for the niceties of life.

In fact, Lee Kuan Yew never left this land called Malaysia since 1965. On the one hand whilst the Malaysians kept to their side of their bargain not to discuss Singaporean politics etc, the major media in Singapore not only reported but for decades gave firm advice through their journalists who were hardly dry behind the ears to Malaysia how to run her economy etc. The last being in January 2012 when it was put across in no uncertain terms that the NFC MUST be fully investigated by the Federal Government. Thereafter, there was no more such advice from the 2nd quarter of the year until now. All these years of reverse brainwashing of the populace put the Singaporeans at a dis-advantage because they should not have competed with us the Malaysians but the best in the wide World. For example, to the consternation of the World Community and the Interpol, the shock of the discovery of the biggest football rigging and fixing outfit in the World was based in squeaky clean Singapore for many years, presumably with the tacit knowledge of the authorities. Their whole financial industry is tainted. This has nothing to do with Malaysia.

But Lee Kuan Yew is an exceptional man in the right place and at the right time. We Malaysians always think of Singapore in 'abang adek' terms. He thinks in strategic geo-political terms. The Twins will never meet. Hence, his unique investment in Thailand putting into retirement the one and only exceptional Thai gentleman who could have built the Isthmus of Kra Canal for Thailand and Humankind. This is not to be for the moment. But the Canal will surely be built as and when the tides from the eternal sea change and bring forth peace, happiness and wealth to Southern Thailand and its environs.

The DAP is just one of the many Trojan horse which are in place in Malaysia as the leadership has not got the impeccable academic credentials of Lee Kuan Yew being his starred Double First Law degree from Cambridge and probably a Third Class in the Bar Finals London. Some major mistakes were made by Lee Kuan Yew the more than 55 year one-man ruler of Singapore (he should be around for the next 10 years according to sources. Thanks not to the good doctors who are all the same down the ages but to the excellent medicines). What can we expect the DAP to do but to get lost amongst the good and great of the land when they are in power ? I believe there is a glimpse already of this happening in Pulau Pinang !

The reason why Malaysian politics are important to Lee Kuan Yew is that he must leave a legacy of a secured and safe hinterland for generations to come in Singapore. The 12th General Elections of Malaysia came very close to it. His audacious move in Thaksin's Thailand remains to be assessed as the jury is still out with the pot just boiling. It is the 13th General Elections of Malaysia that is a do or die for Lee Kuan Yew's proposed resilient and enduring legacy for Singapore. Hence, he made that auspicious journey. But then, events happened in October 2008 and thereafter which turned back the clock many times. Man proposes. God disposes.

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese for the above-mentioned reasons. We stand united and strong and chart our own DESTINY with God's blessing.

in your first posting you question Tun article contradict Anwar's statement to the Australian radio.
Well Whitelight here Tun is talking about the Anwar that Tun and most of us know very well, extremely well that we even know his sexual preferences. You seem not to know Anwar as well as we do.
Street demonstrations are his pastime among other things.
Deceiving and conning are his expertise.

Thanks Tun.

Kepada PASHit,

Kalau nak tahu siapa yang ada sifat2 tongong, biul, bahlol dan bongok, budak yang menggelar diri dengan nama seekor anjing bertuah "polo" tu adalah paling tepat!!
Sebab tu le dia sanggup jadi kuda tunggangan Anwar maniak!

Kepada "polo",
Boleh tak berikan no. akaun bank, sayanak bank-in RM30 untuk beli gula2 dan ais krim, lepas tu pergi jauh2.
Menyebok aje kat blog chedet yang dikhaskan untuk orang sahaja!

Memalukan emak bapak aje punya anak yang sengaja2 teringinkan sangat berfikiran macam lembu!!!

Lain kali, saya ajar orang putih tu bercakap kepada Sudin "Selamat Jalan dengan sopan santun".

YABhg Tun,
Read some of your comments on RCI. I'd like to suggest a new line of questioning if they've not thought or done that already. It would be good to ask some of these PTIs where they have been working all this while to support themselves. You never know " interesting " names might just " spring " out....
And, while they are at it, don't forget to ask their girls too especially, those working at bars and saloons....among other places.....he!he!he!
Of course.....forged IC and illegal votes are very important too....

To Whitelight (I presume you are from down under, an Aussie),

I'm flabbergasted when you mentioned,
".....proper display of Budaya Melayu."

I don't really know what has transpired that seems to have changed the Budaya Melayu to some Malays. Probably due to the forthcoming general elections?

Sometime ago I took my family to the Gold Coast for a much-deserved & anticipated holiday, and we were perplexed to the warmth shown by the hotel staff, and they are all 'Mat Saleh' (sorry to use the term 'paleface' earlier). Before checking out, my wife wrote quite a lengthy compliment to the hotel management.

Maybe now it is our turn to learn something about manners from you.

Thank you for understanding our predicament.

Members of Parliament will decide this statutory law.

Can it be integrated with syariah law, we will see.

If MPs make wrong move, they can be voted out in next GE13th when his opponent use it as a political mileage to swing votes.

Therefore, if you are MP of the kampung that can't accept this culture and marriage, and not comfortable with it kerana takut hilang undi, then don't raise your hand.

Who knows, KL MPs may raise hand for gay marriages in KLFT saja to breakthrough superstitious and blind worship of leader to make the economy vibrant, alive and happening, can or not, no one will know in the future generations to come.

Tun

I think it is time to up-date the Idiot's Compendium to Malaysian Politics, 2013.

1. Malaysia – a country of diverse and friendly and hospitable people from ancient civilizations.
2. Geography – strategically and geo-political astride the Straits of Melaka and the South China Sea.
3. The People. – You name it you have got it in this Land of the Golden Chersonese. The Malays and the Bumiputras are in the majority with a big chunk of all sorts of Chinese, and Southern Indians mainly together with as many other peoples as you can count. They are all spoilt by the long years of peace, stability and prosperity and lack understanding of the good largesse that has befallen them. And of late, a favourite haven for Iranians, and other Midde Eastern peoples who discovered this homely place to call a home. Fine Arabian dining followed.
4. The Climate. – Eternal Spring. No surprises in the weather or other earthly surprises.
5. The Politics. – The most exciting democracy, Malaysian style in the world. The Houses of Parliament, London style. The first to the winning post wins even by one vote ! So, Malaysian democracy has been resilient and enduring despite the slow de-compartmentalization of the 3 main races. Since we are not Hitler or Lee Kuan Yew of Singapore, no one really cares. Maybe this is the best course of action for all and let normal sexual activities take their course. Man proposes. God disposes.
6. The Political Parties. – For years the Alliance and later succeeded by the BN as led by the UMNO and 14 component parties administered the country through periodic regular general elections.

The Opposition

After, many years in the BN, 2nd and 3rd rankers broke away to form Opposition parties. Apart from these, there is the PAS, a political party of staid and religious leaders mainly strong in areas in which there is a slower pace of the style of living and the DAP. a sort of sub-branch of the PAP of Singapore. It was formed by the redoubtable atheist Lee Kuan Yew and inspired by him to be in the Opposition to this day, 44 years later. It should make it to the Guinness Book of Records sometime. Not being Communistic or Maoist, the great determination of the DAP leadership to be in Opposition and now an attempt at power makes this party the weakest link in the PR the main Opposition party. DAP recently had to do a recount according to the rules to find out whether a true blue Malay was missed out or not. Then, there is the PKR a party administered by a very rich political family with strong foreign links in the West (the sort of links which misled even the awesome Lee Kuan Yew) and loyal retainers. Like very rich political families in the Indian sub-continent and Asia, these families must always be roiling in politics all the time. These 3 extremist parties with no shadow Cabinet and no Domestic or Foreign Policy are aligned together in a rather loose fashion to make a Don Quixotic tilt at the Putrajaya windmill of power, led by 6 distinguished gentlemen of which 5 are above 63 and the one below is fully occupied into turning the Pearl of the Orient into a shiny and concrete jungle like Singapore. No one told him he should start on the mainland side and not on the island. No reason to ape Singapore. The Komtar is an eyesore sticking out like a sore-thumb ! The specialty in the election campaign of the PR is to attack the sexual peccadilloes and the administrative money scandals of the BN but nothing on how to improve or introduce new measures which are hidden in the hidden hearts of these 3 extremist parties. For the political pundit, all he sees is these 3 strange-bedfellows sharing a bed meant for 2 but have 3 different dreams ! A sort of men'age a' trois !

The PR is no different from the BN as led by the UMNO with 14 component parties. Hence, the former's constant play with sensational magic shows with opaque mirrors and very thick smoke !

The BN and the 14 component parties in the incumbent Government.

There is no necessity to look very far. The UMNO has the legitimacy and by traditional convention to rule because of its long history safeguarding the Malays and co-operated with the non-Malays for the peace, stability and prosperity of this land. The British up to the very end of their Administration were hesitant whether the new Malaya would be a success. It is all history now.

From 1957 to 2013, Malaysia has had 6 democratically elected Prime Minister in comparison to the awesome Lee Kuan Yew of Singapore who is still in Parliament from 1959 ! It must have been either there is no one to match his academic credentials of a starred Double First in Law from the University of Cambridge and probably a Third Class in the Bar Finals London or something else. The DAP has no leader of this world class standard and is willing to play third-fiddle in a quorum of 3 fellows and had not said whether any DAP leader will be the Deputy Prime Minister or the Minister of Finance. Is it too late for the DAP to catch the train ?

If the Malaysian who does not see what the BN as led the UMNO and the 14 component had done for the beloved country, he should be sent to Siberia or Liberia or Timbuktoo !

Vote BN. All Malaysians. Especially the Malaysian Chinese to make this Idiot's Compendium to Malaysian Politics. 2013 Edition. credible !

YABhg Tun,

Nampaknya tulisan Tun kali ini ada bau takut sedikit atau saja nak warning pengundi. Orang Melayu, Cina dan India sekarang ini dah pandai, Tun. Kecuali ada kunci-kunci yang malas dan tak mau kerja. Orang Arab...tak usah cakap lah Tun.. GE 13, Tun BN sapu semua termasuk Pulau Pinang, Selangor dan Kelantan..

Tun, sepatutnya lepas GE 13 ini Tun perlu memainkan peranan penting dalam pentadbiran negara, termasuk alam sekitar, kemiskinan luar bandar, tanah rezab Melayu. hubungan antara kaum dan banyak lagi. Jangan lah Tun terlalu banyak politik lagi. We love you so much for what you done to this country.

Tun, cuba usaha dan cadangkan bagaimana hendak membangunkan tanah rezab Melayu. Zaman pemerintahan Inggeris dulu telah menyediakan tanah rezab kampung untuk buat rumah. Sekarang ini kena tukar jadi residential..lak. Tanah Rizab Melayu boleh jadi aset untuk orang Melayu tapi YAB Najib tak sebut pun Usahakan juga tentang mendapat scientist Melayu. Sudah lama sangat kita bincang Sains dan Teknoji. Mana ada saintists dalam "Pegawi Tadbir dan Diplomatic."

Tun, banyak perkara yang tak boleh selesai, Masalah tanah runtuh, banjir, dadah - di kampung-kampung masalah dadah bermaharajalela. Di bandar-bandar masalah mat rempit pun tak boleh selesai.

Salam Tun.

Mohon maaf; nak mencelah kejab aje. Tak sempat nak singgah lama sebab ada penumpang nak sewa teksi. Lepas tu kena pergi Chow Kit beli pisang untuk jual goreng pisang malam nanti.

Pakcik2 Polo (or short for "Polong?") and amnm,

1. Ngape? Dah boring makan pencen buta ke? Dulu gaji buta; skrg pencen buta... Takkan tak tau apa nak buat skrg kot? Itu lar, dulu masa kerja dgn gomen tak buat apa2 contributions kepada Negara! Hari2 usek bini orang, minum kopi, mesyuarat (minum kopi lagi), sign baucer claim pergi minum kopi, dan pukol 4ptg, balik rumah. Dan kalo hari Jumaat, pergi main golf, and dah malam, KiraOk, tauke belanja...

2. Kalau tak nak pergi masjid, pergi lar ke kebun ke, ladang ke, mana ke? Duit pencen buta kaan ker byk? Takde kalo, pergi jer lar main golf. Bole jumpa rakan2 seperjuangan. Bole cerita "your glory days..." Buat apa nak menyebok di dalam blog Tun ni?

3. Sebagai org Islam yg dah tua, takkan tak tau nak insaf lagi kot? Takkan asyik nak mengutuk org lain aje kot? Dulu masa kojepun asyik ngutuk org, takkan sampai lar ni pun tak insaf lagi?. Dah cermin diri ker?

4. Kalau Allah SWT tak redhakan kepimpinan Tun dulu, beliau takkan boleh bertahan lebih 22 tahun. Bandingkanlah beliau dengan hero pakcik2 berdua si kaki tido penjahanam Pak Lah tu.

5. Ini Negara Islam yang gilang gemilang yg cuma setanding dengan kegemilangan era Mustafa Attaturk, Turki. Tak boleh ker tumpang megah dan musabahah diri tu sikit kot? Dulu kenapa tak letak jawatan kalo tak sehaluan dengan pentadbiran Tun? Ngape? Sebab pasti pakcik2 berdua takkan dpt koje mcm masa tu di mana2kan, terutamanya sekali di sykt2 swasta kan? Mana nak cari koje yg tak pyh buat apa2 tapi sampai waktu, pangkat naik. Oh ya tak ya juga! Mcmmana nak letak jawatan? Anak2 bodoh semua. Kalo tak masuk universiti, heboh pulak satu kampung! Jai? Kena lar gunakan "leverage" rakan2 seperjuangan... Takde kalo, varsity mana yg nak ambik anak2 pakcik berdua yang bodoh2 tu kan? Tak malu ker bila tgk anak2 hari yg dah maju dan berjaya semata-mata atas dasar tipu dan potong peluang anak2 org lain yg lebih berkelayakan?

6. Ape? Ingat "Arab2 Springs" tu berjaya ker? Buat lar analisa sikit. Ingat pak arab2 bodoh tu tak menyesal ker hari ini? Dulu hidup senang lenang dan aman damai tapi hari ini hidup kucar kacir dan huru hara! Mcmmana bole jadi mcm ini skrg? Sebabnya? Kerana Allah SWT tak meredhakan perbuatan2 mereka! Takkan tak peraasan kot yg keadaan sedemikian telah berlaku sejak zaman Rasullullah SAW lagi? Tak guna lar tonggang terbalik sembahyang lima kali sehari kalo tak percaya dengan ketentuan Allah SWT...

Sekian. Have to go, Tun. Nanti takut pisang habis pulak. Wassalam.

P.s.

If any mayhem is to befall on Malaysia arising from the desperation by a sex maniac called Anwar, blame the judges that freed him from prison for his liwat 1.0 clear-cut guilt, and that acquitted him for his liwat 2.0 indictment!!!

Many judges rose from the ranks of liar lawyers, and there are crook judges in the likes of Ian Chin, and plenty judges are under Anwar's payroll, and a few judges that are really not qualified by lobbying to become one!!!

To think the IRRATIONAL when a mechanic was sentenced with the lightest of punishment imaginable for raping a minor!

To ponder why Anwar was given the unconditional freedom after TEN judges were in full concurrence that ANWAR RAPED SEVERAL MEN!!!

For Ian Chin to declare as 'brainwashing' the government's attempt to install patriotism and togetherness through the "boot camp" after being bought by agents of budak KJ!

I will not be surprised if Anwar appoint that oversize ambiga and the gangster chee wee to become judges if given the chance!!!

The next time IF Anwar is to be given a guilty verdict, he will simply accuse the Malaysian judiciary is biased!

For Mr HBT630. Even though you make a fool of yourself all over, this gives you no mileage because no one knows who you are. So you are a non-starter from the very beginning and not taken seriously. At best, you must have escaped from some fenced up place, at worst, you are just embedded in this distinguished Blog to make monkey mischief. Have some nuts, boy !

Sibotak,

Lu suka tarak suka Anwar, itu lu punya pasal.

Orang miskin macam you yang dengki orang kaya Kelantan mca Tengku Razaleigh, mereka boleh datang ke sini beli rumah, buat bisness kat sini.

Orang miskin macam you dengki orang kaya Kelantan mca Zaid Ibrahim, beliau boleh pergi ke Singaupura beli rumah, buat bisness kat sini.

Biarlah Anwar yang jaga you lah kat Pematang Pauh.

Apabila dah cerai, nanti hari rusuhan besar-besaran antara UMNO dan PAS yang sibotak inginkan sangat boleh berlaku di tempat asal Anwar kat Pematang Pauh lah sampai bila2 masa pun boleh.

Nasaruddin diceraikan PAS, biarlah Ali Rustam dan Sir Mubarak Chan yang jaga dia.

HOW CAN I & MY FAMILY, MY NEIGHBOR, & MY FREIND
VOTE FOR ANWAR
HE REFLECTS HIS ARROGANT & WEAKNESS BY HAVING THREAT TO OUR NATIONS

HE HAS TO ENSURE THE VOTING COMMITTEE HAS THE RIGHT CLEAR SYSTEM
OF VOTE
ENSURE OF ANOTHER THIRD PARTY IF THERE IS DOUBTS

EVEN IF HE IS ANNOUNCE A LOSER
IT,S ANY PARTY RIGHT TO ASK FOR RECOUNT TO HAVE THE RIGHT OF DOUBTS

HE HAS TO STAND RIGHT NOT THREATENING THE NATIONS
WE NOW LIVE IN HARMONY
ONCE IT STARTED IT,S ALL GONE

SO WHAT IF HE WINS
IS IT AN INDICATIONS THAT THE ELECTION COMMITTEE IS CLEAN ?

IN RECENT SINGAPORE VOTES
EVEN WITH 3 OPPOSITION THAT BREAKS THE OPPOSITION VOTES WORKERS PARTY STILL WINS
THAT IS AN INDICATIONS THE PEOPLE WANTS A CHANGE
DOES THAT MEANS THAT THE OPPOSITIONS IS CHEATING

ANWAR HAS TO EARN THE PUBLIC RESPECT
NOT THREATENING THE PUBLIC
RESPECT HAS TO BE EARNED

HE HAS SHOWN HIS TRUE COLORS
HOW CAN I VOTE FOR SUCH A LEADER
WHEN VOTING IS NOT ON YET
HE HAS ADMIT DEFEAT

HE HAS NOT RULED YET HE HAS THREATENED

Ketua UMNO di Kelantan, cuba sebarkan berita ini dan tanya orang Kelantan kat kampung sana dan kampung sini mahu PM Najib ceraikan Kelantan dari Malaysia?

Kalau mahu, suruh mereka undi lah PAS.

Kalimah Allah is abused by by PAS due to DENGKI orang kaya macam Kerabat to bikin anak aja, rakyat Malaysia bukan Muslim pun kena bela anak2 Kelantan yang sedang berkerja di tempat aku.

Tak dabat bersama, ceraikan lah PAS seperti apa yang telah dibuat oleh Tunku Abdul Rahman to serve other who are willing to pay taxes to Federal Government.

Kelantanese needs issue their own IC, Passport in order to apply visa and passport in order to work in other states.

Kalau macam ini, kerja BN akan lebih senang dan selesa.

Tak cukup orang kerja di Malaysia?

Takpa, kita boleh import tenaga asing dari negara lain.

Then we see, will PKR and DAP support PAS?

He is right.

Kalimah Allah memang tidak sesuai untuk kaum bukan Muslim PAS.

Why?

To PAS, Kalimah Allah is a way of life to give freedom to men to marry 4 wives in Golok tanpa pengetahuan bini-bini mereka.

When women more than men, PAS will be controlled by women.

Therefore, PAS can keep "Kalimah Allah" in Kelantan there forever.

Tun,

This man is a cheat and a liar. A mistake that youve made by appointing him as your DPM.

Another mistake that youve made is appointing a nitwit to be your DPM instead of Najib.

This nitwit opens the flood gates of this county to the so call liberals, chinese chauvinism, racism, ungratefull immigrants dan religious extremism.

If Najib is made as your DPM, Malaysia may not be as chaotic as it is today.A mistake that Najib made as PM is to abolished the ISA, a preventive law that (if not abuse as happens during Abdullah administrations by detaining a journalist) is good for the country.

Only the ISA will keep the cheat and the liar and those that like to create mischiefs in check and put them behind the bars so that peace loving Malaysian can live happily in this country.

Salam Tun.

Tun,

Malaysian Spring ? Arab Spring ?

I thought we had Malay Spring a long, long time ago during the interregnum period after the end of the World War II on 15 August 1945. This bit of history of the Malays' and the Royal Sultans' in opposition to the Malayan Union proposed by the Labour Party led by the Prime Minister of Great Britain, Clement Attlee, formed the watershed of Malay and eventual Malaysian politics to this day. Because of this, all Malaysians should stand proud with our Malay compatriots to weather all storms to come.

No country or leader has ever tried to expunge the history of a nation even by the most audacious leader. There have been attempts but these never succeeded.

The proposed Malayan Union gave equal rights to all the inhabitants of Malaya.

This effectively put all the Malays dispossessed in their own homeland and all the immigrants at an advantage both politically and socio-economically. At least, the Chinese immigrants if permitted, carried Chinese passports. Those were the times under British colonialism. The Malayan Union would have been eventually fatal to all of us as proven in many parts of the world which once belonged to the British Empire. However, there were wise men on both sides of the divide who eventually tried their very best to tailor fit a disparate political scene (which was under the constant threat of Communist insurgency) to propose the Federation of Malaya, 1950. The result of this was the apparent acceptance of general terms and the formulation of the Constitution which forms the living bulwark of the Nation today. Like India but without the Partition, Malaysia through its wise men have become resilient and enduring. And as one, we Malaysians must always remember how we came into being and that we were not born out of a rock. And we owe much to our forefathers.

But for anyone to say that the history of our beloved country only began with him or her, one can only say that it is egotism at its best !

The whole mosaic fabric of a Nation does not rest with just one person. It takes in all the roles of everyone rich or poor, smart or ordinary, agile or slow and so forth to form a human Society. Once, a Society only looks up towards an exclusive 1% elite at the expense of the rest, it is courting trouble which might not be apparent at hand but will do so in the future when solutions to resolve this will be too late – the failure of genius at the top ! This is self-serving at its ugliest !

In many advanced societies, the future leaders to rule are carefully groomed and selected within certain parameters, the wider the range the better.

In India, at least one area is set aside to be the Silicon Valley of Education. This is the verdant plateau of Dehra Dun with the brooding Himalaya overlooking it. The hill-station, Mussoorie, situated along this mountain ridge, also houses schools and colleges for the young and some were founded as early as 1839 ! None of these institutions of higher learning were denigrated but in fact were improved and built-upon since the British left in 1947. The famous Doon School where the ruling elite of India were educated, is located in Dehra Dun. This is one of India's best hidden assets. There are other well-known establishments in New Delhi, Bangalore and Bombay.

Great nations have always produced great leaders to lead them in times of peace and war ! History has never forgotten them. Please take note. Rich men of all nations disappeared into the mists of history. No one remembered them !

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. Let us all take part in producing and making the real history of our beloved Nation called, Malaysia !

As Salam.

YTH Tun,

After all's been said and done dear Tun, your rather long harangue unfortunately did not lend to shed any new insights of your self-created nemesis. With utmost apologies to you, as one whom i used to dearly regard as the greatest Malaysian statesman ever, i honestly find your writing this time around rather lame and whinny-like; definitely not befitting your former stature.

Where has the man who stared down the likes of Al Gore, our exalted Kings, Chief Justices made former and countless others gone to? Where is that man who stood invincible sneering upon the laws of the land and ruled with impunity? Instead, what we've now resignedly grown to accept is nothing more than a mere shade of one most mighty of man, reduced to belligerent rantings and espousing continuous ridiculously delusional lies – regrettable attributes of a has-been bullying loser long past relevance.

Simply amazing how a man could fall so low and be so .. cheap.

The least you could do now is to make your peace and accept one real consistency in life – you reap what you sow – and cut your loses, period. The end is near my dear Tun, repent and may God have mercy on your soul.

Chedet, according to Radio Australia website, this is what Anwar said:-

"Opposition Leader Anwar Ibrahim is confident of victory.

"I am convinced, Inshallah (God willing), that we will win government," Anwar told AFP, evoking the winds of change that powered the "Arab Spring" elsewhere in the Muslim world.

"Of course we call it a 'Malaysian Spring', but our method is elections (not uprisings)."

So doesnt this seem to conflict the gist in your article???

Wah hebatnya Anwar...sampai Tun Mahathir pun takut kat dia.

Mungkin sebab tu Tun ambik dia join UMNO masa dulu.Dia pandai berpidato, pandai mengumpul orang ramai dan banyak lagi la pandai dia...

Saya pun tak pandai nak kawal Arab Spring...tapi dulu ada brother (masa saya bermusafir ke negeri orang) cakap saya ada darah ulama dan panglima.

Bagaimana dia tahu? tengok tapak tangan je la...saya pun tak percaya sangat.

Camana nak tengok? Berdiri lebih kurang 3,4 meter pastu angkat tangan tangan macam angkat sumpah.Apa yang dia tengok tak tahu la...

Uncle mamak yang selalu mabuk (masa saya bermusafir ke negeri orang) pun cakap lebih kurang begitu...apa yang dia nampak entah la...(sebelum saya cabut lari dari rumah dia).

Tukang mabuk di tepi jalanan (tempat negeri saya) pun cakap lebih kurang macam tu....

Agak-agaknya semua orang mabuk nampak yang bukan-bukan...halusinasi agaknya...

Dah mabuk tentulah bermimpi nak jadi Perdana Menteri.

Best sangat ke jadi Perdana Menteri?

Tun

As an observer of the good and the great in Malaysian politics since October 1951, I have come to the conclusion that for a person to be suitable for the job of being the Prime Minister of Malaysia, he should qualify for the following Golden Attributes, no more, no less :-

1. Commonsense. For example, a deputy or vice-president should be loyal and obey the Boss.
2. The Ability to Think out of the Box. He or she should not be a copy-cat but visionary, innovative, creative and original if the face of the most determined detractors.
3. Compassion. I have always said our Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad has too much of this home-grown stuff. I suppose if he has not, he would not have qualified as a good doctor !

Vote BN. All Malaysians especially the Malaysian Chinese. I leave the above for all to chew over during the long Chinese New Year holidays, snake-wise !

Agree this will be scenario.

Sad indeed if this scenario plays out for then it show the quality of the Malaysian conscience.

Arguments Opposition has won so many states and their methods will destroy economy good strong points but not the essence of the BN campaign!

Mr Anwar evidently capable of great seduction and his methods should be taken seriously.

Police/Army/civil service should be allowed to their civilian roles properly without being emasculated further by being abducted into the BN's political campaign. Where is their leadership role? If people or rather groups of people dont respect laws, then what bounds?

Why so difficult for Malay leadership to assert itself? Where is the conscience?

How we going to face the world with an emasculated conscience?

The bounds betwween an emasculated and humanitarian concience is a difficult one but draw a line and take sides we must in our affairs.

Dear Tun,

I totally agree with your portray of Anwar Ibrahim.

""17. After he joined the Government there was no serious demonstration for 16 years. Once he was out of the Government there were weekly demonstrations.

18. His obsession with becoming Prime Minister will drive him to create an "Arab Spring" so that his ambition would become a reality. To him, it does not matter if the country is destabilised and regresses economically as long as he gets to be Prime Minister.""

Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim is an expert or KING of street demonstration. He has charisma and fearless. He can speak very well and he is a crowd puller. When I was in the University Malaya in 1970, almost every Saturday he led student demonstration starting from the speaker corner in front of the library and walked towards the gate at Jalan Pantai to a show down with FRU.

I agree with Tun. He would do anything in order to be Prime Minister. He is willing to compromise on Special Privileges of the Bumiputra, islam, collude and conspire with DAP and anything to achieve his career objective of Prime Ministership. Datuk Seri Najib has a tough and hard competitor. PRU 13 is tough for BARISAN NASIONAL.

Salam Tun.

1. Thank you, Pak Lah!

2. This is a given. ABI is seizing this opportunity to per-empt PK loses in the upcoming GE13. What with all those "successful Arab Springs" why not jump on the bandwagon? This is money, and opportunity does not strike twice!

3. DSN must call for election now! The longer he waits, the more trouble he would bring himself into. Forget about those "vote buying" initiatives. In this 21st Century, the catch phrase is, "You give, we take!" After all, whose asking? Alas, our current generation. They do not have the feeling of gratification, and social media is "GOD!"

4. The best defense is offense, and not the other way. Come what may, "Man proposes. God disposes." Let us take them on, now! Life has to go on. Do not listen to those who just want to keep their jobs (and new found wealth) longer! Be a man. You have been chosen by Allah SWT to be our leader. Proof it to us that you are a capable leader. Julius Ceaser died in the hand of his trusted allies!

5. DSN, let us go already!

Thank you, Tun. Wassalam.
