1. Kerajaan Malaysia akan membenteng tiga rang undang-undang (Bill) bagi mengganti Akta Hasutan 1948, demikian janji Perdana Menteri. Akta Hasutan dianggap tidak sesuai dengan keadaan zaman dan dasar keterbukaan Malaysia.

2. Apakah rang undang-undang yang akan dijadikan pengganti kepada Akta Hasutan?
Dibawah diperturunkan nama-nama akta berkenaan:-

- 1) National Harmony Bill
- 2) National Unity Bill
- 3) National Unity and Integration Commission Bill

3. National Unity Bill dan National Harmony Bill bertujuan menghapuskan dasar pemilihan berasas kepada agama, bangsa, keturunan, tempat lahir, jantina atau ketidakupayaan dan lain-lain yang berkenaan.

4. Malaysia adalah negara berbilang kaum dan bangsa.

5. Di Malaysia kita kekalkan bangsa asal kita, bahasa dan budaya kita, sekolah kita, bahkan universiti kita. Susulan dari itu kita tinggal di tempat-tempat berasingan, amalan cara hidup dan kegiatan kita juga berbeza dan berasingan. Dalam bidang perniagaan masing-masing mempunyai network sendiri berasas kepada kaum/bangsa, bahasa dan budaya. Sistem "guild" atau kesatuan jenis perniagaan tertutup kepada orang lain.

6. Pencapaian masing-masing kaum/bangsa juga berbeza dengan kaum Cina mendahului kaum India dan Melayu dan kaum India sedikit sebanyak mendahului kaum Melayu.

7. Keadaan terpisahnya kaum/bangsa dan pencapaian kaum/bangsa yang tidak sama tidak membolehkan penyatuan dan harmoni di kalangan mereka dengan mudah. Kerana kaum/bangsa tidak boleh dihapuskan percubaan dibuat melalui DEB untuk mengurangkan jarak pemisahan antara mereka dalam bidang ekonomi.

8. Dasar Ekonomi Baru dibentuk bertujuan untuk mengurangkan jarak perpisahan antara kaum ini. Untuk ini perlu ada diskriminasi untuk satu kaum yang ketinggalan mengejar kaum lain. Apabila National Harmony Bill dilulus maka DEB tidak boleh dilaksanakan lagi. Ini bermakna negara akan amal meritokrasi – iaitu mereka yang mempunyai merit atau kebolehan tertinggi akan dapat segala-galanya. Biasiswa, tempat dalam universiti Kerajaan, kontrak, peluang kerja dan bermacam lagi akan diperolehi berasas merit. Di luar Kerajaan segala-galanya sudah pun didapati oleh mereka yang memiliki merit.

9. Memanglah ini amat adil. Tetapi besar kemungkinan kaum yang miskin, yang kerananya tidak berpeluang atau tidak memiliki persekitaran untuk belajar, pergi ke sekolah swasta yang baik dengan yuran tinggi, tidak cukup makan, kurang sihat, terlantar di rumah sekejap-sekejap, kaum ini tidak dapat memenuhi syarat, tidak memiliki merit untuk mendapat apa-apa. Mungkin mereka tidak pun dipanggil untuk ditemuduga.

10. Kerana keadilan sistem merit yang miskin (bumi) akan terus miskin dan yang kaya akan lebih kaya.

11. Di Eropah di zaman industri, yang kaya memiliki semua perusahaan dan yang miskin bekerja sebagai kuli. Tidak ada peluang sama sekali bagi kuli yang miskin menjadi kaya, kerana tidak ada pelajaran dan tidak ada modal, tidak memiliki merit.

12. Ini bukan kerana diskriminasi. Kuli sebenarnya tidak ada merit, justeru itu mereka tetap tinggal sebagai kuli. Yang kaya memperoleh merit maka mereka tetap kaya dan menjadi lebih kaya.

13. Akhirnya kuli mengadakan kesatuan sekerja, mengadakan mogok dan bermacam tindakan perusahaan, kedudukan mereka menjadi lebih baik dan mereka berpeluang untuk mengejar ilmu dan kecekapan, kekayaan dan kejayaan. Wah! Rupa-rupanya mereka ada kebolehan, mereka yang tidak ada merit dahulu, apabila berpeluang jelas mereka ada merit dan mampu menjadi pengusaha dan majikan.

14. Kalau tidak kerana kuasa kesatuan sekerja dan mogok, potensi dan merit yang ada pada kuli tidak akan menjadi nyata.

15. Jika kita ambil iktibar, maka jelaslah yang kurang merit pun jika diberi peluang akan memiliki merit dan berjaya. Jika kita hapuskan diskriminasi yang memihak kepada yang tidak ada merit dan terus utamakan yang sudah ada merit maka tidak adalah yang kurang merit yang akan berjaya.

16. Memusnahkan diskriminasi berasas kaum atau bangsa akan menjadikan kita semua sama – sama sebagai warganegara. Tetapi ia akan kekalkan ketidaksaan dan ketidakadilan yang sedia ada.

17. Baru-baru ini ada tokoh yang mendakwa keadaan di Malaysia amat buruk kerana amalan kronisma dan pilihkasih iaitu diskriminasi yang memihak kepada satu pihak. Oleh itu ia tidak ingin berniaga di sini. Apakah dia dilahir cukup kaya untuk pergi berniaga di negara yang tidak ada kronisma atau apakah dianya mengumpul modal yang banyak dari Negara ini dahulu sebelum dapat pergi ke luar negara untuk menikmati meperintahan tanpa diskriminasi. Kita tahu Negara ini yang begitu buruklah yang memberi peluang kepadanya mengumpul modal yang banyak untuk ke Negara lain. Jika dia dapat peluang, salahkah jika orang lain juga diberi peluang di negara yang kurang baik ini supaya dapat sedikit nikmat dari yang banyak yang sudah dinikmati oleh tokoh ini?

18. Peluang ini bagi kaum/bangsa yang ketinggalan tidak mungkin datang melainkan ada diskriminasi berasas kaum. Cadangan untuk rang undang-undang yang akan dibentangkan oleh Perdana Menteri bukan akan menghasilkan persamaan (equality) atau keadilan. Ia akan mengekalkan ketidaksaan dan ketidakadilan yang terdapat sekarang.

19. Sesungguhnya rang undang-undang ini akan hapuskan saki-baki dari usaha mengimbangkan ekonomi antara kaum.

Salam Tun,

kalau tak silap saya, ada blogger yang pernah melempar tuduhan bahawa Tun semasa menjadi PM telah “empowered the Chinese economy at the expense of Malay political hegemony” dengan dasar ekonomi Tun yang banyak menguntungkan usahawan Cina.

Mungkin benar apa yang dikatakan beliau, kerana kita sendiri lihat sekarang bagaimana kekuasaan politik Melayu semakin tertekan dengan kesombongan para “self-made” billionaire Cina seperti Francis Yeoh dan yang sealiran dengannya yang mungguna kuasa wang untuk membuli kerajaan yang telah menghadiahkan mereka terlalu banyak konsesi niaga.

As the Laws deal with human beings and are not as dead as a dodo, the latest reported utterings by a clever Chinaman who is so very clever as to be so very stupid, make me wonder how these remarks fit into the 3 new Bills eg. The National Harmony Bill ; The National Unity Bill ; The Unity and Integration Bill.

His alleged remarks as reported in a pro-Opposition Blog today are as follows :-

” For example in Singapore, we OWN a third of Singapore’s electiricity, THERE IS NO SUBSIDY OF ANY KIND, THERE IS NO CRONYISM OF ANY TYPE ”

This clever Chinaman's very first MONOPOLY IS SUBSIDISED BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT OF MALAYSIA TO THE EXTENT OF 22% GUARANTEED PROFIT WHICH IS WAY ABOVE THE 12% UNGUARANTEED GROSS PROFIT RECOGNIZED WORLD WIDE.

HOW DID THIS CLEVER CHINAMAN CON THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO GIVE HIM SUCH ABSURD TERMS ? The most absurd is our Rakyat's hard-earned money through sweat, toil and tears subsidised this ungrateful recipient of a largesse which HE IN TURN WITHOUT REMORSE SUBSIDISED CASH STRAPPED SINGAPORE, AUSTRALIA AND THE UNITED KINGDOM with money which should have stayed in our beloved land !

And he willingly accepted non-guaranteed low unsubsidised profits for all his overseas investments. To top off his cleverness, he TOLD THE PEMANDU CROWD WE ARE ALL STUPID FOOLS !

And his next alleged remark is the ICING ON THIS CAKE OF HUMAN INGRATITUDE, eg.

" THE GOOD THING ABOUT THESE COUNTRIES IS I DON'T HAVE TO KOW-TOW TO THE PRIME MINISTER. "

With such remarks, this ungratefu tycoon wants MORE MALAYSIAN MONOPOLIES because he strongly believes we Malaysiana are all stupid fools.

Of course, the foreign Prime Ministers did not KOW-TOW TO HIM SINCE HE IS SUBSIDIZING THEIR LOSING CONCERNS WITH OUR RAKYAT'S HARD-EARNED MONEY AND NO ONE ELSE WAS INTERESTED !

What this smart Chinaman did not tell us is that THE THREE FOREIGN PRIME MINISTERS KOW-TOWED TO HIM !

Our Dewan Rakyat should request the Federal Government to review all the MONOPOLIES ACQUIRED BY THIS VERY CLEVER CHINAMAN TO CONFORM WITH THE NORMAL WORLD to show we practise

" SOVEREIGNTY, NATIONAL INTEREST, SELF-ESTEEM." In other words, the Government conforms to what this very clever Chinaman wants us to do which he said openly.

[What we have here are anti-Muslim propagandas saying all sort of distorted bad things and issues to the Malay Muslims]

Dear Mr Tanggang.

Do you remember?

Or I wish to draw your attention towards what the kafirian namely musyrikin demanded Rasullulah s.a.w.It was dare's and challenges.

'Muhammad jika kamu orang yang benar buatlah begini..

'Muhammad buatlah begini..

Dan yang paling hebat cabarannya ialah..

'Muhammad kamu belahlah bulan itu'..

This is a degree of challenges.

All depended on Allah allowance.

Yet.What is the outcome of those who dared?

Yes as mention in Al An Am.

“Jika kamu mengikuti kehendak kebanyakan manusia,nescaya mereka menyesatkan kamu dari jalan Allah.Mereka tidak lain hanyalah berdusta”.

In another verse..

“Mereka memperkatakan di mulut..Apa yang tidak di hati”.

It perplexs me to no end that we tries to follow kafirian conduct and demand.

Trying to measures up to their standard of approval.

Muslimin needs only one standard of approval.

That is from Allah.

Thank you.

Terima kasih Tun.

Salam,

Sebelum nak bagi adil tanpa mengira kaum, kerajaan dah pantau samada di pihak swasta berlaku adil kepada kaum bumi??

1. Diperingkat antarabangsa berapa banyak negara tuduh Malaysia tak adil kepada kaum bukan bumi?
2. Kalau tak adil bagaimana kaum bukan bumi boleh berhijrah ke negara lain. Majoriti dapat pendidikan di sekolah di Malaysia. Berapa puluh juta telah dilaburkan untuk pendidikan. Belum cerita yang lain2 lagi

Ada terlalu banyak kalau nak dipersoalkan ketidakadilan kaum ini.

1. UMNO

Ingatlah UMNO masih hidup sebab ada nama Melayu. Masih ramai orang Melayu masih menaruh harapan terhadap UMNO membela nasib depa. Kalau dah tak ada keistimewaan Melayu atau bumiputera lagi maka nak buat apa undi UMNO lagi?

Adakah dengan meluluskan akta2 yang disebut Tun Mahathir diatas dapat mengembalikan undi rakyat Malaysia kepada BN? Jawapannya TIDAK. Kaum asing boleh terima DEB sekiranya peluang perniagaan dibesarkan kat depa juga.

2. Bagaimana nak kembalikan sokongan rakyat Malaysia kepada BN

Bagi saya tiada cara lain kecuali PAS masuk BN. Bila PAS masuk BN kuasa orang Melayu sangat kuat. Maka bukan bumi tiada pilihan kecuali pilih MCA, MIC, Gerakan dan lain2 parti bawah BN untuk survival.

Tapi apa kan daya orang Melayu tak boleh bersatu pada hal dua2 beragama Islam. Duk ajar budak2 sekolah “Bersatu kita tegoh bercerai kita roboh” dan “Orang Islam itu bersaudara”. Tapi bila praktikal tak amalkan. Hang UMNO aku PAS. Hang buat don't know aku libas. Dari zaman dulu, kini dan harap bukan selamanya orang melayu asyik nak bergaduh. Dulu Lebai lawan songkok. Sekarang dua2 dah tak de Lebai dan tak de Songkok. Kepala botak yg ramai.

Boleh tak PAS dan UMNO bincang baik2 demi masa hadapan umat Melayu dan Islam. Tak takut wahai pemimpin2 UMNO dan PAS yg hang pa nak kena soal di akhirat setiap perbuatan hang pa sebagai pemimpin di Malaysia. Apa yg UMNO dan PAS duk cium ketiak MCA dan DAP masing2. Regu apa tu?

2. MCA

Berdasarkan merit, saya tak setuju langsung MCA ada wakil dalam kabinet. Depa tak lulus periksa PRU dan PRK Kajang. Depa tak pass periksa . Dapat 'F' .

Tok Najib jangan ingat ada kabinet dari MCA maka dapat undi kaum Cina. tak lak. Teluk Intan dijanjikan pembangunan. Highway dan lain boleh merancak ekonomi kawasan. Kebanyakan kaum Cina kalau tak ada wakil dalam kabinet pun tak apa. Yang penting apa kebanyakan kaum Cina dapat.

Begitu juga orang Melayu, depa sokong PKR dann PAS bukan krana sebab Islam sangat kot. Tu tanya depa betui2. Yg betui2 kerana Islam mungkin sikit saja. Yg majoriti tu tak kot.

Mungkin depa rasa UMNO bagi tahi hidung masin saja kepada orang Melayu kecuali kroni. Pada hal Datuk Seri Anwar janji emas dan kesenangan melimpah2 kpd semua. kroni tak payah cerita dulu la ye.

Kenapa Datuk Seri Anwar popular ?Janji, janji, janji kesenangan kemewahan.Yg tu Melayu nak. Kerja sikit duit berlipat ganda.

Dato Najib kena lah lantik penasihat yang betul2 pakar dalam bidang masing2 .

Setakat ini dulu. Saya memohon maaf jika bunyi kasar sebab baru keluar dari peti ais.

Today there appears a report in an Opposition Blog that all those who oppose the 3 new Bills to promote Unity, Harmony and the Creation of the Commission to govern and implement are afraid. This is the normal and usual Opposition tactic to misinform by attacking on a personal and abusive basis. IT IS NOT THAT THOSE WHO SEE THE NEGATIVITY IN THESE THREE BILLS ARE AFRAID, IT IS BECAUSE THERE ARE ALREADY IMPORTANT PRECEDENTS THAT SUCH LAWS WILL FAIL WITH SADNESS AND TEARS FROM THE FOLLOWING FEW IMPORTANT EXAMPLES :-

1. THE FAILURE OF THE SINGAPORE ELITE TO FURTHER THEIR EXCLUSIVE RULE ON 99% OF THE POPULACE THROUGH THE PROMULGATION OF THE LAWS SINCE 1959 EVEN WITH THE PERSONAL TOUCH OF ITS LEADER WHO IS AN EXPERT IN THE LAWS.

2. THE FAILURE OF LIBYA AFTER THE TRAGIC REMOVAL OF GHADAFFI. Libya was supposed to be democratic and inclusive with the new Laws in place. This did not happen. It is death and destruction all over again.

3. THE FAILURE OF IRAQ AFTER THE TRAGIC REMOVAL OF SADDAM HUSSEIN. Iraq was supposed to be democratic and inclusive with the new Laws in place. This did not happen. It is death and destruction all over again.

4. INCLUSIVITY THROUGH THE HUMAN TOUCH WAS IGNORED IN THESE 3 COUNTRIES, SINGAPORE, LIBYA AND IRAQ.

Tony Blair now claims that the present turmoil in Iraq is due to the Syrian events and not due to the invasion of Iraq in 2003 with the excuse of Weapons of Mass Destruction. History will judge him.

With the aforementioned points, we must take into account that those who keep on a course of determined agitation and trouble-making to create not only dissent but chaos, cannot escape likely even they do so thinking they have prepared a safe haven overseas for themselves. As Winston S. Churchill once said, ‘ SPARE THE ROD AND SPOIL THE CHILD.’

We must all remember our beloved Malaysia has had a long period of peace, harmony and prosperity without these 3 new Bills which serve no useful purpose whatsoever but to give the opportunists to create trouble and maybe deaths and destruction for the very first time in this peaceful land.

Salam Tun.

This is another book review by Jess C Scott about the ever hungry little shark called ikan yu and his most & ever obedient shoal.

Book Review: Once A Jolly Hangman

By Jess C Scott

The contents of this well-researched book were so depraved and disturbing, that it took me several weeks to (1) finish reading the book in its entirety, and (2) gather my thoughts about it in order to write a cohesive review.

I would have thought that the book was a work of fiction were it not for the ‘non-fiction’ label at the back of the book in the print version.

Back in 2013, former ISD director Mr. Yoong Siew Wah mentioned “the callousness of the Singapore government” on his blog.

This callous and insensitive aspect that is completely lacking in any compassion for humanity, is certainly apparent in Once A Jolly Hangman. The title alone points to the bizarre nature of the system, where the macabre act of hanging a human being is undertaken with joy as if it were a festive occasion and cause for celebration.

Perhaps the most morbid fact mentioned is the “Death Row Diet.”

As it says in the book, “Beyond the walls of Changi Prison hanged prisoners’ organs are worth tens of thousands of dollars each.”

As if this fact of profiting from dead prisoners’ bodies were not deplorable enough, the prisoners on death row who sign the consent form to donate their organs for transplant or research are put on a special regime known as the Death Row Diet. This diet consists of high-quality, nutritious food to “ensure the organs are in perfect condition for transplant after they are hanged.”

Is this not a form of ultimate exploitation of human life, where one profits handsomely from the dead and forgotten?

The other thoroughly disgusting component of the book has to do with the racial bias of the elites. The author, Alan Shadrake, structures the book around several real-life accounts to show how people with money and the right connections have the means to prevent themselves from being executed by the state. If you're poor, uneducated, or of an undesirable race (or, to phrase it a little better, your skin colour is not the right one), yours is the "pitiful, hopeless situation" where even the innocent may end up being executed.

Alan Shadrake went to jail because of this book — for contempt by scandalising the court. A scandal can be defined as an action or event regarded as morally or legally wrong and causing general public outrage. How is the author scandalising the court when his book is based on scandalous facts?

What Alan Shadrake did with this book was to give the deceased a human face, since their lives weren't worth anything to the Singapore authorities (apart from what could be gained from their organs, post-mortem). This further highlights the hypocrisy of Changi Prison's motto.

I didn't even know Changi Hilton — I mean, Changi Prison — had a motto until reading this book. That motto is:

"Captains of Lives: Rehab, Renew, Restart."

From their own website:

"RENEW is a commitment an inmate makes to change his/her life for the better. Through the CARE Network, our offenders are given opportunities to restart their lives."

Renew? Restart? Tell that to the families of Flor Contemplacion, Angel Mou Pui-Peng, Amara Tochi, Shanmugam Murugesu (a Tamil Singaporean former jet ski champion and army regular), Nguyen Van Tuong, Vignes Mourthi, and countless others who were executed in Singapore for being at the wrong place at the wrong time, without the riches or powerful connections to help them out of their dire situation. Or to the family members of Huizuan with regard to her tragic death in Changi Women's Prison in 2011, which could have been avoided if more care had been shown by the prison staff in her medical condition before her death.

What is even worse is that Changi Prison sends out a letter to the families of the individual on death row informing them of when the execution will take place — a letter which has that same motto emblazoned on the bottom of the page.

This was truly one of the most despicable and morbid books I've ever read. It reveals a darker side which the authorities would likely prefer to keep hidden beneath the country's veneer of justice, cleanliness and efficiency.

Singapore Politics

Book Review: Beyond Suspicion

By Jess C Scott

Towards the end of Once a Jolly Hangman, Alan Shadrake shares some details about his arrest in Singapore. There is one paragraph where he says:

“Was I in danger of being arrested? I consulted well-known Singaporean Francis T. Seow, a former president of the Law Society. His advice: as long as it's all correct, you have nothing to fear.”

We can thus hold Francis Seow to his word, in the sense that the research in his book, Beyond Suspicion? is based on facts, not fiction. This was yet another book that I would have thought was a tragicomical political movie script or novel, had I not already been familiar with some of the well-known, real life members of the cast.

As the former solicitor-general of Singapore, Francis T. Seow was one of LKY's right-hand men — the top man after the attorney general (the attorney general being the principal legal officer who represents a country in legal proceedings and gives legal advice to the government).

The publication's core strength lies in Francis Seow's references to a complete set of court documents to present his points. That this book is written in a vibrant, intellectually lively style makes it both an educational and entertaining read. For example, Francis Seow doesn't simply use the word "corrupted" to describe Singapore politics — he describes it as "a dirty gladiatorial game [that's] also dangerous."

No time is wasted with giving the reader a bit of background information on Yong Pung How ("an old crony from Lee's college days"), who became the chief justice of Singapore in 1990. This happened despite the fact that Yong never actually practiced law in Singapore. To paraphrase an insider's quote, "no judge [in Singapore] who values his rice bowl" would dare go against his political masters' expectations when it comes to political court cases.

Amnesty International underscored the "notoriety of Lee and his government's use of defamation laws to stifle the opposition via compliant courts." Garry Rodin, Director of the Asia Research Centre from 2002-2009, wrote about "the PAP's manic desire to crush the slightest semblance of serious scrutiny" in his blurb on the back cover of the book. These quotes further illustrate the extent of the politicization of the judiciary.

Even when armed with this knowledge, the reader will still come across an array of mind-boggling dialogue and logic-defying actions (thanks to the PAP leaders of the time), through Francis Seow's intense presentation of the case involving Tang Liang Hong.

Tang's "crime" was questioning the Lees' controversial purchases with the Nassim Jade properties, and asking why the matter wasn't handed over to a professional body like Commercial Affairs Department or Corrupt Practice Investigation Bureau.

In Tang's own words:

"[The CAD or CPIB] are government departments. . . well-known for being [firm and impartial]. They would be more detached and their reports would have been more convincing to the people."

The real crime is that Tang Liang Hong was in opposition politics, an individual whom the PAP elite recognized “as an immediate threat to their electoral prospects in the Cheng San GRC” during the 1997 General Election. Back in 1981, LKY once dismissed the value of a political opposition as being “irrelevant.” How can someone or something be a threat and irrelevant at the same time?

The rest of the chapters give a detailed account of the political gangsterism and character assassination Tang Liang Hong experienced. One would think that the text was describing the bullying that occurs in a children’s playground, and not the behaviour of highly-ranked politicians in a court of law.

We are shown how The Straits Times provided coverage that was “more favourable to the PAP leaders than reports from foreign journalists,” and how Tang Liang Hong was branded by PAP leaders as an “anti-Christian, anti-English-educated Chinese chauvinist,” with Goh Chok Tong taunting Tang as a “coward and a liar.”

As if these obnoxious epithets were insufficient, LKY likened Tang Liang Hong to “a serial killer” during an hour and a half monologue in court. LKY and his “PAP digits” were “like ravenous hyenas in a feeding frenzy” when they demanded a grand total of S$12.9 million for the lawsuits over Tang’s remarks on the Nassim Jade purchases, along with his other actions.

Other memorable gems include the Singapore government misusing taxpayers’ funds to support a private quarrel, LKY’s comments on how J.B. Jeyaretnam — who represented Tang Liang Hong in court — should be “skinned alive like a skunk,” and Wong Kan Seng, then the leader of the House, “loyally leaping to the patriarch’s rescue” when LKY made a grave and thoroughly unsupported allegation that Tang was backed by people who wished to destroy Singapore. There are plenty of other juicy details which I can’t include in a book review, though I will endeavour to feature bits and pieces in future articles.

The nature of the PAP leaders involved in this dreadful fiasco can be seen in the final outcome of Tang’s case. All the charges against Tang were dropped when the main property asset of the Tangs was no longer worth as much, due to the Asian financial crisis and other factors (and therefore less of a boon than the PAP leaders had originally hoped for, in terms of being awarded their millions in damages).

After all the litigation costs, mental/emotional distress, and disruption caused to him and his family, Tang was declared a bankrupt, so that he could not hold any political position in Singapore and directly partake in politics. Tang himself succinctly described the law in Singapore as being an unequal struggle, and “a test of financial strength, not of legal arguments.”

As a June 1997 editorial by The New York Times wrote:

“Singapore’s leaders are masters at using libel suits in a compliant court system to silence or intimidate their domestic opponents. . .”

The purpose of books like Beyond Suspicion is not to ridicule or be derisive. It is to expose flaws in a political party or system, and provide a record of history. Note that on Page 241, it is mentioned that one of the legal documents to do with Tang Liang Hong was ordered by Justice Chao Hick Tin to be destroyed — at the request of LKY, via his counsel, Davinder Singh. Who knows what else has been requested to be destroyed?

Another purpose is for future generations to remember what this party has done to opposition members whom they viewed as a threat. Were the opposition members viewed as a threat to Singapore; good governance; or to the PAP’s own stronghold of political power?

If leaders are wise and less arrogant, they would seek to produce less scripted videos which appear to be more propaganda-inspired than patriotically inspired. Instead, they would seek to learn from mistakes of the past — and make genuine amends — so that they can prove to current voters/citizens why they should still be in office, as well as justify their high salaries drawn from taxpayers’ dollars.

In the context of Singapore’s political scene, it is only by the party’s own words and actions that they make the choice to be regarded as the “People’s Action Party,” or a “Perpetually Arrogant Party.”

DAP's kit siang was most arrogant when he put that puppeteer Dyana to contest Telok Intan. kit siang thought anything that represents DAP will get the Cina bukit votes. Even if the DAP's grand mascot THE PIG is allowed to contest under the DAP banner, it will still garner all the Cina bukit votes!

Then there will always be those typical Malay puppeteers that have always been calling those Cina bukit as towkay, to add more votes and hoping to increase their winning margin. These Malays are actually Anwar maniac's "I can fool all of them all of the time" fanatic supporters, those that learn & enjoy their politics by way of slanderous garbage continually spread by Anwar, mainly to the young, the ignorant and the blue collar workers.

I just hope the judiciary don't blunder again, and make sure Anwar is kept behind the 4 walls where he truly belongs.

Tun

Whichever way we toss the coin, the fact of the matter concerning these 3 Bills to legally created harmony and unity amongst a group of quarrelsome people, has never been done before. Take Switzerland for example.

The Swiss which actually consist of 4 types of people, the Germans, the French, the Italians and the Romansch (these are the deserters from the Roman Legions who holed up in the high Alps for 2000 years ) form their Confederation Over 800 years ago. They still quarrel and make snide remarks about each other behind their backs. This is why they have a National Referendum on every small issue.

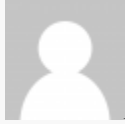

If the Swiss could not openly show how united and harmonious they are, how could our beloved Malaysia unite and make people harmonious through 3 Bills concerning people who are as different as chalk and cheese from each other ? At least, the Swiss have more in common with each other than the 3 majorities we have in this land. Are we serious about our UNITY AND HARMONY without resorting to untested laws to bind us. WHY NOT LET NATURE TAKES ITS COURSE as had been adopted by our forefathers ?

AGAIN THE WORLD CLASS SINGAPORE HAS SHOWN THAT THE BEST COLLECTION OF LAWS IN THE LAND WILL NOT MAKE OUR HEARTS GROW FONDER FOR EACH OTHER OR THE GOVERNMENT. We are human beings of flesh and blood and need not be corralled into something which is unnatural and superficial in our natural behaviour.

How can we explain to the World who wants to invest in the Tun Abdul Razak Exchange that on the one hand, the 3 important Laws on (i) Companies (ii) Trustees (iii) Bankruptcy have never been revised or up-dated for at least 40 years and on the other, we have 3 new laws which the World has never seen or tested before ? IS THIS NOT PUTTING THE CART BEFORE THE HORSE ?

Salam Tun.

The Malaysian law provides very easy means for all Malaysians to be acknowledged as Bumiputra, and hence the privileges that comes with that Bumiputra status as specified under article 153. A marriage with any Malaysian Bumi, the Christians, the pagans or us Muslims will suffice for everyone of their offspring being bestowed as a Bumi.

However there exists these Cina bukit louts always looking to create and instill racist feelings among Malaysians, and undoubtedly they chose to remain as the most racist of them all, and very proud to hear calls as a Cina bukit species!

They orthodox thinking is simple, all Chinese are Cina bukit just like them, the frog under the coconut shell sort of mentality.

They are not shy to tell everyone things like “aku babi”, “come f_c_ my mother” so long as their Cina bukit identity remain intact!

They unashamedly and ignorantly questioned those that came to Malaysia (and getting married to the locals) and later given the Bumi status. They even hated those Chinese that have become a naturalized Bumi.

In contrast, most of them decided to become more glamorous, and as a start they simply pick up a mat saleh name preceding their name!!

Salam Tun,

1. Keharmonian antara kaum di Malaysia ini akan hanya dapat dikekalkan bila ada seorang pemimpin UMNO yang bijak, lantang bersuara, berani, mempunyai jati diri yang kukuh, berpengaruh dan bertindak mengikut perlembagaan.
2. Semua kualiti itu ada pada ayahanda Tun, tapi langsung tiada pada budak Najib ( dan Pak Lah ).
3. Operasi Lalang adalah salah satu cara terbaik untuk mengawal supaya keharmonian di Malaysia ini tidak diculik dan dijadikan tebusan oleh anasir subversif seperti Ambigay dan DAPigs. Pemansuhan ISA adalah satu penganiayaan terhadap keselamatan rakyat dan kemenangan besar bagi penyamun dan penyangak dalam Bar Council.
4. PM Najib dalam ertikata sebenar bukanlah seorang pemimpin, tapi adalah seorang yang dipimpin dan dipandu ke sana ke mari oleh segerombolan punahshithat, justeru itu bak kata seorang mantan menteri – “you can make him look smart, but you cannot make him smart”. Setiap kali saya lihat PM Najib beraksi atau berucap – melalui nada suara dan body language PM Najib – saya yakin sangat bahawa PM Najib adalah di bawah pengaruh sesuatu “manderam” yang sangat kuat. Tak apalah, kita tunggu sampai bila PM Najib boleh berlakon ataukah lakonan itu akan ditamatkan secara mengejut oleh undi tidak percaya dari ahli UMNO.

I have always thought that Singapore was a country in which a homogenous population was well-controlled givne that it has the best brains in the World. But since August 2011, when I delved into the humongous and all embracing State apparatus which was set-up for the specific purpose of controlling the minds and thoughts of its citizens, it became fascinating for me to find out more from such a unique pile set up by one person in his life-time. These are the following ingredients of the highest quality which should make the perfect State in the whole wide World. But this did not happen.

1. The leader who achieved a Double Star First in Law at the University of Cambridge.
2. The team he built up and worked actively with him up to the 1980s.
3. A small island of only 25 miles by 75 miles in dimension.
4. A practically homogenous population of 75% Chinese, and the balance Malays and Indians which are urbanised. But the middle class has dropped down by 40% since 1959.
5. Hardly any new infra-structural development required with the exception those as advised by Dr Alfred Winsemius.
4. A full fledged military.
5. One of the best spy systems in the World as assisted by Singapore's Caucasian friends which activity is in Asia.
6. An education system which is second to none.
7. A first class network of Government hospitals working in conjunction with the private sector.
8. A garden city with a network of roads second to none and with buildings which are befitting those of an international city.
9. The finest set of Laws to monitor and control the citizenry with the support of the Judiciary which has never claimed to be World Class. This is the reason why the full complement of the Police Force maybe only about 4,000 for a population of 4 millions.
10. In terms of US dollar income per capita, it is on top of the World.

I mention the above points not for the pleasure of getting brownie points from the brilliant Lee Kuan Yew with his 18 failed Policies for Singapore sympathizers BUT TO ILLUSTRATE THAT EVEN IN A TIGHTLY CONTROLLED MONEY PARADISE LIKE THE REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE, LAWS LIKE THOSE BEING TABLED IN OUR AUGUST DEWAN RAKYAT will be ineffective and are non-starters. AND YET SINGAPORE FAILED TODAY.

1. The National Harmony Bill

2. The National Unity Bill

3. The National Unity and Integration Bill.

What is happening in Singapore today is a middle income group revolt or a middle class revolt against the power of the State which festooned itself with the finest set of Laws which the 1% elite found it necessary for them to rule since 1959. The surprising thing is that it took so long for these Singaporean citizens to find out what their Rulers/Ruler have been doing with their CPF money LEGALLY but not in their INTEREST. Not only that, the Singaporean middle income group bore the brunt of all the failures associated with the brilliant Lee Kuan Yew's 18 policies failures for Singapore. They will be replaced by brand new imports.

All these happened at a time when our Tun to his everlasting credit built up the huge Malay Middle Income Group which pulled up the non-Malay Middle Income Group in Malaysia. This is our DEMOCRATIC STRENGTH today.

THE RULE BY WAY OF LAWS WITHOUT THE HUMAN TOUCH which is unlike our Tun's successful 22 Year Administration, can only end up with anguish and tears. And I would like to remind those who had forgotten that our Tun's is a Malay Statesman.

AS I SAID BEFORE, TAKING WORLD CLASS SINGAPORE AS AN EXAMPLE, FOR A COUNTRY TO FESTOON ITSELF WITH LAWS AND LAWS IS NO PANACEA TO HUMAN PROBLEMS WHICH MUST BE DEALT WITH BY THE HUMAN TOUCH like our Tun during his successful 22 year Administration. Laws to control the populace via the police will not give us free lunch or free holidays but goodwill and sincerity will. THE POPULACE SHOULD NEVER BE TREATED LIKE DIGITS OR ROBOTS LIKE IN SINGAPORE.

MALAYSIA BOLEH !

Salam YAB & Yg diKasihi Tun,

1. Dari dulu lagi saya sudah nampak yang DS Najib @ Ah Jib Gor sudah HILANG KELAYAKAN untuk menjadi Presiden UMNO kerana perjuangan beliau dan mereka yang menyokong beliau (pengampu?) sudah jauh tersasar. Mereka lupa yang UMNO ialah parti Melayu/Islam.

2. DS Najib @ Ah Jib Gor dikelilingi oleh 'CON-sultants' yang lebih condong ke arah Pembangkang. DSN juga bukan seorang pemikir, dan beliau cuma mengharap 100% kepada penasihat2 beliau untuk merancang/mengkaji dan menggubal sesuatu. DSN bukan seperti Tun yang selalunya mengkaji sendiri dengan mendalam dan memperhalusi apa2 saja isu sebelum membuat keputusan. DSN jenis yang 'BLUR'.

3. Nampaknya DSN bakal menempah sejarah sebagai Presiden UMNO yang gagal berjuang untuk Agama Islam, Bangsa, dan Negara MALAYSIA, dan ini boleh membuka jalan yang luas terbentang bagi pakatan Pembangkang untuk memerintah Malaysia.

4. DS Najib @ Ah Jib Gor perasan yang langkah beliau memansuhkan ISA dan Ordinan Darurat disokong oleh majoriti rakyat. Beliau cuma dengar suara bising minoriti rakyat kerana golongan minoriti inilah yang suka buat kacau terpekik/terlolong dengan berDEMONstrasi. Majoriti rakyat yang senyap yg mengikut peraturan & undang2 beliau tidak hiraukan. Satu KEMENANGAN bagi mereka yang suka buat kacau.

5. RUU baru ini, jika diluluskan, adalah satu KEMENANGAN kepada mereka yang suka buat kacau (Pembangkang?) dan suka negara yang TIDAK harmoni/stabil.

Terima kasih Tun.

*** Semoga Allah SWT sentiasa melindungi Tun sekeluarga. ***

Tun

I am most happy when my honest and factual comments touched a raw nerve of a crypto-brilliant Lee Kuan Yew with his 18 failed Policies for Singapore sympathizer.

This proves my comments were true and the failure of incessant brainwashing from the huge Ministry of Information, Singapore which is the descendant of its British predecessor sited at Phoenix Park, Singapore. Of course, this information gathering outfit is micro-managed by the brilliant Lee Kuan Yew who is intimately aware of all our intimate details like our full-blooded sexual peccadilloes from puberty.

Does one qualify for the Nobel Prize by this ungentlemanly act ? The Singapore Secret Service works with this Ministry of Information which employs Penangites who still think they are British. It is a complement of a motley crew who work for want of a better living. With the commissioning of the super duper computer in 1972 or thereabouts, it was a cinch for the controller to switch it on to watch the bed-room antics of the friendly, hospitable and naive Malaysians of prominent status. I really do not why this is done as we are not squeaky clean or strait laced Singapore where high Government officials queued up to be punished in the redoubtable High Court for all sorts of sexual offences, some of them done under water in a swimming pool !

It was good of the Wikileaks to expose the waste of Singaporean taxpayers' money for this puposeless activity unless it is for a more sinister political purpose.

The above-mentioned shows one aspect of a Singapore which is already festooned by laws to monitor and to control its citizenry to the nth degree.

And the laws of Singapore are the best in the World. It is alleged that laws could be changed on the spot. But this might not be true as those who suffered dare not speak out or they might end up in Changi like Alan Shadrake for 4 weeks for contempt of the Court.

And our beloved Malaysia is now on the threshold of copying Singapore with its myriad of laws with the support of her Judiciary which operated on an invisible codex of its own. In Singapore, every Law could be implemented within 3 hours and the culprit nabbed and charged.

Can our beloved Malaysia able to implement all the laws in like fashion ?

I do not understand why some Malaysians find it difficult to respect and recognise the political overlordship of any country especially Malaysia. I have never known that Malaysia is not Malay biased since the beginning of my time. And yet, there are people who want to be hypocrites and who benefitted from this historical fact that they want our beloved Malaysia to be something else. And there is no such antecedent in this World.

Singapore now is experiencing the backlash of doing things BY THE LAWS AND NOT BY THE WILL OF HER PEOPLE viz. the uproar of thousands over their CPF money. This clearly illustrates there is a LIMIT TO THE RULE OF THE LAWS. This is where the intangible compassion and commonsense come into play. LAWS ARE DEFINITELY GOOD BUT THE DISADVANTAGE IS ALL HUMAN BEINIGS BECOME A ROBOT like the embedded slimy spineless worm here or DIGITS – cold and inhuman. This is where DEMOCRACY COMES INTO PLAY over a DICTATORSHIP. This is where the majority of any country rules the roost.

THIS IS WHERE LAWS WILL NOT STEER OR VEER THE WILL OF THE MAJORITY BY THE MINORITY. This is sheer commonsense and should not be avoided or pretend that such desires or feelings of the majority do not exist. INDEED, THE FEELINGS OR DESIRES OF THE MAJORITY IN ANY DEMOCRATIC COUNTRY ARE VERY MUCH ALIVE AND KICKING.

The 3 Bills now tabled before our august Dewan Rakyat will not reduce or wish away the problems which have RECENTLY beset our beloved commnities since 2003. These Bills will only make matters worst because human problems are infinite beyond measure. Already our Courts are loaded with many suits which are covered by our out-of-date Laws.

Is the Bar Council sleeping on their job and now become a political entity serving certain quarters at the expense of 99% of populace with no legal expertise ?

Apart from the huge GLC empire which was established since 2003, and it runs contrary to pulling up all deserving Malaysians as promised by all BN Governments, we are now faced with 3 new Bills which can only be effective in a 100% high literacy and homogenous population and supported by effective implementation. If nothing is done on any breach of these 3 new laws. I can foresee more problems.

Both the GLCs and the creation or the control of the populace behaviour through the Laws and not through commonsense, LIKE IN SINGAPORE, is bound to fail.

Fortunately, the CPF fiasco hits the headlines every day. And the GLCs Temasek and GIC are still licking their wounds of 2008 – 6 years ago. We as normal human beings must admit that we do not have the wherewithal to control everything by way of Laws and leave problems to the Police and then depart for a holiday. Politics is very hard work from young and not from yesterday.

MAN PROPOSES. GOD DISPOSES.

Saya maseh ingat pada tahun 1994’apabila YTL menghadapi masalah kewangan dan tidak dapat membayar hutang nya sabanyak $34 juta denga. public Bank,Tun telah meminta Anwar sabagai menteri Kewnagan untok menolong YTL menyelesaikan hutang nya dengan bank.

Kemudian pada tahun 1995,Tun telah memberi projek IPP kepada YTI dengan satu agreement yang berat sebelah dan merugikan. Tenaga.Tan Sri Ani salaku Pengerusi Tenaga enggan menanda tangani perjanjian itu.

Dengan perjanjian IPP yang berat sebelah itu YTL telah membuat keuntungan hanpir $500 juta satahun.Yang rugi ialah Tenaga dan Petronas yang terpaksa membekalkan gas dengan harga yang murah.

Ada kah Tun tidak menyesal dengan pertolongan itu.

Dengan pertolongan Tun itu YTI family telah menjadi billioair dan merupakan orang yang terjaya di Malaysia.

Saya juga hairan, kenapa PNB dan Lain Institusi untuk menolong bumiputra tidak di beri peluang untuk menjadi pemegang saham dalam IPP myang di berikan kepada YTL.

Harap mendapat penjelasan lanjut.

Tun

Oh my gosh !

In recent times, our beloved country is never short of exciting events threatening to tear apart the very fabric of our national unity, comity and harmony.

Befroe the issue of the ‘STUPID AND UNGRATEFUL’ Malaysian Chinese had died down, up popped a blabbe- mouthed ‘ stupid and ungrateful ‘ Chinaman who openly confirmed exactly what others had already unfairly labelled the members of his tribe. His arrogant timing cannot be bettered by his insouciant behaviour in front of the Pemandu crowd. He must be absolutely bonkers to think that our beloved Malaysai can be like the great United States, the United Kingdom or Australia even if he has 2 life-times !

In 1956, Chou En-lai called these Chinamen, ‘ Yellow bananas ‘ – that they are yellow on the outside and white inside.

Meritocracy has allready proven to have failed in the green, green grass of Singapore which is the spiritual homeland of the ignorant and the ill-informed. This enslavement of the populace by the 1% elite of Singapore with the smartest fellow on top, proved to be a pipe-dream. The populace was left with insoluble problems when faulty policies were formulated by the Singapore meritocratic pyramid which came into existence siince 1959. I have not known of any other country which boasted so much about meritocracy based on academia as much as Singapore which eventually failed miserably within a life-time. In reality, we threw away all our books after leaving a university’s portals and began all over again except for the professionals !

In 2013, two Singaporean Ministers announced that in future, applicants applying for jobs and promotions, would be considered not only on their academic qualifications but also their other merits. This underlined the total failure of Singapore's meritocratic policy and the unfair treatment of her citizens before 2013 ! Vide. Channelnewsasia. 2013.

And yet our Government still flogs the dead horse and we are not Singapore !

We should avoid shooting ourselves in the foot like the Western Powers with their mis-conceived Weapons of Mass Destruction Policy of 2002 resulting in the deaths, injuries and maiming of hundreds of thousands of innocent Arab men, women and children to this day ! The jealous outsiders are only waiting to ridicule us as confirmed by the Singaporean spying on the very personal sexual peccadilloes of our full blooded prominent citizens since 1972 and the information was passed onto Third Parties. Vide. Wikileaks. PLEASE WAKE UP LADIES AND GENTLEMEN !

The 3 new laws now tabled before the Dewan Rakyat are superfluous and supercilious to the country's needs and mean nothing. These laws are CATALYSTS for DISCONTENT, TROUBLE-MAKING AND CHAOS because there are no means to implement them. And trouble-makers are aplenty these days !

However, the 3 important laws, the wherewithal to a country's normal economy eg.

1. The Trustee Act 1949 – not updated since 1949 – 65 years.
2. The Companies Act 1965 – not updated since 1965 – 49 years.
3. The Bankruptcy Act 1967 – not updated since 1967 – 47 years.

have been neglected for decades without regard to their absolute importance in the commercial sinews of a well-administered economy in a World financial community. These are the laws which help to provide the real, not virtual unlike the 3 new laws, goodies to the populace in every developed country of the World.

And to bring the whole picture into perspective, please consider the following :-

1. Further, are these 3 new laws consonant with the Constitution which arose out of the ashes of the aborted Malayan Union of 1946 ?
2. The new Johor Housing Bill is already out of consonance with the spirit of the Constitution and the rest of the country. Do we need more of the same ?
3. The very weak Malaysian Chinese political leaderships have contributed nothing to the formulation of national policies since 2003.

4. The 3 new laws are opening the Pandora's Box which rightly belongs to the Opposition and not the BN.

The successful age-old power pyramid with the goodies flowing down its sides to the proletariat at the bottom has been forgotten since 2003. Hence, all sorts of problems cropped up when there were none at all – our beloved Malaysia became difficult to govern ! And from 2003, Singapore political cadres and other rich trouble-makers openly interfered with the domestic issues of the country at a time when the traditional goodies were seen to gravitate to the top of the pyramid in defiance of Newton's Law of Gravity.

Stability, harmony and prosperity have always been with us and are our watch-words until after 2003. Before this, the glue which held the Nation together was always in place and the Rakyat could look forward to material gains from the policies of the Government of the day. Thus, a huge Malay middle income group which brought up the non-Malay middle income group was created during Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad's 22 year Administration. This was his finest hour ! Without this creation, we have no DEMOCRATIC BALLAST TODAY !

The brilliant Lee Kuan Yew with his 18 failed Policies for Singapore and he is an expert in the Laws, stumbled on just one Policy – the 2 Child Family Policy for a population of 2 millions. This was enough to finish off the image of Singapore according to him.

Fiddling with the laws is not the panacea or an option to resolve the problems. It is a human problem. It is a problem concerning the delivery of goodies to the proletariat !

THE WEAKNESS OF THE BN TODAY IS NOT BECAUSE OF THE LACK OF LAWS BUT THE PERCEPTION OF THE MIS-PLACEMENT OF PUTTING THE PEGS IN THE WRONG PIGEON HOLES COUPLED WITH A VERY WEAK MALAYSIAN CHINESE POLITICAL LEADERSHIP WHICH CONTRIBUTED NOTHING AT ALL.

Fortunately, the bungling dull, colourless and obstinate Singaporean Trojan Horse DAP could not think out the 3 EASY STEPS to gain power at Putrajaya as I commented before. And now its redoubtable leadership is enthralled with a muse. TWO WRONGS DO NOT MAKE A RIGHT !
