On being a proxy

1. It is true when Najib says he did not do what I advised him to do. But that is not the reason why I want him to step down.
2. Everyone knows that I campaigned for him in the 13th General Election even though he refused to build the bridge, or the double-tracking and electrification of the railways. He also did not accept my views that BR1M and carrying placards "I Love PM", "1M4U" etc should be stopped. Nor did he accept many other things I told him not to do or to do if he wanted to be popular. He says "Cash is King". Still I supported him during the 13th General Elections and after.
3. I did not ask him to step down until the 1MDB scandal. He did not answer to the accusation made against him.
4. Najib has his own advisers, including three Brits. He paid foreign consultants to advise him on Government matters. He also asked Singapore whether he should build the bridge or the high-speed train. When Singapore said no, he shelved those projects. Jho Low is his friend and seems to have considerable hold on him.
5. The fact is that he is their proxy not mine. If he had behaved as my proxy there would have been no 1MDB etc.

RM600 Million Lost

1. I welcome the proposal that the authorities should stop investigating the banking affairs of Dato Sri Najib but instead investigate the allegation by Tunku Aziz that I lost RM600 million in the 80's.
2. The need is to determine whether the money went into my account at the bank or the money was lost due to the London Market Exchange ruling that the tin bought by us from sellers need not be honoured.
3. If there is evidence that the money went into my account, please charge and arrest me. It is not too late.
4. This offer by me is not intended to deflect attention from the current investigation of Najib's account. I just want to make people happy.

VERSI
TUNAI
Menjadi Proksi

ADALAH

RAJA

1. Memang benar apabila Najib berkata beliau tidak melakukan apa yang saya menasihati beliau lakukan. Tetapi itu bukanlah sebabnya mengapa saya mahu beliau meletak jawatan.

2. Semua orang tahu bahawa saya berkempen untuk beliau pada Pilihan Raya Umum ke-13 walaupun dia enggan untuk membina jambatan itu, atau landasan berkembar dan elektrifikasi keretapi. Beliau juga tidak menerima pandangan saya bahawa BR1M dan membawa sepanduk "I Love PM", "1M4U" dan lain-lain harus dihentikan. Tidak juga dia terima banyak perkara lain yang saya memberitahunya supaya tidak melakukan atau yang perlu dilakukan jika beliau mahu menjadi popular. Beliau berkata "Tunai Adalah Raja". Masih saya menyokong beliau semasa Pilihan Raya Umum ke-13 dan selepasnya.

3. Saya tidak meminta beliau untuk berundur sehingga skandal 1MDB itu. Beliau tidak menjawab tuduhan yang dibuat terhadapnya.

4. Najib mempunyai penasihatnya sendiri, termasuk tiga Brits. Dia membayar perunding asing untuk menasihatinya tentang hal-hal Kerajaan. Beliau juga bertanya Singapura sama ada dia perlu membina jambatan atau kereta api berkelajuan tinggi. Apabila Singapura berkata jangan dia ditangguhkan projek-projek itu. Jho Low adalah kawannya dan kelihatan mempunyai pengaruh yang besar ke atasnya.

5. Hakikatnya ialah beliau adalah proksi mereka bukan proksi saya. Jika dia telah berkelakuan sebagai proksi saya, maka tidak akan ada 1MDB dan lain-lain

RM600 Juta Hilang

1. Saya mengalu-alukan cadangan bahawa pihak berkuasa perlu hentikan menyiasat hal ehwal perbankan Dato Sri Najib tetapi sebaliknya menyiasat dakwaan Tunku Aziz yang saya kehilangan RM600 juta dalam 80-an.

2. Keperluannya adalah untuk menentukan sama ada wang itu masuk ke dalam akaun saya di bank atau wang telah hilang disebabkan oleh syarat pihak berkuasa Pasaran Pertukaran London bahawa bijih timah yang dibeli oleh kita dari penjual tidak perlu dihormati.

3. Jika terdapat bukti bahawa wang itu masuk ke dalam akaun saya, sila dakwa dan tangkap saya. Ini tidak terlalu lewat.

4. Tawaran saya ini tidak bertujuan untuk memesongkan perhatian daripada penyiasatan semasa ke atas akaun Najib. Saya hanya mahu membuat orang gembira.

Dear Tun,

Wishing you Selamat Hari Raya, maaf zahir dan batin.

Dear Suhainin,

In the game of thrones series, the backstabbers and traitors are sometimes referred to as low born. In this shawal month, I hope you do not fall into this category.

Good nite everyone

Assalamualaikum Tun....

"Tuan BuffonAngkasa"... Assalamualaikum...

Apakah tuan benar-benar mengenali siapa saya ini? Jikalau tak kenal jangan berlaku terlalu sombong "Tuan BuffonAngkasa".

Sekali lagi Tuan BuffonAngkasa tersilap dengan mengungkapkan kata – "KURANG AJAR" – Di hadapan wajah saya.

Tuan BuffonAngkasa tahu tak siapa yang mengusulkan gelaran "BAPA PEMODENAN MALAYSIA" kepada Tun Dr.Mahathir Mohamad pada tahun 2003.

Saya lah yang mencadangkan gelaran itu kepada Tun Dr.Mahathir demi memperingati jasa-jasanya. Jikalau Tuan BuffonAngkasa tahu...

"Tak sungguh, saya tak kata".... jikalau Tuan BuffonAngkasa suka dan berkesempatan, tanyalah seluruh Ahli Kabinet Malaysia pada tahun 2003. Jikalau mahu, tanyakan sendiri kepada Tun Dr.Mahathir Mohamad. Andai dia buat-buat tak tahu... "Tuan BuffonAngkasa" bunuh sahaja Tun Dr.Mahathir itu.

Orang berpendidikan seperti "Tuan BuffonAngkasa" ini tidak sepatutnya mengamalkan "Pemikiran Sehala". Tuan BuffonAngkasa jauh lebih hebat berbanding pemikiran yang sedemikian rupa itu (Pemikiran Sehala). Saya dapat melihat kalibat ketangkasan Tuan BuffonAngkasa berkomunikasi dengan berkesan biar pun ianya bersalut "Emosi". Mengapa membazirkan kebolehan itu?

Tak payah nak kecoh sangat...mari dengarkan lagu "Selamat Malam Sayang"...oleh...

"En.Mimpi".....Berhibur sambil memikirkan cara untuk berbakti kepada Nusa Bangsa... cucu cicit kita kelak.

Assalamualaikum Tun...

BuffonAngkasa... Assalamualaikum...

Suasana makin meriah...ehehehe...

Hairan ya...bagaimana agaknya Tuan "BuffonAngkasa" tahu bahawa nama dalam Kad pengenalan saya tertera "Suhainin Suhaibol" di atasnya. Bukan "Badigol" lah.....silap tu...kikikik... Tolong semak semula di Jabatan Pendaftaran akan nama saya itu "Tuan BuffonAngkasa".Pendaftaran silap tulis kot?

Awak ni Pegawai Penyiasat Polis agaknya "Tuan BuffonAngkasa"...huhuhu...

Orang yang jujur dan bertanggungjawab dalam kata-katanya; menggunakan dan membahaskan dirinya dengan nama sebenarnya. Jikalau berselindung dibalik tirai...bermakna "Ada Udang Di Sebalik Batu".

Nama "BuffonAngkasa" itu gabungan nama Yahudi dan Melayu. Ada iras-iras "Bison"....hehehe... tapi... menarik nama tu. Kedengaran "Macho".

Tuan BuffonAngkasa minum-minum "Red Bull" dulu, baru lah datang bergusti dengan kami.Nasib baik saya ni bukan Pahlawan Bugis...atau...Hulubalang Jawa...mahu pun...Pendekar Banjar. Kalau tak... sudah saya hunus Keris Lok Lapan tempaan Batawi...kikikikik...

Saya minta 'Pencerahan' tentang Isu ni "Tuan BuffonAngkasa" ; bukannya nak "Berpancak Lidah". Kami tidak gemar bertikam lidah; kami mahir membunuh ja ni. Kami ni sudah penat dan pernah calar-balar malahan berdarah sana sini, menahan sebatan salah seorang Mahaguru kami (Tun Dr. Mahathir). Apa tak penatnya jikalau mula dirembat hebat seawal tahun 2002.

Nasib baik kisah 2003 dah berakhir...Hanya tinggal kami menyanyikan lagu "Mana janjimu, yang kau lafazkan dulu"...dendangan "Ella"... untuk perkataan Tun Mahathir yang serupa ini bunyinya: "Bila Bersara kelak; Saya akan menyepi diri daripada politik Malaysia". "Lagu Penutup Tirai Pentas" ja semua ini. Bukan salah Tun Mahathir; Semuanya ini hanya kerana "JANJI". Jikalau tak tahu, Tanya sendiri Tun Mahathir. Jika Tun Mahathir berpura-pura lupa; saya sendiri yang akan "Sumpit" dia tu nanti dan bagi dia minum "coka-Cola".

Filem P.Ramlee tu kesemuanya memang "Makanan Kami"... "Tiga Abdul" tu kira simple ja tu...hehehehe...tapi... saya ni bukannya Hang Tuah; "Hang Cangkul" ja ni. Tukang gali kubur macam kubur "Wang Kelian" ja ni.

Dah lah gitu, kampung asal pun bernama "Kampung Waang,Kundasang,Ranau,Sabah".Betul-betul di lereng Gunung Kinabalu. Dulu korang mengata kami ni "Tinggal Atas Pokok". Tapi tak apa kerana di sebelah Negara barat sekarang ni pun, mereka membelanjakan berjuta-juta ringgit semata-mata nak design dan membina "Rumah Atas Pokok".

Bila kali terakhir kita bertemu "Tuan BuffonAngkasa"? Tak payah bersilat dengan saya...penat dan Lebam-lebam ja "Tuan BuffonAngkasa" nanti.Saya boleh tolong panggilkan "Abang Yasin" untuk bertinju dengan "Tuan BuffonAngkasa"... Nak?.

Saya berasa malu dengan cara segelintir orang Melayu berbahasa mutakhir ini. Pun tak apa "Tuan BuffonAngkasa", cara awak berbahasa macam "Bahasa Askar".Saya pernah dengar bahasa gitu-gitu tu. U orang K.L kah "Tuan BuffonAngkasa".... kat mana?... Janda Baik?

Kami ni "Kumpulan Power Rangers" ni, tapi kesemuanya "Perempuan"...tak pakai keris... Memangnya merokok (Rokok Daun dengan Tembakau Bercengkih)... kerana... lebih gemar "main Tiup-tiup" ja ni...nak 'join' kami tak?...hehehe....

"Tuan BuffonAngkasa" saya tidak yakin serta bukan penganut "Pemikiran Sehalah". Tuan BuffonAngkasa tentu arif dengannya (Pemikiran Sehalah).

Tetapi jikalau "Tuan BuffonAngkasa" nak sangat tiket "One Way Ticket To The Blue"...Kami boleh usahakannya. Nak?

Jangan pula cuba nak kata saya cakap "Melalut"... Perkataan "Melalut" tiada dalam pengertian kami. Segala tumbuhan memiliki "Akar".

"Tuan BuffonAngkasa" nak tak menonton filem "Tiger With Tarantula 2015".

Assalamualaikum Warahmatullahi Wabarakatuh...

Walaikummussalam 'Suhainin Suhaibul' (nama 'camouflage' ini pun dah mirip 'Isketambola' dari filem 'Tiga Abdul')...

Gigih & rancak betul akhir2 ini hamba Allah yg seorang (atau lebih?) menulis panjang lebar, kemudian 'cut & paste' komen dia di blog Ayahanda Tun ni, semata2 utk menyerang Ayahanda Tun & semua penyokong chedet.cc

Kewujudan spesies Sahibul (or Badigol) ni pun bukti jelas di depan mata kita semua hasil pendekatan 'Cash Is King' oleh manusia yang dia puja tu.. Hasil ugutan Lim 'Cock' Wing pada Ayahanda Tun sedikit masa dulu utk memusnahkan legasi Ayahanda Tun sekiranya terus mengkritik Bugis Warrior kini sudah menampakkan hasilnya dalam bentuk 'Suhainin Badigol/Sahibul' (sounds similar).. Tugas khas dia hari2 seperti yg diarah that 'Cock' guy (plus bekas CEO TV3 yg jadi penasihat Bugis Warrior) adalah utk korek balik dalam arkib isu2 zaman Ayahanda Tun, manipulate, rewrite balik ikut sentimen, kecenderungan & matlamat burukkan Ayahanda Tun (konon menampakkan isu2 tu benar & dia tahu banyak benda) & publish di sini.. Kesian kan.

Hakikatnya, Bugis Warrior & penjiatnya sudah lama memantau & takut dgn pengikut & pengaruh chedet.cc mendedahkan penyelewengan 1MDB & deretan kelemahan mereka.. Tak tahan melihat kebangkitan rakyat menyokong Ayahanda Tun & menyelar tak kurang memaki & menyumpah seranah Bugis Warrior & his pathetic licker, maka di'Cash Is King'kan makhluk 'Suhainin Isketambola' ni utk menumpukan tugas hariannya pada mengotori chedet.cc dgn kecaman2 tak lakunya..

Faham Mr Suhainin (kalau pun wujud orangnya), sekarang susah cari kerja yang baik, walaupun dlm suasana negara ber'ekonomi mampan' hasil kehebatan Bugis Warrior sekarang.. Duit kita pun terus 'mengukuh' dekat2 3 ringgit apabila ditukar dgn 1 Singapore Dollar.. Tapi, banyak lagi tugas yg lebih mulia & tidak mengundang dosa berbanding tugas menidakkan jasa & komitmen seorang tokoh negara melonjakkan Malaysia selama 22 tahun (plus plus.. sampai sekarang hakikatnya).

Hidup kita kurang makan tak apa Mr Suhainin Soluble (bunyi mcm Panadol pulak), JANGAN SEKALIG KURANG AJAR.

Kepada Ayahanda Tun, persetankan orang macam ni.. Dia hanya mangsa nyata 'Cash Is King' Bugis Warrior.

SALAM SYAWAL AYAHANDA TUN & KELUARGA. RESPECT & DOAKU TETAP BERSAMAMU.

Assalamualaikum Tun.....

SEGALANYA BERMULA SERTA DIRANCANG SEMENJAK ZAMAN TUN MAHATHIR.

APAKAH ANDA BENAR-BENAR MENGENALI MAHATHIR SEBAGAIMANA KAMI MENGETAHUI BAHAWA DI BAWAH PUSAT TUN MAHATHIR TERDAPAT TANDA 'TAHI LALAT'?

"Do 'Simple Answers' by the 'Snake tounge' explain all of this?"

The Port Klang Free Zone scandal may be big, but it is only the latest in a long line of Malaysian scandals going back to the early 1980s. Time Magazine quoted Daniel Lian, a Southeast Asia economist at Morgan Stanley in Singapore, saying that the country might have lost as much as U$100 billion since the early 1980s to corruption."

The scandals listed below are only a small sample of the looting of the country's coffers:

In July of 1983, what was then the biggest banking scandal in world history erupted in Hong Kong, when it was discovered that Bumiputra Malaysia Finance (BMF), a unit of Bank Bumiputra Malaysia Bhd, had lost as much as US$1 billion which had been siphoned off by prominent public figures into private bank accounts. The story involved murder, suicide and the involvement of officials at the very top of the Malaysian government. Ultimately it involved a bailout by the Malaysian government amounting to hundreds of millions of dollars.

Mak Foon Tan, the murderer of Jalil Ibrahim, a Bank Bumi assistant manager who was sent to Hong Kong to investigate the disappearance of the money, was given a death sentence, and Malaysian businessman George Tan who had participated in looting most of the funds, was jailed after his Carrian Group collapsed in what was then Hong Kong's biggest bankruptcy, and a handful of others were charged. No major politician was ever punished in Malaysia despite a white paper prepared by an independent commission that cited cabinet minutes of Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad giving an okay to a request to throw more money into the scandal in an effort to contain it.

That was just the first Bank Bumi scandal. The government-owned bank had to be rescued twice more with additional losses of nearly US$600 million in today's dollars. Ultimately government officials gave up and the bank was absorbed into CIMB Group, currently headed by Nazir Razak, the prime minister's brother. That scandal, which stretched over several years before its denouement in 1985, set the tone for 24 years of similar scandals related to top Malaysian officials and was the first to prove that in Malaysia, you can not only get away with murder, you can get away with looting the treasury as well.

Perwaja Steel, for instance, lost US$800 million and its boss, Eric Chia, a crony of Mahathir's, was charged with looting the company. He stood trial, but was acquitted without having to put on a defense.

In the mid 1980s, the Co-operative Central Bank, a bank set up to aid the Indian smallholder community, had to be rescued by Bank Negara, the country's central bank, after hundreds of millions of ringgit in loans granted to a flock of United Malays National Organisation and Malaysian Indian Congress politicians became non-performing. Some had never been serviced at all. Although the chief executive and general manager were charged with criminal breach of trust, none of the politicians were ever charged.

Before that, the Malaysian government was believed to have lost US$500 million in an attempt at Mahathir's urging to corner the London tin market through a company called Maminco, driving the world price of tin from US$4.50 per tonne to US$7.50. It then sought to cover up the loss by establishing a US$2 company called Mukawasa from which allocations of new share issues to the government's Employees Provident Funds' were diverted. Mukawasa expected to sell the shares at a windfall profit to hide the tin speculation.

Mahathir also was behind an attempt by the then governor of Bank Negara, the central bank, to aggressively speculate in the global foreign exchange market. Bank Negara ended up losing an estimated RM20 billion. The governor, Jaffar Hussein, and the head of forex trading, Nor Mohamed Yakcop were forced to resign.

There have been many other political and financial scandals since. In 2005, Bank Islam Malaysia, the country's flagship Islamic bank, reported losses of RM457 million mainly due to provisioning totaling RM774 million as a result of bad loans and investments incurred by its Labuan branch. Cumulatively, Bank Islam ran up nonperforming loans of RM2.2 billion, partly from mismanagement and poor internal controls but also "years of regulatory indifference fueled by the misconceived notion of an untouchable Bank Islam because it was a favorite child of the Malaysian government, being the first and model Islamic bank in the country and region," according to a December 19, 2005 article in Arab News.

"Bank Islam had a reputation in the market for being the spoilt child of the Malaysian Ministry of Finance; and the perception of the bank was more of a Muslim financial fraternity or government development financial institution," the report said.

In 2007, in what was called Malaysia's Enron scandal, the publicly traded Transmile Group Bhd, whose chairman was former MCA President and Cabinet Minister Ling Liong Sik, was caught having overstated its revenue by RM530 million. A pretax profit from Rm207 million in 2006 was actually a loss of RM126 million, and a pretax profit of 120 million in 2005 was a loss of RM77 million, causing the government postal company Pos Malaysia & Services Holdings Bhd to warn that its earnings for the 2006 financial year might be affected by the reported overstatement, as the postal group owned 15.3 percent of Transmile.

Over the years 2001 to 2006, the government had to spend billions to rescue seven privatized projects including Kuala Lumpur's two public transport systems, the perennially ailing Malaysia Airlines, the national sewage system and a variety of others that, in the words of one study, "had been privatized prematurely." The government also repeatedly bailed out highway construction concessionaires, all of them closely connected to Umno, to the tune of another RM38.5 billion.

In 2008, it was revealed that Rafidah Aziz, who had served as trade and industry minister for 18 years, had been peddling approved permits for duty-free car sales and allegedly lining her pockets. Two companies which didn't even have showrooms – one of which belonged to the husband of Rafidah's niece – received scores of permits. Although Rafidah came in for heavy criticism from within Umno, she remained in office until she was defeated in party elections.

In the 1960s, federal prosecutors in the United States who were attempting to jail the late labor boss Jimmy Hoffa for looting the Teamsters Pension Fund of millions of dollars with his cronies were puzzled by the fact that their revelations appeared to have little effect on the union's rank and file. It was because no matter how much money Hoffa and his cronies stole, there was always money left because the fund was so rich. That appears to be the case with Malaysia.

Assalamualaikum Tun....

Estimated losses: RM 1.6 Billion

Malaysia used to be the world's leading tin producer accounting for 31% of the world's output. It was a major contributor to the country's economy providing employment for more than 40,000 people.

In 1985 the world tin market crashed with the price plunging by 50%. Many tin mines in Malaysia had to close as it was no longer economical to operate the tin mines. One of the factors that contributed to the collapse of the tin market is the ill-fated attempt by the Malaysian government to corner the tin market and to prop up the tin price.

This is the Maminco scandal that is usually found at the top of the lists of scandals and bail-outs plaguing Malaysia since Mahathir became the PM. This is probably because it was the earliest scandal occurring immediately after Mahathir became the PM in 1981. Although not the largest loss in terms of value, it still caused a loss estimated to be RM1.6 billion or more.

In this crooked scheme, a RM2 company Maminco Sdn. Bhd. was set up and was used to secretly buy tin future contracts and physical tin in order to push up prices on the London Metal Exchange. To finance its covert activities, Maminco obtained financing from Bank Bumiputra – naturally. At one point, this RM2 company was borrowing astronomical amounts from the bank – as much as RM1.5 billion.

Initially, they succeeded in pushing up the tin price artificially. But the higher prices stimulated increased tin production and resulted in the US releasing its strategic stockpile. The tin price could not be maintained at the artificially high level for long and eventually it collapsed.

Undertaking this Maminco scheme is already bad enough. But instead of admitting their mistake, Mahathir and his merry band cooked up another scheme to hide the losses incurred by Maminco from the Malaysian public. Another RM2 company called Makuwasa was set up.

The idea was new shares reserved for bumiputras allocated to EPF were diverted to Makuwasa at par value! Can you believe this? These cheaply acquired shares could then be sold for a profit at market price! Instant profits made by Makuwasa can then be used to cover the Maminco's losses. Effectively, Makuwasa is used to raid the savings of Malaysians to help pay for Maminco's losses!

In 1986 Mahathir publicly admitted that Makuwasa was created to recoup the government's losses from the Maminco debacle and to repay its loans to Bank Bumiputra.

Estimated losses: As high as RM30 billion!

Some of you may have heard of the case of Nick Leeson whose exploits as a financial trader caused the spectacular collapse of the British bank Barings in 1995. He was based in Singapore and was making unauthorized speculative trades on the Japanese stock prices and interest rates. Unfortunately for him, the Kobe earthquake struck and caused the Asian markets to plunge resulting in Leeson and the bank losing more than US$1 billion. Barings could not sustain such a huge loss and was declared insolvent. Leeson was eventually jailed 4 years for fraud and forgery in Singapore.

The case above illustrates the high risks involved in trading in financial instruments. Large profits can be made but monumental losses can result if the trades go sour.

A few years earlier in 1992-1993, Malaysia's very own Bank Negara was also involved in risky forex trading which landed it in serious trouble and resulted in a loss estimated to be as high as RM30 billion. It is not clear exactly when such activities started but bank was supposed to have the most sophisticated trading rooms in the world which impressed Mahathir who was the PM then when he toured the trading rooms. He had given approval for Bank Negara to continue its speculative currency trading after he was informed about it.

Bank Negara's forex trading activities were well-known at that time and a source of concern to banks across Asia. "It became the most awesome currency trader in the world" said the author of the book "Vandals' Crown: How Rebel Currency Traders Overthrew the World's Central Banks." On some days, it traded US$1 billion to US$5 billion which is very unusual. Even the Bank of Japan rarely traded more than US$1 billion and only when it had wanted to intervene in the foreign exchange market to protect its currency. Central banks normally enter the forex market only to influence its own currency rate.

However, Bank Negara was trading in other currencies and was profiting from their movements. In other words, it had become a profit centre for the government using the country's reserves to speculate in the currency market. Surely, that is not the role of a central bank. Why is Bank Negara undertaking such profit-making activities putting the country's reserves at great risk?

Just like in the Nick Leeson's case, it just needed an unfavorable event to cause monumental losses. Bank Negara was holding large positions betting on the pound sterling to go up. However, Britain withdrew from the European Exchange Rate Mechanism causing the sterling to collapse. This resulted in losses estimated to be between RM16 billion and RM30 billion in just 2 years in 1992-1993.

Can you imagine how much is RM30 billion? If you strike the first prize in the lottery draw of RM3 million – every single draw of the year and every year for 80 years you will get near to that astronomical figure!

Up to this day, a full account and disclosure of the forex fiasco has not been forthcoming despite the persistent efforts of Lim Kit Siang in bringing up this issue in parliament on many occasions. The following is his favourite quote from the Vandal's Crown by Gregory J. Millman:

"Using all the resources a central bank commands – privileged information, unlimited credit, regulatory power, and more – Malaysia's Bank Negara became the most feared trader in the currency markets. By trading for profit, Bank Negara committed apostasy against the creed of central banking. Instead of working to ensure global financial stability, Bank Negara repeatedly shoved huge sums of money into the most vulnerable market situations in order to destabilize exchange rates for its own profit" (p.226)

"(Bank) Negara operated behind a thick veil of secrecy. The bank seldom spoke publicly about its controversial trading activities. Yet it was increasingly clear to foreign exchange traders that Bank Negara's operations in the foreign exchange markets went far beyond simple self-defense. It became the most awesome currency trader in the world." (p. 227)

"(Bank) Negara's market manipulation was so egregious that one American central banker said, 'If they tried this on any organized exchange in the world, they'd go to jail.' However, in the unregulated international currency markets, there were neither police nor jailers. The only rule was the rough justice of the vandals, and it was this rule that eventually brought (Bank) Negara down.

"In 1992, (Bank) Negara took on a large pound sterling position, apparently expecting Britain to maintain the discipline required by the European Exchange Rate Mechanism. It was a bad economic and political judgement. (Bank) Negara lost approximately $3.6 billion when Britain withdrew from the ERM, letting sterling collapse. The next year, (Bank) Negara lost an additional $2.2 billion. By 1994, Bank Negara was technically insolvent and had to be bailed out by an infusion of fresh money from Malaysia's finance ministry." (p.229)

When will the country get the whole story of this biggest financial scandal in its history? Specifically, when will we get answers to some of these questions:

Why was Bank Negara speculating in the risky forex market to make profits?

Was it a proper policy for a central bank to use country's reserves to make profits?

Who was responsible for authorising such activities?

What were the limits on how much of the bank reserves can be used for currency speculation? Were these limits adhered to?

Was the cabinet aware that the country's reserves were used for such risky speculation?

Wasn't there a mechanism to monitor the currency trading?

Why wasn't serious actions taken against those responsible for such huge losses?

Bank Bumiputra was incorporated in 1965 and was supposed to provide credit and financial facilities to the rural areas in Malaysia. As a government-owned bank it is the preferred bank for deposits of state funds and it grew rapidly and became the largest bank in SE Asia. However, usually UMNO politicians or UMNO-linked civil servants were appointed to run the bank instead of independent professional managers.

It is not surprising that it became a source of cheap funds and questionable loans for well-connected businesses. This includes a RM200 million loan to UMNO in 1983 to build its headquarters.

After a series of scandals the bank has to be bailed out by the government with the help of Petronas not once, not twice but three times resulting in a total loss estimated to be as high as RM10 billion (ref. Barry Wain's book "Malaysian Maverick").

"In July of 1983, what was then the biggest banking scandal in world history erupted in Hong Kong, when it was discovered that Bumiputra Malaysia Finance (BMF), a unit of Bank Bumiputra Malaysia Bhd, had lost as much as US$1 billion which had been siphoned off by prominent public figures into private bank accounts. That was just the first Bank Bumi scandal. The government-owned bank had to be rescued twice more with additional losses of nearly US$600 million in today's dollars. Ultimately government officials gave up and the bank was absorbed into CIMB Group, currently headed by Nazir Razak, the prime minister's brother. That scandal, which stretched over several years before its denouement in 1985, set the tone for 24 years of similar scandals related to top Malaysian officials and was the first to prove that in Malaysia, you can not only get away with murder, you can get away with looting the treasury as well."

You may have seen online somewhere the long list of scandals in Malaysia that has resulted in the country losing billions and billions of ringgit. Time Magazine quoted an economist at Morgan Stanley in Singapore as saying that the country might have lost as much as US$100 billion since the early 1980s to corruption.

One of these scandals is the Perwaja Steel project which is usually associated with a loss of RM2.56 billion. But it seems like RM10 billion is a more likely figure. In fact, Mahathir himself had admitted publicly in 2002 that Perwaja lost RM10 billion in a dialogue with Malaysians in London where he also admitted that there were possible misappropriation of funds and mismanagement in Perwaja.

Perwaja Steel started in 1982 as a joint venture between the government-owned Heavy Industries Corporation and the Japanese company Nippon Steel Corporation. This was supposed to be a showcase project in Mahathir's push for industrialization. A steel plant costing RM1 billion was built in Terengganu to supply the domestic needs for steel products.

However, Perwaja encountered production problems and was saddled with large debts. Since the borrowings were in yen – which appreciated significantly at that time – interest payments were getting higher. In 1987 Nippon Steel pulled out of the project. Mahathir then brought in his friend Eric Chia in 1988 to run Perwaja and to turn it around. He was given full authority to do what was necessary to reverse Perwaja's performance and reported directly to Mahathir.

Another RM2 billion was pumped into Perwaja with government funding and loans from Bank Bumiputra (RM860 million) and EPF (RM130 million). New facilities were built in Terengganu and in Kedah. Eric Chia helmed Perwaja for seven years.

Initially, he seemed to have succeeded in turning around Perwaja but after he resigned abruptly in 1995 it became clear that that was not the case. Total losses had increased to RM2.49 billion from RM1 billion when Eric Chia took over. Perwaja was crippled by additional debts amounting to RM5.7 billion.

The new management of Perwaja prepared an internal report where it claimed the following among others:

- inaccurate accounting records
- unauthorised contracts amounting to hundreds of millions of ringgit
- alleged misappropriation of funds
- dubious maintenance contracts amounting to RM292 million (including a contract amount of RM200,000 per month to a company for gardening, cleaning and vehicle maintenance)
- award of RM957 million contract to companies of a long time associate of Eric Chia

In 1999, Anwar made a police report which stated that "He (Eric Chia) in fact repeatedly claimed that his actions had the support and under the directions of Prime Minister Dato Seri Dr. Mahathir. And this is further substantiated with letters written by the Prime Minister himself. With the so-called mandate, the Board was sidelined, tender procedures were blatantly ignored and there were questionable, 'unsatisfactory' payments made to certain parties."

After many years of inaction by the ACA and the police, Eric Chia was finally charged for dishonestly authorizing (not pocketing) a payment of RM76 million (0.076 billion) in 2004. This only happened after Mahathir stepped down as PM and Badawi took over. RM76 million is a lot of money but it is miniscule compared to the total loss estimated to be more than RM10 billion. Eventually, Eric Chia was acquitted by the courts in 2007.

The following sums up quite well this costly Perwaja misadventure,

"Perwaja looked like no more than a shining example of a politically conceived, commercially questionable and poorly executed enterprise that predictably failed. Despite lavish funding, a robust economy much of the time and protection from competing imports in the form of both tariffs and quotas, the company was never able to produce steel profitably. It suffered from chronic operating problems and a crushing debt load, including stiff foreign-exchange losses on heavy borrowing abroad. Even after the government decided to swallow RM9.9 billion in accumulated losses and privatize Perwaja in 1996, it continued to flounder.

Yet there was a more sinister side to Perwaja that guaranteed it an exalted place in the pantheon of Malaysian financial scandals. An unknown portion of the RM15 billion or more that the company consumed was ripped off in various rackets and ruses. Although both internal and external reports confirmed that the company was bled white, almost nothing was done to bring the culprits to justice and recover the funds." – Barry Wain

Assalam Tun,

Anyone with the believe or having the intention that says "cash is king" is a corrupted person. Thus Najib is definitely a corrupt.

Anyone who supports a person who is corrupted which he knowingly is very well aware, is also a corrupt. So, Suhainin is one such person.

Salam Tun

Mubarakchan, awesome!

Tun, as I said before, DSN ni dah tak ada tempat nak lari, baik berhenti, buat apa pun tak akan jadi. I dah tengok kiri kanan, atas bawah. Impossible buat successful campaign untuk dia. Kalau DSN admit, salah, kalau DSN tak admit, salah, tutup sana salah, tutup sini salah. Kalau masih berdegil UMNO dan negara lingkup. I told my hubby before I masuk sini yang kalau I jadi PR consultant pun I tak boleh buat. My hubby jawab "Dah appoint Lim Kok Wing". I jawab "I don't think he can do it. LKW memang ada buat kerja for the government but tak lama pun campaign jalan, tengok kempen rakan muda, tak nak and so on". DSN in deep shit! how to do?...hmmm but ofcourse la British Residents akan kata lain, duit masuk ma, harap jangan mereka jadi nasib macam JWW Birch suda la. Orang melayu ini kan famous, kalau marah, run amok. Agong tak boleh buat apa2 ke?

Tun

For Sri Sense. With all due respect, I inadvertently left out the last sentence which should make my previous comment more complete, thus :-

" He (our distinguished and honourable Prime Minister, YAB Dato Seri Najib bin Tun Abdul Razak) was misled by the Civil Servants in the GLCs, the closest associates, the consultants, the party boys, the unqualified cartoonists – eunuchs."

13. Log in to Reply mubarakchan Jul 20, 2015 12:04 PM

Tun

For Sri Sense. Many thanks for your appreciation of my comments only based on facts. Our problems of today arose from years and years of subversion, brainwashing and bribery by the late Dictator (1959-2015) which I observed as long ago as 1965-1965 when our beloved Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad was in the Dewan Rakyat. The Dictator was jealous of our good fortune.

Whenever our beloved Malaysia had any monetary or asset dealings with the late Dictator (1959-2015), we were the loser. There was no exception. From the 1962 Water Agreement, through MSA, the Pan-El fiasco, the CLOB 1965-2000, the Pulau Putih Batu, the ocean blocs, KTM, etc. We were the loser because we forgot about SOVEREIGNTY, NATIONAL INTEREST, SELF-ESTEEM. Fortunately, our beloved Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad saw through the shenanigans of the late Dictator (1959-2015) otherwise much more would have been lost like now.

What goes round comes around, Sri Sense ! The Political System created by the late Dictator (1959-2015) the Godless Ultra Communistic Political and Social System imposed on the citizens by Apparatchiks aka Meritocrats has gone toxic for two cogent reasons. (And it has gone kaput by the importation of 2,000 additional pigs from Sarawak just three months after the demise of the Dictator (1959-2015). Only 5,000 pigs were imported daily from 1997 until this latest import).

1. The departure of the Dictator (1959-2015). This System has already collapsed like those Dictatorial Regimes of Hitler, Mussolini, Franco, Stalin, Mao, Tito, etc. No other person can replace a Dictator !

2. 50% of the citizens openly demand that their CPF contributions be returned to them by the PAP Government which legally channelled the money for undisclosed purposes.

And without much thought or study, our Federal Government created at least 100 GLCs to make money for the Rakyat since 2003 which together with the Federal Government have about ONE TRILLION RINGGITS OF DEBT. No Western democratic country especially the United States do business like the Dictator's Singapore Government and our copy-cat Malaysia.

Whatever the mistake was, fortunately, the mistake involved MONEY MONEY MONEY ONLY and not our Political System, the FREE MALAYSIAN STYLE DEMOCRACY WITH OPEN CAPITALISTIC CHARACTERISTICS AND A MALAY BIAS. But if we become an ASEAN GREECE, then of course, it is another matter with the IMF setting up a branch in Kuala Lumpur. I still remember the picture of Monsieur Michel Camdessus standing with his arms akimbo over President Suharto of Indonesia.

As I always said, Sri Sense, the moment Putrajaya returns to NORMALCY without the GLCs, our beloved Malaysia will take off like a rocket unlike that limp rocket which hung on a piece of cloth since 1966 doing nothing for our National Development but to collect lush gaji as Aduns and become millionaires in the process with pension for three generations.

The wealth potential in our beloved Malaysia is tremendous in NORMAL TIMES and still untapped. Having said that, I do not understand why Civil Servants in GLCs, closest aides, party boys, unqualified cartoonists – eunuchs etc. do such Stone Age tricks with absolute power in their hands and embarrassed our distinguished and honourable Prime Minister, YAB Dato Seri Najib bin Tun Abdul Razak who is absolutely not responsible for their amateurish gimmicks.

MALAYSIA BOLEH ! MALAYS BOLEH ! MALAYSIANS BOLEH !

Cash is Evil
Lies ( FITNAH ) is very EVIL

We Malaysia are facing these both Cash as in
1 .Did PM Najib be the slaves of the Evil Cash ?
or
2. He is the victim of Fitnah , of Lies ?

He ought to be damn to Hell
or
We must protect him as a victim of Fitnah

We Malaysian are made confused with Accusations & Assumptions of each political interest

What I don,t buy is How come WSJ of not ours
Belongs to US and has been know to defame much of the Islamic Nations
Suddenly became God to know so much when it is none of their Business
If they are God then I want to know so many thing from them
Like S,pore Govt has also lost Billions of US dollars in their foreign investment .How transparency it is as Voices there are very much minimal as in No Questions ask ?
Here to extends of personal matters are rip open and curse

Looking into Najib Step sons is a Big questions to me ?
Yesterday they made a Big Huha on Rosmah Ring which today was silence by Najib account .So if Najib account was Cleared ....What's next ?

WHAT A DRAMA ?
I Suggest
Every each of the main character ,The supporting actor ,the man behind the scene , behind the camera
, the producer and the many of those involve in 1MDB , The Opposition , The WSJ , the Accused

HAS ALL TO BE INTERROGATE
NO MORE QUESTIONG
NOT TO WASTE OUR TIME DRAGGING LIKE IN THE HINDI MOVIE

MALAYSIA HAS BEEN DRAG BY MUCH OF OPPOSITION MANY ALLEGATIONS
THAN TOGETHER WE MOVES FORWARD TO PROGRESS

OPPOSITION IS CAMPAIGNING & RALLYING ,NOW & THEN
GIVING SPEECH DAY BY DAY
THOUGH IT IS NOT THE PRU SEASON . ITS ILLEGAL AS GOVT ARE WEAK TO DETER
THESE SHOULD STOP AS CAMPAIGNING OR RALLYING OF ANY POLITICAL AGENDAS
SHOULD BE MADE DURING BEFORE PRU

THIS IS NOT A HUNTING SEASONS

Salam,

Cash is king/Tunai adalah raja bukankah satu fahaman kapitalis?

Jika najib dan rosma menggunakan falsafah ini dalam pimpinan negara mana 'cash' nya? 42b dalam bentuk unit? Dimana cash yang menjadi falsafah najib ni?

Common, projek pan-borneo yang dicanang2 satu pun tak dapat pada kontraktor sarawak dan semua dimonopoli oleh SEORANG sahaja.

Duit GST yang dah dikumpul selama 3 bulan lebih ni masih sepi dengan jadual pembelanjaan? Rakyat nak tahu juga mana 'cash' tu pergi.

Jangan masuk poket obama pulak sebagai bayaran sebab "tolong" cari MH370. Obama datang sini buat apa? Nak sebarkan fahaman "demokrasi" bodoh mereka ke?

Sudah cukup sudah la najib, dah terang tak psyah bersuluh lagi dengan apa yang anda dah buat. Rakyat kira ok minta anda undur dengan aman. Malaysia ni belum ada lagi keganasan ke atas pemimpin dan najib jangan mulakan budaya tu

TQ

In reply to grkumar.

Frankly, what evidence has been proffered by those who claim that emails have been tampered with? Have you seen a side-by-side comparison of the original email(s) and the tampered ones? Don't you think it will be in the PM's, and the nation's, interests that the evidence be shown over the entire world to debunk once and for all the allegations provided in the Sarawak Report and in the WSJ and put these entities into great shame?

On 4th July, 2015 the Attorney General of Malaysia announced the formation of a task force to look into the allegations contained in the WSJ report. The AG's statement also confirmed that he has seen the documents unearthed by the government's investigators and he had provided advice on the next steps these investigators should take. The companies named in the WSJ report were raided and documents seized. So what does this say about the AG? Just another useful idiot? He must be if he took all these actions because of a totally baseless report by the WSJ.

What has the Prime Minister to gain by putting the nation on edge? Why waste more time with the task force if the allegations in the WSJ that RM2.60 billion was banked into his accounts are simply untrue? Just come out to tell this to the nation with the members of the task force by his side. The banks have an electronic record of the transactions and WSJ has provided the transaction dates. Verification should be a matter of hours, especially when it is the PM's accounts and the prestige of the PM and the country is on the line. Why let the matter linger?

You warn Tun Mahathir to be careful about placing himself in the hands of seasoned lawyers in open court. Perhaps this is the reason our beloved Prime Minister has not issued defamation proceedings against Sarawak Report and the WSJ. Come on, the PM and his wife are suing Rafizi for much, much less.

Perhaps you should also think twice before labeling others as useful idiots. You may be surprised by what you'll find when you stand in front of the mirror.

1. Salam Idul Fitri kepada Tun sekeluarga.

2. Saya amat bersetuju dengan saranan Tun kepada pihak yang tidak berpuas hati kononnya Tun terlibat dengan penyalahgunaan wang negara semasa pentadbiran Tun. Bagi saya, sikap keterbukaan siasat diri Tun menunjukkan diri Tun bersih segala rasuah dan penyelewangan wang rakyat selama 22 tahun pemerintahan Tun.

3. Pengamatan saya setakat 6 hari saya bercuti di kampung dan bertemu rakan-rakan, jelas menunjukkan kumpulan yang dulu pro UMNO/BN hampir keseluruhannya membenci Najib dan Rosmah. Hampir 100% berkata dengan jelas PRU14 UMNO akan kalah kerana jika UMNO dan PAS bertemu 1 lawan 1 maka mereka akan memangkah PAS. TERNYATA PENGAMATAN SAYA SEBELUM TENTANG UMNO/BN AKAN TUMBANG PADA PRU14 SEBELUM INI SEMAKIN MENEMUI REALITI. GELOMBANG MEMBENCI NAJIB DAN ROSMAH SERTA PEMBODEK NAJIB ( BUKAN MEMBENCI UMNO/BN ) JELAS PADA RAKYAT DI LUAR BANDAR MAHUPUN DI BANDAR.

4. Kalau majlis tertinggi UMNO tidak melakukan sesuatu atau mempertahankan kedudukan Najib sebagai PM, saya cukup yakin 99% UMNO/BN akan bungkus pada PRU14.

Sekian Tun.

As'salam & Salam Sejahtera.

This leadership has failed us. Let all of us nation-loving Malaysians show these pengkhianat negara who is the king of this great nation. It is not them, but all of us Malaysians. Giving out few hundred ringgit a year but taking back a huge portion of our monthly income, is that doing us good? Informing us that our economy is doing well but there are many jobless Malaysians out there, is that doing us good? Mentioning IM4U everywhere but swindling our hard-earned money for their own selfish personal interest, is that doing us good? Cash is not the king in this great nation, but we nation-loving Malaysians are the real king!

For those who keep on finding the fault of Dr. Mahathir, please live ur life in the present, not in the past. This current leadership is the culprit that causing hardship & difficulty to our life. So it is pointless finding the fault of the past, when the fault of the present is the one that we Malaysians must make it right. Infact Dr. Mahathir had countless times put up a challenge for his accuser to provide the evidence for his alleged fault. So for those ungrateful critics, if you have the evidence, please come forward. If not just shut up & focus on what is happening to our great nation & its people right now!

I LOVE MALAYSIA!

Najib tak pandai mengatur rakyat! Najib kata brim membantu rakyat, sekarang dah masuk dua tuduhan kepada orang kita mencuri :

1. Hp oppo
2. Cermin mata

Najib yang bersalah kerana mengajar rakyat kita " cash is king" najib kata beri brim untuk bantu ekonomi rakyat, kenapa orang kita saja di tuduh menjadi pencuri? Apa najib dah buat? Sebagai orang Melayu saya agak malu bila hal mencuri orang akan tuduh orang kita yang melakukan.

Najib mengajar rakyat Malaysia mencuri... Najib mengajar menteri2 bawahan jadi kurang ajar. Mengapa najib tak berusaha dengan tegas untuk memajukan rakyat.

Anak-anak sekolah semakin ramai yang menjadi tidak pandai dan pemalas sejak Hishamuddin jadi menteri pelajaran dengan asyik mengubah kurikulum pelajaran. Hishamuddin bukan pandai sangat..... cakap pun gagap serta tak berani pandang camera tanda orang yang less confident.... Najib pun sama kalau berucap terjerit2 macam penjual di bazar karat dan bazar Ramadan saja standard najib tu.

2. Idiocy, ignorance, self-serving & incompetence has no limits!

Focus on Lester's message, not his credibility, says Rahman Dahlan

Now this, so called minister comes up and tries to teach our fellow citizen how to think! Oh my gosh. First, this so called Sarawak editor has not worked in the same news agency claiming (but another new agency but from Sarawak) that the other news agency is doing something wrong. If you have the evidence, show it! Don't just make claims like our "beloved" PM that he is being framed. Or, is it another tactic to try to confused the people? Fellow PM consultants, try harder please.

3. And now, news coming up that some of the document has been tampered with. If so, show the real transcript (being monitored and validated by independent party) and we will trust what you are saying! Can you please explain if there is nothing wrong with some of the transaction, how in the world is it possible that Justo able to blackmail from the company that he has left?! This just confirm that there is something very fishy from within.

The recent revelation that many of the so called documents relating to Datuk Najib's negligence, his misappropriation of hundreds of millions of dollars (ringgit) and the like were the invention of a group of people involved in a social experiment is something that's disturbing for all the wrong reasons.

Social experiments like these have long been used to destabilise countries, to send nations to war and to destroy the world to divide people for centuries and to make fool of those who advance these rumours (social experiments) on behalf of others.

Yuri Bezmenov the late Soviet propagandist, social saboteur and KGB defector in one of his many lectures which I was fortunate enough to attend in the US in the 1980's, called the people "useful idiots". That's because they believe without question these rumours, then further engage in distribution of the same, embellishing it with their own distorted perceptions of what it ought to be like (personalizing it)with each mail they receive and send out on the subject. Bezmenov placed western Feminists on the top of that list. Clearly they are not restricted to just western feminists.

With the advent of social media (which Bezmenov had predicted would do most of the damage from the seeds he and people like himself as KGB agents had planted in western society), the cycle would be complete.

He said amongst other things, rulers will undermine their own power through lack of knowledge and complacency. Slaves will rise to undermine the sovereign whilst he is asleep. Soldiers and armies of great nations will be rendered ineffective and impotent against the simplest and crudest of tools of deception which will be lethal force against the wealthy, the powerful and the ignorant. More importantly it will weaken those who discard and disobey the rules.

It appears that what he said was prophetic. Social experiments are what created the situations we are witness to in ISIS, Syria, Tunisia, Egypt, Morocco, Libya, Irak, Afghanistan the current state of the USA, Greece, Spain, Portugal, Italy and now Malaysia.

When one goes on a rampage like the ones against the office and the person of the Prime Minister of any country including Malaysia, and aligns oneself with those forces who discard and reject the law, one is left vulnerable to attack on the same basis.

It is time those who say the PM of Malaysia has accepted hundreds of millions of dollars from 1MDB to provide the proof of their assertions or apologise for the damage they have done to the nation its credibility, the office of the prime minister and more importantly to themselves. The former I doubt they will as the majority especially those lawyers and opposition parties have little or no credibility or personal integrity to defend or worth redeeming.

As for the challenge the Tun puts up on the allegations against him having taken $600,000,000, it is perhaps worth noting the inherent dangers that arise when placing himself in the hands of seasoned lawyers in an open court. It would akin to going into a lion's den expecting to be preserved by the almighty as in the tale of Daniel in the Lion's den in the old testament.

To be examined and cross examined on allegations that are based on half truths and fictions is a position no one in their right minds will subject themselves to. "Give me any ten words written by any man and I will find enough it to hang him". Any prosecutor worth his salt knows the wisdom and the truth and the dangers inherent in that statement.

In order to preserve the integrity of Malaysia's parliamentary democracy it is incumbent upon everyone especially those in the position of the Tun to preserve the sanctity of parliament and the courts by taking such allegations and demands to the courts or to parliament to be decided on the basis of the rules and prevailing national laws. To discard these rules and national laws for the sake of political expedience is to further weaken the political integrity of the state and to invite and legitimize the Bersih's of this world which will inevitably end up in bloodshed, chaos and state the nation will not recover from in the decades to come.

As a statesman who built up much of the modern day Malaysia, the Tun has at the very least his own personal integrity to preserve instead of "running with the hares and hunting with the hounds".

YaALLAH.....

KepadaMu aku sembah.....

.....Allah Maha Besar.....

The common refrain CASH IS KING is a mistaken belief that cash creates more money under normal circumstances. But it is even a more mistaken belief tha KING IS CASH as some have publicly commented that they have the Rakyat's mandate to do anything without the caveat that all Humankind do make mistakes.

The bigger the responsibility the bigger the mistake. Hence, countries have been run into the ground by Dictatorial types like the late Dictator (1959-2015) who brandished his full fledged military based on Lend Lease hardware manned by foreign mercenaries. Only the blind, deaf and dumb cannot see this which cannot last indefinitely and is unsustainable. MONEY MONEY MONEY.

One of our beloved Malaysia's finest Prime Ministers was Tun Hussein Onn who was a strongman in the sense that he had the will and commonsense not to touch money even though he had the mandate from the Rakyat to do anything he liked. This was the true strength of an honourable gentleman who had the Rakyat and their MONEY MONEY MONEY at heart. He was a true and honourable son of his late father Dato Onn – an important National iconic figure of our history.

What is MONEY MONEY MONEY after all ? Our strongman Prime Minister Tun Hussein Onn reputation was not only impeccable but untainted and unblemished to this day.

CASH IS KING is a mistaken belief because it means the more cash a person has the more money he or she makes. This only leads that person to either obtain more and more money or steal it from somewhere to make more money. In practice, this does not work because the concept is wrong by a person who has no concept.

In Government circles, this sort of thinking is utterly dangerous because Governments do have unlimited amount of money. And with a belief that CASH IS KING, a person can easily go over the hill in his or her irrational exuberance. And it is at the end of the day like Greece when the creditors come a'calling. This is the reason why no Western democracy indulge in making MONEY MONEY MONEY in business unlike Singapore and copy-cat Malaysia.

KING IS CASH.

This is even a more frivolous belief than CASH IS KING. Both are actually anti-thesis to the art of making MONEY MONEY MONEY. Why ? We do not have to look far but at the late Dictator (1959-2015) art and method of extracting the MONEY MONEY MONEY legally out of the citizens. This was his Cambridge educated way of doing things even though this went against the traditional beliefs of his Alma Mater – free thinking, free speech and free expression. He was abnormal in his obsession to win at all odds against our beloved Malaysia and the World. He based the keystone of his ambitions on MONEY MONEY MONEY. He forgot about his own soul which was Godless and at his funeral, everything looked stark and without emotion. In time when his Godless Ultra Communistic Political and Social System based on MONEY MONEY MONEY will soon collapse and all those non-living structures will be forgotten like Sparta, Palembang, Goa, French Pondicherry, Babylon etc.

And how do we make MONEY MONEY MONEY in the face of the failures of the late Dictator (1959-2015) and those lucky fellows who abused and demeaned the Mandate given to them by the Rakyat ? The deployment of Civil Servants, closest associates, consultants, unqualified cartoonists, eunuchs etc. ? Sorry ladies and gentlemen ! You all have to do the hard hard work according to the saying that 'there is no such thing as a free lunch'.

I HAVE NEVER SEEN A PAID EMPLOYEE NO MATTER HOW MUCH HE OR SHE WAS PAID MADE MONEY MONEY MONEY FOR THE BOSS ! Commonsense told me that if that person could make MONEY MONEY MONEY for me, he or she might as well make the MONEY MONEY MONEY for themselves !

And how do our household name tycoons like Lee Kong Chian, Khoo Tech Puat, Robert Kuok, Lim Goh Tong, and many others like Tun Daim, Tan Sri Syed Kechik, Tan Sri Azman Hashim etc made their MONEY MONEY MONEY ? All were hard-working and honest. As I told one tycoon 'if you go into politics, half of the country will hate you !'

First, a person must not cheat others to get at the MONEY MONEY MONEY.

Second, he or she must be of good intellect to deal with business issues which are not to be found in any book available in Kino, Borders or MPH. MBAs make a person a manager. Hard work and the gathering of information is a must.

Third, there are tycoons who make big or small money. But still it is MONEY MONEY MONEY.

Fourth, if a person has no ideas to make money but only know how to steal MONEY MONEY MONEY belonging to others, please do not do it as this person only know how to steal. I know of an authentic case where this person stole from his employers and continued stealing until he became a Tan Sri and still continued to steal This is no business at all. It is stealing by a felon.

Fifth, IDEAS MAKE THE MONEY MONEY MONEY. This leads to the CREATION OF MONEY WITHOUT MONEY. Hence, a person need not steal the MONEY MONEY MONEY from others. Ideas are SUSTAINABLE AND RE-CYCLEABLE. Here are the excellent examples of highly intelligent and hard-working tycoons who were all frugal :-

1. Lee Kong Chian. I regard him as the best tycoon in South East Asia in first half of the 20th Century because he made his huge fortune from a simple to execute idea which was to establish rubber or latex purchasing units in the outlying areas where the British were not interested and not restricted. He fulfilled a need for the small-holders who needed to sell their products as soon as possible for cash. From this idea which was his own, his fortune blossomed to this day. There was no necessity for him to steal MONEY MONEY MONEY from others.

2. Khoo Teck Puat. His idea of establishing the Malayan Banking was to serve the small towns of Malaya in fulfilling the Government's requirement to pay its Civil Servants on time. From here, his fortune blossomed despite a couple of hiccups !

3. Robert Kuok Hock Nien. He is actually a World commodity trader and should be titled the Commodity King. I had the privilege to meet him in 1965 when he was on his way to meet a Chicago commodity trader. Trading in commodities was his signal idea and forte which he focussed upon throughout. His hotels were incidental to his business which attracted some copy-cats. Little do they know that a 5 star hotel did not make money until it changed hands three times. Like all hard working tycoons, he spent time studying the commodities even whilst waiting at airports.

4. Lim Goh Tong. A hardy tycoon who had a fixed objective of achieving what he wanted which was the setting up of a jungle mountain top casino. My Canadian friend, the Chairman of the Alberta Gaming Commission visited me to take him up to Genting which I never visited. I was curious why he did so as he did not tell me his job until I read his obituary. He commented admiringly, ' Imagine having a mountain-top casino in the middle of the jungle !'

There you are, Ladies and Gentlemen ! There is no necessity to cheat like the multi-billionaires mentioned above. We have all the ingredients to be rich as long as we do not believe that CASH IS KING OR KING IS CASH. There is no alternative to doing one's own hard work honestly and realising one's own internal strengths – only you yourself know it. And NEVER BE JEALOUS OF OTHERS BECAUSE THIS NEGATIVE THINKING WILL HOLD BACK YOUR WILL TO MAKE MONEY MONEY MONEY UNNECESSARILY. You have your own destiny. Others have theirs.

Hence, with all those true stories of tycoons and their hard-work, intellect and honesty, I find it hard to believe that a person needs to steal MONEY MONEY MONEY belonging to others in this bountiful land and its beautiful people known as our beloved MALAYSIA.

As I see it there all still many opportunities for all given the right priorities in our behaviour. NO NEED TO BE JEALOUS OR BLAME OTHERS.

This is why I say

MALAYSIA BOLEH ! MALAYS BOLEH ! MALAYSIAN BOLEH ! Like our beloved Tun, who likes all Malaysians to be rich, very rich but not just a selected few.

Salam Tun.

1. Kesilapan atas projek yang Tun cadangkan yang telah dibatalkan oleh PM sekarang merugikan dalam kos terhadap pemilikan yang diperolehi dengan jumlah wang yang telah dikeluarkan oleh kerajaan. Ini bermakna belanja lebih dari apa yang kerajaan miliki. Kalau duit dari sumber hasil jualan bahan galian eksport negara sahaja tidak apalah sebab ia tidak akan mengganggu cukai duit rakyat.
2. Dengan GST kini dikenakan pasti rakyat yang menanggung semua kesalahan serta kerugian dalam jual beli yang telah dibuat oleh kerajaan. Kalau kerajaan menafikan tiada wang rakyat digunakan tiada sebab cukai dari rakyat yang tanggung dinaikkan dan bentuk yang baru diperkenalkan.
3. GST silap sebab berlakunya kenaikan harga yang kesannya terpaksa ditanggung rakyat oleh tiadanya perbezaan terhadap tangga gaji atau jumlah wang setiap individu dapat dalam sehari. Manakala BR1M pula tidak cukup kalau dikatakan sebagai balasan pengganti pada cukai GST yang terpaksa ditanggung harian. Jadi BR1M tidak salah malah tidak cukup dan rakyat memerlukan lagi insentif kalau cukai-cukai sentiasa naik dan tidak turun bila ekonomi rakyat merosot.
4. Kerajaan bila ekonominya merosot dibantu oleh cukai-cukai yang dikenakan terhadap rakyatnya sebaliknya ekonomi rakyat merosot terutama yang tidak sama antara individu pasti ada yang mufliis.
5. Soalnya tiada siapa yang patut mempertahankan seseorang itu jika didapati bersalah menggunakan wang kerajaan yang termasuk setiap individu rakyat Malaysia. Malah tiada siapa boleh menggunakan akaun termasuklah sebagai teransit kepada akaun kerajaan Malaysia. Semua kena siasat termasuklah akaun yang telah di tutup dan ia mudah jangan kata tidak boleh kerana peribadi sebab kuasa seseorang kerana kita hanya ingin melihat transaksi keluar masuk kecangihan milik bank yang telah digunakan sebelum ini mencari pesalah -pesalah secara canggih menunjukkan ada ciri keselamatan dari pihak bank.

6. Melindungi untuk menunjukkan negara kita bersih tidak akan bertahan lama lambat laung kebenaran akan tertegak jua ingat anda bersubahat kepada rakyat yang terkena sekarang yang pasti menuntutnya kembali secara adil dihadapan yang maha berkuasa Allah s.w.t.

Wallahua'lam.

Mahatir,

I apologise but your country that is Malaysia is 'fubar'.

It is such a shame. It could be where Korea or Vietnam or even Thailand is today....Instead your country is turning into what the world has known it was all along, a corrupt backwater, running out of oil, losing its talent, being raped by its cronies, Unsophisticated, uneducated and naive ill informed public, everything that is wrong and evil can be found in Malaysia.. What a shame.

No body respects Malaysia, but do Malaysians really care? It is only when you are self aware, you begin to understand where you stand in the world. China has and is learning this lesson. Will Malay-sia?

Assalamualaikum Tun.....

Banging with "Cash Is King" ?

I'm "The King" – "Kingkoi – The King Of The ConArtist Kingdom".

Tun....Are you sure that you are wearing the angle wings?

The Australian government's efforts to contain the regional political fallout from the country's first big foreign bribery trial has boomeranged, with Indonesian President Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono demanding to know why his name has been mentioned in an unusual blanket suppression order issued by the judge who will hear the case.

As Asia Sentinel reported on July 30, the case is also resonating in Malaysia, where the names of the current prime minister, Najib Razak (Najib Denied it), and his two predecessors, Abdullah Badawi (Badawi Denied it) and Mahathir Mohammad (Are You?), are listed in the court order. In a third country, Vietnam, the names of top Communist Party figures are also listed. (See: Australia 'Gags' a Massive Banknote Scandal)

The suppression order, which itself is not supposed to be mentioned by the Australian media partly on grounds of "national security" and preserving key international relationships, was obtained and published on July 29 by Wikileaks. The case, involving two Reserve Bank of Australia subsidiaries, Note Printing Australia and former subsidiary Securrency, has since been given wide coverage overseas and has leaked back into Australia despite authorities' efforts to keep it bottled up.

Beyond those three countries, in committal hearings a Securrency document listed agents in 17 countries: Bangladesh, India, Angola, Botswana, Dubai, Madagascar, Mauritius, Mozambique, Namibia, South Africa, Swaziland, Uganda, China, Argentina, Uruguay, Nigeria and Chile. In other testimony, the names of Chinese central bankers and Nepalese officials have emerged, along with a long list of individuals connected to the case.

"I haven't seen a country which involves an agent where they [Securrency] did not commit bribery," Australian Federal Police agent Rohan Pike told the court.

The order contains the names of the seven accused, all former executives Note Printing Australia Securrency who were allegedly involved in bribing foreign officials to secure sales for Australia's technology to make hard-wearing and relatively counterfeit-proof polymer bank notes.

In addition it lists local fixers as well as the political leaders and officials in the three Asian countries. The explosive case involves not only widespread bribery but the purchase of the services of prostitutes for government leaders, bankers and others.

As well as Indonesia's Yudhoyono, his predecessor as president in 2001-2004, Megawati Sukarnoputri, and her minister for state-owned enterprises, Laksamana Sukardi, are listed. On Thursday, Yudhoyono was quoted by Jakarta media as saying: "I ask that Australia issue a statement that both [former president] Megawati [Sukarnoputri] and my names are unstained, and so they do not defame other Indonesian officials. We want to hear directly from Australia.

Assalamualaikum Tun.....

RUPA-RUPANYA MULUS KU SANGKA MOLEK... RUPANYA TUN MAHATHIR INI – "PEPAT DILUAR, RENCONG DI DALAM". TUN MAHATHIR RUPANYA SEORANG PENCURI...

Skandal wang kertas polimer disebutkan dalam Asia Sentinel bahawa Tun Mahathir Mohamad ini seorang perasuah lalu boleh kita anggap Tun Mahathir ini seorang pencuri.... Pelapor paling kurang – tahu serba sedikit tentang rasuah yang di amalkan Mahathir.... Tun seorang penipu!!!! Skandal rasuah wang polimer ini menghangat pada tahun 1999 – Tun Mahathir perdana menteri ketika itu....

(By Asia Sentinel):-

The Australian government has issued an unprecedented blanket gag order prohibiting anyone in Australia from reporting the names of the current or past leaders of Indonesia, Malaysia or Vietnam “or their relatives and other senior officials” in connection with a multimillion dollar bribery case apparently involving contracts for bank notes in each of the countries.

It isn't known how the Southeast Asian leaders, totaling 17, are connected to the bribery case, which has been called the biggest scandal in Australian history. But they include three Malaysian prime ministers – Mahathir Mohamad, Abdullah Ahmad Badawi and current Premier Najib Tun Razak – as well as former Finance Minister Daim Zainuddin and former international trade and commerce minister Rafidah Aziz. It also includes Abdullah Badawi's sister-in-law, Puan Noni.

The gag order also includes two Indonesian presidents, Megawati Sukarnoputri and current leader Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono and the current Vietnam President, Truong Tan San as well as lesser officials.

In June, seven senior executives of the Reserve Bank of Australia, the country's central bank, were secretly indicted on allegations that partly owned subsidiaries, Securrency and Note Printing Australia, had paid bribes to government officials of the three countries and others to obtain contracts to supply polymer banknotes. The scandal has been percolating in all of the countries behind the scenes for months if not years.

“This is the worst corruption scandal in our history, not because of the amount of money that's been involved, but because the most respected institutions of our country have failed to discharge their responsibilities to the public,” Dr. David Chaikin of the University of Sydney Business School told the Sydney Morning Herald.

Australia began experimenting with plastic banknotes with holographic devices to guard against forgery as early as 1968. The notes were considered more durable, more environmentally friendly and less likely to carry dirt and disease. They were released in Australia in 1988. Securrency was formed in 1996 as a joint venture between the bank and Innovia Films to market the technology overseas. By 2009, Securrency was exporting to 25 countries, with more than three billion polymer notes in circulation. Apparently, if news reports are to be believed, marketing them required considerable ingenuity. Not all of the countries named in the gag order have the plastic banknotes.

The gag order was made public by Julian Assange, the Australian who heads Wikileaks. He called it “the worst [gag order] in living memory.” The Australian government, Assange said in a press release, “is blindfolding the Australian public to cover up an embarrassing corruption scandal involving the Australian government.”

The gag order document specifically bans the publication of the order itself as well as an affidavit affirmed last month by Australia's representative to Asean, Gillian Bird, who has just been appointed as Australia's Permanent Representative to the United Nations. The gag order effectively blacks out the largest high-level corruption case in Australia and the region, Assange said.

The scandal blew open in 2012 after running behind the scenes for as long as a decade, with bribes allegedly paid in countries as far away as Nigeria, the United Kingdom, Spain and Latin America as well as the three Southeast Asian nations. In a case that has been described as having security implications, it was believed that Securrency, whose interest has since been sold by the Australian central bank, offered sexual favors in addition to bribes.

For instance, the Melbourne-based Age reported that one of the most senior Securrency managers allegedly secured an Asian prostitute for a visiting deputy governor of an unnamed foreign central bank in 2007. The witness, a Securrency employee, gave the Australian Federal Police his diary in which he recorded the middleman telling him in 2007 that the "governor would be very happy if the commission [payment] was increased."

The Age reported that agents had been paid almost A$50 million in commissions since 2003. After the audit's release, according to The Age, two top executives left the company.

Records made public by the Sydney Morning Herald showed that in 2007, Reserve Bank assistant governor Frank Campbell was told how Securrency had engineered a dodgy business deal to hide a $492,000 payment to an allegedly corrupt Malaysian arms dealer. The arms dealer's company wrote to Campbell demanding further payments, stating it had convinced the "Prime Minister and the Malaysian cabinet" to give out contracts. Abdullah Ahmad Badawi was the Malaysian prime minister at the time.

The Reserve Bank, the paper reported, "unwittingly or otherwise hampered the federal police bribery inquiry by failing to inform police for several months in 2009 of incriminating documents it held regarding its subsidiaries' activities. At the same time the RBA was withholding crucial documents, senior RBA officials approved Securrency transferring millions of dollars offshore in payments that authorities now suspect included large bribes."

Although Reserve Bank officials said they had no idea of the corruption concerns involving Securrency, confidential files indicated that as early as 2007 the Reserve Bank was told that Securrency was seeking to hide inflated contracts and that the issue was also raised at a Note Printing Australia board meeting in September 2007 attended by Reserve Bank officials.

Fairfax, the publisher of the Sydney Morning Herald, revealed in June 2007 that what was described as an explosive memo had been sent to the central bank alleging that bribes had been paid to win contracts to peddle the currency notes.

Nonetheless, there was no sign of enforcement activity on the part of Australian authorities despite multiple reports in other countries.

The last known blanket suppression order of this nature was granted in 1995 and concerned the joint US-Australian intelligence spying operation against the Chinese Embassy in Canberra, Assange said in his prepared release.

"The concept of 'national security' is not meant to serve as a blanket phrase to cover up serious corruption allegations involving government officials, in Australia or elsewhere," Assange said. "It is in the public interest for the press to be able to report on this case, which concerns the subsidiaries of the Australian central bank. Who is brokering our deals, and how are we brokering them as a nation? Corruption investigations and secret gag orders for 'national security' reasons are strange bedfellows. It is ironic that it took Tony Abbott to bring the worst of 'Asian Values' to Australia."

Salam Tun,

Menerusi bual2 kosong berkaitan politik sepanjang aidilfitri ni dgn pelbagai latar belakang org. Saya rumuskan seperti berikut;

1. PAS pro ulamak_ Ada kalangan yg berckp sedikit lunak tentang najib. Kata mereka..segala masalah economy dan sosial sekarang berlaku sekarang sebenarnya hasil dari 22 tahun pemerintahan tun. Hinggakan keluar ayat.. doa Arwah Fadhil minta dipanjangkan umur tun supaya dpt lihat kerosakkan yg dibuat..
2. Golongan pro najib dlm Umno_ tun patut beri ruang kpd najib berpolitik gaya ' new politic' . Zaman pendekatan tun dah x relevant.. kalo andaikata tun masih memerintah sekarang pun pasti akan goyang dgn ledakan media sosial, dan tekanan antarabangsa..
3. Golongan Gen Y_ signifikan dgn kenyataan zahra.. mereka x kisah pasal bangsa. Yg penting boleh survive dlm tekanan hidup semasa. Lebih mementingkan isu cost living yg semakin menekan dan urus tadbir government yg lemah. Kebanyakan kecewa dgn menteri2 lantikan najib yg dijadikan bahan lawak semata..
4. Pas pro G18 dan PKR_ kebanyakan mereka berasa amat yakin utk mengambillalih pemerintahan negara next general election dgn keadaan sosial economy dan politic yh x stabil sekarang..
5. Chinese_ concern dgn nilai matawang yg semakin merudum..x ambil pusing sgt dgn kes 1mdb dan lain2 sebab confident with DAP will take the leadership on pembangkang n not possible to win next election.
6. Makcik2 kampung_ harga barang naik.

Harap para pemimpin UMNO take note.

Selamat Hari Raya Tun.

Assalamualaikum Tun and hi fellow bloggers,

Anwar was found guilty of corruption – misusing his powers

But from what I see, the situation now is scarier.....

Looks like a lot of people are/will misuse their positions – real big time corruption.

The other day I came across a talk by an ustaz about the 5 phases of happenings before doomsday...it seems that we are at the 4th phase whereby the the leaders all around the world 'bermaharajalela' – getting out of control

I have the feelings that Malaysia is having such characteristic with our leaders...

Selamat hari raya edil fitri utuk Tun sekeluarga . maaf zair dan batin .

Tun , consider this Obama will visit Malaysia this October ,the Dutch Government's Safety Board will in October make public its long awaited report detailing its assessment of last year's downing of Malaysia Airlines flight MH-17 over East Ukraine. Coupled with the Victoria's Supreme Court of Australia rulings on PM Najib and others alleged involvement in the polymer banknotes scandal .

Either it's mere coincidence or extraordinary piece of good timing ?

Western powers (US) via Australia is sending Pm Najib a "love letter" he better "play ball" or else we'll "rotan" you .

Hence the old saying "When You've Got Them By The Balls Their Hearts And Minds Will Follow" or in simpler terms checkmate .

Thus PM Najib and Co trotting and holidaying around the world are numbered .

If my assumptions is proven correct , two thing will happens.

1 ; PM Najib will sign the TPPA trade agreements the cause of it , the government knows best reversing his earlier statement that the era of all knowing government is over and good for Malaysia economy .

2: Malaysia will "whole heartily" support the western powers (US) version of events pertaining to the MH17 incident .

<http://www.rt.com/trends/malaysia-mh17-plane-crash/>

<http://russia-insider.com/en/mh17-blaming-putin-game-goes/ri8763>

Maybe national interests and security likely to be flush down the proverbial toilet.

Given the reasons above the meaning of word proxy is an understatement.

5. Rm600 million is lost under tdm as claimed by opposition party?

6. Now, with felda global venture listing in wall street by president umno cum pm malaysia supported by tdm, ds najib and his family made themselves rich and famous at the expense of hidup melayu, ketuanan melayu, adakah beliau salah?

7. Rm2.67 billion was landed in ds najib personal account, and thats no doubt about it.

8. But does this money meant for himself?

9. He might be naive, but he is not stupid.

10. To be honest tok det, to win malay votes, ds wan azizah also can do.

11. To win malaysian votes to drive our economy out of stagflation, its hard.
  12. Can pm najib ride through this?
  13. If he cant, umno president cannot be the pm.
  14. I personally think pm najib learned his lesson hard.
  15. As umno no 1 member, I sincerely hope tdm give him moral support as bapa malaysia.
  16. As umno no 1, I sincerely hope tdm does not make this country an islamic country through back door.
  17. Sibotak, jika quantitative measue by merging umno and pas via top guns just to win votes, it will only spell kemunduran umno baru dan pas saja.
  18. We are in 2015, bukan 1915.
  19. The scandal of 1mdb is an opportunity to challenge ourselves to the next level or an obstacle that needs to be erased, no one can decide.
  20. Never count chickens before egg hatch.
- Selamat hari raya tok det, and I wish you raya for many years to come.

Dear Tun

I faham if businessmen kata CASH IS KING, that means they ada duit nak beli other businesses, I also faham if stock investors kata CASH IS KING, that means they rather simpan duit dari beli overvalued stocks dan beli undervalued stocks. But politician kata CASH IS KING, I tak faham. Because politician is all about power, kalau politician kata CASH IS KING, that means the politician is a very dangerous politician. Am I right?

Salam YAB dan Yang DiKasihi Tun,

'Cash is King'

1. PM Najib is a good example of a person who has become 'Hamba Duit'.
2. Yes, you're right Tun. PM Najib refused to be your proxy, but unfortunately he lets himself be others' (foreigners) proxy. Bang*ng or 'bodoh sombong'?
3. Tun, 'Pahlawan Bugis' mana berani untuk sambut cabaran Tun. Dengan WSJ yang menuduh beliau pun masih lagi main tarik tali. WSJ sudah kena saman atau belum? Atau beliau tidak ada kes untuk menyaman sebab tuduhan WSJ adalah benar.

Selamat Hari Raya Aidil Fitri buat Tun, Tun Hasmah, dan keluarga. Maaf zahir dan batin.

Selamat Hari Raya kepada semua pengunjung2 blog chedet yang beragama Islam. Maaf zahir batin.

Terima kasih Tun.

*** Semoga Allah S.W.T. sentiasa melindungi Tun sekeluarga ***

Arwah Ahmed Deedat on one of his speech

Weapons can never solves any Dispute

It kills , it Destroy ,it's Babaric

Those Barbarians that produce weapons ,Lies that kills , never solves their uneasiness , never have the peak of happiness

They are pounded with one after another disaster that never solves till today

Their own weapons has concurred Islam without a touch of any Military Weapons

Many Western , thousands of American ,even the Jews today converts Islam

The poor, the moderate , the rich , their superstars , the professional lawyers , doctor ,the judge

Many of them converts to Islam out of their own willingness just with the touch of Al Quran

It's Hidayah and they are much embracing than the exciting Muslim

Islam has Filled their Blanks

It goes with Najib believes

Cash is King

That Cash King is now swallowing Najib

This Cash King now that put him into much trouble today

Pak Lah , Najib is Wrong not to listen to Tun Mahathir

A Man , A Prime Minister that has serves Malaysia for 22years with FLying Colors

With Honor ,with Pride with Sincerity

Why they would not listen to Tun Mahathir ?

Perhaps Tun should elaborates this in his Blogs for our understanding

Are their mind been corrupted and Fooled by foreign influence which I think it seems to be ?

Is it not Right Tun ?

I kindly request Tun to clarify on my this very question

For us Malaysia to indentify so as not to be drifted again with the same problem

Even our next and future PM

This is important to Malaysia

Whats so wrong for Najib to become a proxy PM to Tun M? Having proven his incompetence tirelessly on a daily basis, he can become nothing more than a proxy PM. If he lets Tun be the de facto PM, we would not be in such a quandary that we are now trapped in. By sidelining Tun Najib became a proxy to the superpowers; the multibillion ringgit "advisors", local and foreign; and not least Singapore.

Being a proxy PM (to Tun presumably) has its perks....you hardly have to think. You can be merry, wine and dine as heads of states do and sleep soundly, with whoever happens to be your wife that night. (God forbids the hippo). And you know that the ship of state is in fine hands, in top form, all dandy and hunky dory.

Come to think of it, Pak Lah would have made a better proxy PM to Tun. He would have just slept through it all.....(oops), but he did though, while the Tingkat 4 Boys were running amok uncontrollably.

Losing the plot is not for the incompetents only but also for those with an axe to grind, those with a vendetta whose superhuge egos were somehow bruised by random slights here and there (I believe Tun did not slight people intentionally, although he does not suffer fools quite that gladly, hence his legendary sarcasms), or those who were all over the place but each time ended up in the wrong one....and so never quite arrived.

We are not surprised when Najib proved his incompetence endlessly. He's not that well educated contrary to what somebody here commented earlier. He either did not complete his degree at Nottingham University in the UK or he just passed cukup makan. He lost the plot quite a while back.

But for somebody else whose English accent itself is impeccable and whose presence anywhere is formidable, losing the plot definitely not due to some impaired IQ like what a certain menteri suffers. My best guess is that he expected to be elevated to certain high position or be rewarded with some kind of high honours during Tun's time due to his own perceived self-importance. However, he was completely ignored by Tun, right through to the end of his tenure as PM. That I guess hurt this buffoon tremendously and he'll never forgive Tun for it. He even joined the DAP in the hope of getting even with Tun....only God knows how. Unfortunately even a failed accountant saw through him and offered him a miserly RM50k for him to stay on in DAP, for thats what he's thought to be worth, not a single dime more. Now that he's at last caught Tun's attention (by proposing to investigate Tun's "misbehaviour" with the RM600million LME's loss, instead of pinning down Najib), its already too late. Tun's no longer in a position to offer him anything except perhaps some more slights and sarcastic remarks.

Tun, happy Hari Raya Edalfitri to you and Tun Dr. Siti Hasmah. I would like to thank you for tirelessly speaking up now for the sake of the country and for your stewardship and vision during all the years you served as PM.

You have said before that you called for PM Najib to step down not because of a personal grudge against him but because of your concern that unless he did so UMNO will lose in the next election. I would like to ask you what your thoughts are on the perpetuation of race- or religion-based parties in Malaysia. How much longer do you think they can continue without dividing the population further down the lines of race and religion? Do you see them as continuing to be relevant 10 years from now? Is it really necessary to have a Malay political party to safeguard the rights of the Malay people when their rights are enshrined in the constitution?

Also I would like to know what are your ideas on how the racial divides in Malaysia can be bridged, short of banning vernacular schools, vernacular languages and non-Islamic religious worship? What is government's role in promoting tolerance and respect? And what missteps in particular do you see in the present government or political environment that have eroded this? Or is it a general failure to show good leadership?

Respectfully yours, I wish you all the best.

Najib is now facing his Stupidity act

Stupid of assuming being nice to abolish ISD
These now He should learned what ISD meant

Engaging Foreign Advise The Brits
He has the answer now
Is like getting stranger to screw his butt

Duplicating S,pore ERS
S,pore govt knows what they are into They know what they are doing and after
They gives few hundred dollars as ERS as like The Brim to their people
But They took thousands before from the people itself
Its the people own money that they gives that also when election starts to heat
Najib gives Blindly and Bluntly from Govt Revenue that will bankrupt the Govt
See how stupid Najib is

Aboves He refused to listen to his true advisor Tun Mahathir
As the Right direction and way it should be

My views of why Najib has to quit
Is more of his incapable , incompetency rather than trust on him

Najib , the Brits Shifu , S,pore ideology or advise has to go
Malaysia needs A True Malaysia leader
Who puts Malaysia aboves his needs
To make Right decision be it ,it does not Please

Dear Tun,

Orang melayu mudah lupa. Pemimpin melayu khususnya UMNO selepas Tun melepaskan jawatan semakin jauh tersasar dari tujuan sebenar mereka dipilih oleh rakyat. Berbanding bangsa lain di Malaysia saya rasa orang melayu sudah hilang rasa hormat pada orang tua. Orang tua yang suatu ketika dahulu yang mendidik mereka dan menjadi leverage kepada mereka mengecapi kejayaan. Pemerhatian saya Tun, orang cina dan india kita pun cukup tahu untuk menghormati dan menghargai orang tua mereka.

Apapun Tun kami tahu siapa di pihak salah siapa benar. Cuma kami tidak berdaya bak anjing menyalak bukit. Namun kami percaya sependai pandai tupai melompat akhirnya akan tersungkur ke tanah juga. Kami percaya Tuhan itu masih ada.

Buat Tun, saya dan seisi keluarga ingin menyatakan sokongan padu kami kepada Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad, through thick and thin we will be with you. You have done enough of what is right Tun. Let Allah settle things according to his will, surely He will not let the deceptors forever deceive. Their time will come for sure.

Saya dan famili juga ingin mengambil kesempatan ini untuk mengucapkan Selamat Hari Raya Aidilfitri buat Tun dan Tun Dr. Siti Hasmah serta seisi keluarga. Semoga tahun hadapan kita semua akan bertemu Ramadhan dan Aidilfitri sekali lagi insha Allah. Do take care dearest Tun Mahathir. You always have this special place in our hearts.

Tun buat lawak la pulak.
Sape sokong Najib memang pelawak.
Ahmad Maslan pun dah dijadikan bahan lawak harian.
Tak tangkis serangan pada 1MDB dengan jawapan pun satu lagi kes lawak.
Lawak lawak jugak, Low Yat bukan perkara lawak.
Sekali Ketua Polis cuba berlawak, rakyat takkan berlawak.
GST bukan bahan lawak. Barang naik bukan perkara lawak. 1MDB bukan lawak. Rakyat tensen bukan pelawak.
Lawak bukannya pelawak, kes Low Yat akan membara.
Ini bukan lawak. Bersedialah ke aras seterusnya.
Satu perkara yang tertangguh sejak 2008.
MH17, pembuka jalan. Dia telah datang.

Assalam mualaikum
Dear Tun yg Mulia
Selamat Hari Raya , Maaf Zahir dan batin. Semoga Allah swt sentiasa memberi perlindungan dan panjang usia.

Cash is King – and with that, out of desperation not only due to you pressuring him but with all newspapers be it local and foreign exposing his slick operation of 1MDB, he has no choice. But to BUY ALL THE LEECHES, PARASITES, STRAY CATS, RUNNING DOGS AND LALANGS to be on his side. He wants all these vagabonds to expose ALL the wrongdoings of not only you Tun but your family. He rather willingly stoop that low just to try to keep you shut up and even to the extend of terminating your presence

The latest is the collection of cars that your son Mohzani has which totaled nearly RM36 million What is this amount compared to his stepson's purchases of luxury apartments in New York and producing a porn film which is more than 20 times of the cars value.

Now the Thai police has come up that Justo did forged the emails and also will be charged for extortion and blackmail of PetroSaudi. In my opinion it is too late to change things now. The 30 millions Malaysians has already decided to look at Najib and his family with Negative perception. What more the lavish wedding that they spent on the daughter and the RM 2 million in the personal account of his wife. Not forgetting the hundreds of thousand of handbags, jewelleries, watches, shoes and what not.

Your question to him was simple..very simple..” where did that RM 42 billion goes to “ And that question were thrown at him quite long ago which he could easily responded. But he chose to keep silent. That proves that this Najib's intelligence or IQ is way below that what we expected from a highly educated person. If he got brain, the least he could do in order not to let the public knows the real truth is to seek an appointment with you and privately explain what happened to the money.

Instead he chose to proclaim himself as a Bugis warrior ( fyi this is a Bugis Pahang ..NOT Bugis Johor or Bugis Selangor or Bugis Melaka like me ) who claimed will not abandoned ship. Unfortunately as a Bugis warrior he should be in front of the attacking line BUT instead he gets all his stupid Mentris and others to attack you aimlessly without substance. Najib has lost direction completely since the death of his close friend The advises he gets now is just to please him and not to tell the real truth what is happening to this country now and what the Rakyat thinks about him and his family.

Somehow I got a feeling he may win but at the expense of the Rakyat and the integrity of this country. He have no choice but to sell his souls to foreign governments like USA, UK, Australia, Singapore so long they support and sided him. What more he controlled virtually everyone in this country from the IGP, the Bank Governor, the MAAC, the PAC , all heads of Government Depts, etc. MONEY IS KING even if it will just temporary. The ultimate objection is to keep Tun's mouth shut !!

only during his tenure one can see foreign powers coming into this country..Cameroon, Abbot, Obama and maybe a Jew too has been to this country even though Malaysians were not aware about it. During your time no one from these countries came here except Margaret Thatcher BUT to bow and plead with you to lift the ' Buy British Last " policy.

Tun, all Malaysians are behind you. That you do not have to worry. Our prayers are that this country can regain back its soveriegnit, pride and respect worldwide.
