

SPEAKING FRANKLY
Chedet.cc
18 August 2016
Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad

1. Musa's book "Frankly Speaking" makes interesting reading. Speaking frankly does not mean speaking truthfully. And when talking of things which happened 30-40 years ago, the accuracy of incidents and conversations are affected by current situations.
2. Frankly Speaking seeks to blame me for everything that happened in UMNO and the Government over all these years. Musa naturally does not blame himself for anything. He is as innocent as a newborn child. Which explains why he is so popular.
3. On loyalty. He said I demanded absolute loyalty. On that basis many including Musa, would have felt the full weight of my displeasure.
4. Musa contested for Deputy President against Tengku Razaleigh.
5. Musa came to see me to seek my support for his bid. I am prepared to swear on the Quran that he did this.
6. I was not willing to support him openly because I did not like the idea that I might have to work with Tengku Razaleigh if the latter became Deputy President and Deputy Prime Minister should Musa lose.
7. Now Sanusi says I asked him to campaign for Musa against Tengku Razaleigh. I may have but I cannot remember AIDS (Anwar Ibrahim, Daim, Sanusi) trying to bring down Musa when he was the heir apparent. Zam or Zainudin Maidin, editor of Utusan may remember. But I wonder if Utusan carried out an investigation. It often reports hearsay.
8. In the event Musa won and was appointed Deputy Prime Minister by me. But he was unhappy I retained Tengku Razaleigh as Minister of Finance in my Cabinet. He indicated that I should drop him (Tengku Razaleigh) altogether. I could not as I would lose Tengku Razaleigh's supporters.
9. After Tengku Razaleigh again lost to Musa in the 1984 party elections, I moved Tengku Razaleigh to the Ministry of International Trade and Industry. I still did not drop him and I don't think Musa was pleased.
10. Musa's supporters named the Government as the 2M Government. I did not object even though it was unusual. His supporters also felt that I should stay as Prime Minister about as long as Tun Razak and Tun Hussein. But I showed no sign of wanting to step down.
11. Then Musa resigned as Deputy Prime Minister and Deputy President. I was annoyed as I thought he was the right person to succeed me eventually as PM. I did not expect to be Prime Minister for 22 years at that time. No one did. Certainly not Musa.
12. A meeting of the Supreme Council was held to discuss Musa's resignation. If I wanted absolute loyalty I should have expelled him as Najib did for those he thought were not loyal enough to him.

13. Zam saw me prior to the Supreme Council meeting. He indicated that I was in for a surprise that night. He seemed to think that the Supreme Council would reinstate Musa even if I was opposed to it.

14. The Supreme Council did decided to persuade him to withdraw his resignations. I did not oppose the decision.

15. A delegation headed by Wan Mokhtar, Menteri Besar of Terengganu, flew to the UK to personally appeal to him.

16. He agreed to return only as Deputy President. I had no choice but to appoint Che Ghafar (Baba) as Deputy Prime Minister.

17. Musa was obviously not loyal to me at all. But I accepted his decision to return as deputy president of the party only. Later he was to show even greater disloyalty.

18. He went to Davos in Switzerland to see Tengku Razaleigh, his arch rival. Tengku Razaleigh was persuaded by him to contest for Presidency of the party at the next party election.

19. Surprisingly Musa himself indicated that he would contest for Deputy Presidency. In other words if they won he would be Deputy Prime Minister to Tengku Razaleigh as Prime Minister. His assertion now that he would not be in Tengku Razaleigh's Cabinet is something new. It is absurd. Why contest for Deputy President, who traditionally becomes Deputy Prime Minister, if he had no intention to be a part of the Government as Deputy Prime Minister. If Ghafar had lost against Musa, I would have to appoint him again as my deputy. But will he accept?

20. Despite all these I did not take any action against him. When he did not join Tengku Razaleigh's Semangat 46, I appointed him as special envoy to the United Nations with ministerial rank. Does this make me sound like a man who cannot and could not tolerate anything but absolute personal loyalty as alleged by Musa.

21. During the campaign for President and Deputy President, many of my Ministers and Deputy Ministers were against me. They included Abdullah Badawi, Rais Yatim, Syed Hamid and Kadir Sheikh Fadzir.

22. The record will show that I reappointed Syed Hamid and Kadir as Ministers in my Cabinet. Later I appointed Abdullah and Rais Yatim to the Cabinet. I even chose Abdullah Badawi as Deputy Prime Minister when Anwar left the party. And eventually Abdullah Badawi became Prime Minister upon my resigning. Is this how a man who cannot tolerate disloyalty treat people who were obviously disloyal to him?

23. I never behaved like Najib who demoted, removed and expelled leaders for even mildly questioning him about the 1MDB. He did not even allow UMNO delegates to talk about 1MDB and 2.6billion Ringgit in his private account. Those who did were considered as disloyal and have all been expelled.

24. Najib now talks about loyalty to the institution of President of UMNO. He does not allow contests for President as I did when Musa and Tengku Razaleigh challenged Ghafar and me. Anyone not fully supporting him, be they Ministers or civil servants were removed or transferred or medically retired. He is not tolerant as I was. I reserve a right to criticise his intolerance of opposition.

25. Loyalty to a leader is essential if an organisation is to function. But when a leader deviates or commits a crime, continuing to be loyal to him is wrong. In fact it is the duty of loyal followers to advise and even criticise their leader. And if the leader fails to heed the advise, they should stop being loyal to him.

26. I led the country for 22 years. The party and the electorate could overthrow me any time. Elections to the (party) Supreme Council were held regularly. But for five General Elections I led the party to victory with 2/3rd majority. I did not use money. No BR1M even. But the voters decided based on their perception of things, not because of absolute loyalty.

27. If Musa wants to speak frankly, then cite known events or refer to documents, including to news reports at the time. Yes, I did call Mohamed Rahmat "Mat Bulat" because he was stout. I did not mind people calling me "bomoh". I thought it was a friendly reference to my profession.

VERSI BM

BERCAKAP TERUS TERANG

1. Buku Musa "Frankly Speaking" adalah bahan bacaan yang menarik. Bercakap terus terang tidak bermakna bercakap benar. Dan apabila bercakap mengenai perkara yang berlaku 30-40 tahun lalu, ketepatan kejadian dan perbualan dipengaruhi oleh keadaan semasa.

2. Frankly Speaking berhasrat untuk menyalahkan saya bagi segala-gala yang berlaku dalam UMNO dan kerajaan sepanjang masa kini. Musa sudah tentu tidak menyalahkan dirinya untuk apa-apa. Dia suci dan tidak bersalah seperti bayi yang baru lahir. Ini yang menjelaskan mengapa dia begitu popular.

3. Mengenai kesetiaan. Dia berkata saya menuntut kesetiaan yang mutlak. Atas dasar ini, sudah tentu ramai termasuk Musa, akan merasai beban penuh kemarahan saya.

4. Musa bertanding untuk Timbalan Presiden menghadapi Tengku Razaleigh.

5. Musa datang berjumpa dengan saya untuk mendapatkan sokongan saya dalam usahanya ini. Saya bersedia untuk bersumpah atas Al-Quran bahawa dia telah melakukan ini.

6. Saya tidak bersedia untuk menyokong beliau secara terbuka kerana mungkin saya perlu bekerja dengan Tengku Razaleigh apabila beliau menjadi Timbalan Presiden dan Timbalan Perdana Menteri jika Musa kalah.

7. Kini Sanusi berkata bahawa saya telah menyuruhnya berkempen bagi Musa menentang Tengku Razaleigh. Mungkin ia, tetapi saya tidak ingat AIDS (Anwar Ibrahim, Daim, Sanusi) berusaha untuk menjatuhkan Musa ketika beliau menjadi pewaris kepimpinan. Zam atau Zainudin Maidin, editor Utusan, mungkin ingat. Tetapi saya tertanya-tanya sama ada Utusan menjalankan siasatan. Ia sering melaporkan khabar angin.

8. Dalam pertandingan itu Musa menang dan dilantik sebagai Timbalan Perdana Menteri oleh saya. Tetapi beliau tidak berpuas hati saya mengekalkan Tengku Razaleigh sebagai Menteri Kewangan dalam Kabinet saya. Beliau membayangkan bahawa saya perlu menggugurkan beliau (Tengku Razaleigh) sama sekali. Saya tidak dapat berbuat demikian kerana saya akan kehilangan penyokong-penyokong Tengku Razaleigh.

9. Selepas Tengku Razaleigh kalah lagi kepada Musa dalam pilihan parti 1984, saya pindahkan Tengku Razaleigh kepada Kementerian Perdagangan Antarabangsa dan Industri. Saya masih tidak menggugurkan beliau dan saya fikir Musa tidak gembira.

10. Penyokong-penyokong Musa menamakan kerajaan sebagai Kerajaan 2M. Saya tidak membantah walaupun ini adalah luar biasa. Penyokong-penyokong beliau juga merasakan bahawa saya perlu kekal sebagai Perdana Menteri hanya pada tempoh sama dengan Tun Razak dan Tun Hussein kekal sebagai Perdana Menteri. Tetapi saya tidak menunjukkan tanda-tanda mahu berundur.

11. Kemudian Musa meletak jawatan sebagai Timbalan Perdana Menteri dan Timbalan Presiden. Saya berasa jengkel kerana saya fikir dia adalah orang yang tepat untuk menggantikan saya akhirnya sebagai Perdana Menteri. Pada masa itu saya tidak menjangka bahawa saya akan menjadi Perdana Menteri selama 22 tahun. Tiada siapa pun yang menjangka demikian. Sudah tentu bukan Musa.

12. Mesyuarat Majlis Tertinggi telah diadakan untuk membincangkan peletakan jawatan Musa. Jika saya mahu kesetiaan yang mutlak saya sepatutnya usirkan beliau sebagaimana Najib lakukan bagi mereka yang dia fikir tidak cukup setia kepadanya.

13. Zam menemui saya sebelum mesyuarat Majlis Tertinggi. Beliau membayangkan bahawa ada kejutan bagi saya pada malam itu. Beliau seolah-olah berfikir bahawa Majlis Tertinggi akan mengambil semula Musa walaupun saya menentanginya.

14. Majlis Tertinggi memang memutuskan untuk memujuk beliau menarik balik peletakan jawatan beliau. Saya tidak menentang keputusan itu.

15. Satu delegasi yang diketuai oleh Wan Mokhtar, Menteri Besar Terengganu, terbang ke UK untuk merayu kepadanya secara peribadi.

16. Beliau bersetuju untuk kembali hanya sebagai Timbalan Presiden. Saya tidak mempunyai pilihan selain daripada melantik Che Ghafar (Baba) sebagai Timbalan Perdana Menteri.

17. Musa adalah jelas tidak setia kepada saya sama sekali. Tetapi saya menerima keputusan beliau untuk kembali sebagai Timbalan Presiden parti sahaja. Kemudiannya beliau akan menunjukkan ketidaksetiaan yang lebih besar lagi.

18. Dia pergi ke Davos di Switzerland untuk berjumpa Tengku Razaleigh, saing besar beliau. Tengku Razaleigh telah dipujuk oleh beliau untuk bertanding jawatan Presiden parti pada pemilihan parti akan datang.

19. Yang menghairankan Musa sendiri membayangkan bahawa beliau akan bertanding jawatan Timbalan Presiden. Dalam erti kata lain, jika mereka menang beliau akan menjadi Timbalan Perdana Menteri kepada Tengku Razaleigh sebagai Perdana Menteri. Pernyataannya sekarang bahawa dia tidak akan berada dalam Kabinet Tengku Razaleigh adalah sesuatu perkara yang baru. Ini tidak masuk akal. Mengapa bertanding untuk jawatan Timbalan Presiden, yang secara tradisinya akan menjadi Timbalan Perdana Menteri, jika dia tidak mempunyai niat untuk menjadi sebahagian daripada anggota kerajaan sebagai Timbalan Perdana Menteri. Jika Ghafar telah kalah kepada Musa, saya perlu untuk melantik beliau semula sebagai timbalan saya. Tetapi adakah beliau akan terima?

20. Namun begitu saya tidak mengambil sebarang tindakan terhadap beliau. Apabila dia tidak menyertai Semangat 46 Tengku Razaleigh, saya melantik beliau sebagai duta khas ke PBB bertaraf menteri. Adakah semua ini mencerminkan saya seperti seorang yang tidak boleh dan tidak akan bertolak ansur dengan apa-apa kecuali kesetiaan peribadi mutlak seperti yang didakwa oleh Musa.

21. Dalam tempoh tempoh untuk Presiden dan Timbalan Presiden, ramai Menteri-menteri saya dan Timbalan Menteri menentang saya. Mereka termasuklah Abdullah Badawi, Rais Yatim, Syed Hamid dan Kadir Sheikh Fadzir.

22. Rekod akan menunjukkan bahawa saya melantik semula Syed Hamid dan Kadir sebagai Menteri dalam Kabinet saya. Kemudian saya melantik Abdullah dan Rais Yatim ke dalam Kabinet. Saya juga memilih Abdullah Badawi sebagai Timbalan Perdana Menteri ketika Anwar meninggalkan parti. Dan akhirnya Abdullah Badawi menjadi Perdana Menteri apabila saya meletakkan jawatan. Adakah ini cara seorang yang tidak boleh bertolak ansur bertindak terhadap mereka yang jelas tidak setia?

23. Saya tidak pernah berkelakuan seperti Najib yang menurunkan pangkat, usir dan membuang pemimpin-pemimpin kerana mempersoalkan sedikit beliau mengenai 1MDB. Dia tidak membenarkan perwakilan UMNO untuk bercakap mengenai 1MDB dan RM2.6 bilion dalam akaun peribadinya. Mereka yang berbuat demikian telah dianggap sebagai tidak setia dan semuanya telah dipecat.

24. Najib kini bercakap tentang kesetiaan kepada institusi Presiden UMNO. Ia tidak membenarkan pertandingan untuk Presiden seperti yang saya lakukan apabila Musa dan Tengku Razaleigh mencabar Ghafar dan saya. Sesiapa yang tidak menyokong beliau sepenuhnya, sama ada Menteri-menteri atau penjawat awam telah dikeluarkan atau dipindahkan atau terpaksa bersara atas alasan kesihatan. Beliau tidak bertolak ansur seperti saya. Saya mempunyai hak untuk mengkritik sikap tidak bertoleransi beliau terhadap pembangkang.

25. Kesetiaan kepada pemimpin adalah penting bagi sesuatu organisasi untuk berfungsi. Tetapi apabila pemimpin yang menyimpang atau melakukan jenayah, tindakan terus berpaut padanya adalah salah. Malahan ia adalah menjadi kewajipan pengikut yang setia untuk menasihati dan juga mengkritik pemimpin mereka. Dan jika pemimpin itu tidak mengendahkan nasihat, mereka harus berhenti menjadi setia kepadanya.

26. Saya telah memimpin negara selama 22 tahun. Parti dan pengundi boleh menggulingkan saya pada bila-bila masa. Pilihan raya ke Majlis Tertinggi (parti) telah diadakan secara berkala. Tetapi bagi lima Pilihan Raya Umum saya telah memimpin parti untuk mendapat kemenangan dengan majoriti 2/3. Saya tidak menggunakan wang. Juga tiada BR1M. Tetapi pengundi memutuskan berdasarkan persepsi mereka terhadap perkara-perkara, bukan kerana kesetiaan mutlak.

27. Jika Musa mahu bercakap terus-terang, hendaklah beliau memetik peristiwa yang diketahui atau merujuk kepada dokumen, termasuk laporan berita pada masa itu. Ya, saya panggil Mohamed Rahmat, "Mat Bulat" kerana dia gempal. Saya tidak kisah orang memanggil saya "bomoh". Saya beranggapan bahawa ini adalah rujukan mesra kepada profesion saya.

Assalamualaikum Tun.

Musa Hitam adalah individu yang dilantik sebagai Timbalan Perdana Menteri oleh Tun satu ketika dulu.

Ingatkah Musa tragedi Memali di Kedah semasa Tun keluar negara, Musa dalam keadaan mabuk mengarahkan Polis

Bila Musa keluar negara, dia bertukar nama kepada Musa Black kerana

Usah dilayan sangat Musa Hitam ni Tun.

Wassalam.

Yes, Dear Tun.

I agree.

"Speaking frankly does not mean speaking truthfully."

If Musa was frank, he would have wrote/spoken why and what prompted the police, unprovoked, acted as they did, so drastically on villages in Kampung Memali, November 1985. As Minister who headed the KDN, he must have known about the country's communal atmosphere at that time.

My family lived in Balai Polis Baling and I had just worked in Sg.Way FTZ, when Memali 'massacre' occurred. Yes its an outright massacre by a well armed police PPH (Pasukan Polis Hutan, now defunct) against the poorly armed villagers, done in a swift manner under the guise of darkness. Had the police besieged the village, starved its occupants into hunger, then overpower them, it would have been justified. Or...Ibrahim Libya had drew the first-blood....before that, he and his followers had murdered a policeman or stormed a police station or so forth.

My sisters told me how, families living in the Police station 2 (quarters) block were very-very scared, the afternoon after that massacre. About a hundred army personnel surrounded the police station's fences and were very-very angry with that drastic action by the Police. You know la...how things were between them in the mid-70s ~ late 80s. Many died in cabaret-brawls, especially at month's end in Ipoh & JB. And....that was why military personnel's salary was paid before the 25th of each month.....till today....to minimize encounters.

Did Musa mention about him flying in a helicopter (landed at 'Padang-Jam' or clock-tower's small field, near the Mosque, just beside the Police Station) to diffuse that tense stand-off?
The soldiers, even armed themselves with a V150 armored personnel carrier.

Why the need to hastily stormed villagers, armed with parangs and a few 'tembak-tupai' shotgun?

Why can't the Police wait? (They enter the village at about mid-night and the 'operation' ended at dawn). What's the hurry?

The Army was not even informed..... To fight the communist, (which is not the army's job anyway, when a state-of-war or emergency was not declared) their help was very much sought after, but against the helpless 'orang-kampung', the Police seems very capable. This made the Army, stationed in Kroh (now Pengkalan Hulu), very pissed.

Let me state the fact why KDN under Musa hastily stormed Memali.....it a covert operation to neutralize racial antagonism between Chinese & Malay, heightened especially by the press. Situation was very tense then. Factories stop production due to operators, mainly females, were already afraid to go to work or their parents forbade them. Most were operators who had to take the mini-bus across KL to go to work in Sg.Way. I forgot what caused the hostility, but the day after Memali... all newspapers immediately switched their reports to Memali. Radio and TV played successive patriotic songs and 'jangan dengar khabar-khabar' (don't listen to rumors) messages....just like the aftermath of May 13, 1969.

The communal antagonism was the same prior to 'Amok Prebet Adam' in Chow Kit, October 1987, two years after Memali. This time it was over the posting of Malay teachers in SRJKC. Lee Kim Sai was stripped-of his Dato'ship and Ops Lalang ensued after Private Adam ran amok. Hence the Government should thank Adam for what he had unknowingly done to 'save' the country from another racial strife. Wonder what have become of him today.

Therefore, Memali was a ploy by KDN under Musa, to diffuse communal tension at that time. Coupled with his 'look-west' stance, Musa was just not fitted to be a Malaysian leader.

Nota:

Musa hanya berani bertindak terhadap bangsanya sendiri. Untuk memberi 'amaran' bahawa KDN & kerajaan dibawah beliau tidak akan bertolak-ansur atau beri-muka kepada sesiapa, sebagai pengajaran, bangsa sendiri yang menjadi mangsa.

Whatever Najis tells now goes like 'blowing a horn in a deaf ear'.
If he want to clear his name from DOJ report, let him challenge one to one debate with Tun M. UMNO grass root members knew the crook won't do that.

We have a Party now , BERSATU
BERSATU menuju kejayaan

Simply we need to ignore all nonsense comes from Musa Hitam , Pak Hitam , Keldai
Mak Putih or so on . BERSATU will not be in action today
But the formation , activities is to Live up to form a prepared Party in PRU

Meanwhile every Malaysians including UMNO members
Must Eye on Najib

We must not allow him to do as he wish

We will gives him a hard time as his decision ,his interest is more of his personal
Not much of National Interests .

We must stop him giving to others taking what is ours

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Tun, you've motivated the people to speak up frankly and truthfully on the needs and wants for the country. You are one of the engineers that could change this country into a better place to live for our future generations and are "among the key people in the world". Tun, you built your expertise step on a painstaking step. We are forever obliged to you. Tun, please not to worry so much on the outcome but to concentrate on the step you are on to try to do it as perfectly as you could when doing it.

We all must learn to do things gradually and with patience. Some when dealing with them need more patience and understanding. They cannot be changed overnight or accept something which is new or foreign to them instantly. They have been living comfortably, being constantly 'fed' that the idea of abandoning 'ship' makes them shiver with fear of leaving all those comforts. Can I say this is the fear of the kampong folks and the low and middle income urban people? They are afraid of being neglected and overlooked again and again as usual (given attention only during Prus or when calamities arised) or are under-pressure if they fail to be obedient servants. This is the conflict of the mind they're facing. How do you tackle these kind of people, Tun?

Tun, I believe that exceptional performances not only depend on the groundwork we lay but also requires the right working conditions, identify the tasks or knowledge and monitor the progress. Give BERSATU a chance to breath on its own and give it time to sort out. We can't expect an immediate transformation but we can expect an admirable, remarkable group of people not only charged with vetting ideas but are also the best presenters. How you present or market BERSATU will show how successful or not you've attracted people towards BERSATU.

Tun, as you well know people's tendency is to follow those in actions, any kinds of actions and are inclined to empower dynamic speakers. But it won't go far if emphasize too much on presenting and not enough on substance and critical thinking. Every new party need good presenting but also true leadership ability. Tun, you know the political ingredients needed to sustain an organization pretty well. I have my highest hopes in BERSATU. We need our pride and justice back. BERSATU is the answer to our woes, InsyaAllah.

"LONG LIVE BERSATU!"

Tun, I'm so glad you're fine and up striving your fighting spirits. Nobody can ask you to stay put at home, ya Tun. You've the most fullest comfortable luxurious holidays and rests around the world all your life. Maybe you'd say you've enough rests. I guess at this age actions don't stop, they just slow down. Life is too precious to let it slip idly away by doing nothing. Not everyone has this advantage. Allah knows best. Allah is Great.

Tun, frankly speaking I have entirely forgotten about this chap..Tun Musa who? What has this person contributed to Malaysia anyway. Forget about him Tun. Don't give him free publicity in your distinguished chedet. Place your time, energy, mind and thoughts on US...the Citizens of Malaysia who need you more than those who have conveniently pocketed themselves with the country's wealth and resources that belong to the Citizens of Malaysia.

Tun, you do not ask but we'll give you what you deserve ie. our love, respect, gratitude, strength and friendships. You deserve the wisdom of the crowds. Someone wise says collaboration has become a sacred concept-the key multiplier for success. You are a great man of wisdom and far-insights, you know what is best for BERSATU and our beloved country.

May Allah Bless you Tun. May Allah Protect you Tun. May Allah grant you great wealth in health, happiness and knowledge. Take extra care in your safety and Thank you Tun.

Assalam Dearest Tun,

Not to worry Sir, we the rakyat don't give a damn about this useless ex-politician who once upon a time propagated the idea that the Malays should be "kurang ajar" just like him!

He is frankly speaking rubbish and we are not going to buy his tell-tale stories of lies.

I was then a young student leader when you appointed him as Deputy Prime Minister and we never liked him knowing that as a so called "commoner" nationalist he even married a foreigner and acted more like a westerner rather than our typical local politician.

We felt ashamed as he came from a humble background from a remote district of Johor known as Segamat, his father was just a CEB(TNB) meter reader and he was the only one of ten siblings to have made it to university.

He never walked the talk and took the task of marrying a Peruvian of Spanish decendant and he who could not even handle that lady ending up with a divorce after having 3 grown up kids while he was still a DPM I guess.

He is sure one failed family head and we definitely couldn't count on him to run the country then.

He claimed to be a hero and an expert in crisis management skills during the famous Baling demonstration in the seventies but try to shy away from the Memali incident also in Baling when he was Home Minister cum Deputy Prime Minister in 1985.

By then he should have already tendered his resignation as Home Minister and Deputy Prime Minister as he was directly responsible for the death of 14 villagers and 4 police personnel, it was his call and as an expert of crisis management skills he should be on the ground and not giving orders somewhere in KL doing who knows what.

This 'kurang ajar' Musa doesn't deserve the title 'Tun' at all, just imagine after 20 years out of national politics suddenly when his protege from Team B Pak Lah became PM he was then conferred the highest national title.

The title 'Tun' should have been conferred to the co-founder of UMNO instead that is Tun Onn Jaafar (please Tun if your team were to win the next GE please do so, Sir).

The other protege of Musa is the 1 million ringgit man Shahrir Samad who in return is Khaled Nordin's mentor and he has all the say in the Johor MB's administration.

HRH TMJ should be made known that his late grandfather Almarhum Sultan Iskandar disliked this Musa so much so that the Sultan even scolded Musa the DPM in public and in front of the smiling Dr M.

Lately you can see a lot of Musa and Pak Lah mingling with Najib the Kleptocrat.

By the way Musa how's your ex-janda Miss Ines Maria Reyna doing? You could actually write a book about your love story and we will surely buy you know.

"From Segamat to Peru with broken ♥"

Thanks and wasalam Tun.

p/s – Najib is so suey you guys should know that, Malaysia could get into 10 olympic finals but because of him we are not going to win a single long awaited olympic gold medal.

Dear Chong Wei and friends its not your fault you guys have done a great job its KJ's fault allowing Najib to stay as Pee M.

So dear citizens please vote Najib out of PM's office in the next GE in order to win our 1st ever olympic gold medal.

Malaysia less Najib, Boleh!

actually he's makin' money by selling the book. nothing written in the book except bad story & news but a great story about him & of course about his great thought. nothing less & nothing more. wasting money buying this kind of book that can't improve the situation. its ok if just to know the story in it.

Dear Tun,

It's nice to know that you've been discharged from the hospital. I hope you will take things one at a time and not exert yourself.

Tun, don't worry about what others say about you. PM Najib proves he is not a professional everytime he talks bad about you in his ceramah. I cannot imagine the President of the US badmouthing George Washington or Abraham Lincoln. Similarly I think Tun Musa Hitam purposely wrote all that rubbish in his unfrank Frankly Speaking just so he could get back at you and nurse his grievances. Moron could also be behind Tun Musa's writing of the unfrank book.

Tun, I have to admit that I am not happy with what has become with the country. I do not feel safe. I feel threat and fear have formed part and parcel of the unwellness of this country.

Take good care dear Tun Mahathir. Goodnight and rest well Tun.

'Un-Islamic' to cross the line, Najib tells Dr M....

Seems like thief is very agitated now on seeing the crumbling of support for him in UMNO.

Thief talking Tun M being 'Un-Islamic', but he forgot that he and his family are confirmed un-islamic already by looting others money and murdering those against him.

Thief is so angry now that those slaves who support him recently and made statements for him are now hiding from him.

Thief now portraying that his problem as UMNO's problem, but people already got what they wanted from DOJ.

Eventually thief and his family will end up in jail and rot.

How do we tell if one is working for self or the greater good?

How will Bersatu avoid or mitigate such deception?

Will man get away with such deception which seems to be in his bones?

Assalamualaikum Tun,

I really have no comment on Tun Musa Frankly Speaking. To me, what's past is past. I am concern about the future.

Something that is bothering me, is the continued insistence by Najib and his supporters to go through election if they want to change a democratically elected government.

Who ever said we want to topple the government? How far is this from the truth.

We are talking about a public official that allegedly stole billions of taxpayers money. Do we have to wait for the election for him to be charged? Anything earlier, than its to topple the democratically elected leader.

Take for example, Dato Seri Anwar. When he was accused for a criminal act by Saiful, there was no question of toppling a democratically elected opposition leader. Instead, he was tried and charged in a court of law. His status as member of parliament was stripped. Shouldnt Anwar be allowed to continue to contest in the election and any charges aganst him would be considered as toppling a demoractically elected opposition leader.

Why the double standard between Anwar and the 1MDB scandal?

The truth is this has nothing to do with BN or UMNO or the government in the first place.

Its about one person who is allegedly invovled in the biggest stolen public funds.

He should not be above the law. Just like Anwar, Khir Toyo and many others, if a crime is being committed he should be tried and charged in a court of law.

Now because Malaysian official 1 refuses to resign, he has to bring all the BN, UMNO and the government to defend him.

He loses all these rights the moment a criminal act has been done. A criminal loses all rights to stand in election.

And now, we have to have Bersatu and Pakatan Harapan to contest against BN and UMNO, when all this should not have happen as it is only about one person allegedly committing a crime.

The Book

Is it Frankly Speaking , Speaking Frankly of Prankly Speaking ?

One don,t need a book , one don,t need to disguise

As adult

One slips Fish in the Water

We already knew Male or Female

Apa macam Bro ! Pepatah Melayu kita translate English , OK ?

Musa Hitam is a Failed Politician

He is a Fly by Night Politicians

Never Braves the Waves

Lets see how well he can sell his Book of No Ingredients

He is never a Writer nor a recognize Politicians

Salam Dearest YAB Tun,

Tun Musa Hitam is a SORE LOSER.

He can never accept the fact that Tun M is much better than him as a LEADER.

He envies Tun's successes.

Tun Musa is a good example of a person with lots of 'perasaan DENGKI & khianat'. He is also a good liar like PM Najib @ Ah Jib Gor.

Please ignore him Tun.

Thanks Tun.

 May Allah S.W.T. bless Tun and family ***

Bukan senang nak jadi Pemimpin

Maka seorang Pemimpin perlu Berkahlak Mulia

Dengan tidak ada paksaan Pemimpin tersebut akan di hormati dan mudah di dengari dan di fahami

Pemimpin seperti Tun Mahathir Mohamed

Walau Tun tidak mempunyai Kuasa

Tun masih di hormati ,di Sangjungi , senang didengar

Bukan macam Najib , hai sebut Tun Najib pun dah tak nak

Malah banyak sebut Najis ,bukan Tun Najib atau PM Najib

Ini kenyataan , bukan buat cerita sedih

Hormat tidak bolih di paksa

Hormat perlu di perolih dengan Akhlak yg Mulia

Musa Hitam adalah Politician yg Gagal
Beliau mengalah dalam arena perjuangan beliau sebagai Politik
Bukanlah ahli Politik yg tulin tidak macan Anwar Ibrahim
Jadi Keluhan Musa Hitam tidak perlu di dengar
Ini politik tahi ayam . Belum Kalah sudah mengundur
Jadi kenapa kita perlu dengar dari Musa Hitam yg tidak berjiwa Politik
Musa Hitam tidak perlulah nakberlakon
Tolong bini kat rumah masak sudah
Bagaimana kita rakyat nak dengar malah bergantung pada Politik Tahi Ayam
Belum Gagal sudah Undur .

Politik Melayu yg Tulin sekarang dan Hebat adalah Tun Mahathir juga Anwar Ibrahim
Walau Tua , Sakit , walau Anwar di penjara beliau masih berjuang

Sedihnya yg selalu mengecewakan Pemimpin bukan lah orang lain
Yg mengecewakan mereka adalah orang kanan mereka ,orang harapan mereka sendiri
Tun sudah mengalami ,ini kenyataan
Begitu juga perniaga
Yg mengecekan mereka selalu adalah orang harapan mereka sendiri
Walau anak mereka sendiri , hanay tunggu masa
Masa akan menentukan yg tulin atau yg palsu
Pemimpin Sejati akan Terserlah akan Terbukti
Seperti kadang kita beli CD cetak rompak walau dikatakan Tulin akan terserlah kenyataan apabila masa berlalu

Najib hanya membazir masa ,membazir Tanah Kerajaan
Tidak nyata malah tidak terlihat Kejayaan Malaysia yg di perolihi semenjak beliau Memimpin Malaysia
Tanah di Gadai , Hutang Keliling Pinggang

Assalam Tun.

Ha ha ha!!!

This Musa "the black" Hitam, he is not even frank when writing that book "SPEAKING FRANKLY".
Perhaps Musa simply can't behave in a frank manner, or never a good actor when it comes to act like one.

Most typical characteristic of all hypocrites, they keep on trying to tell people, "I'm very frank".
