

SACKING AND POPULARITY

Chedet.cc

14 March 2016

Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad

1. I have been sacked from Petronas. The decision was made by the Cabinet. It must be very important to the Government.

2. Actually I had resigned from Petronas quite some time ago. But Petronas refused to accept my resignation or the allowance which I sent back. They insisted on putting into my account my monthly allowance. I resigned then because I did not think I should be a non-advising adviser and being paid for doing nothing.

3. Now Najib's supporters want to have me sacked from Proton and the Perdana Leadership Foundation (PLF). These two do not belong to the Government. But of course that is a minor obstacle for a Government which can charge anyone under a law to curb terrorism. Nasty things can be done, like threatening to bankrupt Proton or harassing the people who set up PLF so that I would be thrown out. This is of course entirely democratic.

4. The free press in Malaysia says Najib is getting stronger and more people are supporting him. Just look at the pictures of the people supporting him. They all wear red shirts and some UMNO leaders show placards with "Solidariti bersama Najib".

5. Obviously their show of support is spontaneous, so spontaneous that they immediately bought the red shirts and printed the "Solidarity with Najib" cards in time for the photographers.

6. Really Najib is very popular. But some recalcitrant may not think so. Even a red-shirted demonstration organised by Jamal Yunus, participated in by Felda people brought by bus and given free meals to counter the Bersih demo which according to Najib's supporters was organised by the Chinese to overthrow a Malay Government, has not convinced people about Najib's popularity.

9. What really would convince people would be a national referendum or poll in which every voter in the country can express his support of Najib. Perhaps it would also be useful to show how Dr Mahathir (that's me) is wrong in exposing his financial scandals.

8. Just a simple question would suffice: Najib-tick, Mahathir-cross or the other way depending on who you support. Malaysians are familiar with voting.

9. The referendum should be conducted by a reliable foreign public opinion company, overseen by representatives of the two people concerned.

10. I give an undertaking that if Najib wins in the national referendum, I will stop asking him to resign. I will not say anything more about 1MDB, the 2.6 billion Ringgit and the mansions in UK, US and Hollywood or the "Wolf of Wall Street" pornographic film. Najib can continue to be the Malaysian PM for life.

11. But if I get more votes, it means the rakyat accepts what I have highlighted about Najib's financial wrongdoings as true, then he should resign.

12. This way we can settle the question of Najib's popularity and what the rakyat thinks of his financial scandals once and for all.

13. The alternative is to wait for the National Security Council Act to be signed by the Agong or to wait for one month if he doesn't, when the Act would be enforceable. Then Najib can arrest and detain without trial this pesky ex-PM. I am getting messages that this is what awaits me if I don't cease and desist, I don't tone down.

Assalamualaikum Tun.

Kan saya dah kata, kalau Najib tak suka Tun, penjara je la Tun. Kan kan.

Saya pun kena masuk penjara juga ker? Susahlah mau cari makan kalau macam ni.

Allah swt juga punyai 'penjara' untuk kita di atas muka bumi.

Susah juga untuk kita cari makan (sampai kurus kering nampak tulang rangka).

Malah terdapat satu cerita bahawa Syeikh Abdul Qadir Al Jailani hanya membiarkan seorang anak muridnya kurus kering hampir kebuluran sehinggakan ibu si anak itu bertanya kenapa begitu?

Syeikh memberitahu biarkan lah begitu sehingga dia boleh memakan ayam seperti aku ini.

Kena penjara? Susahlah mau cari makan macam ni.

Terima kasih Tun.

13. The sum of all our democratic procedures, if Save Malaysia campaign doesn't gain mass for regime change.

While the criminal liability and special courts were good ideas, approval after 30 days doesn't seem to have been a good idea in retrospective. Our systems of governance which follow British depends on checks and balances.

How do we deal with cases where highest public servant develops pathological conditions and isn't exactly fit for work?

Franz Fanon, French psychiatrist and spokesman for the Algerian masses, said violence is therapeutic.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Tun has done a great job in promoting Proton in Tun's blog on the Feb 9 2016. Now, don't tell me you're willing to let the unscrupulous Umno nutheads demand your loyalty to them and tell you what to do, Proton. Tun has helped you a lot and done his job well. Don't let these unwanted outsiders meddle your Precious Doctor In Your House, Proton.

Tun, is opening the light for you Umno, to see through DSN's dark sides. But most prefer to hold back. Why? Something must have been planted in their heads and minds for such a long time that stuck to them like 'gam gajah'. What is it Tun? Fear?

If Tun doesn't care about this beloved country and her people, would Tun stick out his own neck? Tun could forget about everything and lead a happy normal pensioner's life. But no...that is not Tun's way, walking away and let corruptions win. Tun is not looking for popularity. Look what they are doing to Tun now. Tun is no longer in Umno and yet they are harrasing and oppressing him every single day. They never leave him alone. They unashamely and slyly bash Tun with very unkind slurs, a dishonest act to deceive the people.

Umno, stop thinking about to grip hold on to power forever.

Umno, stop harbouring on your egos.

Umno, stop being so self-centered and self-exclusive.

Is that so hard to do?

Umno, start thinking as Malaysians first.

Umno, start acting as Malaysians first.

Umno, start believing in Tun's sruggle against DSN's wrongdoings.

Is that so hard to do?

Tun, let's ponder awhile on this statement said by si ramesh rao: "If it's true DSN (has hired) me, I would have a very comfortable life. But I have not met the PM".

Tun, what do you make out of this statement? Does it tell us something? So, does it means that if one is hired by DSN or met DSN, one can be sure to live comfortably DSN will comfortably 'feed' you well. No wonder DSN's loyalists and supporters find it hard to leave DSN or they will lose everything...wealth, power and position. He has embedded these material rewards in their hearts and minds that are so tempting, out of greed they cannot resist.

Tun, sometimes I feel like 'mati kutu', don't know what else to say that can crack their heads and see through the real grievous happenings done by them and their big master of deceit and deception.

Tun, you're the true Doctor In The House. Only through your wisdom will they see the truth. You are our only hope, Tun. Whatever the outcome Tun, only Allah knows best.

May Allah Bless you Tun. May Allah Protect you Tun. May Allah grant you great wealth in health, happiness and knowledge.

Tun, sedikit ruangan dengan Mr wajaperak.

Respon anda pada pendapat dan penulisan saya di blog Tun ini, saya memang membacanya.

Andaikata saya tidak membalas respon anda saya mohon maaf sebabnya saya rasa anda tentu faham.

Saya tidak mahu ada salah sangka lagi. Sebarang teguran dan nasihat yang membina saya terima dengan hati terbuka.

Terima kasih.

Tun, I also would like to convey my concern towards Mr mubarakchan. I hope he is fine and in healthy and good shape I wish him exceedingly happy.

Thank you.

Salam Tun.

1. Pilihanraya diadakan lima tahun sekali untuk rakyat memilih Parti yang akan memerintah negara Malaysia.

2. Adakah seorang yang bersalah juga memerlukan tempoh lima tahun untuk di tukarkan ?

3. Itu adalah satu persepsi yang salah yang patut dilakukan terhadap seorang pesalah ?

4. Sekurang-kurangnya yang terbaik kita boleh menukar kepada seorang yang lain untuk menjalankan tugas itu.

5. Apa yang berlaku sebaliknya yang di pecat ialah mereka yang mengeluarkan kenyataan kepada seseorang yang bersalah.

6. Di minta tukar pemimpin yang telah menyalah guna wang kerajaan. Sebaliknya yang ditukarkan atau dipecat ialah seorang yang meminta pertukaran pemimpin yang bersalah.

7. Jadi yang telah di pecat itu bukan seorang penjatuh kerajaan kerana dia tidak berjaya pun melakukannya.

8. Sepatutnya yang memecat seseorang itulah seorang penjatuh kerana menjatuhkan seseorang tanpa dibicarakan.

9. Dia dapat melakukannya kerana disokong ramai pemimpin lain. Ini menunjukkan dirinya lebih popular.

10. Tidak dapat dipastikan adakah persembahan yang dipersembahkan sekarang dalam pentadbiran menjadikannya popular.

11. Bermakna masyarakat dapat menerima apa yang dilakukannya atau ramai yang tidak tahu sebenarnya tetapi tetap menyokong kerana tradisi lama yang dipegang.

12. Akibat tradisi turun temurun yang dipegang wal hal berlakunya kesalahan di era ini ditambah kemewahan , jawatan yang dipegang dan membanggakan perkumpulan maka kebenaran yang hakiki di tidakkan.

13. Manusia diingatkan supaya tidak mengghalalkan apa yang telah diharamkan atau membela seseorang individu yang melindungi diri atas nama Parti atau kuasa pemerintah yang menolak kebenaran.

Wallahua'lam

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Yes, I agree. Let's do a national referendum. Tun have even offered if Najib wins in this national referendum, then Tun will stop asking Najib to resign. This is truly a once in a lifetime offer.

Since Najib says he represent the 'majority', then he will surely win. Indeed, Tun has made a big mistake.

So Najib, let's do a national referendum. The ball is now in your court. Take this challenge.

I just hope this will not be like the "Nothing to Hide" forum in which Najib the Bugis warrior was forced not to attend because Tun the 90 year old man was there.

P/S: In the likely event Najib does not take up the challenge, I think Tun can nevertheless proceed with the national referendum even without him agreeing to the challenge. Let Najib and all his men know that the rakyat are fully behind Tun Mahathir.

My Salam to Tun and Tun Dr Hasmah. May both of you be in the best of health.

Referendum? That idiot doesn't have the guts to face party elections, doesn't have the bravery to attend 'nothing to hide' forum, doesn't have the stomach to answer in parliament about 1MDB, what makes you feel he is up for a referendum? This idiot is such a coward he dare not even take questions from reporters. He is no pahlawan. In 23 months there has to be a general election. I heard he is already shivering in his underpants.

Thank you Tun. Right minded Malaysians love you. Take care.

Salam Tun,

Apandi Cleared Najib "Legally", Serigar About To Clear Najib "Financially"

There's nothing much to elaborate here. The title of this article is self-explanatory. The Wall Street Journal's latest bombshell is to tell all and sundry two things. First, someone from the Bank Negara Malaysia (Malaysia Central Bank) is super pissed that a "wolf" is about to be appointed as the most powerful person in the country's financial institution.

Second, if this news is proven true next week, it simply means that whatever the Wall Street Journal has been exposing about Prime Minister Najib's involvement in the 1MDB scandal is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. So, will Najib Razak deliberately appoint someone else just to prove the WSJ lies

It's safe to bet that outgoing Bank Negara Governor Zeti Akhtar Aziz, out of frustration, might be the person who leaked the information to the WSJ. And she's mad because to appoint Mr. Irwan Serigar Abdullah is like putting a wolf in charge of the hen house. The jokes – "Serigar" really sound like "Serigala (wolf in Malay language)" hence there could be more scandals.

But what's so bad about sending Mr. Irwan Serigar, presently the secretary-general of Ministry of Finance, to the hen house? That's because this guy is one of Najib Razak's greatest followers. Regardless whether it's GST, 1MDB scandal, Ringgit depreciation or bailing out of 1MDB using Tabung Haji's fund, his fingerprints are all over the place.

Irwan Serigar sits on the board of 1MDB as an advisor. That alone is sufficient to tell you why Zeti is freaking disappointed. If you still couldn't see why his appointment is such a big deal, consider this. Apparently, he also sits on the board of directors of at least 25 other companies (as end of 2014). That surely screams "conflict of interest", do they not?

His interest includes Malaysian Airline System Berhad, Cyberview Sdn Bhd, Padiberas Nasional Bhd, Islamic Development Bank, Malaysia Deposit Insurance Corporation (PIDM), AmanahRaya Real Estate Investment Trust, Felda Global Venture Holdings Berhad (FGV), Petronas, FELDA, MRT Corp, Khazanah and Razak School of Government, among others.

He is also the Chairman of Lembaga Hasil Dalam Negeri (LHDN) or Inland Revenue Board (IRD). This might explain why Najib Razak was laughing his head off when former premier Mahathir repeatedly asked why the income tax department hadn't take any action against the prime minister's RM2.6 billion in donation. Now, we know it's non-taxable after all

Serigar was reappointed as Chairman of Retirement Fund Inc.'s (KWAP) Board and Investment Panel on 1 March 2013. Amazingly, he serves as a Board of Director of Employees Provident Fund (EPF) too. Does this ring a bell? Well, coincidentally, both KWAP and EPF have invested more than RM3 billion in 1MDB and subsidiaries.

Together with Lembaga Tabung Haji Chairman Abdul Azeez Abdul Rahim, Mr Irwan Serigar (a director) was equally controversial, if not guilty, in the decision of subscribing RM920.8 million of the sukuk raised by 1MDB. Can you guess who else are on the board of Tabung Haji? Well, Mr. Apandi Ali, the attorney general cherry picked by PM Najib Razak, of course. 1MDB – Bail Out Progress Report – EPF, KWAP, Finance Ministry, Tabung Haji, Takaful

There's also Mr. Ismee Ismail who sits on both the board of Tabung Haji and 1MDB. Now, do you understand why Tabung Haji had easily parted away RM188.5 million of Malaysian Muslims' hard earned money in the purchase of a plot of land at Tun Razak Exchange last year? And these directors have the cheek to declare there wasn't any conflict of interest.

Clearly, Mr. Irwan Serigar Abdullah is the best candidate to replace Zeti Akhtar Aziz, as far as PM Najib Razak is concerned. Serigar sits on so many boards of directors that he is guaranteed to lose everything if he doesn't do everything in his power to protect big boss Najib – salaries, perks and even insider information by virtue of him sitting on the board of Securities Commission.

Soon Bank Negara Governor Irwan Serigar – All 1MDB Financial Transactions Were Approved By Bank Negara.

Therefore, if Apandi Ali was deliberately picked as Attorney General to clear Najib of money laundering, corruption and misappropriation of funds from the legal perspective, Irwan Serigar is to be appointed in order to clear the prime minister from any financial irregularities. Prepare yourself for the announcement – that all of 1MDB's financial transactions were approved by Bank Negara.

Tun, I am a foreigner, and not a Muslim. As such I view the World through a different prism than you. For example, I have not seen 'The Wolf of Wall Street'. If I did, it is possible that I would not necessarily view it as a pornographic film.

Possibly it is time for you to enter politics again as an independent candidate, Britain has a new party UKIP, In Ireland Sinn Fein has become a force disrupting the political status quo.

I am not a politician. I have no interest in becoming one. One to one popularity contests are not necessarily the norm. I would hazard a guess and would expect you to win, if one took place.

As a private entity, I am not sure that the Government will bankrupt Proton, not selling cars would be a more likely instrument of fiscal failure than the Government having an axe to grind.

Having worked in Shah Alam Proton Technical Centre, I certainly wish the people there all the best.

Assalamualaikum...

YABhg. Tun,

Kalau dibandingkan jumlah rakyat Malaysia yang hampir 30 juta dengan 3 juta ahli UMNO – apa yang nak dibanggakan. Lagi pun, berkemungkinan besar daripada jumlah 3 juta ahlinya, lebih 50% yang meluat dan menyampah dengan peel pelik pemimpin-pemimpin dan penasihat-penasihat dalam UMNO.

Therefore, in conclusion:

TMM – Yes!

DSNR – No Way!

Dearest YAB Tun,

SACKING

1. 'Parti Najib @ Rejim Najib' is so slow in ALL their actions!
2. Tun is always several steps ahead of the entire regime! Tun resigned (as Petronas Adviser) because 'they' did not respect (ignored) Tun's advice (as Adviser), and Tun felt that it's the same as 'makan gaji buta' (that's why Tun tried to return the monthly allowances).
3. They wanted Tun to simply do nothing... 'tidur'... DSN prefers those who sleep on their job.. memang hampeh this 'Rejim Najib'. DSN does not value people with integrity.
4. 'I Love Tun Mahathir' (dari rakyat biasa kepada bekas PM yang banyak BERJASA)

Thanks Tun.

Saya berharap yg menyokong Najib
Tahu akan niat masing masing
Jika niat mereka ialah
Hold Fast The Rope of Allah
Be not Divided among Ummah
Saya berdoa mereka di rahmati
Akan tetapi jika niat mereka
Adalah Takut , Takut kehilangan perkerjaan , Takut hilang kepentingan sendiri
Maka Laknatlah akibatnya

Disini dari awal saya yakin walau saya bukan ahli Parlimen
Ada orang Ketiga di antara hubungan Tun dengan UMNO semenjak Tun Bersara dimasa PakLah
Yg nyata dengan Najib mengajikan penasihat British dari luar
Ini sudah membuktikan bahwa Teraju Najib Kekeliruan
Bertambah pula Kepentingan Politik luar yg juga bermesra dengan penasihat yg dibayar Kepimpinan
Najib

INI YG MEROSAKAN

Adakah Kerajaan Malaysia UMNO Lemah tidak berkemampuan mentakbir rumah sendiri ?

Kalau tidak mampu ...Undur

Biar bodoh kita bagaimana pun

Dayus jika kita mengaharapkan orang asing

Begitu juga pembantu rumah

Pembantu rumah hanya membantu membersihkan bukan

Nak mengaturkan rumah tangga kita

Jika pembantu rumah sudah bolih mengaturka rumah tangga kita

Maka hanya tunggu masa

Saya berharap anggota UMNO yg bernas

Sudi menziarah Tun Mahatibr bagi menghuraikan masalah terkini

Hormatilah Wira kita yg pernah Berjasa pada kita

Berdepan dengan Ikhlas

Dari pada kita ada kesangsian sesama

Tembak sana tembak sini tak kena kena

Jadi bahan ketawa

Adakah orang Ketiga ini wujud ?

Jika benar inilah punca segala Keretakan

Ini harus di Singkir

Maka perlu kita sesama Ummah Berdepan dengan niat Berkalimah

Insyallah dengan niat kita yg ikhlas

Soal 1MDB , soalan yg lain is just Peanut

Salam Tun. Cuaca makin panas sekarang ni dan Tun lebih tahu dari kami sekalian betapa panasnya suasana politik dan ekonomi negara sekarang ini. Apa agaknya faedah dan kelebihan yang pemerintah sekarang dapat hasil keputusan memecat Tun sebagai Pengerusi Petronas dan usul lain sebagainya. Yang nyata rakyat makin marah dan meluat. Ramai pula ahli politik bangang yang mengeluarkan pandangan dan hujah yang busuk terhadap Tun termasuklah bekas KM yang kalah tu. Saya kagum dengan beliau sebelum ini tapi saat dia keluarkan hujah bodoh tu saya tahu dia memang patut kalah. Suatu masa, sejarah akan menunjukkan siapa petualang negara ini Tun. This Bajis is nuka tebal type or to be prexise he is habging by the thread daily.

Yet and sadly the 3 million UMNO members refused to demand his resignation.

One can see and hear at every corner of this country, the Rakyat venting their anger abd frustration at the way he is running this country.

Since he now controls everybody abd everyone in this country, I hope the world body like UN or the World court can take action such as not allowing him to travel outside or land in any country that are against Corruptuon or Money laundering. And even as a suspect murderer of the Mongolian woman.

Maybe..maybe then the Rakyat will realise and demand his resignation as they see that this country is being isolated from the rest of the world..

In short, this country is beibg made like a Pariah by Najib.
