No plans by Asri to join Umno or Berjasa

PETALING JAYA, Thurs. — Former PAS president Datuk Mohamed Asri Haji Muda said today that he had no intention of joining either Umno or Berjasa.

"For the time being there is no necessity to think about joining Umno or Berjasa," he told reporters after attending the opening of the Pilgrims Management and Fund board's new complex at Seri Setia, Subang today.

He was commenting on speculations that he would join either Umno or Berjasa after the disciplinary action against him and 12 of his supporters.

He reiterated that he would not appeal against the action taken by the party's new leadership against him.

"I will wait and see. I hope that the crisis facing the party will be resolved soon," he said.

As such, he added, the question of him joining any other party did not arise at all.

He expressed regret at the way the new leadership was doing things.

"This is not only my view, but also a view shared by most PAS members," he said.

Berjasa president, Datuk Haji Mohamed Nasir said if the speculation about Datuk Asri joining Berjasa was true, "then I welcome him any time". Ber-nama.
