

PM heads Sabah honours list

KOTA KINABALU, Wed. — Datuk Seri Dr. Mahathir Mohamad heads the list of 881 people honoured by the Sabah Yang di-Pertua Negeri, Tun Haji Mohamed Adnan Roberti, on the occasion of his birthday tomorrow.

The Prime Minister receives the State's highest award, Sri Panglima Darjah Kinabalu (SPDK) which carries the title of Datuk.

Nine people are bestowed the award of Panglima Gemilang Darjah Kinabalu (PGDK) which also carries the title Datuk.

They are Datuk Rastam Hadi, managing director of Petronas, Mr George Chin Kok Min, deputy chairman of the State Housing Board, Mr Conrad Mojuntin, Assistant Minister of Financial Planning and Development, Haji Pawanchik Zainuddin, Federal Secretary to Sabah, Encik Ghaffar Arif Abah, MP for Bandau, Haji Tuanku Balanggung, Beaufort District Officer, Mr Liu Kai, a businessman, Encik Mohamed Amin Haji Satem, managing director of Sarawak Cement Manufacturers, and Sarawak millionaire Mr Wee Boon Ping.

Twenty-eight people, including the MAS manager for Sabah and Brunel, Encik Mat Sah Talib, receive the Ahli Setia Darjah Kinabalu (ASDK).

Others include Datin

Nancy Mojuntin, widow of the late State Minister Datuk Peter Mojuntin, and a senior civil servant, Mr Fred Solibun.

There are 50 recipients of the Ahli Darjah Kinabalu (ADK). Among them are the director of RTM Sabah, Encik Ahmad Mohamed Noor, Sabah Shell representative Abang Zen Abang Sarkawi, and the Assistant Minister of Welfare Services, Puan Norsuadah Haji Basah.

The State police OCCL, Supt. Othman Dahwan, is among the 153 recipients of the Bintang Setia Kinabalu (BSK).

Eight Justices of the Peace have been appointed, including State Assemblyman Encik Jamal Nordin Asmara. — Bernama