Datin Sakinah . . . 'I am a woman with feelings

Wife: I feel I am no longer needed

DATIN Sakinah Junid, wife of Datuk Asri Muda, has decided to resign from PAS following the resignation of her husband.

"I am a woman with feelings and I felt that I am no longer needed by the party since my husband has resigned," she said in Kuala Lumpur yesterday.

"I take it that since the party does not want my husband, then it does not want me too," she added.

Datin Sakinah resigned as head of the Dewan Muslimat (Women's Wing) last October when Datuk Asri resigned as party president.
