KUALA LUMPUR, Sat. - Parti Keadilan Nasional founding member Dr Chandra Muzaffar, who quit the party on Dec 5, said weaknesses in Keadilan have become apparent to the people in the last two months.

Chandra, who was also Keadilan's deputy president, said the shortcomings could only be overcome through honest, independent appraisal of the party and its leadership.

"I pray the Keadilan leadership will live up to the hopes and aspirations of Malaysians for a just, democratic, united and peaceful nation," he said yesterday.

He reiterated that his resignation was to enable him to be a more effective political analyst.

Chandra, the International Movement for Just World president, added the Sept 11 attacks on the US have had a far-reaching impact upon many countries.
