

Dr M's yes delights C'wealth Summit planners

VSuAT 29 SEP 1985

LONDON, Sat. — The Commonwealth Secretariat here is delighted to hear that Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad will be attending the Commonwealth Summit in the Bahamas next month and it says the Malaysian leader will have every opportunity to put forward his views.

Commonwealth Secretary-General Shridath Ramphal told the New Sunday Times, "I am very delighted to learn that Dr Mahathir will be coming.

"We look forward to his contribution to the conference.

"I know that he has contributed a lot to the regional Commonwealth meeting.

"I know he feels very strongly about South Africa and I can assure him that he will have every opportunity to put his views across."

Mr Ramphal said Dr Mahathir is one of the strong faces in the Commonwealth who can contribute a lot to the organisation.