WHAT would it be like for a party leader to sit among the delegates for a change?

Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad found that out when he walked down from the stage and sat at the back of the Merdeka Hall.

Many delegates thought he was going out when he left the stage, and did not notice the Prime Minister take a seat in an empty row to watch the proceedings.

But he was soon noticed, and many went up to greet him. Some stayed, as the above photo shows.
