KUCHING, May 22<sup>91</sup> (Bernama) -- The government will set up outward bound-type camps nationwide to produce rugged and rounded Malaysians, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad said today. (P)

He did not say how much it would spend on such ventures but stressed the importance of such establishments in inculcating virtues and resilience among younger generation to face future challenges with confidence.

+I think such training is important in nation building,+ the Prime Minister said when opening such a camp, +Kem Permai+, at Pantai Damai, about 30km from here.

He said knowledge alone could not make an individual a good administrator if he lacked frust, he said.

Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir said the people should be train to be brave and wise in facing difficulties in life.-- more

The Prime Minister said bravery alone was not enough as without wisdom, one could destroy oneself.

+To be brave does not mean exposing oneself to danger but to prepare oneself with knowledge in facing the threat,+ he said.

Chief Minister Tan Sri Datuk Patinggi Haji Abdul Taib Mahmud, in his speech, said the camp was another landmark of the achievement of the people of Sarawak.

The state had attained progress in many fields due to the people's determination and perserverance in facing challenges, he said.

He said it would be unfortunate that after achieving all this, they became weak and complacent.

The camp, on an 18-hectare site with a beach front, was developed by the Sarawak Economic Development Corporation. -- Bernama
