MALAYSIA A THIRD WORLD MODEL OF DEVELOPMENT, SAYS EX UN CHIEF

KUALA LUMPUR, July 7⁹² (Bernama) -- Malaysia's rapid development serves as a remarkable example for the Third world, former United Nations secretary general Javier Perez de Cuellar said today.

He praised Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamed for bringing about rapid development to the country.

What has been achieved by the country could also be implemented by other Third World nations, said de Cuellar after calling on Dr Mahathir at his office here.

Speaking to Bernama, de Cuellar said he was also impressed by efforts of the developing countries in advocating their stand on environmental issues.

de Cuellar arrived here yesterday for a three-day visit to Malaysia as guest of Citibank.

Earlier, he addressed 200 local and foreign participants, including ambassadors accredited to Malaysia, at a talk on + Global Security in the New World Order+.

The function was organised by the bank.-- Bernama
