ROYALTY NOT ABOVE LAW, SAYS MAHATHIR

KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 3 (Bernama) -- Members of the Royalty are not above the law and they cannot kill or hit people, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad said today.

He said there was nothing in the law of the country that allowed any person to cause bodily harm on another and the immunity given to the royalties was limited to certain matters only.

The government has to take action against anyone who cause bodily harm to another, he told reporters after opening the MIC general assembly here.

The Prime Minister said the government would study ways of implementing the law so that no one was victimised.

He was asked to comment on the latest development in the case where the istana had interfered in the government's administration and sports activities. -- more

While expressing his regrets on the matter, Dr Mahathir said: Members of the royal families are not above the law ... they cannot kill people and they cannot hit people, +

The latest development followed the controversy on the withdrawal of Maktab Sultan, Abu Bakar (MSAB) Johor Baharu from the MHE/Milo champion schools' hockey tournament recently.

Following this, coach of the team Douglas Gomez was called to Istana Bukit Serene, Johor Baharu last Monday after he made a statement criticising certain sectors.

Gomez, who later took medical leave, was said to have suffered injuries in the lips, head and ribs. -- more
