ENOUGH POLICE PERSONNEL IN SARAWAK FOR POLLS, SAYS IGP

KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 15 (Bernama) -- Inspector-General of Police Tan Sri Rahim Noor said there is no need to reinforce the Sarawak police for the coming 7th state election.

He said the number of police personnel in the state is sufficient to handle the task of maintaining security during the election, which will be held in the next few weeks following the dissolution of the State Assembly today.

However, he said, the need for reinforcement would be reviewed periodically depending on the situation.

"Generally, I feel Sarawak has enough personnel. Should more be needed, they will be for specific divisions only, such as the Special Branch, the technical units and the Police Field Force," he told reporters after Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad's visit to the federal police headquarters at Bukit Aman here today.
