NEWLY-ELECTED UMNO SUPREME COUNCIL TO MEET NEXT WEEK

KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 19 (Bernama) -- The Umno Supreme Council elected at the Oct 10 party general assembly will hold its first meeting on Nov 28.

The meeting, to be held at the party headquarters in the Putra World Trade Centre starting at 8pm, will begin with the swearing in of the members, Umno executive secretary Datuk Yaakob Mohamed said today.

He said party president Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad is expected to announce the appointments to certain posts in the council during the meeting.

The president is empowered to appoint 10 people as members of the council.

Among the issues expected to be discussed by the council is the proposed coalition government between Umno and PAS in Kelantan. -- BERNAMA
