

27/08/1997

70 join Disney golf meet to raise money for AIDS Fund

MORE than 70 golfers took part in a friendly golf tournament to raise money for the AIDS Fund.

The Mouseworks Golf Classic, which was co-sponsored by the Renaissance Palm Garden Hotel and Palm Garden Golf Club of the IOI Resort in Putrajaya, Jalan Kajang-Puchong, was held at the Palm Garden course.

Golfers who took part comprised Disney local licensees, business partners and retailers.

Mickey Mouse, Minnie Mouse and Goofy mascots officially launched the tournament.

The proceeds will be used to help children who are HIV-positive or have AIDS in their education as well as medical treatment.

Renaissance Palm Garden Hotel golf team, led by general manager Ian Brewis, also participated in the charity meet.

The tournament ended with a glitzy prize presentation dinner held at the Renaissance Kuala Lumpur.

Also present at the dinner was Malaysian AIDS Foudation president Datin Paduka Marina Mahathir.

(END)