

17/11/1997

Career guidance talk for orphans

MORE than 40 students from Yayasan Anak-Anak Yatim Malaysia and their teachers turned up in full force at Holiday Villa's Classic Ballroom for a half-day career guidance talk by the management of Antara Holiday Villa.

It was a rare and much-needed experience for the underprivileged children.

Participants from Yayasan Anak-Anak Yatim Malaysia were led by foundation managing director Azim Aras.

AHV (training) general manager C.S. Lee gave participants an informative two-hour presentation on career prospects in Holiday Villa hotels.

He explained that the objective of the talk was to give a clear insight into the various job opportunities available at the hotel. He also stimulated interest among the participants to work with the Holiday Villa Group and in the hotel industry in general.

The participants were especially impressed by the slide shows on the 19 Holiday Villa Hotel properties in Malaysia and abroad. Many questions were raised by the visitors during the session.

Present were AHV Group marketing services manager Adibah Ishak, Holiday Villa Subang executive assistant manager Susan Chow and its training manager Azlin Abdul Latif.

Following the talk, the students were treated to a buffet spread and later taken on a tour of the hotel.

Yatim is a national orphanage founded in 1992. Its patron is Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

(END)