

15/08/1997

Charity premiere for HIV children

UNILEVER Holdings Sdn Bhd is organising a Lux Charity Premiere featuring the latest romantic comedy and box-office hit from Hollywood called My Best Friend's Wedding on Tuesday at the Dewan Merdeka, Putra World Trade Centre.

The charity drive is organised to support the Malaysian AIDS Foundation in giving necessary care and support to children infected with HIV in this country.

Proceeds of the show will be donated to the Paediatric AIDS Fund of the Foundation.

Unilever Malaysia personal care business group head Foo Eng Chuan said proceeds of the premiere will enable children, who are infected with HIV, or children whose lives are affected by their parents having HIV or AIDS, to receive the necessary care and attention.

"They need proper care when they are ill, or financial support and counselling if their parents are ill, he said.

Tickets for the show will be priced at RM1,000, RM2,000 and RM3,000.

Malaysian AIDS Foundation chairman Marina Mahathir is expected to be present.

Foo said the beauty soap Lux had always been associated with international stars and Malaysian stars.

Some of the international celebrities are Grace Kelly, Audrey Hepburn, Joan Collins, Jane Seymour, Michelle Pfeiffer.

Lux stars in Malaysia include Sharifah Aini, Fauziah Ahmad Daud, Elaine Kang, Sheila Majid, Raja Emma, Fauziah Latiff, Feminine and Erra Fazira.

Those interested can call Pearl Soh at 03-2918040.

(END)