CHIEF EMEKA ANYAOKU TO ARRIVE HERE TOMORROW FOR VISIT

KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 14 (Bernama) -- The Secretary-General of the Commonwealth, Chief Emeka Anyaoku, will be arriving here tomorrow for a four-day visit.

The visit is part of his tour to a number of Commonwealth countries to undertake consultations with their leaders on preparations for the forthcoming Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting (CHOGM), a foreign ministry statement said.

The CHOGM will be held in Edinburgh, Britain from Oct 24-27.

Anyaoku will call on Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad tomorrow and exchange views with the Prime Minister on the various issues that would be discussed at the Edinburgh CHOGM, the statement said.

Anyaoku will later attend a reception to mark India's 50th anniversary of independence.

On Monday, the secretary-general will call on Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim and attend a luncheon hosted by the National Press Club.

The following day, Anyaoku will pay a courtesy call on Foreign Minister Datuk Seri Abdullah Ahmad Badawi, and attend a high tea hosted by the New Zealand High Commissioner.

He will leave for Johannesburg that night. -- BERNAMA
