DEATH TOLL FROM GREG RISES TO 192

KOTA KINABALU, Jan 4 (Bernama) -- The death toll from the tropical rainstorm Greg which struck west coast of Sabah on Dec 26 has increased to 192 with the recovery of two more bodies in Kampung Limbawan, Keningau today.

A police operations room spokesman said this was the official death toll as at 7pm.

The bodies were that of a man and woman, he said.

Keningau is the worst-hit district with the highest number of deaths caused by the natural disaster said to be the worst in the country thus far.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad visited the affected areas in Keningau during his one-day visit to Sabah today.
