

01/05/1997

Evening for charity

K. Don Buddhadasa

THE Association of Stockbroking Companies Malaysia held its second charity night at Shangri-La Hotel Kuala Lumpur recently.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad and his wife Datin Seri Dr Siti Hasmah Mohamad Ali were present to witness the presentation of donations worth a total of RM5.7 million to 19 charities.

Association chairman Tengku Noor Zakiah Tengku Ismail in her welcome address said just as in any other business, the stockbrokers had to battle many obstacles.

In his speech, Kuala Lumpur Stock Exchange (KLSE) executive chairman Datuk Nik Mohamad Din said the Prime Minister had steered Malaysia to become a fast developing country with clear strategies.

Among those present were KLSE executive vice-president Izlan Izhab, market development senior manager S. Loganathan, Security Commission commissioner Harun Siraj and wife Noor Aishah Abbas, chairmen Mokhzani Mahathir (Tongkah Holdings Bhd executive), Dr Philip Ling (Pan Pacific Asia Bhd executive), Datuk Tony Tiah (TA Securities executive) and wife Datin Alicia Tan Kuay Mong, Ahmad Riza Basir (Fima Corporation Bhd), chief executive officers Nizam Razak (PB Securities) and wife Khadijah Abdul Rahman, James Lau (SBB Securities), Peninsula Securities Sdn Bhd chief operating officer Yong Yoong Fa and wife Rashid Hussain Securities Sdn Bhd dealers representative Lee Siew Wei.

Also there were managing directors Lee Siang Chin (Arab Malaysian Securities Sdn Bhd), Rudi Nazaruddin (Formis), Mohaiyani Shamsudin (Mohaiyani Securities Sdn Bhd), Hwang DBS Malaysia Bhd director Tunku Nadzaruddin Tuanku Ja'afar, Peter T.L. Leong of Leong Co Sdn Bhd, stockbroker Teh Ghee Kok, actress Louisa Chong, St John Ambulance Malaysia commander-in-chief Dr Low Bin Tick, Cancerlink Foundation chairman Joanne V. Fernandez, Rotary Foundation Malaysia trustee Datuk Mustapha Ma and National Society for the Deaf secretary Dr Dora Tan.

(END)