

HARIAN WATAN HIGHLIGHTS: MONDAY, MAY 5
05 MAY 1997

1. KUALA LUMPUR: Parents of dadah addicts are said to be supplying drugs to their sons who are placed under the dadah rehabilitation centres in the country. Page 1. Lead story
2. TELUK INTAN: UMNO Youth Chief Datuk Ahmad Zahid Hamidi has described as "wild allegation" by Australian sport official, Arthur Tunstall who claimed that Malaysia had paid a lot of money to host the next year's Commonwealth Games. Page 1
3. KUALA LUMPUR: 87.4 per cent of the 18,161 people who were reported to have been contracted with HIV ending October last year are between the ages of 13 and 39 years. Page 4
4. GABORONE (Botswana): Botswana, a southern African nation, that is emerging as a potential market for investors, is keen to form joint ventures with Malaysian companies in the construction industry, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr. Mahathir Mohamed says. Page 7
5. KOTA BHARU: Kelantan Menteri Besar Datuk Nik Abdul Aziz Nik Mat has rejected an offer by Angkatan Belia Islam Malaysia to be the mediator to help bring PAS and UMNO closer. Page 9
6. GRIK: The National Dadah Council is studying the proposal by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr. Mahathir Mohamed that those who escape from dadah rehabilitation centres for the first time be subjected to mandatory whipping. Page 12
7. KUALA LUMPUR: The International Islamic University will ensure that all development plans in the next seven years are geared towards efforts to upgrade the quality of education at the university in Gombak, Selangor. Page 15
8. SEPANG: The construction project of the new Kuala Lumpur International Airport in Sepang is now 75 per cent complete and is expected to be operational by 1998, says Secretary-General of Finance Ministry, Tan Sri Clifford Herbert. Page 22

Bernama

05/05/97 10-35MST

bns