King, PM and Ministers to attend Grand Prix

KUALA LUMPUR, Tues. - The Yang di-Pertuan Agong Tuanku Ja'afar, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad and Ministers will be joining 30,000 other spectators at the Marlboro Malaysian Grand Prix '97 on Sunday.

Dr Mahathir is the patron of the event, the first race in the World Motorcycle Grand Prix calendar.

The race will host leading teams and top riders including Michael Doohan, Max Biaggi and Haruchika Aoki - the reigning world champions in the 500cc, 250cc and 125cc categories respectively.

As part of the promotion activities, a Marlboro World Championship Team convoy will travel along the streets of Kuala Lumpur between Hard Rock Cafe and Cafe Iguana on Friday and Saturday between 8pm and 11pm.

Tickets and other prizes will be given away at these locations.
