Langkawi dialogue to be held in July

THE 3rd Langkawi International Dialogue (LID '97) will be held in Langkawi beginning July 28.

The three-day dialogue is organised by the Malaysian Industry Government Group for High Technology (Might) and the Commonwealth Partnership for Technology Management London (CPTM).

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad is the adviser and patron of the dialogue.

Yesterday, Might organised a briefing on the LID '97 for foreign ambassadors in Malaysia.

The briefing was given by Science Adviser to the Prime Minister Tan Sri Datuk Dr Omar Abdul Rahman, who is also the joint secretary of the International Advisory Council of LID '97.

Ambassadors and diplomats who attended the briefing were from France, Sweden, the Netherlands, Argentina, Chile, Venezuela, Germany, Canada, Singapore and the Philippines.

"The LID '97 aims to attract greater participation from leaders of the corporate sector as well as senior government officials from Europe, East Asia and other regions to further promote Smart Partnership for the benefit of all mankind," a statement said.
