

19/08/1997

Launch of foundation

Rosnazura Idrus

THE MALAYSIAN Liver Foundation was launched in style at a dinner in the Sunway Resort Hotel, Petaling Jaya recently.

The foundation's patron Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad and wife Datin Seri Dr Siti Hasmah Mohd Ali were guests-of-honour that night which was attended by donors and well wishers.

Three of the foundation trustees, chairman of Binariang Sdn Bhd Tun Mohammed Hanif Omar, the founder and president of the SungeiWay Group Tan Sri Jeffrey Cheah and Help Institute executive chairman Datuk Paduka Dr Saleha Ali were also present.

Cheah's wife Puan Sri Susan and National Welfare Council Malaysia executive council member Ghazali Yusof were seen welcoming Saleha who was accompanied by her daughter-in-law Dr Anyta Anuar.

Meanwhile Cheah was seen with Spastic Children Association (Selangor and Federal Territory) president Datuk Lam Peng Chong and wife Datin Lam Lee Pin and Universiti Malaya neurophysiology lecturer Dr Abdul Aziz Kechil.

The foundation president Datuk Dr Ismail Merican was seen with Glaxo Wellcome (Malaysia) Sdn Bhd managing director Zainal Abidin Majid and his wife Rozana Abu Bakar.

Three colleagues from the Economic Planning Unit energy section - principal assistant director Agnes Sam, and two assistant directors Auniah Ali and Ungku Asheila Ungku Hamzah - were seen with Malakoff Berhad chief operating officer Zulkifli Ibrahim, Segari Energy Ventures Sdn Bhd assistant manager Subrina Thiagarajah and TNB Engineering and Consultancy Sdn Bhd senior manager K. Prabakaran Nair.

Also there were Trendway Feather Works (Malaysia) Sdn Bhd managing director Peh Siew Wing, Hata Holdings Sdn Bhd executive chairman Datuk Teong Teck Lai and wife Datin Florence.

(END)