Mozambique President arrives

PETALING JAYA, Wed. - The President of Mozambique, Joaquim Alberto Chissano, arrived today for a four-day official visit.

He was greeted on arrival at the Sultan Abdul Aziz Shah International Airport in Subang by Entrepreneur Development Minister Datuk Mustapa Mohamed, who is the Minister in attendance.

Also present were Mustapa's wife, Datin Khamarzan Ahmed Meah, and Foreign Ministry officials.

Chissano, who heads a 34-member official delegation, is joined by his wife Marcelina Rafael Chissano.

He will be accorded an official welcoming ceremony at Parliament Square tomorrow and will also hold talks with Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

He and his wife would attend a State banquet hosted by the Yang di-Pertuan Agong Tuanku Ja'afar and Raja Permaisuri Agong Tuanku Najihah at Istana Negara tomorrow night.

Chissano and his delegation will also visit the Proton automobile plant in Shah Alam and a low-cost housing project managed by Kuala Lumpur City Hall.
