PRIME Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad said his Pakistani counterpart, Nawaz Sharif, did not make any remarks about the rubbish along Jalan Bukit Bintang in Kuala Lumpur as reported by the media yesterday.

"I did not say Nawaz said that it was dirty. He did not say it," he clarified in Langkawi after launching the five-day Langkawi Oshkosh East Fly-In convention and exhibition.

"Nawaz went to Lot 10 and I do not know whether he saw (the rubbish) or not but (Datuk) Tajol (Rosli Ghazali) who accompanied him (Nawaz) while walking from Lot 10 back to Regent Hotel saw how dirty the street was.

"Tajol told me that Nawaz must have seen how dirty it was," he said.

Tajol Rosli was minister-in-attendance during Nawaz's four-day official visit to Malaysia.
