Prizes await lucky visitors to NST photo exhibition

LANGKAWI, Tues. - Lucky visitors to the New Straits Times photo exhibition on Umno's 50-year struggle which will be held in Alor Star from Thursday to Monday stand to win attractive prizes in the form of free stays at two popular beach resorts here.

The prizes are compliments of Pelangi Beach Resort at Pantai Chenang and Beringin Beach Resort at Kuah.

The lucky visitors who will win the two to four days' stay will be chosen during the five-day exhibition at Kompleks MPKS.

The exhibition will be opened by Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Sanusi Junid at 3pm on Thursday, and will showcase about 90 pictures taken by NST photographers between 1946 and 1996.

Visitors will also be able to see 23 Lat drawings on Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad published by the New Straits Times over the years.

The exhibition, organised by the NST and Kedah Umno with the co-operation of Fujicolor, will be open to the public from 10am to 10pm daily.

The sponsors are HBR Group of Companies owned by Jerlun MP Datuk Hanafi Ramli, Aima Development Sdn Bhd, Kota Setar Municipal Council, Pelangi Beach Resort and Beringin Beach Resort.

Meanwhile, Pelangi Beach Resort executive assistant manager Jeffrey Teh handed over three complimentary stay vouchers to NST journalist Sharanjit Singh here today.

The vouchers were for four, three and two days' complimentary stay for two persons at the resort.

"We feel the exhibition is timely as Umno has played a very meaningful role in helping the country gain independence and progress to where it is today.

"The exhibition also has great significance for us as our resort is celebrating its eighth anniversary this year and we are proud to offer the complimentary stays for lucky visitors," said Jeffrey.

Also present was the resort public relations manager, David Fong.
