

SABAH NEWSPAPER HIGHLIGHTS

31 JAN 97

DAILY EXPRESS:

1. ALOR SETAR: Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad said the Government will introduce a law to charge the operators of entertainment centres if drugs, including the hallucinatory Ecstasy pills, are found in their premises. Page 1

2. KOTA KINABALU: Rasband, which is claiming a beneficial interest in the 3,049 logs seized in Tawau on Jan 18, today asked the Sabah Forestry Department to release them to the company. Page 1

3. TAWAU: The High Court here has been burglarised and police believe the same group was responsible for two other incidents in the neighbourhood the past month. Page 2

4. KUALA LUMPUR: Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim said today the legalisation exercise involving illegal foreign workers estimated at one million in the country is a success with 960,164 foreign workers having been registered in the peninsula so far. Page 2

BORNEO POST:

1. KOTA KINABALU: A Tawau-based company, which is claiming a beneficial interest in the 3,049 pieces of logs seized at Wallace Bay in Tawau on Januari 18, today insisted that the State Forestry Department immediately release the seized logs. Page 1

2. ALOR SETAR: Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad said the government will introduce a law to charge the operators of entertainment centres if drugs, including the hallucinatory Ecstasy pills, are found in their premises. Page 1

3. KOTA KINABALU: The Kota Kinabalu district police are confident that they will effectively reduce crime with strategic planning underline for 1997. Page 2

4. KOTA KINABALU: Police today reminded associations or organisations which intend to perform lion dance during the coming Chinese New Year to obtain valid permits. Page 2

BORNEO MAIL:

1. KOTA KINABALU: A local timber company has staked its claim over the seized 3049 logs which the State government intends to auction. Page 1

2. TAWAU: A special police team investigating the much publicised alleged log smuggling case here got down to brass tacks yesterday. Page 2

3. ALOR SETAR: Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad said the government will introduce a law to charge the operators of entertainment centres if drugs, including the hallucinatory Ecstasy pills, are found in their premises. Page 2

4. KOTA KINABALU: Motorists owing parking fees here from as way back as July 1989 can now pay up without fear of being penalised heavily. Page 3
Bernama