

SARAWAK NEWSPAPER HIGHLIGHTS: MONDAY, MAY 5
05 MAY 1997

SARAWAK TRIBUNE:

1. KUCHING: State Secretary Datuk Amar Haji Hamid Bugo said government servants should not be construed as being involved in politics when they are seen accompanying ministers to official functions. Page 1

2. LANGKAWI: The National Unity Department will organise a series of courses for 1,085 kindergarten teachers nationwide to improve their professionalism in pre-school education. Page 2

3. GABORONE (BOTSWANA): Botswana, a southern African nation, that is emerging as a potential market for investors is keen to form joint-ventures with Malaysian companies in the construction industry, Malaysian Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad said. Page 3

4. BINTULU: Assistant Minister of Finance and Public Utilities, Encik William Mawan Ikom said that the Kemena by-election on May 24-25 would be a test case for Barisan Nasional (BN) solidarity. Page 7

BORNEO POST:

1. KUCHING: It was a lucky day for pilot Captain Mohd Rozie Hashim, 31, and two others who managed to land their Caribou DH4 aircraft safely at the Kuching International Airport here this afternoon after it got into trouble in the air. Page 1

2. KOTA BAHARU: Kelantan Menteri Besar Datuk Nik Abdul Aziz Nik Mat said today PAS and Umno do not need any mediator for them to strengthen ties for the benefit of Muslims in Malaysia. Page 2

3. SIBU: A hotel caretaker was found murdered at the hotel premises at Jalan Cross here early this morning. Page 3

4. GABORONE (BOTSWANA): Botswana, a southern African nation, that is emerging as a potential market for investors is keen to form joint ventures with Malaysian companies in the construction industry, Malaysian Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad said. Page 5

PEOPLE'S MIRROR

1. KUCHING: Nocturnal entertainment outlets or, to put it simply, night clubs, should know where the line is drawn and that is when the shorthand is on one and the long hand is on twelve. Page 1

2. KUCHING: When Capt Rozie Hashim, 31, took to the air in a Caribou DH4, with co-pilot Lieut Said Arab, 27, and Air Quartermaster, Sgt Ismail 29, on a flight test yesterday morning, they did not have the slightest inkling of what excitement they would cause. Page 2

3. BINTULU: Logging in Sarawak has seen a new high-tech method of aerial harvesting. Page 7

4. GABORONE: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad has said he has no plans yet to reshuffle his Cabinet but will appoint a new minister to replace Datuk Abu Hassan Omar who has been appointed Selangor Menteri Besar. Page 12

UTUSAN SARAWAK:

1. KUCHING: The Sarawak Government will amend several rules and regulations under the Public Service Department which are enforced in the

State, says State Secretary Datuk Amar Haji Hamid Bugo. page 1

2. GABORONE (Botswana): Botswana, an African nation, that is emerging as a potential market for investors, is keen to form joint-ventures with Malaysian companies in the construction industry, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr. Mahathir Mohamed says. Page 2

3. KUCHING: The price of chicken has not gone down despite the directive issued by the enforcement unit of the Domestic Trade and Consumer Affair Ministry recently. Page 5

4. TAIPING: Malaysia has recruited 420 foreign doctors to fill the vacancies at government hospitals for the first quarter of this year, says Parliamentary Secretary of the Health Ministry, Datuk M. Mahalingam. Page 7

Bernamea

05/05/97 11-22MST

bns